Reference your AMG 412/75 dated 27/12/43.

There is no reason known to CC.RR. or AMG, why the two persons named in your letter, viz Fortarezze Pasquale and Buccino Tullio, should be detained any longer. Enquiries show that they were placed under arrest by a committee of local citizens who called themselves the "Comitato d'Azione".

No further information is available.

RICCI, Gullio.

The above named Italians were employed on Government duty at Lucera and were arrested by the C.I.R. on 20 Sep 43 on security grounds. They were confined in the prison at Lucera and transferred to the Civil Prison at Bari on 1 Nov 43.

On 2 Dec 43 H. IX Italian Corps asked that they might be released as there was no charge against them. So far this request has not been traced, and before taking action further information which you may be able to supply will be necessary. Will you please send to this HQ any particulars you have about their case and whether you know of any charges there may have been against them.
