CC. RR. GENERAL HQ.Rome 24th April 1945
n: 14/32Subject: Sassari-Students' demonstration.
To.....: Allied Commission Public Safety Subcommission.I transcribe the following cable received from the Sassari CC. RR. group (cable n: 427/2 dated 21th April):

"To-day, 21th April, at 10 hrs, in Sassari about one thousand students of university and middle schools, having crossed the most important streets of the town, singing patriotic hymns, stopped in front of the town-hall, where has been laid down a wreath on the grave-stone of the fallen during the war 1915-18.

The proff. Giovanni Floris, chief of the Italian democratic juvenile movement, having read the spiritual testament of the martyr Oberdan, spoke against the unjust revengings of Marshal Ifo for the annexation of Venezia Giulia to the Jugoslavia.

Therefore he read the order of the day in order that the Italian government will take a definite position refusing the absurd jugo-slav revengings.

The demonstration has finished without incidents.

The demonstration produced a great impression to the population."

Subject : Cagliari - Disturbances
To : A.C. Public Safety Sub-Commission - Rome.

Following letter n. 131/2 R.P dated 21/1/45.
The evil-doers responsible for the incidents occurred in Cagliari on the 18/1/45 have been identified.
Ten of these have been arrested and two denounced,
having only made propaganda among the students, inciting
them to intervene at the meeting.

Further three persons, strongly suspected, absconding, have been denounced.

Subject : Cagliari - Disturbances.
To : A.C. Public Safety Sub-Commission - Rome.

The following report has been received to-day from the int. CC.RR. company of Cagliari:

"" On the 18 inst., at 1700 hrs., at Cagliari, Jenne square, about 500 students attempted to make a public demonstration against the call-up, but were hindered by the Public Forces. Subsequently a group of students attempted to break into the premises of the newspaper "UNIONE SARDA", but were again repelled by the Public Forces. On this occasion, about 20 hand-grenades were thrown, in several points of the city, which slightly injured 1 P.S. official, 4 agents, 5 soldiers and 8 civilians. Also a CC.RR. F.C.O. has been slightly injured. As a result of serious wounds the agent DI MAURRO Ezio died after some hours. At 2100 hrs. Order has been re-established.
