Siena 24 August 1946

TO: The Allied Force Headquarters

I, the undersigned, Alberto Moggi, as defense Counsel of Mr. Marino Rotelli (P.O.W. No 688 - presently held at 370 Camp located at Rimini) take the liberty to apply to your Command for the following:

Mr. Marino Rotelli in July 1944 was interned by the Allied Authorities in the concentration-camp of Terni for having been a member of the Social Republican Army. Subsequently he, being charged with collaborationism, was turned over to the Italian Authorities at disposal of the Special Court of Justice of Siena.

In the month of July of this year he was acquitted and turned over to the Allied Authorities who sent him to the 370 concentration-camp. Mr. Marini, who is the only support of his old mother, his wife and two children, has been living for two years far away from his family.

All the persons who were apprehended with Mr. Rotelli have been released since a long time. Therefore I beg your Command to take into your highest consideration his case and to issue the appropriate dispositions so that he may be released at the earliest possible date.

In the hope to receive your solicitous answer, I thank you.

On. COMANDO GENERALE ALLEATO
C A S E R T A

Il sottoscritto, nella sua qualità di difensore del Sig. ROTELLI Marino (P.O.W. n°688 = 370 CAMP Rimini) si permette rivolgersi a cotesto COMANDO per quanto appresso:

Il MARINO ROTELLI venne internato dalla Autorita Alleata nel Campo di Concentramento di TERNI nel Luglio 1944 per avere partecipato alla formazioni militari del sedicente governo della Reppublica Sociale Italiana.

Il medesimo venne di poi consegnato dalla stessa Autortà alla Polizia Italiana a disposizione della Corte d'Assise Speciale di Siena, perché denunciato per collaborazionismo.

Nei primi dello scorso Luglio lo stesso Rotelli, difeso dal sottoscritto Avvocato, venne prosciolto per amnistia e restituito a cotesta Autorità che né ha ordinato l' internamento nel CAMP suddetto (370 Rimini)

Il Marini, che ha la vecchia madre, la moglie e due figli che lo attendono, ha così subito oltre due anni di detenzione fra carcere e campo di concentramento.

Per quanto risulta allo scrivente tutti coloro che furono fatti prigionieri con il Rotelli furono rilasciati in libertà da lungo tempo.

Prega pertanto di voler esaminare la posizione del suddetto, perché, ove nulla absti, possa essere rimesso in libertà, premesse le pratiche del caso.

Sarò grato di un cenno di riscontro.

Memo

Montesantangelo 12-9-1946

Comandante Supremo Alleato

Caserta

I, undersigned, Maria Giuseppa De Palma, mother of Mazulli Gabriele, interned in this cited P.W. Camp, beseeches, besides for justice, also for humanity, his freedom. It is, by this time, 18 months, that, for reasons, less than trifling, my son is transferred from on e camp to an other. Why? Ido not know the true reason.

Why an unfortunate man, whose mother is aged and ill and need his son's support must remain far away from him so long time, meanwhile the sorrow is reciprocal? What did my son do so bad, to remain so long prisoner, while many others, among the true responsible of all our ruins have been annestied?

Then, Amnesty is not extended impartially, but only individually for some people, and therefore unjustly!!

It is long time, about 18 months, I suffer, the more so as I am old and ill, and I cannot do anything other that ask you this grace, that is more than right, that is humane.

I do not know if this letter will reach the heart of those who are competent in this matter, I hope so, and I hope you will deign to answer to this old mother who is broken-hearted, and wishes to be cleared up, about his son's fate.

I am waiting for your answer with anxiety, and during this waiting that will seem to me everlasting, I thank you very much, and I hope you understand this mother's heart.

I enclose for your information:

1 - Medical Certificate
2 - Familly Statement

Your Very Truly.

De Palma Maria Giuseppa

P/S From these documents you can see my son is my unique support, as I am old and ill.

To the Allied Command in Caserta, Naples

Subject:
Mrs. Maria Grandi 370

POW
Camp Interne C.M.F.
Riccione

I courteously allow myself to place a request into your hands. My daughter in law, Mrs. Maria Grandi and her child Benito, have been kept in one of your guarded camps in Riccione for two years.

