PRO MEMORIA

Leopoldo VITTA (said Poldo FERRARI) of late Leopoldo Vitta and Giulietta Ferrari, born in Milan on the 12th December 1926.

In 1943 he had been three years a pupil in the Naval College in Venice (GIL) where he was one of the most appreciated pupils. Owing to the bombardments, the College was closed and in 1943 he came back to his family in Rome. In April 1944 he volunteered and took service with the flottilla X MAS, Batt. St. Marco. He worked in the office of Lieut. Costa in Rome till May, when he fell ill with pneumonia and was in bed in this house till June 1st. Then he left Rome to join his battalion that was thought to be in La Spezia, but he didn't find it there and went to Venice where his family was. He was disgusted with the disorder that reigned in his flottilla and did not want to be a soldier anymore. So, he went back to his old life and remained with his family till the end of September, when his mother moved to Como and he followed her. By this time he had reached the age of compulsory service, and he entered the Police of Como (Camogrin Speciale). Immediately after the arrival of the Allies, he was taken by the 52th Brigade Garibaldi (communist partisans) and was questioned, but 24 hours later he was set free, because not only there were no charges against him, but also because some of the chiefs of the partisans had been very kindly treated by him during a time they had spent in prison under the Fascist regime.

Afterwards he spent some days at the Hotel Firenze in Como with his family. On the 12th May he went out from the hotel to go to the Allied Command and he never went back home. Lieutenant Cantinechi said to the family it was rumoured that he had been taken again before reaching the Allied Command.

The researches made later on gave the most contradictory results. But nobody ever heard from him. This silence gives credence to the rumour according to which a man of the Compagnia Speciale having been taken prisoner by the partisan "Pierino" of the 52 Batt. Garibaldi, a school teacher near Como, to save his life gave the names of his comrades, who one after another were taken by the said Pierino to the communist den in Como where they were tortured, and then taken to an unknown place and shot.

A month ago Vitta's mother addressed herself to the Allied Control Commission, through the office of Via Sicilia, but up to now she has had no answer.

It seems that Como police know something about the matter.

Public Safety Officer - Liaison Group
Genoa

I, undersigned BETTONI Ettore of late Vittore and of Ida Vischi, living in Genoa, Via Mira 4/16, submit herewith to your kind attention the following facts :

My brother BETTONI Ernesto in 1935 left Italy for Abissinia directed to Addis Abeba, in order to resume a job as an employee of the S.I.T.A.O. (Compagnia Italiana Trasporti Africa Orientale) with HQ. in Addis Abeba. Owing to the state of war, since 1943 we have received no messages of his whereabouts. Enquiries have already been made through the International Red Cross, but no information have been received since. From the last message received I know that he was working at the "Cementeria" at Diredaua (Etiopia).

I would be very pleased if you could get me any information about my brother, being the father of one child at the moment living with his mother in Gorizia (Venezia Giulia).

I remain

Yours sincerely 58 x 4

ROME

I , the undersigned, Domenico TRESPIDI, son of late Giuseppe, 66 years old, living in Genova Rivarolo, Via Rossini 12,int.6, point out the following:

On April 27, 1945, at 1400 hrs., my son son of Domenico and of Antonia Storace, born at Rivarolo Ligure on September 7, 1922, left home to go to some family friends at Sampierdarena. The young-man had no identity documents as his card had been torn to pieces, by mistake, the preceding day by a young member of the S.A.P. In the evening the young-man did not go back home, thus his brothers Amedeo and G.B., together with the family friend Professor Noraldino LORENZINI, living in Genova Sampierdarena, soon started the researches in hospitals, morgues, and detention places of Genova.

On April 29, 1945 after two days'researches Lt. Chiappetta, of the Partisan Brigade "Curtatone a Montanare", living in Genova, salita, Salita S. Barnaba 20,int.3, then commanding the detachment in charge of the prisoners at Albergo dei Poveri, assured professor Lorenzini that Gino TRESPIDI (?) was kept in custody there. Besides the officer recognized Trespidi in the photo the professor showed him.

In the morning of April 30 Amedeo Trespidi and professor Lorenzini, carrying the identification documents of Gino TRESPIDI (authenticated photo) went to the Albergo dei Poveri where they were told that all the prisoners had been sent to the Questura. At the Questura, garrisoned by the Allied Forces, they were told that the prisoners would be cross-examined on the same day and released if found not guilty. Since April 30, 1945 it was impossible to have further news.

In the researches were interested:

- The Questura of Genova - several times,
- The Prefecture of Genova, who in their turn interested the Questura,
- The Allied Authorites at The Questura - several times
- The Command of the Partisan Police,

Declassified E.O. 12356 Section 3.3/NND No. 785016

- The High Commissioner for Prisoners of War,
- The Italian Red Cross,
- The Partisan Chaplains.

