Public Safety Sub-Commission

4 June 1944

TO : General G. Pieche, Commanding General, Carabinieri Reali.

On this, the 130th anniversary of the Carabinieri Reali, I send you their Commanding General, the warm wishes of the Public Safety Sub-Commission and of all Public Safety Officers in the field for the future of your Service, which I am confident will be as glorious and as splendid as the traditions of your past history.

You can be assured that we in Public Safety will contribute whatever we can to assist you in your great task of the provision of law, order and justice in a new Italy which we hope will be soon fully established.
