Reference your letter to Association of Refugees, Sydney
AO/14604/PS dated 20 April 1945 . — 87A

My sister Mrs. Mathilde Rosalie Wolff, née Levy in Hamburg according to your information had been deported to the Commune of S.Lorenzo Nuovo (Viterbo) in 1940.
She was arrested on 2.Jan.1944 by the Viterbo Questura and during the month of February, according to instructions of the Ministry of Interior in agreement with the German military authorities, was transferred to the concentration camp of Fossoli, fraction of the Commune of Carpi (Modena).

My sister Mrs. Mathilde Wolff born 24.March 1883 and her husband Martin Wolff born 7.April 1888 in Leipzig were both civilian internees of war. There are no news of them and I would be very grateful if you could find out and let me know about their fate after their transfer to Fossoli in February 1944. Both had come to Italy in 1920 and had lived for twenty years in Positano, Prov. di Salerno. 4908

Yours faithfully

Anna Marie Lippmann

Ref. yr. G-5 : 383-1 of 31 Aug. 44, to which I have been requested to reply direct:

1. I enclose a copy in English and Italian of Mrs. Giudice's application to the Ministry of Education (Appendix A) to whom you are respectfully requested to recommend it.
2. The position, as I see it, is briefly this. The Italian Government by special legislation, gave the late Prof. Giudice all the rights of a professor in the Vith degree, which rights must naturally include inter alia a pension at the appropriate Higher rate for the Vith degree. The Ministry subsequently refused Prof. Giudice's claim for recognition as belonging to the Vith degree, and thereby purported to take back with one hand what the Italian Government had by law already granted with the other.
3. In my considered opinion, this purported refusal on the part of the Italian Ministry to recognize an existing right utterly lacks validity, and cannot bind the Giudice's to their detriment in any way.
4. Clearly G 5 will not easily follow the logic of Mrs. Giudice's application in the absence of the numerous documents, already in possession of the Italian Ministry of Education, which the Professor amassed in support of his claim. Suffice to say that:
  - a. It is a matter of fact that every link in the chain of Mrs. Giudice's arguments (Appendix A) has been either
    - i. substantiated by proof or
    - ii. admitted by the Italian Govt. against themselves.
  - b. It is a matter of counsel's opinion - viz my opinion as a practising barrister in peacetime - that Mrs. Giudice's application is supported by the evidence up to hilt.
5. A.C.C. assistance in this matter is particularly called for, however, because it is evident that not only was Prof. Giudice continually in fear of reasserting his legal rights, lest worse should befall him and his family, but also the whole Giudice family have been subjected throughout the latter Part of the Fascist Era to the most just prejudicial treatment on account of their half - British origin.
6. Without tabulating evidence (which can be collated and sifted later, if occasion arises) of all such injustices, I mention just two concrete examples of them, small perhaps in themselves, but present, and therefore remediable:
  - a. Mrs. Giudice's son-in-law Giuseppe Bianca, referred to in copy credential attached, (Appendix B) is now temporarily suspended from his educational post, on accusations which are partly false e.g. he

6. Without tabulating evidence (which can be collated and sifted later, if occasion arises) of all such injustices, I mention just two concrete examples of them, small perhaps in themselves, but present, and therefore remediable:
  - a. Mrs. Giudice's son-in-law Giuseppe Bianca, referred to in copy credential attached, (Appendix B) is now temporarily suspended from his educational post, on accusations which are partly false e.g. he has never been a Segretario Politico or Commandante della G.I.L. as alleged. He urgently seeks reinstatement at the very earliest possible moment, not for financial reasons, since his stipend continues, but for the sake of his moral status and person self respect.
  - b. the said Giuseppe Bianca's wife a Glasgow woman is being forbidden to use her own text-book, copy enclosed, in her own school English classes; yet no alternative book is forthcoming. Surely in all conscience, even if some regulation imposed this decision, any reasonable school principal would, in the interests of the work, in a wartime emergency such as the present, when books are so scarce wink an eye at its infringement until some alternative book became available, instead of insisting on the less efficient and laborious blackboard method as now. In any case it is believed there is no such regulation affecting Mrs. Bianca, as the sole regulation forbidding the use by a teacher of his or her own book applies only to "Presidi" and "Provveditori" and Mrs. Bianca is neither.

My personal view, as an educationalist, is that here is a most delightful little primer and ought to be at the freest disposal not merely of Mrs. Bianca's pupils but also of all school children throughout Italy. I enclose the primer in case A.C.C. (Educational Section) should think fit to take up the whole question. (Appendix C)

Possibly you will consider either or both of the above two minor injustices merit a separate A.C.C. recommendation for speedy investigation by the proper authority.

