BRIEF CASE HISTORY OF MORETTI Marisa Annex.

Subject was arrested on 15 Dec 44 in ROME where she was staying with her parents. Subject obtained employment in Jan 44 with one MASINI Giovanni an agent of Col. BAUMANN of the SS. Through Masini subject became acquainted with several members of the SS. In May Masini and subject moved to BOLOGNA. At the end of June she denounced MASINI for ill-treatment and he was arrested. Subject later met a SACCARDI Roberto at her hotel in BOLOGNA and after two months SACCARDI admitted to being an agent of BAUMANN and offered her the job of crossing the lines on a mission. Subject now in straitened circumstances accepted and attended a course of instruction from 13 Oct to 11 Nov in a Villa outside BOLOGNA. On 12 Nov subject was briefed for a 4-day mission and crossed the lines. She was arrested almost immediately and was passed through various evacuee camps to FLORENCE where she hoped to find her family. She was interrogated several times. Her family had moved to ROME and subject through evacuee channels arrived in ROME on 6 December. It is considered by A.F.H.Q. that there is insufficient evidence to bring subject to trial and that it has been ruled by A.F.H.Q. that she should be interned for the duration.
