H.M INSPECTOR OF CONSTABULARY
FOR SCOTLAND.
ST. ANDREW'S HOUSE
(Room 126),
EDINBURGH. 1.

3rd July, 1945.

My dear Doherty,

It seems ages since I heard from you. I expect you will have had a very busy time since Victory trying to organise the Police in the area under your control. I wonder if you could possibly find out if Rudolph H. Schroeder is alive. To the best of my belief he was very definitely anti-Hitler and anti-Nazi. About 34 years ago he married an English lady and she appealed to me to try and find out for her if her husband was dead or alive. She last heard from him in May 1943. He was then residing at 1 Via de Mezzo Merano, Province Bolyano, Italy. He is now a man of about 69 years of age. I am sorry to trouble you, but one always wants to try and help people if one can. I was inspecting the City of Glasgow Police last month and saw many of your old friends. Malcolm McCulloch told me he had had several letters from you and that you appeared to be going strong and liking the work. I must take this opportunity of congratulating you on being promoted to the rank of a full Colonel which is a great feather in your cap.

With warmest regards and all good wishes from Kinnear and myself.

Yours very sincerely,

R. M. Budgen

Undersigned, Lt. Col. INFERRERA ALFREDO, 6th Engr. Gen. Serv. Bn. Commanding Officer, begs to relate as follows, in order to interest you for tracing out his brother, Artillery Lt. INFERRERA ENRICO, son of Filippo and Letteria Roussell, 37 years old, born in Messina, living at Via Elemuccia No 400, Messina.

Disappeared man was at disposal of War Department, waiting to be encharged.

On 28 November 1944 he left Rome to go to Taranto to his brother-in-law's, Navy Captain SERRAVALLE Nicola, living at Corso Umberto, but he never came to that location and since that date he never gave his news.

Investigations effected by competent agencies of War Department and Police of Rome and Naples, encharged by me, had negative results.

Such investigations, however, exclude that the disappeared man have been a victim ever of an automobile accident or killing by unknown persons.

By personal check it results that on 28 November 1944 he was in Naples and stated to a friend of his that he intended to leave for Taranto at once and come back to Rome very soon.

I exclude that the lack of news be due to voluntary absence because I know very well my brother's passion for his family, which is composed of his wife and one son.

Particularly I ask that some investigations be made at concentration camps, foreign recruiting stations (Foreign Legion, Marshall Tito's troops) and at any other Allied competent agency.

Disappeared man has no compromising preceding political conduct, and during the German occupation period, he refused to comply with any Republican bans.

In order to facilitate tracing out operations, moreover upon mentioned generalities, I make known to you my brother's principal description: age 37 years old, stature meter 1.70, chestnut hair, shaved face, chestnut eyes, regular body, he was wearing a green uniform of Officer.

Particular remarks: a little cicatrix under his chin.

Trusting in your helps, I beg to remain yours,

Lt. Col. INFERRERA ALFREDO

Dear Sir;

Please accept my most sincere, well wishes, to you Sir, and hope that you will continue, as you have well merited by your past, the well deserved love and esteem that you are now held in by this great country of ours.

Your subscriber is a native of Marsala, Sicily, I am however, a citizen of this country, twenty five years, and have served over-seas, in World War I. I mention this proudly and humbly as a prelude to a request, which I hope and sincerely trust, will receive your attention.

After I left Italy, another brother was born to my parents, to-wit, Marte Lettieri, July 22, 1916, in Marsala, Italy. He lived in Alessandria, Via Cocchiere 23, Italy. He is the youngest in my family. May I Sir, without being too sentimental, emphasize the natural love and affection that I bear for this said brother. I have tried several agencies, but all without avail, to locate his present whereabouts. Our last knowledge of him, was about December 1942, at which time he was reportedly a prisoner of war, held by the Russian Government.

From the innermost recesses of my heart, I assure you Sir, that I have a keen appreciation, for your pre-occupation, but nevertheless, I am inwardly impelled, to beg of you, to do whatever you can to alleviate the mental distress and anguish, that I am suffering.

With deepest gratitude, for any consideration received in your hands, believe me to be most

Sincerely and Humbly;

John Lettieri

L'agente di custodia MELFI Giuseppe , in servizio alle mie dirette dipendenze vive in grande angustia perchè non riceve notizie da circa un anno e mezzo del proprio figlio.

Sono stati interessati vari Uffici e Comandi ma nessun esito si è avuto a tutt'oggi.

Egli si è rivolto pertanto allo scrivente perchè interessi codesto on. COMANDO al fine di assumere informazioni presso i dipendenti Uffici dislocati nelle regioni d'Italia tuttora soggette al diretto controllo dell'A.M/G/ . 31 e 7

Sicuro del cortese accoglimento della suddetta preghiera porgo le più vive azioni di grazie anche a nome dell'interessato. Allego l'istanza del Melfi.

Con distinta osservanza.

