30-June-1945.

Dear Fred:

1. This acknowledges your personal note of 7th of June 1945, received by me from the hand of Brigadier of the CC.RR. on 12th of June with the attached report (in Italian language) to Colonel Chapman, which I return to you herewith. Also attached herewith is a copy of our translation of the afore-mentioned report.
2. Investigation has been conducted concerning the disappearance of Mr. Weber and others mentioned, but with negative results as yet. I personally inquired of S.I.B., 45 Flight, R.A.F. Security Police, who were operating here on the date mentioned (and until now), and none of the persons named are listed in their records as having been picked up or interrogated.
3. The PPSO, Bologna Province, and the local police agencies are alert to the facts in this and many similar cases and are doing everything possible toward their solution.
4. While it is yet too early to make a definite promise, it is hoped that an intensive investigation now in progress, of certain suspects of murder and terrorism, now in custody, and others to be immediately apprehended, will lead to solution of this and similar cases.
5. ~~Such hope this finds you well, Fred, and that all is going fine with you. If you happen to get up this way, be sure to drop in and "cheer the rag" with us.~~

~~Best wishes to you always.~~

La sera del 17 maggio 1943, alle ore 20,30, si presentarono alla Pensione Balboni-Vinelli, Via Artieri 2, in Bologna tre "partigiani" armati che chiesero del Signor Edoardo Weber e lo invitarono a seguirli dovendo subire un breve interrogatorio. Poiché questi stava pranzando, lo consigliarono di terminare il pasto dato che non v'era urgenza alcuna.

Alla richiesta del Sig. Weber, se i tre fossero muniti di ordine scritto e di documenti di riconoscimento, risposero che non avevano né gli uni, né l'altro e lo pregarono di non sollevare difficoltà dato che si trattava di cosa molto semplice e di breve durata.

Il Weber, figlio di padre svizzero, risiede in Bologna da oltre 40 anni ove possiede un grande e moderno stabilimento per la fabbricazione di carburatori.

Egli, che è persona notissima oltre che in Bologna in tutta l'Italia, che nulla ha da rimproverarsi come italiano e come patriota; che è stato sempre di sentimenti ostili al fascismo ed ai tedeschi, dichiarò ai tre "partigiani" che li avrebbe senz'altro seguiti per dimostrare che aveva la coscienza assolutamente tranquilla.

Prima di uscire entrò nella camera in cui si trovava la moglie - signora Anna Weber - in letto perché ammalata e la informò della cosa. La signora si alzò, lo implorò di non seguirli e cercò di convincerlo che la cosa poteva nascondere un inganno e quando vide che il marito non ascoltava i suoi prudenti consigli, si affacciò alla finestra per vederlo partire. Lo vide salire su un camion alleato che, dalle caratteristiche, reputò essere un tipo 1500 inglese; era chiuso da una capote ed aveva la ruota di scorta dietro le spalle del conducente.

La signora Weber seppe poi che il camion si era presentato per cercare il marito al suo stabilimento - Fabbrica Italiana carburatori Weber - in via del Timavo 33 (fuori Porta San Felice); da qui era stato indirizzato nella vicina Via Col di Luna 11 dove abita il cognato sig. Molelli il quale aveva asserito di non conoscere l'indirizzo del Weber ma, minacciato dai tre "per tigiuni" aveva infine dovuto fornire l'esatto recapito.

Il prelevamento del Signor Weber avvenne alle ore 20,50 circa.

Da quel momento non si è avuta più alcuna notizia di lui.

Nelle prime ore del mattino successivo - 18 maggio - la Signora Weber - benché sofferente - si recò dal Prefetto Ing. Borghese, che conosceva perfettamente il sig. Weber per essere stato l'impresario dello "Stabilimento Carburatori Weber" in qualità di Ingegnere costruttore, e lo implorò di far eseguire le opportune ricerche.

Si recò poi dal Questore Trauzzi, cui fece dettagliata denuncia dell'accaduto scongiurandolo di dare disposizioni per il rintraccio del marito.

Altri parenti, nonché numerosi amici, informati del fatto, si rivolsero ad altre autorità affinché fossero subito iniziate le ricerche.

Il cognato della Signora Weber andò al Comando Alleato a sporgere denuncia e fu invitato a fornire precisi elementi per la identificazione degli individui e della macchina.