Lt. CHIAPPETTA Stated many times to profesaor Lorenzini, to Trespidi's brothers Amedeo and G.B., to his mother Antonia Storace, that he had Gino Trespidi amongst his prisoners at the Albergo dei Poveri and that he had taken him to the Questura handing him over to the Allied Authorities. Lt. Chiappetta went also to the Questura, together with Trespidi's mother and stated to the Allied Authorities that the young-man had been handed by him to said Authorities on April 30,1945.

Re to the a/m it is believed:

Owing to his young age (22 years) Gino Trespidi had been by mistaken believed to be a republican fascist in civilian clothes to escape internment and consequently considered as a prisoner of war and interned in Italian or Allied concentration camps.

There is a doubt that Gino Trespidi, having been since only 4 months dismissed from a psychiatric hospital and having not yet quite recovered, might have in consequence of the a/m events got worse and consequently considered to be insane and sent to an Asylum.

It is pointed out that:

Gino Trespidi had come back home on January 21,1945 after having been more then 4 years in a lunatic asylum as it appears from the files of the Questura and of the Psychiatric hospitals of Genova, Quarto, Cogoleto Ligure, Castiglione delle Stiviere (Mantova).

Owing to his ailment (oligofrenia) the a/m young-man was never in the army, nor has he ever acted in any political activity ; when he left hospital he was declared inefficient for service by the Fascist Republican Commission of Levy;

He never was a member either of the Republican Fascist Party or of the National Fascist Party.

The young man is still in abnormal conditions and wants treatment as he is not always quite responsible of his own actions.

Thus after having turned to all lower offices I take the libert, of addressing to you asking if you would take an interest in said case disposing researches to be made both in the Italian and Allied Concentration Camps in order to see whether amongst the internees there would be Gino Trespidi.

I enclose herewith an exact description of the a/m young man and his photo.

Trusting that you will kindly comply with my request

Very Sincerely Yours

The undersigned, Domenica Di Francesco, living in Trieste at Viale Sonnino I4, states the following, and trusts that in the name of justice, an explanation is given in regard:

Her husband, ex- Lieut.Col. Gaetano Di Francesco, former Commander of the "Timavo" Patriots' Brigade, was arrested on 4th March last by the Allied Police, for reasons not yet known.

Signora Di Francesco is convinced that her husband is absolutely innocent of any charge, and that the arrest was brought about by false information. She appeals, in the name of her family and its sustenance and social position, to your generosity and justice so that light is thrown on the uncertain fate of her husband.

La sottoscritta, Domenica Ottavia Di Francesco, abitante a Trieste in viale Sonnino 14, espone quanto segue, fiduciosa che in nome della giustizia, sarà possibile avere un chiarimento in merito.

Suo marito, l'ex Ten.Col. in S.P.E. Gaetano Di Francesco, già comandante della Brigata di patrioti"Timavo", il 4 marzo u.s. è stato sottoposto al fermo da parte della Polizia Militare Alleata, per motivi che tuttora rimangono sconosciuti.

Avendo la certezza che nessuna colpa risulti a carico di suo marito, probabilmente vittima di losche macchinazioni, per non dover ulteriormente sottoporre la famiglia ad una posizione che la disonora e la discredita, nonchè ad un disagio economico, chiede sia fatta luce e giustizia sull'incresciose caso con un'energica e tempestiva inchiesta da parte di codesta autorità, onde accertare le rispettive responsabilità.

Information regarding Josephine HRVATIN has been requested from:

a) The Yugo-Slav National Red Cross Belgrade.

b) The American Consul General-Belgrade.

c) The Yugo-Slav Joint Economic Committee A.M.G. H.Q. 13th Corps.

To date no information has been received and it is pointed out that similar enquiries for persons living in Yugo-Slav territory have in most instances taken months before any reply or acknowledgment has been received and the Yugo-Slav Red Cross particularly appears to have little sense of time or urgency.

You may take it that no time will be lost in passing on any information received but from experience, this office is not hopeful of the result.

From conversations with other parties here, we find that the maiden name of the deceased's wife was "Josephine Grl." The last known address we have of Mrs. Hrvatin is as above given.

The Royal Italian Embassy has now advised us that the town or City in which the widow of the deceased may be residing is in the Province of Trieste, which province is under Allied Government Control and not under the control of Italy. The Embassy suggested that we contact the Allied Military Control at Trieste requesting their assistance in locating the widow of the deceased.

