Ref your RX11/FS/17 of 29 Dec with two relative enclosures (returned herewith) the "Camp" referred to is, without doubt, the Civil Prison, VERONA City, which was formerly used as the 79 Infantry Barracks.

From the first days of liberation until the month of August, political prisoners were detained there and at COLOGNO VENETO and CEARA, both in the Province. In that month, all such detainees were transferred, I am informed, to a camp at MODENA. Latter camp has been disbanded.

From the day of liberation and until the present time criminal prisoners and political prisoners awaiting trial and already sentenced, also have been detained there and much money has been spent in having the building converted into a prison proper, the prison of VERONA having been destroyed during Allied air raid.

In any case, all lists of War Criminals and Italians and/or other nationals wanted for whatsoever crime or offence are checked with the Registers of the Civil Prison and the Questore has been instructed to continue this practice after the "hand over".

2. The 79 Inf Prison is an old Infantry Barracks in VERONA that has been taken over as a Civil Prison. It was badly damaged in an Air Raid and has only been partly repaired since but work is still in progress.
3. It has been the practice of the Provincial Public Safety Officer to screen the Prison Register to ascertain if any of the prisoners are on the "Wanted Lists".
4. There will of course be no Allied machinery to continue this screening after 31 Dec 45 and it is suggested that perhaps the FSS might be instructed to inspect all Prison Registers from time to time.
5. Your two enclosures are returned herewith as directed.

Subject : Proceeding against
GUCCIONE Ernesto

Chiavari 2 October 45

This Court of Assises proceeds against Guccione Ernesto, born in Genoa, on 11/12/1921, living in Lavagna, employee, charged for military collaboration with the German invader.

The accused maintains in his defence to have been, in company with a certain Morra Antonio, given by the Allies a mission in the territory occupied by the Germans and to have been bought from Corsica to the Ligure Coast by a Mac, and put on shore between Nive Trigoso and Moneglia; he had been furnished with a transmitting radio set for sending all the news concerning movements of troops, air bombardments etc. to an intelligence service station at Bari.

Guccione further says to have assumed by Allied order the war-name "Agent Lupo" and to have received the sum of L. 30.000 with the assurance to receive more money in time.

Morra Antonio, heard as witness, confirmed Guccione's statement. According to Guccione's statement, the abovementioned mission should have lasted from October 1943 to November 1944, and according to Morra's statement from October 1943 to March 1944.

For the sake of justice and in conformity with order of 26th Sept. given by this Court of Assise, we request you to kindly give us all information needed as soon as possible, suitable to prove the correctness of the statements made by the accused Guccione and by the witness Morra.

With thanks.

Object: Witness for Dr. Gustav Kramer.

In my quality as a priest and as a natural history research worker I feel it my duty to intervene in favour of a dear colleague of mine who is - I am informed - under the charge of grave accusations.

Dr. Gustav Kramer is Assistant Director of the Zoological Station in Naples, in which I am the Director of the Biological Studies Center of the Italian National Research Council.

We have worked for many years together. I know his qualities his straightforwardness and also his political opinions, which had nothing in common with nationalism or nazism.

I am a priori persuaded that he is incapable of the espionage activity which as far as I am informed, is charged upon that Gustav Kramer who is searched by the Allied Authorities, and with whom Dr. Gustav Kramer has nothing in common but the name.

I am sure the Commission will make me the justice of valuing this statements I make with full conscience. I have no doubt that the truth will emerge soon.

On 16/3/44 Lt E.W. Mould was shot down in flames at a place near Guillianova p.p. approximately R 89453. Lieut Mould was thrown clear of the plane and managed to parachute to safety; he was slightly injured in landing. There were Germans in the vicinity and with great personal risk some Italians who are believed to be the party concerned took Lt Mould and hid him in their house where they looked after him for some 4 months. They gave Lt Mould clothes, food and money, and he subsequently escaped back to our lines.

We have now received a letter from a signora Di Pietro Trolina of Via Cristofaro Colombo No 23, Roseto, who we believe was the party who hid and looked after Lt Mould; according to Di Pietro Trolina her husband had been jailed in Verano as a Fascist.

Would you be good enough to investigate this matter for us, as we feel an injustice is being done.

Please treat as urgent.

My dear Mr. Prime Minister:

I thank you for your letter of 7 July regarding Rachela Mussolini and her family. I have arranged for the Camp Commandant to hand them over to the Questore of Terni, and would be glad if, in issuing your instructions, you would see that the Questore accompanies your Public Safety official to the Camp.

The Allied Commission has no interest in the valuables which were in Signora Mussolini's possession, except that she must be instructed to sell all foreign currency and securities to the Terni Branch of the Bank of Italy. I understand that she does, in fact, hold a considerable sum in foreign currency.

I am very glad, my dear Mr. Prime Minister, that this matter has been finally decided, and hope that you will be able to arrange for Signora Mussolini to start her journey within a few days.

Yours very truly,
