I request you to kindly grant me permission to go to the British occupied zone of Austria.

I am a Yugoslav citizen. Up to the end of the first world war I was an Austrian subject. But as the part of Austria to which I belonged was given in 1918 to the new Kingdom of Yugoslavia, I then automatically became a Yugoslav citizen.

I am a Doctor of Civil law of the University of Graz (Austria), having first studied Roman Law at the University of Oxford (Magdalen College).

When the Germans invaded Yugoslavia, I fled to Italy and have been living in Florence since November 1941. My wife and two of our daughters went to Carinthia (Austria), where we have two houses in the village of Pörtschach, 8 miles from Klagenfurt. One of these houses (Ville Born) has been requisitioned by the British troops, and my family is now living in our second house (Ville Renata), and I would like to join them there, as, for the moment, it is quite impossible for us to return to Yugoslavia, our home there having been entirely destroyed during the war.

3. As a result of interrogation, it has been learnt that:-

4. In June/July 1939 NAIT left CANADA on the liner "BREMEN" in order to go back to ITALY through GERMANY. He landed at HAMBURG and found that his luggage had not travelled with him. After many enquiries he decided to wait in a hotel in HAMBURG for his luggage to arrive. Meanwhile the war broke out, and NAIT being a foreigner was unable to leave GERMANY and cross over to ITALY. He then took up his occupation of waiter in different hotels, first in HAMBURG and later in HEARTENSDORF, LEIPZIG, KUFLACH and MUNICH.

5. When force labour was introduced in Germany end 1943, he left his occupation and managed to have his name put down as interpreter on a ficticious nominal roll of SIEMER & LEICHLAW contractors, firm recognised of military importance. He remained on the strength of that firm with no further trouble until the arrival of the American Forces. He registered to the Allied Military Government on 25 July 1945 at FIRSTENFELDBRUCK near MUNICH.

6. On the initiative of a certain Maestro Basso, an Italian living in MUNICH, NAIT has been organising with him shows for the American troops stationed in the town.

7. The reason for NAIT and his two friends to come to ITALY was to find new talent for their shows. They were given a document by 1st Lt.

Gerard W. Van LIOW, Theatre Control Officer, MUNICH Detachment 6570 District Information Services Control Command APO 403 US Army, stating that Alfredo BASSO and his two companions: NAIT Ermenegildo and LUSSI Carlo intended to travel to ITALY. With this document NAIT states that BASSO received from AMG MUNICH a permit written in English and German to circulate with his two friends in GERMANY and ITALY in a car No. II A 49209 for a period of 15 days, permit expiring on the 7 Oct. 45. Apparently this permit was lost by BASSO during the journey between MUNICH and BOLZANO. BASSO's car travelled from MUNICH in convoy with a number of displaced persons returning to ITALY. They were escorted all the way by an American officer to BOLZANO where they arrived on the 26 Sept. 45. When checked at the border, BASSO realised that he had lost his permit, and was asked to write a statement to that effect, which was then stamped and signed by the Italian Authorities and used as a proper permit by the bearer. At BOLZANO all three were issued with a registration card. (When first arrested NAIT failed to produce these documents).

8. NAIT states that after his arrival in MILAN with BASSO and LUSSI, he left them there and continued his journey to TERZO MB pl6SCC where his mother lives. He arrived at TERZO on 29 Sept. 45.

9. NAIT intends to rejoin his friends in MILAN and proceed to ROME to find new talent for his shows. At the same time they were going to apply in ROME for proper documents in order to return to MUNICH.

ACTION TAKEN

The car has been confiscated and is at BOLZZNO held by AMG.

OBSERVATIONS

NAIT's story appears to be genuine. However this could be checked at MUNICH with AMG of that town.

SUBJECT : Entry into Italy of wives of British Military personnel.

TO : Ministero degli Affari Esteri

1. Reference our letter GBI. 389-506/18-J-2 of 21 Dec. 45.

2. This office has been informed by GHQ. CMF that approximately 500 applications have been received for the entry into Italy of wives of British Service personnel.

3. It is estimated that the great majority will be accomodated in billets already occupied by the Military Authorities here and that no further requisitioning will be necessary.

4. The wives will be added to the British ration strength and will not be authorised to use Italian civilian resources.

5. Incidentally, as only 50 passages per month are allocated to this traffic it is estimated that the operation will take many months to complete.

"May it please be stated whether the s/n, as Austrian subjects, intend to take up permanent residence in AUSTRIA, as it is the general policy of this office to allow for the repatriation of Austrians only where such is the case.

If the subjects are married it is NOT understood why RUPNIK uses her maiden name and gives her nationality as "none". May this please be clarified.

Whilst there would appear to be no security objection to the application, it is possible that RUPNIK may be related to General RUPNIK, the ex-Burgermeister of LJUBIJANA (see "Handbook of Jugoslav Personalities" Volume III)."

// "May it please be stated whether the a/m, as Austrian subjects, intend to take up permanent residence in AUSTRIA, as it is the general policy of this office to allow for the repatriation of Austrians only where such is the case.

If the subjects are married it is NOT understood why RUPNIK uses her maiden name and gives her nationality as "none". May this please be clarified.

Whilst there would appear to be no security objection to the application, it is possible that RUPNIK may be related to General RUPNIK, the ex-Burgomeister of LJUBLJANA (see "Handbook of Jugoslav Personalities" Volume III)."//