Is there any information orhelp you can give us on this? If she can be located, we would like to have her address so that we can communicate with her directly. Any information you can give us will be appreciated.

The Royal Italiam Embassy also stated that her address might in fact read as follows, and that it would probably be rather difficult to locate her through this address:

Gentlemen:

We are writing you at the suggestion of the Italian Embassy in Washington D. C. and Representative Frank B. Keefe of Wisconsin.

We are interested in locating a Mrs. Josephine Hrvatin. The last known address we have for her is as follows:

Josephine Hrvatin
c/o Andrew Hrvatin
Harije
Posta Bir Tirca
Vila Del Navaso
Gulia Venecia, Italy

We understand that she is an Italian citizen and we contacted the Italian Embassy for assistance in locating her. Her husband was John Hrvatin. He died in Sheboygan, Wisconsin in June, 1941, and we are anxious to locate Mrs. Hrvatin so that the affairs of this man's estate can be settled.

Among the papers of the deceased, we found a copy of a declaration of Intention to become an American citizen, executed by the deceased, dated February 4, 1939. This Declaration recites that the deceased, John Hrvatin, is of the Slovenian race, Italian nationality. He was born in Harie, Italy on January 20, 1881. It recites that the name of his wife is Josephine (last name not given) and that they were married February 2, 1907 at Harie, Italy. It recites that the wife was born at Freistes, Italy in 1888 and that she still resides in Italy; that he has five children all born and residing in Italy. The deceased emigrated to the United States from Trieste, Italy and he entered at the port of New York on the SS Martha Washington, July 15, 1923, under the name of Giovanni Hrvatin.

Lecce, 18 February 1946.

To ALLIED CONTROL COMMISSION

With reference to your letter AC/14421/PS dated 16 November 1945 and as three months have already elapsed, I take the liberty of bothering you again.

I resided in Germany with my family and as since three years I did not receive any news from my parents, I made up my mind to go to Italy for some time and see them, leaving my wife in Germany.

Of course I thought that I could have returned to Germany in a short time: but up to this day it was impossible for me to do so as the Italian Authorities do not grant visas for entering Germany.

Since I left Germany my wife had no news from me; so I am much worried about her. Consequently I address myself to your Commission in order to know if it is possible to obtain this permit to go to Germany i.e. to GELSENKIRCHEN Westfalen (which I suppose is controlled by a British Command), for settling everything.

If this is impossible for the present, I beg you to be so kind as to communicate me how I should send news to my wife.

Perhaps also you are head of family; so you can understand and excuse my eagerness.

Thanking you in advance

Sincerely Yours

2. I interviewed Mario POZZETTI on 25th February, 1946, but was unable to obtain any additional information which would assist in tracing his son.

3. It appears, however, that the missing boy met his sister in a street in Naples about 20th October 1943. He was then wearing Allied uniform (whether British or American is unknown) and informed her that he had been employed for a few weeks by the Allies at P.O.W. Cage No 421 located at Sapri. He also stated that he was living with Allied Troops at Vomero, Naples and would be soon leaving on a confidential mission. He was very secretive and the mystery of his activities was made greater by his failure to visit his parent's house or even that of the sister he had met.

Writer states that the son, wearing civilian clothes, was sent to Caserta soon after meeting his sister, but it would be more accurate to say that he proceeded in the direction of Caserta to reach the front line.

Roccaraso, where the boy is alleged to have been shot, is situated a few miles south of Sulmona. He was seen there at the end of November in the company of German soldiers by a friend of the family and greetings were exchanged. Early in December the friend was informed by a German N.C.O. that the boy had been shot on 1st December, 1943, as he had been found to be a spy. TO: Headquarters, 5th Army

I, the undersigned, father of POZZETTI Francesco, who was born in Naples on 9 May 1925, state and request as follows:

On 20 September 1943, my son, following his escape from the Germans, who wanted to deport him, decided to volunteer with the Allied Army, therefore proceeding tp Salerno. On 27 September 1943, he was sent to the P.O.W. Cage No. 421 located at Sapri. On 20 October 1943, he returned to Naples, and after having stayed at Vomero a few days, he left heading towards Caserta, refusing to disclose any details as regards to his mission, activity, and destination.

No news has been received of him during the past 19 months, and it is supposed that special assignments in difficult areas ahs mad it impossible for him to correspond with us.

Since all possible restrictions have been lifted, the undersigned kindly requests that all possible measures be adapted in order to learn of his whereabouts, and to bring relief to a poor family whose hearts are filled with anxiety.

It is made known that my son was wearing civilian clothing at the time he left Naples.

SUBJECT : Petition from Signora Innammorato-Grosso.

