SUBJECT: Visit of Polish Delegation to TRIESTE and MONFALCONE
 TO : ALLIED FORCE HEADQUARTERS. Attention: G-2 Section.

1. Referring to the signals from this Commission Nos. 5016 and 5026 of 23 September 1946.
2. An application (copy enclosed) from the Polish Embassy for a Polish Delegation to visit the shipyards in TRIESTE and MONFALCONE in connection with a commercial treaty which was being negotiated with the Italian Government, was received by this Commission on 30 August 1946.
3. In accordance with normal procedure vide this Commission's letter GHI.389-506/40 dated 5 March 1946 (copy enclosed) to the Italian Government and to XIII Corps whereby all applications to enter Venezia Giulia are to be channelled through the local Questura to AMG Venezia Giulia Police Force, the application was forwarded to the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs for transmission through the Ministry of Interior (Questura) to Venezia Giulia for decision.
4. This procedure, the passing of applications for entry into Venezia Giulia through Questura channels, was put into operation after AFHQ and XIII Corps had been consulted by Major H.S. Simonds, G-2, AFHQ (attached to Travel Control Division, AC) and had agreed to it.
5. Although the agreed procedure was followed in this case, I consider that perhaps it should not apply to delegations of foreign powers, and if you concur I propose that in future applications of this nature received by this Commission shall be submitted to your Hq for decision.