I went there at the beginning of September in order to visit those two dear relatives of ours. I also hoped, that release for both of them would eventually be granted to me, however, in vain. I was taken care of and told, that the Headquarters is located in Caserta and everything must pass through there. It was also explained to me that they would eventually be released by September 15. We have waited for this release until today in vain.

Now I would like to ask you why are two such dear peoples kept, and by when could we expect their release.

May I also ask you to take this matter seriously,so that both those dear persons can be free. Again.

Since my wife is very sick we would enjoy our daughter in law's presence very much.

We hope to receive good news from you, so that we can expect our sister in law with her child to come to Switzerland soon.

With many thanks in advance, for you gracious efforts I sign.

Sincerely yours
GRANDI JOHAN

Betrifft:
Frau Maria Grandi 370

P O W
Camp Interne C.M.F.
Riccione

Erlaube mir höflichst mit einer Anfrage an Sie zu gelangen. Meine Schwiegertochter Frau Maria Grandi und Kind Benito befinden sich seit etwa zwei Jahren in einem von Ihnen bewachten Lager in Riccione.

Anfangs September reiste ich nach dort um die beiden uns lieben Angehörigen zu besuchen. Ich hofft auch, dass eventuell die Entlassung der Beiden mir bewilligt würde, jedoch vergebens. Man teilte mir mit, dass das Hauptkommando sich in Caserta befinde und alles von dort aus bewilligt sein müsse. Ebenfalls erklärte man mir, dass die Beiden eventuell bis 15. September entlassen würden. Bis heute haben wir vergebens auf diese Entlassung gewartet.

Nun möchte ich Sie gütigst anfragen, warum man diese beiden uns so lieben Menschen in dort festhält und wann wir deren Entlassung erwarten dürfen.

Darf ich Sie auch bitten, sich dieser Sache ernstlich anzunehmen, damit diese beiden lieben Menschen endlich wieder einmal in Freiheit sind.

Da meine Frau sehr leidend ist, wären wir über das Dasein unserer lieben Schwiegertochter sehr froh.

Wir hoffen von Ihnen bald einen guten Bericht zu erhalten, dass wir unsere Schwiegertochter mit Kind recht bald in der Schweiz erwarten dürfen.

Mit grösstem Dank im Voraus für Ihr gütiges Bemühen grüsst Sie

mit vorzüglicher Hochachtung

J had from Mr. Alexander Falchi this letter which J am sending to you begging to let me know the reason why Miss Anna Maria Falchi, interned in Concentration Camp of Riccione, is still kept there while from August last the Allied Command of Caserta has given a permit of release, confermed by the Italian Authorities of Rimini.

J would be very grateful if you could let me know for how long this lady will still be interned.

Hoping to have an early answer J thank you for all the trouble you'll thake for this lady.

Believe me your truly.

R O M A

Will yog be so kind ahd go at the Allied Command of Rome to see the reason why my daughter Anna Maria is still kept at the Concentration Camp of Riccione, while the Allied Command of Caserta has given the permit of release some time ago confermed by the Italian Authorities.

J would be very glad to do all that myself but for many reason J cant come to Rome.

Try to do all what you can, to enable my daughter to come at home as soon as possible and please let me know something.

With this letter J give you complete freedom of doing, so you can do as if you were myself.

J assure you my gratefulness toghether with my family.

Excuse me if J give you this trouble and please accept my best salutations.

==========

La prego di voler essere gentile ed interessarsi presso il Comando Alleato di Roma di conoscere le ragioni per le quali la mia fogliuola Anna Maria è tutt'ora trattenuta presso il Campo di Concentramento di Riccione, malgrado il Comando Alleato di Caserta abbia dato da tempo il suo nulla osta per il rilascio e malgrado che analogo nulla osta sia stato rilasciato dalle competenti Autorità Italiane.

Sarei bel felice di poterlo fare io ma molteplici ragioni mi impediscono di venire costà.

Si adoperi perchè Anna Maria possa presto tornare a casa e la prego di tenermi informato.

Con questa lettera le concedo ampio mandato perchè lei possa agire come fossi io stesso assicurandola che le sarò grato insieme ai miei.