The undersigned, Signora Carmela Innammorato-Grosso fu Giacomo, domiciled at S. Massimo (Campobasso), brings to your notice the following facts:

On 19 June, her only son- aged 13 - Grosso Nicola di Carmine, left her to join an Allid Unit. He hoped this way to join his father who is in the States.

When he got to Campobasso, he spoke to the English officer,in charge of the refugees, and gavehim his real name, adding that he lived in Campobasso , had lost his mother and sister in the air-raids and that his brother, a soldier in Albania, had been deported to Germany.

The English officer sent the boy to the Foggia Camp where assistance was given to refugees. But, from inquiries made, it appears that the boy never arrived there.

His mother now presumes, knowing her son's temperament, that the boy escaped during conveyance to the said Camp, and joined, as the boy had often expressed, some Allied Units.

In her appeal to the Presidenza, she begs that everything possible in done, even through the Allied Commission, to trace up her son.

She gives the following description of her son:height, m. 1,60; dark-eyed; black-haired; dark-skinned. He has scars on his nape and left side of face. He appears older that his age.

La sottoscritta, Carmela Innammorato-Grosso fu Giacomo, residente a St.Massimo, provincia di Campobasso, porta il seguente fatto alla vostra attenzione:

Il 19 giugno 1944, il suo unico figlio, di 13 anni, Grosso Nicola, di Carmine, lasciò la casa di sua madre per raggiungere un'unità alleata.

Egli sperava di poter così, senza difficoltà, raggiungere il padre che si trovava nel Nord America.

Perciò, egli andò a Campobasso, e parlò con un Maggiore Inglese che era in carica per i rifugiati, quindi dette il suo reale cognome e nome, aggiunse che era nato a Campobasso e che sua madre e sua sorella erano morte per bombardamento, suo fratello, soldato in Albania, deportato in Germania dai tedeschi.

L'Ufficiale Inglese lo mandò nel campo di Foggia, dove era data assistenza ai rifugiati. Ma, dalle ricerche che sono state fatte, sembra che il suddetto non sia arrivato mai colà.

La sottoscritta, conoscendo il carattere del figlio, suppone che egli sia fuggito durante il viaggio, e abbia raggiunto qualche unità alleata, poichè questo era il suo desiderio. Da quel momento ella non ha avuto più notizie, e le ricerche fatte non hanno dato alcun esito.

La sottoscritta si rivolge alla Presidenza chiedendo che sia fatto tutto il possibile anche per mezzo della Commissione Alleata, che potrebbe dare qualche aiuto.

La sottoscritta da le seguenti informazioni al riguardo:

Altezza: m.1,60, occhi neri, capelli neri, carnagione scura, robusto.

Egli ha una cicatrice alla nuca (per un'operazione) una all'orecchio destro ed una al naso dalla parte dello stesso orecchio.

Lo stesso è nato nel 1931, ma sembra molto più grande.

Sperando che la Presidenza farà qualsiasi investigazione con l'aiuto della Commissione Alleata.

Sinceramente vostra

La sottoscritta, conoscendo il carattere del figlio, suppone che egli sia fuggito durante il viaggio, e abbia raggiunto qualche unità alleata, poichè questo era il suo desiderio. Da quel momento ella non ha avuto più notizie, e le ricerche fatte non hanno dato alcun esito.

La sottoscritta si rivolge alla Presidenza chiedendo che sia fatto tutto il possibile anche per mezzo della Commissione Alleata, che potrebbe dare qualche aiuto.

La sottoscritta da le seguenti informazioni al riguardo:

Altezza: m.1,60, occhi neri, capelli neri, carnagione scura, robusto.

Egli ha una cicatrice alla nuca (per un'operazione) una all'orecchio destro ed una al naso dalla parte dello stesso orecchio.

Lo stesso è nato nel 1931, ma sembra molto più grande.

Sperando che la Presidenza farà qualsiasi investigazione con l'aiuto della Commissione Alleata.

Sinceramente vostra
F.ta Sig.ra Carmela Innammorato-Grosso

Mrs Emma CORRADORI, married Candelora, residing in FERRARA - 46 Via Porta Mare is in good health condition.

On 21 April 1945, whilst she was refugee at VIGARANO MAINARDA, the ~~whole~~ furniture she had in her house at S.Bartolomeo in Bosco was destroyed owing to air bombardment.

According to what Mrs CORRADORI herself has stated the alarm caused by the news she had ~~received some~~ wounds is due to erroneous interpretation of letters forwarded to her husband a maresciallo of the police in Eritrea (Africa).

Mrs CORRADORI lives with her mother and a brother. She ~~monthly~~ receives 2.000 lire representing a part of her husband 's salary.

