COMMENT

- 1.) CORRESPONDENCE WITH SWITZERLAND THROUGH VATICAN
- 2.) CONTEMPLATED TRANSFER OF FUNDS BETWEEN ITALY AND SWITZERLAND

"CESARE made the following proposal to me and I have accepted, since I prefer to deal with a person whom I know well and who is a friend. In order to let you have money, FRANCESCO, the brother, believed to be in ROME, (if we are able to reach him) will bring you the money, and I will give CESARE here, the equivalent in francs. I told CESARE that I needed a million, which I beg you to give PANNY, for housekeeping and general expenses. You can ask for what you need, but she had better have the handling of the money which is needed for running the house. In case you do not know it, 100 lire is worth 45 cents, but if you buy lire for one million you must calculate from 5000 to 6000 Swiss francs and not 4500 francs. I do not know what arrangements you will make with FRANCESCO, but I need the money for the house, and, apart from the money being useful to CESARE, the arrangement would be very convenient to both of us. If on the other hand this deal does not come off, go to Father CATRINI, and ask him to sell you a million, for the same price, from 5 to 6 thousand francs. If for some reason or other CESARE is unable to sell the money, go to Father CATRINI. The Dominican Priests could give the sum to him, and I could refund it to the Convent. You could draw up an appropriate letter on the matter, signed by both of us. If you carry out the deal with Francesco CASTELLAROC, write me a letter together with him so that I may know how to get, and another letter together with CESARE, so that I may know how to get."

If for some reason or other CESARE is unable to sell the money, go to Father CAMPINI. The Dominican Priars could give the sum to him, and I could refund it to the Convent. Tell me if a million is sufficient and how long it will last you. Father CAMPINI can let me have the mail through the Vatican (Secretary of State) if you continue to deal with him."

Cover, although postmarked "ROME", contains several letters and three photographs and the date on one of the letters is preceded by the indication "VILLARS", whilst the 3 photographs are found to have been printed by a firm at VILLARS s/ALLAN, SWITZERLAND.

ILLEGAL EXTENSION OF BUS ROUTES--PURCHASE OF ELECTRODES--PROBABLE

"...at the Ministry I was told that if we can find gasoline on the free-market (black-market), we may carry out (illegally) the extension of the line without asking for Ing. MAIONE's authorization. Otherwise they suggest that you should go to CATANZARO to speak with MAIONE, in order to obtain, provisionally at least, a daily authorization for such service, as he has already done for the CASTROVILLARI-COSENZA line...

...ELECTRODES: I have bought 600 electrodes for iron and 300 for cast-iron... it seems that electrodes are also going to disappear from the market, so if you think it advisable to buy some more in order to have a good stock, please send me a telegram...

...My friends at the Ministry asked for some oil and figs... therefore, send me 3 small drums of oil and two small-baskets of figs by means of the "ITAS"... You can spend a few thousand lire, as it is necessary to oil the wheels...

...I confirm what I have already told you, namely that Avv. Mario FERRARA has accepted the appointment for the defense before the Tribunale Supremo Militare... His address is: Avv. Mario FERRARA-Via Flaminia 197-ROMA.

ADDRESSEE WARNED OF A WRIT AGAINST HIM

"I write you this letter in the hope that the news I am about to give you is still unknown to you. I arrived home very late and was immediately told that on Sunday the Carabinieri had come to look for you.

There is a writ issued, it seems by the Allied Headquarters, for having stolen. I cannot tell you exactly what, but something which has to do with heating, I don't know whether stoves or coal etc.... It seems that our Carabinieri do not know your address, but be careful. If you think it wise, go away immediately, but don't go to TARANO without coming to see us first. The Carabinieri have certainly answered that you were not there but that you are in ROME. However, I don't think that they have your address."