Del resto la signora Weber il giorno 4 corrente deve aver consegnato una denuncia scritta al Comando Alleato, poiché ha capito che le Autorità italiane non possono o non vogliono fare

Del resto la signora Weber il giorno 4 corrente ⁶⁷⁸⁰ ~~deve aver~~ consegnato una denuncia scritta al Comando Alleato, poiché ha capito che le autorità italiane non possono o non vogliono fare nulla per agevolare le ricerche.

Essa, infatti, è stata più volte consigliata - dalle stesse Autorità - a non fare eccessive pressioni; a non sollecitare troppo, perché - le hanno detto - potrebbe fare più male che bene.

Qualcuno, anzi, le ha detto che era inutile rivolgersi al Comando Militare Alleato perché "quelli non si occupano di certe cose".

E' voce diffusa in Bologna che è prudente non occuparsi della questione; che i parenti ed i conoscenti che ^{si} interessano saro delle ricerche correrebbero gravi rischi per la loro vita, ed un senso di terrore si è diffuso tra la popolazione che non sa rendersi conto della sopraffazione commessa a danno di un uomo onesto, intemerato, cui nulla può rimproverarsi, come è il Weber.

Di conseguenza, molti conoscenti del Weber, che in un primo tempo si erano dati da fare per ricercarlo, non solo hanno interrotto ogni attività in questo senso, ma evitano persino di avvicinarsi alla casa del Weber stesso.

ma il "fatto Weber" non è isolato.

Qualche giorno prima un gruppo di "partigiani" armati si erano presentati in Via D'Azeglio dove ha sede la nota ditta Martelli - esportatrice di frutta e ortaggi - chiedendo del titolare. Poiché il Signor Martelli era assente si ebbe modo di avvertirlo dell'accaduto. Poté così mettersi in salvo e da allora vive nascosto.

Il Signor Weber, che era stato avvertito della cosa, e consigliato - quale noto industriale - a prendere precauzioni, non ritenne di doversi preoccupare per la sua persona perché - diceva - nulla aveva da rimproverarsi ed aveva la coscienza perfettamente tranquilla. Non vedeva motivo che si dovessero occupare di lui.

Nello medesima giornata del 17 maggio, quasi certamente dagli stessi individui e con lo stesso camion inglese, vennero sollevati:

alle ore 13 - il Signor Minelli, Via Frasulago 21; chauffeur;

In seguito furono prelevate altre persone di cui non si conosce il nome.

Ad eccezione del Minelli - che era stato catturato prima - gli altri tre erano sullo stesso camion insieme al signor Weber.

Sono stati catturati almeno altri cinque Ufficiali Superiori ed un numero imprecisato di persone che la voce pubblica assicura raggiungere alcune centinaia.

Il fratello di uno degli Ufficiali catturati (la signora Weber potrà precisarne il nome) che aveva assistito al prelevamento, fissò a lungo i tre "partigiani" che poi riconobbe - se non erro - al Comando Partigiano di Bologna. Fece le sue proteste e dichiarò che si sarebbe rivolto alle Autorità: le sue parole furono accolte con scherno e, pare, che sia stato consigliato - poi - di tacere, se non "voleva più gravi conseguenze". E' mia opinione che se questi fosse interrogato non oserebbe confermare quanto ebbe a dire in un primo tempo circa il riconoscimento dei tre, perché si trova sotto l'incubo del terrore.

La città vive sotto il timore che si estenda questi rapimenti: tutti sono presi dalla paura e non osano compiere alcun passo nelle ricerche e nelle denunce e questa situazione renderà facili nuovi rapimenti, perché quelli che li effettuano sono certi della impunità.

E' convinzione generale che si tratti di una organizzazione terroristica creata a fini politici.

La popolazione di Bologna non si sente protetta perché ha constatato che la Polizia Militare Alleata non esiste quasi affatto in quella città: infatti a Bologna si vedono soltanto 700 agenti della M.P. che fanno servizio agli incroci principali.

Recatomi a Bologna con il fratello del Sig. Weber, ho cercato di compiere delle indagini e, nell'interesse della Signora Weber, mentre ho qui esposto per sommi capi i fatti principali, prego le Autorità Alleate di voler intervenire nelle ricerche Roma; 6 Giugno, 1945.

