MGOT/1074/PS

MGOT H.Q., Sicily.

7 September 1943.

TO : S.C.A.O.

Following the report of the Inspecting Officers of this H.Q., it is felt that beyond the possible organisation of a simple Air Raid warning system (Church Bells or whistles) no further action is necessary at present.

G. H. Jones
Colonel Inf.
COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC SAFETY.

AMCOT/1074/13

AMCOT H.Q., Sicily.

6 September 1941.

TO : S.C.A.G. RAGUSA.

The enclosed report from the inspecting officer of this H.Q., indicates that the problems of Civil Defence in this Commune are simple.

It might be considered advisable to organise some simple system of Air Raid warning such as Church Bells or whistles in case of emergency.

G. H. M. M.
for Colonel Inf.
Commissioner of Public Safety.

CIVIL DEFENSE.

None existing - the town has never been bombed in fact, due to its location, it is extremely difficult to see from the air. The possibility of an Air Raid is very remote.