NEWS CONCERNING THE FORWARDING OF MAIL FROM THE VATICAN TO GERMANY

".....During these last months, postal communications in Germany have been very severe: no letters or telegrams are forwarded, unless they are addressed to the Nuncio and concern the Holy See. A stop is put on them with a 56 lire-tax, but even then delivery is not certain.
In Italy, as everywhere, and specially in Germany, those few doctors left are well treated and appreciated. I have spoken to a prisoner who escaped from Germany, he told me the same thing."

NEWS CONCERNING THE FORWARDING OF MAIL FROM THE VATICAN TO GERMANY

".....During these last months, postal communications in Germany have been very severe; no letters or telegrams are forwarded, unless they are addressed to the Munzio and concern the Holy See. A stop is put on them with a 95 lire-tax, but even then delivery is not certain.

In Italy, as everywhere, and specially in Germany, those few doctors left are well treated and appreciated. I have spoken to a prisoner who escaped from Germany, he told me the same thing."

COMMENT

MAIL FROM FRANCE THROUGH UNAUTHORIZED CHANNELS

Cover contains three letters, all to the same addressee. The first letter, signed by Charles THORY, bears the following heading: PARIS Vie, 5 Quai Malaquais. The second letter bears Aix-en-Provence as date line location and is obviously written by THORY's father-in-law. The third letter is signed MASSIGNON, PARIS Ville, 21, rue Monsieur. The following excerpt is taken from the letter signed by THORY.

".....You have wisely done in keeping the original with you. I hastened myself to forward your copy to my father-in-law, who will certainly be very happy to have it. At the same time, I transmit your letter to him. The question arises of eventually publishing the document. As to myself, I stand for it, but only after the gossip, concerning my mission, have been stopped. The atmosphere you succeeded in creating around my mission, largely contributed to the result which derived from it. The eagerness, which the VATICAN showed in designating a nuncio as well as the sportive trip of Mgr. RONCALLI were highly appreciated in PARIS. A proposition has been made by the French government, about ten days ago, regarding the nomination of an ambassador. The choice, which corresponds to an old promise made by the General, was not at all suggested by philosophic considerations, and, as far as it seems, it will be a mission of rather short duration. Anything you may be able to tell me about the reactions it aroused in Roman circles, will be of course of the utmost interest to me. I saw your new nuncio, who is very different, both in appearance and in attitude."

MAIL FROM FRANCE THROUGH UNAUTHORIZED CHANNELS

Cover contains three letters, all to the same addressee. The first letter, signed by Charles THORY, bears the following heading: PARIS VIIe, 5 Quai Malaquais. The second letter bears Aix-en-Provence as date line location and is obviously written by THORY's father-in-law. The third letter is signed MASSIGNON, PARIS VIIe, 21, rue Monsieur. The following excerpt is taken from the letter signed by THORY.

"....You have wisely done in keeping the original with you. I hastened myself to forward your copy to my father-in-law, who will certainly be very happy to have it. At the same time, I transmit your letter to him. The question arises of eventually publishing the document. As to myself, I stand for it, but only after the gossips, concerning my mission, have been stopped."

The atmosphere you succeeded in creating around my mission, largely contributed to the result which derived from it. The eagerness, which the VATICAN showed in designating a nuncio as well as the sportive trip of Mgr. RONCALLI were highly appreciated in PARIS.

I saw your new nuncio, who is very different, both physically and morally, from his predecessor... He seemed to me rather prepared to understand the French situation and anxious to come to a conciliation; all this owing to his feelings as well as to the instructions he possibly received. It was interesting to notice his reaction when I spoke to him about a rallying policy which ought to be resumed, and he spoke to me about Cardinal FERRATA as being the greatest nuncio, the VATICAN has ever sent to PARIS.