At present her economical condition is rather bad.

La signora CORRADORI Emma in Candelora, residente a Ferrara Via Porta Mare n.46, è in buone condizioni di salute.-

Il 21 aprile 1945, trovandosi sfollata a Vigarano Mainarda, in seguito a bombardamento aereo, tutto il mobilio che aveva depositato nell'alloggio, nel comune di S.Bartolomeo in Bosco, andò distrutto.-

Stando a quanto ha dichiarato la CORRADORI, si vuole che lo stato di orgasmo prodotto circa le presunte ferite che essa avrebbe riportato, sia stato originato da una errata interpretazione delle lettere inviate a suo marito, maresciallo della polizia in Eritrea (Africa).-

La signora convive con la madre e con un fratello.- Percepisce la somma di £. 2.000 circa al mese, costituente parte dello stipendio dovuto al marito.-

Attualmente le sue condizioni economiche sono piuttosto precarie.-

Mr. CARROZZINI Antonio, living at Soleto (Lecce district), with petition forwarded to the Ministry of Interior, begs to point out following:

His son Luigi CARROZZINI, Vice Brigadiere of CC.RR. in force at Pedena (Pola district), on the 30th September 1943 was sent on a duty trip to Pisino (Pola) Command of Partisans. The two towns are only 14 miles from each other, and aforesaid N.C.O. went there on foot in spite of the danger of German and Fascist round ups.

It is unknown what happened to him since.

A Certain MASINI Luigi states to have seen him on the 1st October 1943 in the premises of the Pisino Partisans Command. Also GELLENI Riccardo's family as well as BACCI's and MASINI Luigi's families, if asked, could ~~eventually~~ supply some news, as they were very well acquainted with his son.

Every research has been in vain, and the enguish and distress of his family can be easily immagined of.

He thus asks for the intervention of the Italian Authorities by the Allied Commission, which is still in charge of that ~~most~~ Italian territory, in order to obtain that, investigations be made and whereabouts of his son be found ~~out~~.

He thanks in advance.

L'angustia prima e l'esasperazione poi di una famiglia tutta dedita alla salute ed all'avvenire dei propri figli,mi rende ardito per fare appello a codesto On.Ministero.Ho tentato molte vie onde sapere la sorte toccata al mio amato figliolo,ma finora tutto è stato vano e nessun bar_ lume di speranza si presenta all'orizzonte.

Il mio figliolo Luigi Carrozzini,Vicebrigadiere dei CC.RR. di stanza a Pedena (Pola),il 30 settembre 1943 fu comandato di servizio presso il Comando Partigiani di Pisino (Pola).Pedena dista da Pisino circa 14 chilo metri ed a piedi il ragazzo raggiunse il posto assegnatogli sfidando i pericoli di rastrellamenti e conflitti con i nazi-fascisti che - mi vie_ ne assicurato - sono avvenuti nei primi di ottobre del '43,ma non si cono sce la sorte toccata al predetto sottufficiale.

Un certo Masini Luigi di Pedena avrebbe visto il mio figliolo il 1° ottobre del 1943 nei locali del Comando Partigiani di Pisino.

Anche le famiglie di Gelleni Riccardo - famiglia Marsini (già Marzac Alessandro) famiglia Bacci e la famiglia del suddetto Masini Luigi (che ha anche un fratello Brigadiere dei CC.RR.) se interrogate potrebbero fornire qualche notizia perchè conoscevano bene il mio figliolo.

La mia famiglia ha bisogno di un pò di tranquillità e,pertanto,mi vede costretta ad inviare la presente supplica a codesto On.Ministero chiedendo l'intervento presso la On.Commissione Alleata da cui dipende quell'estremo lembo di terra italianissima e nutre fiducia che non le sarà negato il più premuroso interessamento al riguardo.

Grato di quanto starà per fare,devotamente ringrazio.

Rome, Italy.

Dear Sir,

I would appreciate very much if this office could give me some information about my brother, Giuseppe Viagrande, resided at Chiavari Prov. Genova, where he belonged to the Pubblica Sicurezza.

I only know that my brother was killed on April 24, 1945. I was told that Angelo Buenoli Via Roma Lavagna, Prov. di Genova, ordered to have my brother killed.

Because my brother was always anti-fascist and was an F.B.I. Pubblica Sicurezza at Chiavari for the Italian Government, I would appreciate very much if you will send an investigation against this Angelo Buenoli asking why he ordered my brother to be killed and if before the war this man was anti-fascist or became anti-fascist at the break of the war just to have his peraonal enemies killed.