Mi scusi se approfitto della nostra amicizia e la prego di gradire i miei più cordiali saluti.

Dott. Alessandro

Dear Sir,

The Secretariat of State of His Holiness takes the liberty to recommend to the considerate attention of the competent authorities the request of Dott. Inos Cimignaghi of Monza for the liberation of her brother Attilio Cimignaghi presently detained in 370 P.O.W. Camp, Interne CMF, Rimini.

Dott. Cimignaghi states that her brother was enrolled into the army at the time of the Social Republic of Salò without taking active part in the fighting. His family is very concerned about him.

Thanking you for the consideration you may deem to give this request, I am

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir,

Referring to your letter dated 3 September 1946, I have to inform you that authority for the release of your sister Elisa GIACALONE was given on 27 August 1946. When the necessary formalities have been completed she will be released, this will probably be in two to three weeks.

Egregio Signore,

Con riferimento alla sua lettera del 3 Settembre c.a. sono tenuto as informarla che l'autorizzazione per il rilascio di sua sorella Elisa GIACALONE e' stato date il 27 Agosto 1946. Quanto poi le necessarie formalita' saranno completate sua sorella sara' rilasciata e questo si verifichera", con molta probabilita', tra due o tre settimane.

Subject: GIACALONE Elisa, internee

The undersigned, recently returned from the U.R.S.S., begs this Allied Commission to let him know the reasons which determined the arrest and internment of the a/m subject - his sister.

The a/m's generalities are as follows:

GIACALONE Elisa of the late Giuseppe and of Angela Urbani, born in ROME on 1-7-1931, interned since 15 months.

The undersigned also begs this Commission to let him know if the Allied Authorities do not pay any attention to the girl's age, age which leads her to suffer and share the thought of the other girls who are with her and imitate their behaviour.

The little girl was 13 and half years old when was arrested and now is the youngest in the Concentration Camp.

The undersigned hopes that the necessary actions will be taken by the Allied authorities and that the girl will be given back to her family who is anxious to have her again with them.

Sincerely yours

Il sottoscritto, Giacalone Ernesto, di recente rimpatriato dalla U.R.S.S., prega codesta Commissione di volergli fornire ogni informazione sulle regioni che dettengono la sorella Giacalone Elisa, recante il n. 117, nel campo di concentramento n. 370 per prigionieri politici, in Russia –

Le generalità di una sorella sono le seguenti:
Giacalone Elisa fu Giuseppe e di Angela Urbani nata a Roma il 1-7-1931, prigioniera da circa quindici mesi –

Il sottoscritto prega, altresì, di fargli conoscere se codesta Commissione non ritenga di tener conto, nelle pratiche di liberazione, dell'età di una ragazza (15 anni), età che la rassegna a subire e sopportare il peso di compagne di prigionia e ad imitarne il comportamento –

La piccola Elisa aveva tredici anni e mezzo, quando cadde prigioniera, ed è ora la più giovane tra le trattenute nel campo suddetto –

Il sottoscritto confida nella comprensione di codesta Commissione –

Roma, 3-9-1946

Ernesto Giacalone

fornire ogni informazione sulle ragioni che trattengono la sorella Giacalone Elisa, recante il n. 117, nel campo di concentramento n. 370 per prigionieri politici, in Riccione.

Le generalità di mia sorella sono le seguenti:

Giacalone Elisa fu Giuseppe e di Angela Urbani nata a Roma il 1-7-1931, prigioniera da circa quindici mesi.

Il sottoscritto prega, altresì, di fargli conoscere se codesta Commissione non ritenga di tener conto, nelle pratiche di liberazione, dell'età di mia sorella (15 anni), età che la rassegna a subire e considerare il fenomeno di compagne di prigionia e ad uniformare il comportamento.

La piccola Elisa aveva tredici anni e mezzo, quando cadde prigioniera, ed è or la più giovane tra le trattenute nel campo suddetto.

Il sottoscritto confida nella comprensione di codesta Commissione.

RELEASED

SUBJECT: Prisoner of War Cases Geltrude fu Massimo.

For those measures you may deem necessary, we transmit the herewith petition forwarded by the mother of the prisoner mentioned above, by which she makes appeal for the release of her daughter.