On the evening of the 17th May, at about 2030 hours, 3 armed partisans entered the boarding-house "Balconi-Viaggi" in Via Artieri 2 in Bologna, inviting Mr. Weber to follow them for a short interrogation. As he was dining, they told him to finish his dinner, because there was no urgency. As he asked them to show him their identity-cards or some orders, they answered, to avoid complications, that they had no documents, as it was only a question of a very short interrogation.

Weber was the son of a Swiss father and lived in Bologna for more than 40 years, and was the owner of a very big and modern establishment for manufacture of carburetors. He is a very well-known man, not only in Bologna, but throughout Italy. He was a good Italian and a good Patriot too, and has always been an enemy of the Fascists and the Germans. As his conscience was clear, he said to them that he would certainly follow them, only to show them he feared nothing.

Before going away, he entered the bedroom of his wife who was ill in bed, and informed her of what was happening. The lady begged him to remain there because she feared deceit, but he did not follow her advice, and went away with them. As she looked through the window to see her husband again, she could notice that it was a British truck, type 1500, with closed hood, and that it had a spare wheel behind the driver. Signora Weber discovered later that the same truck had been to their establishment previously, in Via Tiziano 33 (which is out of porta San Felice) from where they had been sent to Weber's brother-in-law, Bolelli, who at first told them that he did not know where Weber was living, but being threatened by the three partisans, he had to tell them the correct address. Weber was taken away from his home at about 20:30 hours.

We have no more news of him. Early the second day - 20th May - Signora Weber, although ill, went to the Prefect, Ing. Zorghese, who knew Mr. Weber very well, having been his construction engineer, and besought him to help her to find her husband. She went to the Questore, Trauzzi, to whom she explained the facts, begging him also to do anything he could to find her husband. Other relatives of her, and many friends, as soon as they knew what had happened, hurried to the authorities to help in the investigation. The brother-in-law of Signora Weber went to the Allied Military Police to denounce the fact, because he understood that the Italian authorities could not and would not do anything to facilitate the inquiries. In fact, she has been advised by the same authorities to keep calm and not to insist on too much, because, they told her, she would do no good to help in the inquiries. Signora Weber discovered later that the same truck had been to their establishment previously, in Via Cimavice 33 (which is out of porta San Felice) from where they had been sent to Weber's brother-in-law, Bolelli, who at first told them that he did not know where Weber was living, but being threatened by the three partisans, he had to tell them the correct address. Weber was taken away from his home at about 20:30 hours.

We have no more news of him. Early the second day - 28th May - Signora Weber, although ill, went to the Prefect, Ing. Borghese, who knew Mr. Weber very well, having been his construction engineer, and besought him to help her to find her husband. She went to the Questore, Trauzzi, to whom she explained the facts, begging him also to do anything he could to find her husband. In fact, she has been advised by the same authorities to keep calm and not to insist on too much, because, they told her, she would do no good to help in the inquiries. Someone told her, too, that it was useless to address her complaint to the Allied Command "because they don't care about certain things".

There are rumors in Bologna that it is prudent to leave well alone, questions of this nature, that the relatives and friends who are concerning themselves with these inquiries run the risk of losing their lives, and a reign of terror exists in Bologna, and the population cannot understand why such a terrible thing could have happened to a gentleman whose honesty and fair dealing was known to everyone. Owing to this fact, many relatives of Weber who at first took a great interest in assisting in inquiries, not only take no further interest, but avoid the home of Weber. But we have not only the Weber "case".

Some days ago, a group of "partisans" armed with guns entered the shop, "Martelli" in Via D'Azeglio, fruit and vegetable exporter, asking for the whereabouts of the owner of the shop. Martinelli was absent because he had been advised in time to take shelter, since which time, he remains hidden.

Signor Weber had also been advised, as he was a well-known industrialist, to take precautions, but he said that he had nothing to fear and that his conscience was clear, and that is why he could not see any necessity to escape. On the same day, that is the 17th instant, and certainly by the same persons and with the same British truck, the following persons were taken away from their homes:

At 1300 hours, - Sig. Minelli, living at Prassinigo, 4.

At 2115 hours, - Sig. Natale, living at Via Mattei, 14.

At 2200 hours, - The Commissary Passerelli, living at Via Breventano.

At 2245 hours, The owner of the Cinema, "Olympia", in Via Duca D'Aosta 69.

