SERVIZIO INFORMAZIONE DIFESA (S.I.D.)

(Intelligence Service for defence)

The S.I.D. acts under instructions of the Ministry of FF.AA.

The S.I.D. has sections in the General Staffs of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

The S.I.D. was established on 1/10/43. Dr. Vittorio FOSCHINI was the Chief of the S.I.D. In January 1944 he was replaced by Lt.Col. RR.CC. Candeloro DE LEO.

The activity of the S.I.D. has been limited to counter-intelligence because the German Authorities mistrusted them.

The Offices existing as of September 1944 were the following:

- General Secretary's Office (Cap. di Corvetta DE GERMANIS)
- Service "E" (Army): Col. MALVINI
- Service "M" (Navy): Cap. di Vascello DEL MONTE
- Service "A" (Air Force): Lt. Col. CAMILLETTI (after Col. CECCOTTI)
- Section Interception and Cryptography (Col. COSMACINI)
- Personal Office (Consul SCOGNAMILLO)
- Administrative Office (Seniore Boero SATTA)

In November 1943 a German Liaison Office had been attached to the S.I.D. (Mj. Von GRIESHEIM).

The S.I.D. itself had established detachments in various governmental Agencies:

Together with the first Group it is believed to have returned to Italy in November 1944 and to have been dissolved.

BATTAGLIONI ANTIPARACADUTISTI

(Anti-paratroop batalions)

They were constituted in September and in October 1944 with an especially skilled as well as an ordinary staff. They operate under the General Staff and are used in the fighting against partisans and paratroops. In all they are units not well trained, undisciplined and of little efficiency. The following batalions are known:

- 5° Bat. - Tradate - (Lt.Col. Arduino BURI)
- 6° " - Bergamo - (Lt.Col. Egidio PELLIZZARI)
- 9° " - Milano - (Maj. Mario DE BLASE)

Artiglieria Controaerea Aeronautica

(Air Force antiaircraft)

Command: Verona (Gen. Remo FIASCHI)

Depot: Vicenza (Lt.Col. Antonio FRATTINI)

CENTRO ESPERIENZE DI DESENZANO

(Experimental Center of Desenzano)

It was headed by Col. EULA and divided into three sections:

- Section 1: it concerns "aero-idrodinamica" (Air-hydro-dynamics)
- Section 2: RESBA (Torpedos and Naval Bomb Development) is headed by Lt.Col. CREMONA
- Section 3: Radio Command, formerly headed by Lt.Col. RINALDI studies matters regarding radio-commanded torpedos.

It is believed that the center was dissolved recently.

CONCLUSIONS

In all the Republican Air Force has 1500 officers, 3500 non commissioned officers and 8000 privates. These figures do not include the elements of the other Armed Forces that recently have been attached to the Air Force (paratroops and antiaircraft).

The Air Force has participated in the fight against Allies more actively than the other Armed Forces.

At the end of August 1944, owing to the fact that Gen. TESSARI has fled to Switzerland, the German Authorities had the intention of dissolving the Republican Air Force and of incorporating the staff into other Army's units. However such a measure was not taken and Gen. BONOMI was appointed Undersecretary for Air.

The Republican Air Force was reorganised: some units were dissolved and some antiparatroop batalions were constituted. The Republican Air Force was named "National Republican Air Force" and was put under a more close control of the Luftwaffe Hq operating in Italy.

SECRETFASCIST REPUBLICAN NAVYCentral Organisation

The first Undersecretary of the Republican Navy was Admiral LEGNANI who held also the post of Chief of Staff. After the death of Admiral LEGNANI, Commander FERRINI was appointed Undersecretary, but he was replaced by Admiral SPARZANI who at present has both the posts of Undersecretary and Chief of Staff.

The Undersecretary's Office is located at Montecchio S. Vitale (Venezza) and has the same organisation as the former Navy Ministry. With the Undersecretary's Office for Navy are a liaison office with the German Navy Hq (Cap. di Fregata SESTINI) and a liaison office with the Ministry of Armed Forces (Cap. di Fregata CRISCUOLO).

