TO : Political Section.

1. Subject submitted an application for an MTA to the Italian Foreign Office. The application was later passed by Political Section (Mr. Caccia) to this Sub-Commission for onward transmission to AFHQ. Political Section advised that there were strong "political reasons" why the application should be approved.

2. AFHQ now advise that :-

"Subject, as an Italian wishing to go to Addis Ababa to pursue a private practice, is not entitled under existing regulations, to leave Italy, and only exceptional Political reasons could be considered as justifying any departure from the normal practice of issuing Military Travel Authorizations.

Until, therefore, this office is satisfied that such Political reasons do in fact influence the case it is regretted that an M.T. . for subject cannot be granted."

1. At the request of E.M. Consul, Naples, who is anxious to repatriate them as soon as possible, application forms for M.T.A's have been completed in respect of the above-named British subjects and are enclosed herewith.

2. In a letter supporting these applications, E.M. Consul, states he sees no reason why applicant's passports should not be made valid for the journey to England and that he proposes to do so before they embark.

1. Reference your G/PlE27/BR dated 2 Nov and previous correspondence.

2. Application forms for MTA have not been received from AC. It is essential that these should, in all cases, be completed before Security interrogation, for two reasons:

- i) So that the applicant commits himself as to the nationality he claims, his movements during the war period, the reason for his intended journey, etc. as a basis for interrogation, and
- ii) So that a record is established at this office. It is in some ways more valuable to have testified biographical information on file about individuals refused MTA's, than about those granted.

3. The point raised in para 3 of your letter dated 23 Oct is appreciated, and EL DJERBI's case will be decided with due regard to it, when the MTA forms come to hand.