Afterwards, many other persons were carried away, whose names are not known until to-day. With the exception of Minelli, who was captured soon before, all the others were on the same truck with Weber. There have been captured at least another five superior officers, and unknown numbers of civilians that the public say amount to some hundred persons. The brother of one of the captured officers (the lady would later tell you the name if you need it) who assisted in the capture and could see the three partisans whom he recognized, - if I am not mistaken, - at the Command of the local partisans. As he tried to protest against the capture of his brother and said he would denounce the fact to the authorities, they jeered him and advised him to keep silent, if he did not want to have serious consequences. I am sure if you tried now to interrogate him, he would not confirm what he once said about his recognition of the three partisans, because he is now under the influence of terror. The city is living at present in fear that all those kidnappings will increase, and they do not dare any more to make denunciations, and the terrible situation is becoming worse every day, because the criminals know that nothing can happen to them. It is a general conviction that it is the question of a terroristic organization of political aims. The population of Bologna feels unprotected because they believe that the Allied Police exist only by name and not by fact, and that only a few M.P.s are in service in one important corner of the city. They know very well that they cannot trust the Italian Police, and less the Carabinieri, and that it is ~~impossible~~ probable that the terroristic organization will take advantage of the weak situation and increase their criminal activities. Arriving in Bologna with the brother-in-law of Weber, I tried to make any inquiries I could in the interest of assisting Sig. Weber, and while I relate here, all the more important facts, I beg the Allied Authorities to do anything it is possible to curb the criminal activities of those people and that the trust of the population in the Justice and Power of the Allies could remain.

Signed: Cap. Dott. Ing. Marino Muricchio,

Afterwards, many other persons were carried away, all one names are not known until to-day. With the exception of Minelli, who was captured soon before, all the others were on the same truck with Weber. There have been captured at least another five superior officers, and unknown numbers of civilians that the public say amount to some hundred persons. The brother of one of the captured officers (the lady would later tell you the name if you need it) who assisted in the capture and could see the three partisans whom he recognized, - if I am not mistaken, - at the Command of the local partisans. As he tried to protest against the capture of his brother and said he would denounce the fact to the authorities, they jeered him and advised him to keep silent, if he did not want to have serious consequences. I am sure if you tried now to interrogate him, he would not confirm what he once said about his recognition of the three partisans, because he is now under the influence of terror. The city is living at present in fear that all those kidnappings will increase, and they do not dare any more to make denunciations, and the terrible situation is becoming worse every day, because the criminals know that nothing can happen to them. It is a general conviction that it is the question of a terroristic organization of political aims. Thank you for your letter of 19 June 1945.

First enquiries regarding this man have not revealed any information which we can usefully pass on to you. It would be very helpful to us in making our enquiries if you could inform us of by whom Sig. Di Cristofaro Eusebio was arrested. That is to say, details of the actual number of the unit.

I feel sure, also, that he must have some sort of idea as to the charges which might have been formed against him, were they, for instance, charges for transgressing against Allied Military Government Proclamations or Orders, or was he arrested on security grounds by the Security Police.

As in any case enquiries will take some considerable time it may be of assistance to you if I point out that as no charge appears to have been brought against Sig. Di Cristofaro Eusebio he is entitled to be regarded as innocent of any transgression against Allied Military Government Orders.

Il partigiano Di Cristofaro Eusanio, veniva arrestato in Teramo il 1° Febbraio 1945, ad opera della polizia alleata e rimesso in libertà il 10 Aprile successivo senza che gli sia stato restituito il tesserino di patriota rilasciato dalla 38 Brigata d'assalto Garibaldi n. 499 al nome di battaglia "Tigrino".

Il Di Cristofaro non conosce il motivo del suo arresto ma gli interessa saperlo perchè la U.E.S.F.A. MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT TO AC MANUAL ON MATERIALS

No. 3

JUNE 1945

CONCLUSION

This pamphlet is the third of a series to be issued by the Materials Division of Commerce Subcommission, HQ Allied Commission, and is for inclusion, as information, in the space provided at the end of the AC Manual on Materials. This information consists of notes of general interest and guidance on the current situation as regards controlled non-subsistence materials, together with any relevant facts concerning non-controlled materials.

Comments and suggestions from the Regions, for inclusion in future issues of the Monthly Supplement will be welcomed, and should be addressed to Materials Division, Commerce Subcommittee, HQ Allied Commission.

Content: See Appendix A attached.

