Reason for Arrest

Arrested in Italy as indicated 23.11.44 and was at once taken into custody. He was for a time a member of the Albanian Diplomatic Corps, and then retired from public life to run his own business in London. After the occupation of Albania by the Italians he became more active in political life as one of the founders and the principal leader of the P.M.A. (National Committee). This political group was for a time supported by the Allies against the Germans, but at the E.A. 1944 began to collaborate with the Germans, this support was withdrawn as a leader of a discredited party and because his continued political intrigues in Allied territory might prove a menace to security. Franco is being interned.

MEMO

Subject is a CREOLE born of CREOLE parents. In May 45 the CREOLE State seemed to exist, and he therefore decided to be without citizenship. His family is at the moment in AMERICA. He states that if released he would go first to NEW and then try to contact his family, and later try to take them to NEW AMERICA where he could find work.

The Bureau is not in possession of the NEW letter referred to in this current report and takes the view that it would seem unlikely that subject is a security danger at the present.
