Regia Questura di Roma.

Div. II
n. 116715 Mobile squad — Rome, 7 July 1944

Subject : Rota Giovanni Battista di Pietro residing at via A.Giulio Barrili 41, flat 12 and 13.

Giampieri Giovanni.

To : High Commission for punishment of the crimes and illicit acts of Fascists.

With reference to the request of esecution, we are returning the four copies of warrant of arrest regarding said persons and inform you that they have not been found in this city.- Sig. Rota residing in Rome since 22.1.44 at via A. Giulio Barrili n.41, where he occupied the flats N.12 and N.13 communicating with one another. He left his apartment and has never returned. It is rumoured, that he lives in La Spezia or Venice, where he is working for the Germans and for the Republican Fascist Navy.

Giampieri Giovanni, not completely identified in the warrant of arrest,is known as Giampieri Giovanni di Narciso and Cocchini Maria, born in S.Giovanni Valdarno the 2.8.1908, liric actor, residing in Milano. He has been in this city (Rome) for only one night from 16.12.43 to 17.12.43 at the Milano Hotel in Via Montecitorio. Leaving the Hotel he said that he was going to Piombino.

A certain Caucci Giovanni, residing in Via A. Poerio 13, has been ordered by Rota to seperate the two flats; the flat n. 13 has been leased to Cabrusà Giorgio fu Antonio and di Buggioni Evelina, born at Milano the 1.5.1891, business-man, who resides there at the present time, while the other flat contains the furniture of Rota.

Reference orders of that High Commission all the property existing in the flat n.12 has been confiscated. Inventry of the furniture confiscated has been listed on the confiscation-papers. All doors have been locked.

Cabrusà has beer appointed as trustee of the furniture. He tells that many pieces of the furniture has been requisitioned by Capt. Robert Norman Prigge of the Allied Force M.G. Rome, showing a receipt therefore. This has been noted in the requisition paper. He added that many objects belonging to Rota are still in his flat: said objects listed in the minute have been levied upon.

The keys of the inner doors are in this Office, while the key of the entrance door is in possession of Scarpitti Flavia fu Pasquale and di Filonella Colarossi, born at Roccaraso the 27.6.1911, residing in via Ricasoli 19. Said Scarpetti declared that her fiancé Dr. Palladino Edmondo, official of Court of "Conti", residing in via Napoleone III [illegible]5, received the keys of said apartment from the owner of the apartment Marchesa Maria Marconi, as per contract dated 21.6.1944. Miss Scarpitti