To obtain information concerning my brother's character you can inquire to the Commissario stationed at the Pubblica Sicurezza, Chiavari Prov. Genova or Signor Luisa Di Pasquale, Albergo Italiano (ex londra) Chiavari. Mostly everyone in Chiavari knows my brother.

I came to the United States Dec. 10. 1943. Before I came to America I was arrested by the Fascist Gang because I did'nt belong to their party. I lived in Patti Prov. Messina, Sicily.

Here in the United States I am a member of the Civil Service Inspector in General Construction.

I would appreciate very much if you will consider this letter.

Thank you.

Yours very truly
/s/ Antonio Viagrande.

In view of this I have not altered in any way the letter submitted by P.S.. as I feel you will may wish to make some comments of a personal nature. and explain the delay. Delay is unavoidable as such information has to be processed through CCRA channels.

You will note (folio 75a) that CORDAN is in jail for assaulting a Carabinieri and P.S. have not mentioned this in the letter. I think they are quite right as it is a personal matter.

Dear

I have had enquiries made in response to your letter of 24th August 1945, reference C.A. 2.BO/C/10, and the following information has been obtained.

Signor CORDANI, Francesco is still residing at Montechiaro di Rivergaro, Piacenza, with his mother and two sisters, on the small farm owned by the mother. He is not in want although his means are restricted owing to the fact that he has to support his 2 sisters and also a brother who is recovering in a mental home.

Signor SORDANI, Livio resides at Viale Risorgimento 5, Piacenza, with his wife and 3 children. At present he is Mayor of the Commune of Rovergaro. He is the only representative in Piacenza Province for Lancia cars and Guzzi motor cycles, and although, because of his activities with the Partisans, the Nazi-Fascists seized most of his firm's goods, his own financial condition is sound.

Signor ALBERTI, Antonio still resides at Montechiaro di Rivergaro, Piacenza, with his wife and family. He is a farmer of some importance and his financial conditions are fairly good.

Yours

The boy in object is DONADI Antonio (di Vincenzo e di Faro Maria), born in S.Paolo (Brasil) 14/11/29, Italian sobject.

The boy's family resides in Libia (North Africa). A few years ago, they sent the boy and other two daughters to Italy on a holiday, at the c/o a fascist organization.

When the war broke out, making it possible for the children to get back to Libia, the girls were sent to a fascist college (G.I.L.), and the boy to Ravenna, where, those who directed the school, being people without conscience, make him apply to volunteer in the fascist militia and was there upon transferred to Forlì, and after, at Bologna, was incorporated in the death companies, of infamous memory.

In Nov.22, 1944, the boy's address was: FELD POST 87569 E and on Feb.23, 1945, sent his last message to his parents in Libia indicating his address c/o INTENDENZA CROCE ROSSA - PARMA. After that, neither the parents nor the young sisters ever had any more news about him.

ROME

With petition forwarded to the Minister of Post-war Assistence, Doc. Renzo BORTOLOTTI points out following case:

On January 1945 at Vergato (Bologna district), German soldiers, out of reprisal, arrested and after a few hours executed worker ALDOVRANDI Lindo. He was survived by his wife, Antonina, and three children aged 7,5 and 2.

The terrible situation of the poor woman can be easily immagined. When the winter was by and the liberation came with the spring, afore-said started to work in order to support herself and her children.

On the 9th October 1945 she went to RIOLA in order to visit the grave of her husband. She intended to come back shortly after: on the contrary she did not return.

After four days, her anguished parents-in-low received a post-card. The CC.RR. Arma was immediately informed about the case and researches were made but with no result.

Reading the post-card, which is inclosed, it is anyway not difficult to immagine how things happened.

In that district, where so many people was killed and starved, there are still Germans riding around with cars and trucks. They enjoin themselves looking at the ruins and devastations they made. The poor woman, coming out of the cemetery, saw ons of those trucks full of Germans, standing on the road. They laughed at her, she saw them, the murderers of her beloved, laughing and fooling.....She throw a stone against them. The American soldier who escorted the Germans, did not know and did not understand what a terrible pain and what burning rebellion had caused the act: he detained the woman. Nothing was heard about her afterwards.

Now the writer asks the Minister to take informations, to do all it is possible in order to restore to the innocent and anguished children their poor mother.

She states that her husband was taken away by two men, who claimed to be partisans, aboard their car. Nothing further has been heard of him since.

She can give no reason for this action knowing that her husband was a member of the P.N.F. only to be able to find work. And as he was never mixed up in any political matters she can only attribute this to personal grudge.

She appeals for your intervention, to come to her help in finding her husband and be informed even of the worst as she can no longer bear this terrible uncertainly.