PRELIMINARY

Source "A" is a 34 year old Sardinian priest, of simple character but not un-intelligent. He was at one time chaplain to the Republican Council of Ministers and is a close friend of the Under-Secretary of State, Francesco DeLuca, also a Sardinian. For this reason it is considered that the opinions expressed on some of the personalities mentioned, especially on those of Sardinian origin, may be somewhat biased. His information dates from Apr 44.

Source "B" is a 30-year-old Roman, intelligent and a willing talker. The information given by him in his report may be considered fairly reliable, although, contrary to Source "A", he appears to be somewhat prejudiced against DeLuca and the other Sardinians in government circles. His information dates from the end of May 44.

Sources "C" and "D" were both members of the Republican Auxiliary Police in Bologna and their lists of personalities may be considered reliable. They left Bologna at the end of July 44.

D. GENERAL

1. Relations between Germans and Republicans

Sources "A" and "B" both agree that the Germans have a very low opinion of the Republican Government, which they tolerate as necessary evil, and that the Government itself, while wholeheartedly anti-Communist, is divided in its opinion of the Germans. Some of its members are genuinely Germanophile and hate the Allies, but others, while professing to be pro-German, secretly detest the Germans and, realising that the war is lost, hope for a speedy return to modified pre-war conditions. According to Source "B", in May 44 the Republican Government was hoping to regain some prestige in the eyes of the Germans as a result of the formation of the Republican Divisions the training in Germany, of which good reports had been received.

Source "A" is a 34 year old Sardinian priest, of simple character but not unintelligent. He was at one time chaplain to the Republican Council of Ministers and is a close friend of the Under-Secretary of State, Francesco De Sisti, also a Sardinian. For this reason it is considered that the opinions expressed by some of the personalities mentioned, especially on those of Sardinian origin, may be somewhat biased. His information comes from Apr 44.

Source "B" is a 30-year-old Roman, intelligent and a willing talker. The information given by him in his report may be considered fairly reliable, although, contrary to Source "A", he appears to be somewhat prejudiced against Mussolini and the other cardinals in government circles. His information dates from the end of May 44.

Sources "C" and "D" were both members of the Republican Auxiliary Police in Rome and their lists of personalities may be considered reliable. They left Rome at the end of July 44.

3. GENERAL

1. Relations between Germans and Republicans

Sources "A" and "B" both agree that the Germans have a very low opinion of the Republican Government, which they tolerate as a necessary evil, and that the Government itself, while wholeheartedly anti-Communist, is divided in its opinion of the Germans. Some of its members are obviously Germanophile and hate the Allies, but others, while professing to be pro-German, secretly detest the Germans and, realizing that the war is lost, hope for a speedy return to modified pre-war conditions. According to Source "B", in May 44 the Republican Government was moving to regain some prestige in the eyes of the Germans as a result of the formation of three Republican Divisions that training in Germany, of which good reports had been received.

2. Opinions and movements inside the Republican Government

According to Source "A", the members of the Republican Government can be divided into three categories, viz:

a) the old Fascists.

These are men who have made their money out of Fascism, who are still making money and who would like to carry on in their present positions. They are for the most part Germanophiles and have no liking for the Allies. They have decided that they will not be able to save their skins when the Allies arrive, and are prepared to go to Germany if necessary or to take refuge in a neutral country, if they can find one which will accept them. They are hated by the

Italians as a whole and by the few honest men in the Government. The leading men in this category are MARIANI, FACCHINI, LUCCHINI and DEZ-SAL. (Note: according to Source "A" MARIANI and FACCHINI are anti-German and the leading pro-German elements are LUCCHINI, FACCHINI, DEZ-SAL, MARIANI and MARIANI.)

b) ~~the Time-Servers.~~

These are men who have well-paid jobs and who manage to live and eat well. They are quite content with things as they are, and hope that when the Allies arrive their past activities will be forgotten.

c) The "unwilling horses"

These are the men who have intimidated into taking up posts in the Government, and they include the few honest men who have been recently appointed. They are headed by KALLIO, but do not represent an organised minority. They see no way out of MALLI's present predicament except some form of dictatorship free from the corruption of pre-war Fascism. They hope that the Allies will deal leniently with them.

c) The "unwilling horses"

These are the men who were introduced into taking on posts in the Government, and they include the few honest men who have been recently appointed.