The prisoner is an Italian subject and is entitled to make her residence in Alto Adige.

According to information had from the Bolzano RR.CC. Arma, the prisoner is of good moral and civil conduct having no unfavourable precedents.

Her feelings were pro-German, but there are no proofs that she become a naturalized German; she gave her service as interpreter with the German police at Cortina d'Ampezzo and at Belluno.

She is a spinster and has a mother to care for.

Her eventual release would produce favourable public impression and for this reason this Ministry favours her freeing from the Prisoners' Camp.

Subject: Appeal for the release of Geltrude Elles -Cases from NR.38 Camp. 370 P.O.W. C.M.F. Riccione.

The undersigned Maria Sinner widow Elles-Cases appeals to set her daughter free on the plea that:

her daughter, Gertrude Elles-Cases, born at Brunico on 10.2.1918 and there residing, was compelled to give her service with the German police from November 1944 to the end of the war as typist and bookkeeper. From Oct. to the end of March, she was at Cortina d'Ampezzo and then transferred to Belluno where she worked for another month.

Mrs Elles-Cases is badly in need of her daughter who is the sole support left her as her only son was killed in the war.

Trusting that her appeal receives all your attention she expresses her high esteem for all you may do in her sad case.

OGGETTO Prigioniera di guerra altoatesina CASES Geltrude fu Massimo.===

Per le determinazioni di competenza, si trasmette l'unita istanza con la quale i famigliari della nominata in oggetto ne chiedono la liberazione dal campo di Riccione.

La Cases é cittadina italiana ed ha titolo per risiedere in Alto Adige.

Dalle informazioni pervenute dall'Arma dei RR.CC. di Bolzano, risulta che la predetta é di buona condotta morale e civile e non ha precedenti sfavorevoli.-

Ha nutrito sentimenti nazisti ed ha optato per la Germania, ma non risulta che abbia conseguito la naturalizzazione tedesca; ha prestato servizio in qualità di interprete presso la polizia germanica in Cortina d'Ampezzo e Belluno.

E' nubile ed ha solo la madre a carico.

Un'eventuale liberazione della Cases produrrebbe buona impressione in pubblico e perciò questo Ministero esprime parere favorevole al rilascio.=

Domanda per liberazione dal campo di concentramento di Geltrude Elles-Cases Nr. 38 Camp.To P.o.W. C.M.F. Riccione.

La sottoscritta Maria Sinner vedova Elles-Cases fa la seguente domanda:

mia figlia Geltrude Elles-Cases, nata a Brunico il lo.2.1918 ed ivi domiciliata era obbligata al servizio presso la Polizia Tedesca dal novembre 1944 fino alla fine della guerra, quale dattilografa e contabile. Dall'ottobre alla fine di marzo era a Cortina d'Ampezzo e venne poi trasferita a Belluno dove faceva servizio ancora un mese.

Avrei tanto bisogno di mia figlia, unica che si trova ancora a casa e che mi aiutava finanziariamente col suo guadagno dato che sono vedova senza alcuna pensione né altra entrata. Mio unico figlio è anche morto in questa guerra e perciò avrei proprio bisogno di questo mio unico sostegno.

SUBJECT : DE FLORENTIIS Giulia of Luifi, interned at the Camp of Riccione.

De Florentiis's relatives, residing at Spoltrone (Pescara), have forwarded to this Ministry the attached petition with which they ask her liberation. They point out that the girl is ill and that, interned on July 1944, is still in the concentration camp of Riccione.

As no trace results against the a/m subject in the files of the Questura, it is requested that her case be re-examined and an answer be given to the present letter.

L'estremo bisogno di aiuto e la sicurezza di trovare nel Suo animo piena comprensione alle nostre pene, ci rendono arditi e ci fanno osare di rivolgerci a Vostra Eccellenza.

Nel luglio 1944, per la malvagità di qualche concittadino, che covava nell'ombra i suoi rancori personali, la nostra figliuola Giulia de Florentiis, nata a Catignano nel 1923, venne fermata dall'Autorità Alleata e inviata in un campo di concentramento.

Invano ci chiedemmo, e ancora ci chiediamo, il motivo del provvedimento.

