BRITISH FORCES IN EGYPT PASS

Name	IMMUNITY — EGYPTIAN CRIMINAL AND CIVIL COURTS. 1. Under the provisions of the Convention dated 26th August 1936 to Article 9, Treaty of Alliance, Egypt, no member of the British Forces in Egypt shall be subject to the criminal jurisdiction of the Courts of Egypt, nor to the civil jurisdiction of those Courts in any matter arising out of his official duties. 2. The holder of this pass is a member of the British Forces, Middle East. 3. This Immunity from the jurisdiction of the Egyptian Courts does not, however, imply that offences may be committed with impunity against the Egyptian Laws or against the person or property of residents in the country, but merely that these offences will be dealt with by the appropriate British Courts which have been constituted for the purpose. 4. Should the holder of this pass receive a summons to appear before any Egyptian Court for any criminal offence he or she will formally inform the Court that immunity from the jurisdiction of the Court is claimed in accordance with Article 9 of the Treaty of Alliance. A criminal offence is one for which a penal award by way of imprisonment or fine can be made and includes contraventions of any sort. 5. Immediately the holder of this pass receives a summons to appear before any Egyptian Court he or she will report to Headquarters, B.T.E. or Headquarters, R.A.F., Middle East, through the usual channels, full particulars of the charge and the court to which summoned together with confirmation that action as in paragraph 4 above is being taken. 6. If the holder of this pass is used for damages or debt, in a Court of civil jurisdiction in Egypt, and such claim is concerned with a matter arising out of his or her Official duties he or she will at once report the case through the usual channels to Headquarters B.T.E. or Headquarters, R.A.F., Middle East.