The internal situation on the other hand is not going on without difficulties. Our friends in the Government excite the jealousy of circles belonging to the left. TALTEAN, BIDAULT, and de MENTHON were spitefully attacked by the press or by the Consultative Assembly. All this excitement proves useless against the steady authority of the General and leads to no result. What I am most worried about, is the campaign which is being organized about school subsidies. Some articles, demanding their suppression and published in many newspapers of the province, witness a concerted action on the eve of the discussion, which will take place at the consultative Assembly. The government is on the other hand decided to take no notice in case of an unfavorable vote. There is a struggle also about the funds allocated for the benefit of schools (caisses d'ecole). With an ability, which risks to become a blunder, MONTAUBAN was chosen, no doubt thinking that the bishop would hesitate to react. The Municipal Council's provision, limiting the benefit of subsidies only to pupils belonging to Laic schools, provoked, on the contrary, a very flippant answer from Mgr. THEAS, which, of course, caused a certain emotion. So I have good reason to believe, that also on this field we shall succeed in checking the offensive. But I am afraid, if the conflict is going to spread, the question concerning the episcopate will perhaps be raised before the public in an embarrassing way. It is true that, since the offensive in the ARDENNES started and the one on the ALSACE front is on its way, internal politics become of secondary importance. It seems that our Allies have a little bit under-estimated the forces, the enemy still has at his disposal. This will not of course exert any influence at the war's outcome. But all the ground which is retaken in ALSACE by the Germans, exposes the population to atrocities and reprisals....."

VI Trunks arrived from (or to?) Madrid clearing the whole lot of 20 (the whole lot of 20 has been cleared) - Paid Lisboa 1460 five pesetas pieces. Note (or well known?) Baguera 1384 go Pst (pesetas?) The five pesetas pieces already paid. - Madrid no - Please wire: Baguera I approve of (it means to pay) Baguera - half - (I'll give 1/2) that is 700 Pst. - But the accounts concern railway and packing charges: Pst 841 for the firm and 543 to the railway - do as you think best: wire -

Should you want a reduction, this would be for 841 and let me know how much? - I don't know the arrangements you have made?

VII The bolt has already been fixed and shut and of what you wrote only two things are clear to me: you don't speak of bringing yellows or the country of papua and so I know nothing; only another one similar to Augusto's and Francesco's - it is rather little all considered. - I saw my copy book and there are possibilities of your telling me, but nothing about the quantity.

VIII I haven't received your Vth (letter?) - Perhaps there will be a new letter or wire, a clear one so that I may understand the latest news. - as you have got all my correspondence and spoken with Vittoria and Augusto, I daresay you will have clearer ideas.

X It hasn't been, or better it is not clear to me what name must be put on the packages: mother's on the envelope (literal: on the envelope the mother) I know this - on the packages "papua" and it is there: on the sheet of paper to contradict the mother and put the papua? (text unclear: she might mean: shall I substitute mother's name with papua?) or contradict both and put his name? (probably: or substitute both with his name?). To add (shall I add?) that the rest which is found is his? - not all? - I don't understand? To put all on the sheet and then what's the use of putting on the envelope or packages? - (Possibly: or write everything on the sheet of paper, and then what's the use of writing on the e. or p.s.). Is the sheet to be placed together inside, closed, or to whom is it to be handed over? - It's all right if you can tell me: in the contrary case I'll try to guess and will manage alone. - The rest, all in due course, is more or less clear. We are well: kisses to the children: I shall see you soon. All

Reviewer's Note: The letter has been delivered through Dr. FOSSELLI who, according to another letter, is a captain in the Carabinieri, attached to the "Servizio Informazioni Militari" (Military Information Service). In the paragraph headed X, the writer shows difficulty in understanding a form, probably pre-arranged, for the addressing of certain matters (Possibly packages, or the trunks so often mentioned in the letter) and requests information on the proper means of doing so. The mention of "papua" in this light and its connection with "the bringing of yellows" in the early part of the letter shows possible indication of a pre-arranged meaning. The excessive reference to "trunks" and the mention of a plane and proposed means of travel may be construed as a means

The writer uses the word "giallo" (yellow) which is a well-known Italian expression for defining any foreign currency in gold. Moreover, the next phrase is about bringing something "from the country of papua", this is in close connection with the word "giallo"

EX-FASCIST OFFICIAL AT THE HEAD OF THE INFORMATION AGENCY "CORBIS"

We think that the short article, published in the January 25th number about journalistic information agencies, is a just one.

