TO : HQ, Allied Commission, Public Safety Sub-Commission, Security Division.

1. With reference to your SD/500 of 17 February 1945 and subsequent SD/500-44 of 14 March 1945, the following information is submitted:

2. DI CESARE Ottavio di Giuseppe e fu Salciccioli Carmina was born at Hamilton (Ontario) Canada on 31 May 1922 and lives in Via Quintino Sella 61, Carbonia (Cagliari). Subject has been at this address since 1 February 1940. The records at Carbonia list him as an Italian citizen. He has no known record of any kind.

3. The Military District Command of Cagliari has him inducted and assigned to the 45th Infantry Regiment as of 8 May 1943.

4. The entire DI CESARE family, including subject's father DI CESARE Giuseppe, are Italian citizens.

5. DI CESARE Giuseppe, subject's father, declares that he emigrated to Canada in 1908 and was there married. In 1936 he returned to Gagliano Aterno with his family with the intention of remaining in Italy a short time, after which he planned to return to Canada. The political events of that period, however, prevented his return. In 1940 he went to Carbonia where he took employment with the Carbonifera Sarda (Carbonia Coal Mining Association).

6. Subject's family consists of his father, two brothers and three sisters. On 31 October 1941, the father was arrested for disorderly conduct and on 19 January 1944 he was again arrested on suspicion. He was released on both instances. A brother, Fernando, was arrested and charged with a theft committed against Major Max A. MATTHEWS, AUS, at Carbonia. Trial is pending. Two sisters, Leida and Emma, are prostitutes.

7. The family was inscribed in the Fascist Party but none held office within the Party nor were they active in Party activities. Morally, the DI CESARE family has a poor reputation.

8. Subject attended elementary school in America and was employed as an interpreter with U.S. Army units in Sardinia. He is now believed to be on the mainland but his exact whereabouts is unknown as he has not communicated with his family since his departure from Sardinia.

9. The above information was obtained through the Italian C/S from authorities and subject's family at Carbonia.

TRANSLATION

MOLLO Attilio son of Stefano - Student.

He left Sicily (Messina) where his family resided in 1943, and came to Rome in order to escape from air-raids and after having lost practically all his property.

He and his people are leading a difficult life, while it has been ascertained that in Sicily his financial situation was good.

He is an intelligent, educated fellow, very fond of his people with whom he lives in good understanding.

Owing to his young age he never took an interest in politics, at least since he is in Rome, and didn't collaborate with the nazi-fascists.

His father is an employee but doesn't earn enough money for a family of 6 persons.

Attilio Mollo is esteemed in the neighbourhood and by all those who knew him.

He has no unfavourable precedents in the Police records.

BURALI-FORTI Cosimo (?) of Umberto - Student.

He has been in Rome for the last few years, and came from Pescara where his father exercised the profession of engineer. Being a young student he never took an interest in politics also because he has always been very fond of his people.

His father joined the fascist party only in order to continue his profession and earn money for his family. He never had pro-fascist or pro-German sentiments.

During the occupation of Rome Burali-Forti and a brother of about his age remained hidden a long time in order to avoid forced labours for the Germans.

The above named belongs to a serious, educated and reliable family.

He never had any political activity and didn't collaborate with the nazi-fascists.

BORTOLI Giorgio son of Antonio and of Rossi Maria, born in Civita-vecchia on the 3rd of June 1924, living at viale Parioli, 103 in the house of his sister in law Anna Sorgi-Bartoli, residing usually in Valdagno (Vicenza).

The above named is said to be a student attending the 3rd class of engineering university, and came to Rome about 20 days ago from a concentration camp, probably from the camp of Macerata.

He is reported to have taken part in groups of partisans working in Piemonte who had to go to France in order to escape from the Germans. With the authorisation of the French authorities he came back to Italy where the Allies put him in quarantine in a concentration camp. After his release he came to Rome, settling himself in his sister in law's house.

In 1932 Bortoli and his people came to Rome from Viterbo remaining in this city until 1933 when they left for Vicenza.

His father was at that time a Major of the Carabinieri Corps, and is now retired with the rank of Colonel.