Il 20 aprile u.s. dal Governo Italiano venne comunicato all'Arma dai Carabinieri di Catignano(Pescara), l'avvenuta liberazione e il 18 maggio successivo analoga comunicazione venne fatta dallo stesso Comando Alleato. Ciononostante la ragazza non è stata ancora rilasciata e trovasi presentemente in forza al "Campo N° 370 P.C.W. Internee

TRANSLATION

Naples, 7 September 1946

To: His Excellency General Morgan - Naples.

I, the undersigned, Maria VIRNICCHI, being the wife of the only Neapolitan citizen still detained by the Allied Authorities in the Concentration-camp of Rimini, and having seven children who are longing for his return, take the liberty to point out to your Excellency the following:

On 23 June 1944, on request made by the C.I.C. Office, some S.I.M. agents arrested in our apartment, located at No. 18 Parco Margherita, my husband, Paolo VERNICCHI, son of the late Armando, two friends of his who were our guests, and our servant.

A few days later, after being questioned in the S.I.M. Office on Via Fiorello, my husband was taken to the Poggioreale jail while the other three were released.

After four months of solitary confinement and careful investigations, we were brought to believe that the tragic misunderstanding, arisen from a false interpretation (quite different from our humanitarian intention) of the modest help of 200 lire given to a youngster who qualified himself as a veteran from Northern Italy and a friend of our fellow-citizen Lawyer Renato Vittoria, was finally straightened.

On the contrary we were badly surprised in learning that my husband was interned for reasons of military safety and was to be held in custody for the duration of the war.

One year has now elapsed from the termination of the war and one after the other all the internees, either those held in Concentration-camps and those held in penitentiaries, are returning home; Paolo Virnicchi only is not yet released although his return is badly needed by his family.

It is very easy to understand in what conditions we find ourselves, as my husband's daily work was our only asset. For two years and a half I was supported by the relatives of mine; presently they are unable to assist me any longer.

An evidence of our financial status is given by the fact that my husband has not seen his family since 1 November 1944 (date when he was moved from the Aversa Camp to that of Terni), as we never could afford a trip there.

My health, owing to these sorrows, inclusive of the loss of a daughter of mine, is badly shocked; also my moral and physical conditions are continually worsening because of this martyrdom against which there is no possibility of appealing.

Declassified E.O. 12356 Section 3.3/NND No. 785016

I am unable to provide for the living of seven children, of whom the oldest is twelve years and the youngest does not even know her father as she was born during his confinement.

Paolo Virnicchi did never hurt anybody (and this is well known to the Italian Political and Military Authorities), nor was he unrespectful towards the Allied Authorities; why then is he to be the only Neapolitan - out of 170 Italians - who is still being compelled to live under a tent and to follow the fate of thousands of POWs of every nationality?

Have 26 months of detention not been sufficient for an act of rash generosity?

Aren't the painful consequences suffered by his family enough who have been deprived of their head at the very time when they needed him most?

On the other hand the reasons of military safety which justified his internment are no longer existing.

I implore from Your Excellency an act of justice which will put an end to our tragic situation and am certain that I am not appealing to your heart as a gentleman and a brave soldier in vain.

I thank you for whatever you'll do on our behalf, and beg you to accept my respectful regards.

s/ Maria Virnicchi
Parco Margherita 18
Napoli

P.S. Paolo Virnicchi is presently being held in the 370 Internee Camp, CMF, Rimini. His serial number is 628.

Declassified E.O. 12356 Section 3.3/NND No. 785016

Napoli 7 Settembre 1946

A Sua Eccellenza il Generale Morgan

NAPOLI

Io sottoscritta signora Maria Virnicchi, quale moglie dell'unico cittadino napoletano ancora trattenuto dalle Autorità Alleate nel Campo di Concentramento di Rimini, nonostante che ben sette figliuoli ne attendano il ritorno, mi permetto esporre alla E;V. quanto appresso.

Il 23 Giugno 1944, su designazione del C.I.C.Office, furono fermati dagli agenti del S.I.M., nel nostro domicilio in Parco Margherita 18, mio marito, Paolo Virnicchi fu Armando , due amici nostri ospiti ed il domestico.