To the Presidency of the Council of Ministers
Rome

The undersigned, Carmela Innamorato-Grosso, of the late Giacomo, residing in S. Massimo, province of Campobasso, brings the following facts to your attention,

On June 19th, 1944, her only son, aged 13, Grosso Nicola, of Carmine, left his mother's house to join an allied unit. By doing this, he hoped to be able to join quickly and without difficulties his father who is in North America. Therefore, he went to Campobasso, and saw a British Major who was then in charge of the refugees, and after giving his real name and surname, he added that he was born at Campobasso, and that his mother and sister were killed by a bombardment and that his brother, a soldier in Albania, had been deported to Germany by the Germans.

The British Officer then sent him to the Foggia Camp, where assistance was given to the refugees. However, from the inquiries that have been made, it appears that he never arrived to the said camp.

The undersigned, knowing her child's character, supposed that he ran away during the trip, and managed to join some allied unit, as he firmly intended to do. Since that date she received no news, and the investigations, undertaken everywhere with great activity, gave no result.

The undersigned appeals to the Presidency, asking to have all possible investigations made, and also to ask for the support of the Allied Commission, which may give a definite answer about such a matter.

The undersigned gives the following data about her son: height about 1m, 60 black eyes, black hair, dark complexion, sturdy-looking. He has a scar on his nape (from an operation) one on the right ear, and one one the neck, copresponding to the same ear.

He was born in 1931, but looks older than he actually is.

Trusting that the Presidency will take the necessary action and contact the Allied Commission to help the undersigned who has no news from her only son and is in great sorrow, she remains,

Sincerely yours,

s. Carmela Innamorato in Grosso

La sottoscritta Carmela Innamorato in Gatto fu Giacomo, residente a S. Massimo in provincia di Campobasso, ha onore esporre quanto segue:

Il 19 giugno 1944, l'unico figlio trentenne della sottoscritta, a nome Gatto Nicola di Carmine, abbandonò la casa paterna col proposito di aggregarsi ad un reparto alleato. Egli, infatti, compiendo quasi tutto a piedi, di notte, raggiungeva, dopo lungo e faticoso cammino, il paese di Frosolone, dove trovavasi allora il Comando del Gruppo di Combattimento, presentatosi, a Campobasso, ad un maggiore inglese allora addetto agli affari civili e, dopo aver dichiarato le sue generalità, aggiunse di essere nativo di Castelmauro e di aver avuto la madre e la sorella perite in bombardamento ed il fratello, militare in Albania, deportato dai tedeschi in Germania.

L'ufficiale inglese promise allora ad

abbiarlo all'apposito campo di raccolta che venivano raccolti ed assistiti dai soldati.
Senonchè - che niente effettivamente - non giunse mai a tale campo.
La sottoscritta, conoscendo bene il temperamento del proprio figliuolo, presume che egli sia fuggito durante il viaggio, riuscendo ad aggregarsi a qualche altro drappello, come era sua intenzione.
Da quel giorno più nessuna notizia, anche le tante lettere, attualmente effettivamente in ogni luogo, sono miseramente inoltrate.
La sottoscritta si è quindi, decisa a rivolgersi a codesta Presidenza perchè, raccogliendo l'angoscioso grido di una mamma in pena, voglia disporre che vengano effettuate le possibili ricerche e venga resa intenzionata del riguardo la Commissione alleata, la quale sola potrà dire una parola definitiva in merito.
Nell'uopo la sottoscritta soggiunge che

L'unico suo figliuolo aveva i seguenti connotati: alto m. 1,60 circa; occhi neri; capelli neri; colorito bruno; complessione fisica, robusta; segni particolari: una cicatrice - per atto operatorio - alla regione, sul all'orecchio destro ed una in corrispondenza dello stesso orecchio nel collo.

Egli era nato nel 1921 ed era dimostrato più anni di quanti effettivamente ne aveva.

Sicura che codesta Prefettura vorrà disporre che vengano compiuti tutti i passi utili per e che venga interessata la Commissione alleata, per alleviare la sofferenza dalla sua disperata angoscia di madre che non sa più nulla del suo unico figlio, sciaguratamente deportato con altre persone.

SUBJECT: Whereabouts of Enrico Giannini

TO : Civil Affairs Section
(Att'n: Public Safety Sub-Commission)

1. Mrs. Fulvia Giannini La Porta of 35 Hamilton Place, New York 31, N. Y. has requested the Allied Commission to do whatever it can to locate her brother Enrico Giannini.

2. Briefly the situation is:

(a) Mr. Luigi Giannini, who has a lawyer's office in Via Giulia 5 Trieste, has a son Enrico Giannini aged 19.