Ill/mo Sig. Ispettore dell'Amministrazione Carceraria
della Regione Meridionale

N A P O L I

Il sottoscritto agente Melfi Giuseppe in servizio presso la locale casa penale per minoriS.Efrano, si rivolge alla S.V. Ill/ma per il motivo che segue:

Lo scrivente ha un figlio : Melfi Guglielmo arruolato nell'Arma dei CC.RR., il quale diede sue ultime notizie dalla Stazione dei CC.RR. di GAZZO RONCANOVA(Prov.Verona) il I° gennaio del I944; la sola comprendere alla S.V. Ill/ma il dolore suo e della madre che soffre giornalmente perché priva di notizie del proprio figliuolo.

Lo scrivente prega vivamente la S.V. Ill/ma affinché voglia benevolmente interessare l'On.Comando Alleato onde essere messo in grado di ricevere qualche notizia di questo suo unico figlio.

Nella speranza di un favorevole accoglimento della presente ringrazia vivamente per quanto la S.V. Ill/ma vorrà fare in suo favore e porge subordinati ossequi.

Subject:- Enquiries - Ex Ps.W.

H.Q. Allied Commission.

pl.

1. This H.Q. from time to time receives enquiries both from Units concerned with the documentation of Commonwealth ex Ps.W. and the relatives of ex Ps.W. themselves regarding the whereabouts of missing ex Ps.W.

2. These enquiries usually emanate from statements made by ex Ps.W. who have passed through an Allied P.W. Repatriation Camp and who upon interrogation disclose some knowledge of the fate of one of their party whilst escaping through enemy occupied territory. Often the missing ex P.W. was last seen when being sheltered by a local inhabitant.

3. In so far as it is possible, investigations are made by Detachments of this Unit where the enquiry is in their locality, but they are of course, unable to cover a great many of the provinces concerned.

4. Your help would be greatly appreciated in this matter, as it is known that your forward officers have opportunities for directing these enquiries through the proper channels.

5. If this H.Q. might be assured of your assistance in the pursuance of these enquiries, the necessary particulars will be forwarded to you for onward transmission to the Region concerned.

Subject: ELEANOR HOMEN-GOMEZ, nee HASLIP

Wife of Phillipo Homen-Gomez.

1. Phillipo Homen-Gomez is supposedly a Fascist and recently appeared in the Italian list of proscribed persons. He is known to have been under the influence of Pavolini, who was shot at Milan with Mussolini. The couple lived previously at the Villa Belvedare, Settignano, Florence, and have a child of six, a son.

2. It is understood that Phillipo Homen-Gomez was arrested at Maestre on the 6th May but it is not clear whether he was arrested by the Partisans, the Italian police or the British authorities. So far there is no information about his wife.

3. Eleanor Homen-Gomez went with her husband north when the British Troops arrived, assumedly because she loved her husband. She left instructions with the Comptessa Grighi della Stuffa to offer the house in Settignano as a rest camp for British troops. The Comptessa della Stuffa now resides in the Villa Belvedane which is occupied by British Troops.

4. It is believed that after leaving Florence, the Homen-Gomez family went to the Villa Alpino in Alpino, Lago di Maggiori, but subsequently the husband went to Venice. His wife joined him there later as a result of threatening letters from the Partisans. 5137

5. The Golf Professional's (at Alpino) daughter was nurse to the child, and is believed to have gone with Mde. Gomez.

6. It is worthy of note that in the archives of the Gestapo H.Q. at Rome, Mde. Gomez' name was found on a list of persons believed to be Anglo-phil and to be put under surveillance by the German secret police. Her husband's name also appeared.

7. Mde. Gomez' father was a distinguished English doctor who for many years was Editor of the 'Lancet' in London. He was a personal friend of Lord Dawson of Penn. She and her sister Joan Haslip broadcast in Italian for the B.B.C. propaganda, and were school-children together with Lord Dawson's daughters with whom they have remained life-long friends.

Declassified E.O. 12356 Section 3.3/NND No. 783019

8. It is most desirable to ensure the personal safety of Mde. Gomez and her child, should she, by chance be in Partisan or Italian hands, and to have her restored to British protection. In law she has the right to opt to regain her British nationality in view of the fact that her husband is, or was, an enemy subject. || A || B

9. It is possible that Mde Gomez did not go to Venice in which case it is thought that she may have been hidden by the golf professional at Alpino or his daughter.

Dear General Clark:

It is a pleasure and an honor to be writing to such an important person in our Army - you must forgive me if this letter isn't formal enough (I guess its our "American Way")

My purpose in writing you is to ask a favor of you. I have an uncle in Italy and I thought that perhaps you could sort of find out for me how he is and if he and his family are still intact. In other words, with your contacts and so forth, would it be at all possible for you to send me word as to his well-being, health and location? I should be deeply grateful and indebted to you.

His address was:

Signor Sabatini Lolli
Fontana delle Noce No. 2,
Teramo, Italy

Thank you for your time, and also, I'm sure you realize that we at home thank fellows like yourself for your efforts in winning this war.