Dopo alcuni giorni, interrogati nell'Ufficio del S.I.M. in Via Fiorelli, furono ,mio marito trasferito al carcere di Poggioreale, e gli altri tre rimessi in libertà.

Dopo quattro mesi di segregazione cellulare e di laboriose indagini, tutto lasciava supporre che finalmente fosse chiarito il tragico equivoco sorto per la interpretazione (ben diversa dal nostro intento solo umanitario) data al modesto soccorso di duecento lire dato ad un giovanetto presentatosi quale reduce dall'Italia Settentrionale ed amico del nostro concittadino avv.Renato Vittoria.

Invece un orribile sorpreso ci attendeva poiché mio marito fu internato con provvedimento precauzionale di sicurezza militare per la durata delle ostilità.

Ma la guerra é finita da oltre un anno ed, ad uno ad uno dai campi di concentramento e perfino dai penitenziari, tutti i prigionieri sono tornati a casa; solo Paolo Virnicchi non ancora viene liberato, pur essendo il suo ritorno indispensabile alla vita della sua numerosa famiglia.

Quali siano le nostre condizioni é facile intuire poiché la unica risorsa finanziaria era il quotidiano lavoro di mio marito. Sono due anni e più che ho vissuto di quanto ha potuto concedermi la modesta possibilità dei parenti, ma ormai sono anch'essi esauriti.

Indice di questo disagio economico é la constatazione che Paolo Virnicchi non vede la famiglia dal 1°novembre 1944 (da quando,cioé fu trasferito dal Campo di Aversa a quello di Terni) non avendo mai avuto noi la possibilità finanziaria di affrontare il viaggio.

Declassified E.O. 12356 Section 3.3/NND No. 785016

La mia salute ,in seguito a questi dispiaceri -fra tanti anche la perdita di una figliuola- é molto scossa; anche lo stato morale e fisico di mio marito é in continuo decadimento per questo martirio contro il quale non c'é stata possibilità di appello.

Non posso più da sola ed in questo stato provvedere a sette figliuoli di cui il maggiore ha dodici anni e l'ultima non conosce neanche il babbo,essendo nata in questo periodo.

Paolo Virnicchi non ha mai fatto alcun male a nessuno (e questo risulta alle Autorità Politiche e Militari Italiane), né ha mai avuto sentimenti poco riguardosi verso le Autorità Alleate; perché dunque deve essere il solo napoletano -fra 170 italiani- ancora costretto a vivere sotto una tenda accomunato alla sorte di migliaia di prigionieri di ogni nazionalità?

Non sono stati sufficienti ventisei mesi di detenzione per un atto di, sia pure avventata, generosità?

Non bastano le dolorose conseguenze già sopportate da questa disgregata famiglia privata del suo capo nel momento in cui ne aveva maggiore bisogno?

Né,d'altra parte, esistono più quelle ragioni di precauzione militare che determinarono il provvedimento.

Io invoco dal Senso di giustizia, che certamente anima la E.V., un atto che ponga termine a questa tragica situazione e sono sicura di non essermi rivolta invano al Suo cuore di gentiluomo e di generoso soldato.

La ringrazio di quanto vorrà fare per noi e distintamente La saluto.

Maria Virnicchi

1410 Nr.370 P.O.W. (Intern.Camp) C.M.F.
Rimini

beg you to kindly reexamine the case of my husband Mario Usella. He was arrested here in Genova on the 26th of May 1945 and I know that others who were arrested at the same time for the same reason as he, have been released.

I have now for 14 months been struggling hard to provide for myself and our two children (daughters of 5 and 3) but as they are very much run down and often sick owing to lack of proper nutrition I do not know how to manage any longer. Please do what you can for me so that I can get my husband and my children's father back again. I do implore you to take up his case again for examination and I sincerely hope you will find that he can be released just as well as others who were with him in the camp, have been released lately.

To prove the truth of the above I beg to enclose a statement from Mrs. Molly Fyllingen, secretary at the R. Norwegian Consulate at Genova, for whom I have been working during the period that my husband has been interned and who has been helping me while my eldest daughter was terribly ill last winter.