One may rightly suspect that hidden interests are behind some of these organizations; the more so, if we take into consideration that the chief editor of one of these agencies, namely the "CORBIS", which in the last days spread misleading news concerning a probable resignation on the part of the Socialist Party's Secretary, is Dott. Luigi ROSSI; the latter was an official of the "Ministero della Cultura Popolare" where he worked at the "Direzione Generale della Propaganda" (Propaganda Headquarters) at the "Ministero della Propaganda" (General Manager, Ministro ROSSI, with ers); he was the Secretary of the General Manager, Ministro ROSSI, with whom he travelled abroad for fascist propaganda.

After he left the Ministry, he went to work with Dr. TRUSSARDI at the "Resto del Carlino" of Bologna and was war reporter of this paper in Libya and in Russia. He was removed from this office after July 25th, because he insisted on keeping a fascist character to the paper.

SENDER AND ADDRESSES ON ITALIAN WATCH LIST.

Citation on sender: 2037/508 PALORNI, Anna Emma, via Velletri N.49 (Roma - 500A).

Citation on addressee: 2051/513 TELESSE, Mario, Senor, Lista de Correos (Barcellona, Spagna - 500A).

The letter reads:

"I don't know what more to think, my dear son! I no longer have news from you! I don't have your address and so I have asked both the Cardinal and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to try by all (Exam.: underlined in original communication) means to get your news, which I hope are good on all counts. Only God knows the miserable life I am leading, you are my constant thought. As soon as you receive this I urge you to give me your dear news, as well as your exact address, through the Consulate, which has been informed. As soon as it is possible I will leave, even if I have to sell my shirt. I pray to God that this war of massacre and mourning finish!

"Carluccio, you know, has been killed, poor boy!"

The postscriptum reads:

"Do you see the dear little children? and Planni? (Exam.: this name is not written very clearly) How have they settled with you? Be attentive to everything and to your dear."

Reviewer's Note: Sender and addressee were placed on the Watch List 11/11/44 as previous relevant records show that Telesse is attempting to come to Italy with a large sum of money. Writer is trying to help him get there through the influence of the Vatican authorities. It is noted that in a previous letter, as in this, the word "tutto" was underlined. Laboratory reports are negative but the cryptanalyst reports that taking the first three figures of the date "131" and the first word of the text "non" by addition i.e.

COMMENT

CENSORSHIP EVASION IN CORRESPONDENCE WITH SWITZERLAND

"...How are BOTTAL, BRUNETTINI and the peasants? How many questions and who knows how things have gone? I am writing from SWITZERLAND, where I had to take refuge in order to avoid the unknown dangers of capture which judging from the thoroughness of the search for me, would have been terrible. However here I am safe and can still continue to work for the good cause. I do not know what plan to suggest in order to receive an answer, since the means I have been able to use to let you have my letter is not available for the answer. Perhaps you will be able to find some way. If you should not, send the answer to ROME, to Comm. Piero BONANNI, Piazza Melozzo da Forli, 1 to whom I will give instructions accordingly.

P.S. - If necessary write to COMO (ITALY) to the usual address or to mine in LUGANO (SWITZERLAND) (Casa di Salute - MONCUCCO)."

(CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN ITALY AND SPAIN)
THROUGH SPANISH DIPLOMAT IN ROME

"I have just returned from a visit to Eduardo GARCIA COMIN, plenipotentiary Minister at the Embassy, in order to thank him for the delivery of your dear letter and beg him to forward a very long one of mine (6 pages). I also asked him if it was possible for me to join you somehow..... he told me to abandon the idea for the time being, he said: even Spanish nuns who are sick were able to leave on the only Spanish ship that has come to Italy. Before the end of the war, for understandable military reasons, no one can leave the Italian territory."