Respectfully

(Miss) Lucy M. Lolli

" I wonder if you can help me with this. Nando at Newbiggen has never heard from his father or mother not since the Germans occupied the place where they were well in September before the war broke out. Mr & Mrs Bertorelli and daughter all went to Italy from Newbiggin by Sea. He went every year for his health in winter. It is a pity they got away for the family that is left here are very anxious about them. They live in CARPANETO. PIACENZA. Are you anyway near here or do you think you can find them if those beastly Germans hasn't done away with them of course the daughter Anita she was there too. Can you suggest anything or can you or any of your friends out there help you in any way. They have lived at NEWBIGGIN well over 30 years.

They call him Ben, His wife Rosie and the daughter Anita "

Dear Sir,

I should be very grateful if you could forward the enclosed letter to the addressee or perhaps inform me of her whereabouts. This lady, Signora Cuchiari, is my Aunt on my father's side and married an Italian either before or just after the Great War 1914-18. She has not to my knowledge assumed Italian Nationality. Up to the last great push in Northern Italy, Signora Cuchiari was living at either Carrara or Fossola di Carrara and subsequently moved to Rome when things started happening my that way. I learned from my father C.M. O'Hara who is in London that she was in Rome, but he did not know her address, and hope that perhaps, you may be able to help me.

With many thanks in advance

I remain, Sir,

Yours faithfully

Lt. O'Hara.

PRO - MEMORIA

Il Generale di Brigata BROCCOLI Umberto alla data dell'Armistizio dell'8 settembre 1943 da solo qualche mese era stato inviato in Grecia a comandare la piazza di Atene. Essendosi recisamente rifiutato di collaborare con i tedeschi fu da essi arrestato nello stesso ufficio in cui trovavasi e deportato in Germania mentre il figlio BROCCOLI Bruno - anch'egli Ufficiale dell'Esercito Italiano - passava nelle fila dei patrioti.

L'ultimo indirizzo conosciuto dal predetto Generale, ove egli trovavasi certamente nella notte del 31 dicembre 1944, è quello di SCHOKKEN (Posen) ove il Generale BROCCOLI col NUMERO DI PRIGIONIA 141 era nel Campo (Oflag) n. 64 Z.

Poichè la detta località è stata da tempo liberata dall'Esercito Rosso e poichè anche la stampa italiana pubblicò che le valorose truppe Sovietiche avevano colà liberato anche prigionieri italiani si prega l'Ill/mo Sig. Ambasciatore Sovietico di volersi compiacere assumere qualche notizia al riguardo per tranquillizzare la derelitta famiglia che da lunghi mesi vive nella più indicibile ansia.

Da notizie indirette sembrerebbe che i prigionieri italiani liberati dalle grinfe tedesche sarebbero stati successivamente trasportati nella città di Odessa.

On receipt of yours of 17 May I got Lt.Col. Francis (Metro) at Milan to make enquiry. He saw the Sig. Foriani at the address given who is going to see your sister on Sunday 3rd and give her the news and tell her how to act should she wish to make the trip home.

All is well with them and finances are in order. She does not need a pass to travel now to her husband or viceversa.

Their main concern is how her mother is.

Any help wanted will be given here.

So far as I know the Consul has not yet opened up in Milan but may do soon.

I understand a sum of £. 10 or £. 12.10.0 may be sent each month through a Bank at home.

Your reference:—

Dear Col. Doherty,

I don't think we ever met when I was dealing with Police matters at the Home Office; but Brigadier Dunn tells me that you are the best person to write to and that you will be able to help in the following matter.

My sister married an Italian some years before the war, and during the war she has been in North Italy with her husband. They had a villa on Lake Garda, and though she was turned out of it during the German occupation she does not appear to have been otherwise molested. Her husband, I hear, joined the Partisans and was latterly with the organisation in Milan. I had news of her a few days ago through a friend in the 8th Army who had been able to pay her a visit.

Through him she has asked if I can get her put in touch with the Military Governor of Milan, so that his Office may know about her and her husband and assist them, e.g. so that they can travel between there and their villa on Lake Garda, for which she understands that a "lascia passare" will be necessary. I imagine, however, that the C.A. officer for the Milan district will be in the saddle by now and that he will be the proper authority to deal with matters of this sort. If you could ask him to get in touch with her, either direct or through her husband, I shall be most grateful, for any help that he can afford them. (I give the names and addresses of both of them overleaf).

There are two other matters in which I shall be glad if she can be helped -

(1) As my sister is British by birth, the Visa Department

Declassified E.O. 12356 Section 3.3/NND No. 785016

Department of the Embassy at Rome will be able to grant her a British visa to come to England as soon as travel facilities are available; but she will also require a Military Exit Permit. Can this be granted as soon as possible on her application? Any help that can be given to get her a passage will also be most welcome.

(2) I understand that as a former British subject she will be able in due course to have a limited amount of money sent to her through the nearest British Consul. I don't know if there is one in post at Milan yet, but perhaps she could be advised to whom she should apply. I can of course provide the necessary credit at this end.

My sister's name and address are-

Signora G.Barbara FURIANI,
Villa Vibe,
Gardone Riviera,
Lago di Garda

and her husband's -

Fulvio FURIANI,
Via Pantano, 28,
Milan.

If my sister can be recommended to the good offices of whoever is in charge in that district I shall be most grateful.

Yours sincerely,