De-controlling of Materials. As a result of recommendations made by the Engineer-in-Materials Committee of AFIR(I)B and subsequent ratification by the Board, all but five articles have been removed from the list of materials controlled by the Engineering Materials Committee. Certain of the materials de-controlled by AFIR(I)B have been transferred to the control of the Italian Ministry of Industry and Commerce. In order to simplify the present position regarding controlled materials, a revised edition of the whole of Section III in the Manual on Materials is attached as Appendix B for inclusion in your copy of the Manual.

Your attention is again drawn to the increasing importance of the information contained in Section X of the Manual on Materials. It will be appreciated that, with the anticipated rapid turnover of Northern territory in Italy to the Italian Government, it is imperative that adequate machinery be set up as soon as possible in order that the Government can assume proper control over the economic life which will shortly be coming under its jurisdiction. This is particularly important in the light of the revised list of materials which are to be controlled by the Italian Ministry through the Provincial Offices of Industry and Commerce. Responsible authorities are, therefore, urged to take the necessary action against the day when the responsibility of control, now largely operated by AMG, falls upon the shoulders of the Italian Government.

SUBJECT: Current Italian Wheat Crop Estimate

TO : Chief Commissioner

1. Transmitted herewith is a copy of a report on the current Italian wheat crop, together with information contained in a signal which was forwarded to AFHQ. C-5 Section, for onward transmission to London and Washington in reply to their inquiry in that regard.

2. The report indicates that the production of wheat is expected to be approximately 2 million tons less than last year, due to widespread drought conditions which have, in turn, accentuated the fertilizer deficiency. While the exact extent of the reduction will be more accurately defined at threshing time, it is evident that the maintenance of an adequate diet will be considerably more difficult than during the past season.

3. The damage to the wheat crop is such as to introduce economic problems of considerable importance. The loss of 2 million tons of grain reduces the food supply, and at the same time reduces the financial resources of the nation by approximately 220 million dollars. Thus, the income of the 47% of the people in Italy dependent upon agriculture is reduced to a point where agriculture can no longer be expected to absorb labor surpluses, and even the problem of disposal of refugees may become difficult. Furthermore, the matter is of increased importance from the standpoint of public safety and public health, for food shortages may be expected in rural areas where subsistence farms have not produced enough for the needs of their owners. Illegal disposition of grain and actual food shortages may be expected to occur over a much greater area.

4. The estimate of the available wheat supply cannot be finalized until the crop has been threshed, for actual threshing records are necessary to establish the exact extent of the reduction. The attention of the Ministry of Agriculture, and of the Agricultural Officers in the field, is currently being directed to the great importance of accuracy in this regard. However, since broader economic and administrative problems can be anticipated, it is recommended that the matter be brought to the attention of Civil Affairs Section and the Regional Commissioners for such action as may be appropriate.

5. Likewise, it is recommended that the matter be presented to the Prime Minister as a problem warranting the special attention of the Council of Ministers, who must necessarily give more than ordinary support to the special programs that the Ministries of Agriculture and Food will be developing. Also, the interested Ministries should be in a position to take action appropriate to the problems which may be expected in finance, labor, public health, etc.

1945 ITALIAN WHEAT CROP ESTIMATE
15 June 1945

This report is based upon data supplied by the Ministry of Agriculture field organization, acting in AMG territory under the supervision of the AMG Regional Agricultural Officers, and supplemented by observations made by Allied survey parties in Central and Southern Italy and Sicily during the first ten days of June 1945. The crop was estimated at 4,427,000 metric tons, as compared with 6,390,661 metric tons last season, and a ten-year average of 7,103,000 metric tons. The acreage planted to wheat was estimated at 10,783,799 acres, compared with 11,769,770 planted last year, and a ten-year average of 12,572,300 acres.

The wheat crop was at that time in various stages of maturity and harvest. In a very few areas threshers and combines were operating. It was observed that the grain threshed was often a little smaller in size than under normal crop conditions. Over half of the crop was yet to be cut, and in the mountainous regions the majority of the wheat was still immature. The variety Prossineto, which is very important in Marche, Abruzzi and Molise, and of less importance in Puglia and Lucania, was still green and in the stage of filling. In general, the crop was said to be about 15 days late in maturity this year. Factors contributing to this lateness are (1) lack of spring rains which retarded growth, (2) late seeding of the crop in some areas, and (3) lack of phosphate fertilizer which always hastens maturity.

