SUBJECT : Intelligence Questionnaire

TO : Acting Secretary, Allied Intelligence Committee

1. With reference to your letter dated 15 November, 1943, with questionnaire from M.G.S., A.F.H.Q. As the reports referred to are not available for close study, no comment or criticism is offered. Regarding the Basic Handbook, the material pertaining to Public Safety is too sketchy to be of great value to this Sub-Commission.

SUBJECT: Questionnaire on Supply of Intelligence.

1. Certain questions have arisen on the supply of intelligence, and answers to the under mentioned questionnaire are requested by return. The matter is urgent from a future planning point on view. The object is to ascertain our requirements so that they can be met to the fullest extent possible.

2. Questionnaire:-

ISTD & NEW Zone Handbooks (PHE issue) & Basic Handbooks (i) Do ISIS/Reports/~~and~~ ~~ISIS~~ give too little or too much information? In particular it would be useful to know which subjects are regarded as being the most important e.g. if the information on food supplies is of little interest but details of flour mills are of special value, more attention could be devoted to the latter.

(ii) What are the criticisms of the material provided in the past?

(iii) Have recent operations shown up any further deficiencies in basic intelligence on resources?

(iv) Comments are requested on:-

(a) ISIS Reports Parts I History, Geography, Medical II Resources III Communications IV Photographs V Ports and Towns VI Coast Defences VII Aviation VIII Photographs - Coast Ports and Inland Towns.

(b) Zone Hand Books Parts I People and Administration II Economic Conditions III Local Directory and Personalities.

(c) ISTD Reports

(d) Italian Basic Hand book.

(e) Having regard to the fact that it has rarely been possible to give any information regarding capacities and details of plant under ISIS "maintenance industries" is it of any value to give a list of the known factories, milk etc.?

(f) ISTD are now only able to prepare short-term reports, frequently amplified by NEW reports on resources in the