Bortoli's brother Mario, born in Vittorio Veneto on the 27th of March 1917, living in Rome viale Parioli, 103, husband of Anna Sorgi, Lieutenant of the Carabinieri Corps, was in Croatia when Armistice was declared. As he didn't want to recognise the fascist republic he was deported to Germany.

Giorgio Bortoli has no precedents in the records of the local Questura.

His sister in law Sorgi Anna daughter of Achille and of Moretti Enrica, born in S.Penedetto del Tronto on the 3rd of March 1904, has rather a bad past, as until 1940 she lived with baron Berlingeri Andrea at viale Parioli, 103, that is to say in the same house where she lives now. Baron Berlingeri died during the Grecian campaign, and on the 23rd of May 1943 she married lieutenant Mario Bortoli by proxy.

BORTOLI Giorgio di Antonio e di Rossi Maria, nato a Civitavecchia il 3 giugno 1924, abitante al Viale Parioli n.103, presso la cognata Sorci Anna in Bortoli, domiciliato a Valdagno (Vicenza).

Il predetto, che dicesi sia studente del III anno di ingegneria, risiede a Roma da una ventina di giorni, proveniente da un campo di concentramento-si crede quello di Macerata -.

Egli, a quanto risulterebbe, avrebbe fatto parte di bande partigiane operanti nel Piemonte e possiede riparate in Francia per sfuggire alla cattura dei tedeschi. Della Francia poi sarebbe stato rimpatriato, in accordo con i francesi, e tenuto in quarantena dalle autorità alleate in un campo di concentramento.

Liberato un mese fa circa, riparò a Roma, ospite della cognata, come anzi si è detto.

Il Bortoli fu a Roma, con la famiglia, dal 1932 al 1933, proveniente da Viterbo, possiede con essa si trasferì a Vicenza. In quel tempo il di lui padre era Maggiore dei CC.RR., ora a riposo col grado di Colonnello.

Un fratello del predetto, Bortoli Mario, nato a Vittorio Veneto il 27 marzo 1917, domiciliato a Roma, viale Parioli 103, marito della Sorci Anna, Denente dei CC.RR., all'atto dell'armistizio si trovava in Croazia. I tedeschi lo catturavano e lo deportavano in Germania, perchè, si dice, non volle aderire alla pseudo repubblica sociale.

Negli atti della locale R. Questura non esistono precedenti di sorta a nome del Bortoli Giorgio.

TRANSLATION.

BORTOLI Giorgio of Antonio - Student.

He has been in Rome for the past few months living at his sister in law's house . His brother, a senior officer of the Carabinieri Corps has been interned in Germany since the Armistice. During the German occupation he was in central Italy, and is now separated from his family.

Bortoli has no other relatives in Rome except the above named sister in law. Besides, he is not very well known in this city as he always used to live in Vicenza and Venezia with his people. According to the information available in Rome nothing can be said against him, and he has no unfavourable precedents in the Police records.

Under the German domination he remained hidden and didn't collaborate with the nazi-fascists

He is reported to be an educated, honest fellow, and a good patrict. His financial situation is good, he lives in viale Parioli, 103, with his sister in law and her brother.

Dear Col., I thought the following info may be of interest for what it is worth.

Recently a woman about 50 yrs or a little older stayed here for a couple of days or so. I caused Col Marshall, the P.M.C. to challenge her identity. — ^{now}

She stated she was Swiss Nationality and interested in Agriculture & apparently had a letter or pass or some paper or other from Agric Sub Com. A.C.

I have now learned that she is most likely a Russian agent, as the info I've now got is that she has sent some Russian papers & propaganda to some people here, (who she learned during her stay here) were formerly "White Russians."

We've contacted F.S.S. this end.

As she may be playing around with Agric Sub Com.
at your HQ. I pass the info to you as a matter of interest. She is rather thin faced, sharp nose, & speaks English well.

Everything just the same here.

Further to my last note

Herewith copy of her travel order issued at A.C.

She admitted to Col Middlewood, after close questioning, that she came out more or less on "pleasure," & not in connection with Orgnic Work.

I think she was born in St. Petersburg
& is carrying Swiss Legation papers.