Drought

One factor estimated to be responsible for at least 70% of the 1945 wheat crop reduction has been the lack of moisture. The lack of moisture was most apparent in areas where the soil is rocky and shallow, including southern mountainous areas and rather large areas of the flat plains in Southern Puglia, but was also evident in fields where wheat is grown among trees. Therefore, the greatest reduction, from drought damage, is in the areas of marginal type wheat production land. Drought conditions were so serious in some of the hardest hit areas that farmers chose to pasture their wheat, and in other fields it is doubtful if the producers will get their seed back. The mainland provinces most seriously affected by the drought were Lecce, Brindisi, Bari, Taranto and Cosenza.

The small marginal farms, generally speaking, suffered more from drought than did the large wheat surplus-producing farms. On irrigated or valley land, which is rich and absorbs and holds moisture, and land which was summer fallowed last season, a normal production was expected. Estimates of from 20 to 30 quintals per hectare were very common on these good lands. The notable exception is the Foggia area, where the large farms are very badly damaged.

Fertilizer Deficiency

Shortage of fertilizer is estimated to have caused up to 18% of the total crop reduction. The shortage of fertilizer during the past several years materially reduced seeding in some areas because of the accumulated infertile. Other lands which had adequate moisture would have made larger yields had fertilizer been present to hasten maturity and increase yield. Phosphate fertilizer tends to hasten maturity and produce plumper kernels. Anything which would have hastened the maturity of this year's crop would have minimized drought damage. The shortage of phosphate fertilizer was a greater factor in reduced yields than nitrate, for nitrate, tending to increase plant growth and stimulate stooling, was of little value under this year's drought conditions. However, the lack of nitrate was a contributing factor in the reduction in acreage planted.

Other Adverse Factors

Late seeding, frosts, flooding and hot winds are further causes in the reduction of this year's wheat crop. In some areas of Piemonte and Abruzzi, frost damage was reported in the early part of May. The crop, late planted because of deficiencies in draft power, equipment, bad weather, etc., failed to stool as heavily as an early seeded crop, and is maturing later in the season, and irregularly. The prevalence of hot winds, severe in the extreme southeastern portion but extending up through the southern provinces, has also increased premature ripening of grain. In addition, certain areas in Emilia and Lazio were planted late or remained unplanted due to flooding of damaged land reclamation areas.

Crop Reporting System - Validity of Data

In the initial consideration of these data, three factors have indicated the necessity for further action in order to accurately define the

In addition, certain areas in Emilia and Lazio were planted late or remained unplanted due to flooding of damaged land reclamation areas.

Crop Reporting System - Validity of Data

In the initial consideration of these data, three factors have indicated the necessity for further action in order to accurately define the present crop reduction. The final yield per acre, the weather through 1 July, and the accuracy of the reporting organizations are phases which warrant further consideration in view of the gravity of the situation. The drought has affected such a large area that the estimated yield per acre has been revised downward everywhere. It is customary in Italy to finalize such estimates during the threshing operations when quantitative figures are available, and these data are essential to a realistic yield estimate this season because of the importance of small differences which applied to the large areas involved.

As has been indicated, the grain crop is maturing irregularly and late. Particularly in mountainous areas and in northern areas, there is a sufficient portion of the crop as yet not "filled" to materially affect the total crop, if the month of June proves to be exceptionally favorable or unfavorable.

The third factor - that of the crop reporting organization - is relevant mainly because the shortage of transportation and communication now at the disposal of the Italian officials prevents their making the usual detailed observations necessary to accurately establish the yield per acre during the critical weeks before harvest. In addition, the organization is handicapped by the loss of a certain proportion of its key members, relocation of others, etc., all of which makes the crop estimates less firm. Finally, the probability of a certain amount of pessimism in crop reporting, even by trained technicians, cannot be disregarded. The importance attributed to the production of wheat in Italy, and the seriousness of a shortage, are factors with which these crop estimators are all too familiar.

Resultant Action

In view of the reliance necessarily to be placed on the threshing and yield per acre, such data will be obtained in the fullest possible detail, throughout the threshing period. All practicable verification of the data will be accomplished, by comparison with historical records and supplemental field investigation.