7. In view of all the foregoing, it would in any event appear fitting for the A.C.C. to submit Mrs. Giudice's application for her just pension to the Ministry concerned, with your recommendation that justice now be done therein.

TO : C.O. #11 P.O.W. Camp
SUBJECT : Application for relief for family of Prisoner of War

With reference to your communication dated the 22nd August 1944 relative to the address of my family and to details on their financial circumstances, I beg to submit the following information:

Address of my family: Mrs Carmela DI STASIO, nee Mansueto, Montefalco Valfortore (Prov. of Benevento), Via via dell'Olmo.

Financial situation: My father, Giuseppe DI STASIO, a shoemaker, died on the 25th January 1944 as is evidenced by the attached letter. Owing to the death of my father, my mother, Carmela DI STASIO 63 years old, must care for five children, the eldest being 14 years old and the youngest three months; besides, she must take care of my father's mother too, who is 63 years old. Her only property is a small house with no land property at all. Owing to above conditions, my family's financial circumstances are very bad, so much so that they have no income whatsoever.

1. The following is an extract of a D.O. letter received by Lieutenant General Gammell from Lieutenant General F. W. Morgan.

"I have a sister who is an Italian subject, that is to say if she is still alive. I have had no news of her since November 1942 when the usual postcard arrived through the Red Cross to say that all was well with her and her family up to July of that year, two years ago.

Such particulars as I know are as follows:- Her name is Signora Celia Christobel GALLI. Her husband is Dr. Thomaso GALLI, whose father in turn was a Judge GALLI, a man, I believe, of some repute who used to work in connection with the League of Nations at Geneva. My sister had a son John, who would by now be 15 or 16 years old.

My sister's last known address in the summer of 1942 was Grande Albergo, Della Terme at Acqui. Before that, for several years she had lived in Genoa, where her last known address was Via Domenico, Fiasella 3/12. Previous Genoa address were Corso Itali 14/11; Via Giosue, Carducci 7/12; and Via Sturla 39A. In the last two places she lived for some years each.

I know you are not yet in a position to deal with the Genoa area, but I hope you may shortly be so."

Sir:

In the City of Florence, Italy there resides the Materassi family. Residing with them and unable to get out on account of the war was their daughter, Andreana Materassi Barton and her two children Patricia and Julian Barton. Mrs. Barton is a naturalized American citizen and the children were born in the Evanston Hospital, Evanston, Illinois. Mr. Malcolm Barton husband and father and my former best friend is dead.

Perchance you can locate them. Mrs. Barton is a pianist of some note in her native Florence under, probably, her maiden name. If you do locate them would appreciate any word good or had concerning them so I can pass it on. Mrs. Barton has extensive funds in Chicago, Illinois for her repatriation. Failing in that she <sup>always</sup> can call on her mother-in-law, Mrs. <sup>ENOS M.</sup> (Mary) Barton who is the widow of the founder of the Western Electric Co, 1018 North State St, Chicago, Illinois, and a widow of considerable means.

Anything that can be done will be appreciated by myself, a fellow officer in AMF, and Mrs. Barton who has nearly lost her mind over the fate of her ~~only~~ grandchildren. I might add that Mrs. Barton has a son, a Lt. Col in the Army Medical Corps, now in New Guinea.

I know your job and know it's a hell of thing to ask at a time like this but I would try were our positions reversed.

Gratefully,

Application has been made to this Office by Professor Benvenuto POZZI, of No.40 Giulio Igino, Quadraro (Rome), respecting the welfare of his former housekeeper - Miss Gertrude Bennett, aged 51 years.

Miss Bennett, is a British Subject, (born at or near Plymouth) and came to Italy with POZZI from London about 10 years ago.

It is stated that she was re-patriated to England in May 1943, and POZZI received correspondence from her notifying her safe arrival in England, but no address.

A mutual friend, a Mr. Morris, who kept licensed premises known as "RENT DAY" situated in the 2nd or 3rd Street on the left of Edware Road from the Marble Arch, going north, may have news of Miss Bennett.

It would be appreciated if some enquiries could be made to trace Miss Bennett and inform her that POZZI is interested in her welfare and would like to correspond with her.

This leg was made at PALERMO and afterwards taken, together with others also destined for TRIPOLITANIA, by Sr. TIBERI to TERNI in Central ITALY. It is thought that TIBERI may still be in TERNI.