(b) The boy, as soon as the Armistice was signed, on the 12th of September 1943, left a letter for his family, and after passing the lines reached the Allied Forces and the Italian Army, in South Italy. He fought at Cassino.

(c) He fought with the allies until the 21st of June 1944.

(d) After a brief stay in Abruzzo where my brother had taken refuge, father and son hastened to enrole in the new Italian Army.

(e) The father (Lieut. Colonel) and son fought with the 5th American Army and the 8th British Army until the end of April 1945 when Mr. Giannini was made Prefect of Ferrara.

(f) He left his son in action for the conquest of Bologna.

(g) After the fall of Bologna and the defeat of the German army, the boy was given leave and a bonus with which he went to Trieste.

ALLIED COMMISSION HEADQUARTERS 5962

(h) He arrived there on the 10th of May 1945. On the 14th of May, he was captured by a Yugoslav patrol. He was kept in prison until the night of the 22 - 23rd of May after which all trace of the boy was lost.

3. May this matter please be submitted to AMG Public Safety officers in Venezia-Giulia Region with a request that they do their best to obtain information as to whereabouts of Enrico Giannini and to report the facts to the Allied Commission.

Dear Sir,

I understand that it is to you that I should send my enquiry, and I shall be most grateful for your help.

I am anxious to trace a family of my friends whose last letter to me was dated July 19th, 1943. It was posted in Milan.

These people are Italian Jews — Signor Giuseppe Jona, aged about 57, his wife, Luisa, about 52, and their sons Massimo and Giorgio, aged about 25 and 15.

Signor Jona was in business in 1943 in the firm of Sugherifico Lombardo,
Viale Monte Grappa, 18,
Milano,
which manufactured shoes, or some part of them, I believe. He had previously worked for C. Olivetti e C. (manufacturing typewriters)
Galleria Vittorio Emanuele 69,
Milano.

56.7

In 1943 Signor Jona's home address was:
Via Guglielmo Silva, 18,
Milano, but the family had moved, at least temporarily, to the outskirts of that city. They had lived in Milan for about 10-12 years.

A younger brother, Umberto Jona used to work for Direzione Touring, Corso Italia, Milano. He used to live at Via San Martino, 14, in Milan.

My friends may be ill or in distress and I am anxious to help them. I realize that they may be dead. Can you help me to find out what has happened? Thanking you, Yours truly,
(Miss) Dorothy Mead

Tracing Friendly Italians

I wish to trace the present whereabouts of an Italian who helped me two years ago.

In September 1943 I was a Prisoner of War at Camp 29, Veano, near Ponte dell' Olio about 15 miles south of Piacenza. I got away from the camp and for two months hid with a few other British P.O.W. in the woods a few miles south of the camp. Ultimately, with the help of friendly Italians, I managed to get to Switzerland.

I would be glad of information about these friendly Italians who, for two months fed us, got us civilian clothes and eventually guided us to Switzerland. We had at the time very little money with which to recompense them. I and another officer at least promised we would try to send them certain gifts.

Through your organization perhaps it would be possible for me to obtain information and the present whereabouts of the following:-

(1) SenorCordani, Francesco
Monte Chiaro,
Mr Rivegaro,
Piacenza.

also his mother and his two sisters Emilia and Lena.

(2) Senor Sormani,
Agent for Lancia Motors?

MEMORANDUM

Rome, 19/9/45

Mr. Carlo de Bernardi was running a transport firm with seven trucks near Cerea di Verona.- After 8/9/43 the germans invaded Italy and tried to take advantage of the trucks until he exasperated by their treatment, made hp his mind and nightly moved to Como with the trucks.- There he put the trucks still in order at the disposal of the food-supply authorities.- Both R.A.C.I. and U.D.A. of Como released full documentation and backed my brother as they appreciated his deed.- The germans however were informed probably by a spy about the place he had moved to and made inquiries.- Realizing the fresh danger my brother dissembled the trucks, hide them and took shelter among the partisans in the area, where he remained for almost 6 months.- The vast documentation forwarded convinced the Questore of Como to release him from the jail where he had been locked-up owing to a false charge of cooperation, but the C.L.N. presided over by Mr.Stella (a comunist)has not yet given the Questura of Como the O.K. for the release.-

My brotherhas never been a fascist nor was he ever a member of the fascist party, yet he has been now in jail for over a month and a half.- That is simply ununderstandable ! Therefore I beg the police of Allied Commission to take care of this case and authorize Cap. Anderson, police chief at Questura di Como, to examine my brother's file and as it will result that no charge against my brother is grounded, to release him.-

Hundreds of similar cases can be seen at Como.-