Acreage reduction since last season 8% due largely to retirement from production of mountainous marginal and inter-planted grove areas and accumulated fertilizer shortage, but also reduced by flooding in Po Valley areas and general shortage of farming equipment.

Estimated yield sharply reduced due to reduced yield per acre because of widespread drought conditions prevailing which are reported worst since 1922, largely without relief since March, aggravated by fertilizer deficiencies which delayed maturing.

Estimated total amassable wheat is reduced by drought conditions in important producing areas, such as Foggia, but damage to high-producing plains areas is generally less than that to small holdings especially in mountainous areas, hence the amassable total is affected only in part with proportionately greater reduction to the amount available to small farmers who normally contribute little or nothing to the amassable.

The above information was forwarded to AFHQ, G-5 Section, in signal 274 of 21 June 1945, for onward transmission to TROOPS and AGWAR in reply to their MAT 100 of 2 June.

MEMORANDUM :

TO : Headquarters Commandant.

We, the undersigned officers billeted at the Pensione Bella Vista, desire to bring to your attention a situation which has been disturbing our sleep for the past two months:

Sometime between 2330 hours and 2355 hours every night, a group of Italian civilian minors pass the billet, singing very loudly with distinctively unmelodious voices and carrying on conversation between widely scattered members of the group. This practice consistently interrupts our much needed rest and strong official action to terminate this annoyance would be appreciated by all the undersigned.

Practically all of the offenders can be arrested, tried and sentenced by the Italian Courts for most of the following offences:

- (a) Circulating after the 8 o'clock curfew for minors;
- (b) Being on the streets without their identity papers;
- (c) Illegal sale of alcoholic beverages;
- (d) Suspicion of prostitution or pandering.

Date : 20th June 45

No : 15/55

On 8th June 1945, at 16.00hrs.owing to British antiair-draft shells from Campo S.Severa, a fire suddenly spread out at Monte Lungo locality, territory of S.Marinella and Tolfa(Rome).

Flames fed by the wind at once took large development so that any attempt by farmers and CC.RR. who immediately ran over, to limit it and to stop the damage gave no results.

Fire went out for natural exhaustion of burning material after causing a non-insured damage of L 600.000 to Saint Spirit Poor-House, for 15 hectares of coppice and 60 hectares of meadows were burnt.

Dear Colonel,

I introduce the bearer of this letter Sig. Gaspare Vecchio, director of the administration of Aquacetosa - the fellow whom I spoke to you about, few days ago. I think you have seen him once at the Baroness's.

He has parents in Stradella (Province of Pavia) whom had everything damaged by the partisans, and the requested everything to them.

Also his brother Major of the army was arrested without any reason, as he informed me that it is vengeance against his brother. He can explain you every thing.

Please if you can give him any help, you will do him a great favor.

I thank you in anticipation.
My best wishes also to Col. Loherty.

Yours faithfully,
Father Albert Perreault

I am very sorry to disturb you always.

PROMEMORIA

La mia famiglia abita a Stradella (Provincia Pavia) Via Marconi, 1 -3

E' così composta:

Luigina Vecchio Meraldi di anni 78 - mia madre
Rosa, Angelica, Giovanni, Maria, Celestina e Giuseppe VECCHIO, tutti miei fratelli. Ai primi di Maggio u.s. furono tutti arrestati, tranne mia madre, ed in seguito rilasciati, ad eccezione di Giovanni, ex maggiore dell'esercito, che trovai tuttora in carcere a Pavia.
Essi sono proprietari e gestiscono un'industria tipografica con negozi di cartoleria e vendita di giornali e un'azienda agricola alla periferia di Stradella.

Contemporaneamente al loro arresto, eseguito dai partigiani del Comitato di Liberazione locale, venne loro, sempre dagli stessi, confiscata l'automobile, il bestiame, bloccati i conti in Banca, confiscate tutte le loro attività industriali, commerciali ed agricole.
Nessuno dei miei fratelli ha mai avuto cariche politiche, sono modesti e tenaci lavoratori, tutti dediti alla loro azienda.
Nemmeno Giovanni non si è mai interessato di politica, è stato per 18 anni a San Paolo (Brasile) dove aveva un'azienda commerciale; ritornato in Italia nel 1939 fu poi richiamato quale maggiore dell'esercito.

Si tratta di vere ingiustizie promosse da correnti arbitrarie che sfogano così i loro motivi di invidia o rancori persona-li.
