VILLA BIANCA
FRATTE DI SALERNO

TO A.C. H.Q.s. - Rome.

I beg to forward an application in order to obtain for myself and for my wife a regular pass card for Florence with extension to S. Miniato (Pisa): availability 7 days.

This authorisation is required in order to pay a visit to our estate of SAN QUINTINO which is three miles south of the town of San Miniato, this visit being urgently wanted by both our local agent in San Quintino, Mr. Paolo Guazzini and by our chief agent Mr. Mario Bonechi (via Podesta 81, Galluzzo, Florence). Obviously there are plenty of ⁵⁵⁰ matters to be discussed and checked on the spot including chiefly war damages etc; our last visit there is dated March 1943.-

I am the president of the Industrial association of Salerno province and I dare say I am in friendly contact with the 94th Sub area commander, col.

Mould Graham, with the Salerno Town Major Major S. Hewitt and with capt. R. Morris of the U.S.N. (now in Alger, I believe).

Since October 1943 I was appointed commissario for the industry
by Lt. Col. Robertson S.P.A.O. of Salerno province. -

Count A.T. Tibaldi M.C.