B.) I have been moving about all day and I'll be moving about also tomorrow. Therefore I am not enjoying myself as you think.. and you perfectly know that the substance is lacking.

Examiner's Note: The "moving about" may refer to previous correspondence, in which the sender informs the addressee of being busy owing to having found a furnished room where he is going to live. The rest of the letter is innocuous.

Reviewer's Note: CICCOTELLI was placed on the Watch List 5/10/44 owing to the capture of a piece of mail dated 4 May 1944 at Lucca stating that Oscar, Ciccotelli was at Ascoli and had been for some time in the secret police.

Tramways are not going to be put in Via dei Mille N.15, The cold is very severe because there is also the solar eclipse on the 14th of January, in February 1945 the terrible north wind will blow and then, when shall we remove the grinding stone? The capsula and every thing is to be dismounted and a bridge must be built.

Sister-in-law Giulia has four of them.

You saw the punishment procession on the 24th of December 1944.

The Jesuits are performing great things with P. Pelosi at S. Giovanniello's, the congregation of the children abandoned in the streets with refection of bread and fruit. And instructive cinema and then singing of Sacred songs. Good bye.

Cryptanalysts report: The letter is seemingly written by an uneducated person. - no code; but many of the sentences may have prearranged meaning: the letter in itself is written in a desultory manner. I give the literal translation as it was possible to do it, underscoring the chief sentences which in my opinion may be conventional; by reading every 24th word, (using 24 December 1944 as indicator) the following sentence is found:

Il tutto (11) Su strada 3.
The whole (of it) along 3 roads.

The address on the back of envelope is rather peculiar: "via del Cavone A.P. Dante N.250". It is quite unusual to write addresses in this way.

SECRET WRITING IN LETTER TO CANARY ISLANDS

As a result of Watch List action following our C/S ITA 6146-44, a letter from same sender to same addressee dated 16/12/44 was intercepted, tested and found negative. A previous record reference, however, resulted in the letter, subject of this comment sheet, being subjected to further special tests and secret writing of the same type was discovered. This letter had originally been found negative on routine tests but had been condemned for a security violation. The sender, a sailor on board the "Teresa Schiappino" states that his steamer has a speed of only 14 miles per hour and soon will undergo repairs in a Taranto drydock. The ship will remain there three or four months. He adds that during the voyage from Teneriffe to Taranto the convoy lost ten ships. The secret message is as follows:-

TEXT: Escribes rapidamente a la direccion de Taranto y Roma. La situacion en mi pais es muy mala hago buen negocio el cambio me mata ya vere si vuelvo a Tenerife o si lo mando a buscar. Muchos besos tuyos siempre tuyo Paso.

Va a ver a la mujer del Capitan.

TRANSLATION: Write in a hurry to the address of Taranto and Rome. The situation in my country is very bad. I am doing fine business. The change is killing me. I shall see whether I shall return to Tenerife or whether I shall send to look for him (it). Many kisses and hugs. Yours, always yours, Vasco.

In the letter dated 16/12/44 writer states: "You will see. I am not on board ship for nothing."

He appears to remit money to his wife through the British Consul. He adds: "I am well but do know whether you receive payment from the Consul (I need to know this) in order to claim the 2000 odd pesetas (see C/S ITA 6146-44). Writer states he has been to Rome on leave."

REVIEWER'S NOTES:

Addressee was placed on the Watch List 18-12-44 because of a telephone intercept, alleging him to be a contact of FLUMINI, Ten. Col. Leopoldo, also a Watch List suspect (See our C/S ITA 6434-44). FLUMINI was placed on the Watch List 31-7-44 as the result of a piece of captured mail, written by his son 2nd Lt. Dandolo FLUMINI, 29 May 44 in which he states:

"I understand that notwithstanding your 85 years of age, you are diligent as a leader of the "Esculino" fascist group and are beloved by the few followers of the Duce. He appears from intercepts to have a son now a P.O.W. in the U.S.A."