Thanking you by all my heart for what you will do to help me in my desperate case, I am,

Respectfully yours,

I hereby certify that Mrs. Elsa Usella's case is indeed a desperate one. Her eldest daughter has contracted a glandular disease owing to malnutrition and the youngest one has gastric troubles and should both have proper care and diet.

Mrs. Usella has been working for me as a charwoman while her husband has been away and I have been trying to help as much as possible with clothing and food, but as my own daughter has just left for Norway, I have now very little work for Mrs. Usella and she has only two days ' work a week at my house. She is only 26 years old, extremely hardworking, as she is also taking home sewing work in the evening. While working out she is leaving her small children with her mother, who is almost an invalid, (artritis with very much deformed hands and feet). I know the family since many years, as her mother used to be my laundress before she got ill.

What she needs is the provider of the family. He used to be a good husband and father and I do hope you will see your way to release him and return him to his family who is certainly in great need of him.

As to my references you may apply to:

Consul General of Norway, Mr. Lars Emnes, Via L.Stallo 6, Genova
Mr. C.W. Hallock, European Director of the American Export Lines Genova
Mr. Robert Nicol Vice " " " " " "
(Mr. Nicol was formerly connected with the U.S. War Shipping Administration at Caserta).

Thanking you for the interest you will show in this matter, I am,

Very truly yours,

PRO - MEMORIA

Baronessa Carolina Montecucchi

Fu fermata all'arrivo degli alleati a Roma, il 5 giugno 1.944, e internata, dapprima nell campo di concentamento di Padula e di Terni, ed ora in quello di Riccione.

Non sono stati mai resi noti i motivi dell'internamento e inutili son riusciti tutti i tentativi per liberarla, e gl'interventi di personalità, autorità e uffici.

Nell'agosto scorso i comandi alleati di Caserta e di Roma disposero la liberazione dell'internata, e le autorità di P.S. italiane rilasciarono il necessario nulla osta.

In conseguenza, la Montecucchi fu inscritta nella lista dei rimpatriandi; ma all'ultimo momento ne venne cancellata, senza alcuna spiegazione.

Il comando alleato di Roma ha riferito d'aver dato l'ordine di liberazione, ma di non poter fare altro, perché l'esecuzione dell'ordine é passato alla competenza del comando del campo di Riccione.

Ufficiosamente si é saputo che quel campo é alla mercé d'un sergente, il quale avrebbe disposizione d'animo ostile alla Montecucchi, e che, forte della fiducia dei superiori, avrebbe provocato, con referti non buoni, la sospensione del provvedimento di liberazione.

Come fu provato a suo tempo alle autorità alleate, la Montecucchi fu una benemerita della causa nazionale durante il terrore tedesco in Roma, avendo ospitato alcuni ebrei in casa sua; avendone favoriti altri col procurar loro false generalità; avendo sovvenzionato partigiani, nascosto ricercati e propagandato contro la tirannia teutonica.

La madre 82enne giace in letto malata, in continuo pericolo di morte, straziata dall'angoscia di non potere più rivedere e riabbracciare la figlia.

Una rigorosa inchiesta al campo di Riccione proverebbe l'innocenza della Montecucchi e l'ingiustizia della persecuzione, di cui é oggetto, e che le imbisce di ritornare libera dalla madre morente, dopo oltre 28 mesi di duro internamento.

Un autorevole ed efficace interessamento varrebbe a spianare ogni difficoltà, a vincere ogni ostacolo, a indirizzare gli animi alla nobile ed equa longanimità.

Roma, 15 Ottobre 1.946

Pro Memoria -

Falchi Anna Maria

È stata internata per circa 16 mesi in vari campi di concentramento — attualmente è a Ricsiou —

Le Autorità alleate di Caserta e di Roma hanno emesso ordine di liberazione in data 16 agosto 1946 —

Le Autorità Italiane anno. eseguito il loro mulla ostà in data 29 agosto 194

La signora è al momento attuale ancora trattenuta presso il campo di concentramento di Ricsiou e si ritiene che le ragioni fosse identiche a quelle della Sig.ra Mo ute en cela —

Si richiede un intervento per ottenere il rilascio, per ragioni di equità —