CHARGES AGAINST PROF. FRUGONI AND OFFICIALS OF THE FORLANINI INSTITUTE

Ci è mai pensato, in tema di epurazione, all'opera dattilografica, disposta e corretta a danno della Nazione perpetrata da un medico Prof. Cesare FRUGONI!!

Di fatti come pervenne a Roma il FRUGONI? Per protezione di quel losco figlio di Eugenio Modigliani..... Il FRUGONI due volte al giorno recava a Villa Forlanini, quale medico familiare e di fiducia del defunto RUSSO-LINI..... Tutte le apologetiche perpetrate dal FRUGONI non vale la pena di riprodurle..... Quindi, il FRUGONI si appi, durante l'occupazione unna-nazista, si recava quasi tutti i giorni a salù, residenza di MUSSOLINI. Il FRUGONI, avrebbe per S. CRO DOVERE, DOVUTO IMMUNIZZARE ALLE "BUCHE", DI COSTRUIRE QUALE MEDICO PRODETTO TUTTE LE CRIMINALITÀ, CHE SI SPREGIO-NO DA UN CERVELLO STIPITICO.

Ciò è inoppugnabile e quindi sul FRUGONI PER. UN. MEDICO MILITARE, GARVIA-TO A SENZA INTERVENIRE ALICENA. Qui il cardine principale della questione per cui il FRUGONI dovrebbe essere deferito anche al Com. to delitti fa- scisti..... Tutto si opera e si compie senza pietà il FRUGONI, altra fama usurpata come Eugenio MORRINI, e beneficiatari entrambi delle bene- merenze fasciste.

L'amministrazione dell'osservatorio del Vaticano allo scopo di venire incon- tro alle necessità del personale in servizio al sanatorio Forlanini e soprattutto a contatto con gli ammalati, è venuto nella determinazione da vari mesi di concedere mensilmente dei buoni viveri.

Come al solito di tale agevolazione si sono subito approfittati molti funzionari specie perzi grossi della direzione generale di cui al se- guente elenco:

COUNT PACINI RECENTLY REPATRIATED FROM SWITZERLAND INTENDS TO ESTABLISH COMMUNICATIONS WITH NORTHERN ITALY

"...After the 25th of July I divided my time between here and Milan taking part to the meetings of the C.I.L., writings articles etc... After the bombardment of Milan, and having with me Lisette who was sick (later on she suffered with jaundice), I made the mistake to ~~come~~ go back to Lombardia where I happened to be when armistice was signed. Since that day my position became every day more difficult, and on the 18th of September I decided to pass the frontier. At that time it was a rather easy thing to do. I was interned in a camp in Locarno and was released after a month under the guarantee of the Bishop of Lugano who gave me hospitality for 13 months. I asked the Allies to allow my return to Italy, but they didn't consent until the Government called me. In the meantime I held some lessons on Dante in the seminary of Lugano, and some conferences in the universities of Losanna and Ginevra. I wrote some articles under another name in the newspaper of Ticino and in the "Journal de Geneve", and had also some missions in Savoia and in the Val d'Ossola. My most important charge was to preside the delegation for Switzerland of the National Liberation Committee for North Italy, and I believe that I succeeded in making something useful. When I came back after the conclusion of the crisis, which crisis can be considered constitutionally well concluded, Bonomi told me I was 48 hours too late. to this I answered "Deo gratias" because I didn't wish to expose my relatives in Lombardia to further persecutions, especially because they have already been several times interrogated.. I work therefore in the shadow of the Party, and refused the post of Ambassador at Rio de Janeiro in order not to leave Italy for a long time. However, I might accept a temporary mission in Europe, but I don't know where and am not very keen on it. In the meantime I try to realise what is happening around me, and this is not easy. I do my best to obtain a permanent liaison between North and South and hope I will succeed. The division with North Italy is also politically a very bad thing. In Switzerland it was much better because we used to receive every week news from our relatives.
