22 May, 1944

1. With reference to communication dated 27 April, 1944, from Interior Sub-Commission, regarding the appointment of subject as Prefect of Campobasso :-

2. Submitted herewith is a "Scheda Personale" completed by Ferdinando VENEZIALE and signed by him on 20 May, 1944. In the presence of Lieut-Colonel H. K. Parsons, S.C.A.O. Campobasso Province. On analysis of the Scheda there would seem to be no reason for objection to VENEZIALE's appointment. He commenced his duties as Prefect on 16 May, 1944 (Official Order No. 1 - Region 3).

3. Inquiries show that VENEZIALE's family is well established and well known in Campobasso Province, where he is very popular and highly respected. He is generally regarded as a sincere and straightforward person of honest opinions and moderate political tendencies.

4. From 1921 to 1924 he was a Parliamentary Deputy and Provincial Councillor, representing the Democratic Liberal Party, and at one time was a member of the Campobasso Anti-Fascist Committee.

5. He does not claim, however, to have been "vehemently" anti-fascist, but was in general disagreement with the fascist policy. During the fascist regime he was not molested in any way, in spite of having been an opponent of fascist principles. It is believed that this immunity was based partly on the fact that his opposition had never been virulent and also because he had a number of influential friends in that section of the Fascist Government which centred around Indoglio, who is said to have been a close friend of VENEZIALE.

6. There seems to be good reason for believing that VENEZIALE is of sincere Democratic Liberal political convictions and is a leader of the Democratic Liberal Party. His appointment would seem to be likely to prove popular amongst the people of Campobasso Province.

TRANSLATION:

8 May 1944.

DIAMANT Salina son of Ada and Albe Freilick was born in Bolechow on the 12 April 1914. He is a Polish Jew. He came to Naples from Austria on 2 of February 1917.

The fore mentioned, who lived in Vico S. Pellegrino e Paolo No. 15, apartment 12, studied his fourth year of medicine and surgery here (Naples). He had studied his second and third year of said course at the Royal University of Pisa.

During his stay in this city his conduct was of little significance.

DIAMANT in July of 1936 applied for membership in the Gruppo Universitario Fascista (G.U.F. - Fascist University Group).

He received his degree in medicine and surgery on 5th of July 1939.

He was invited to leave Italy with the provision that if didn't leave voluntarily, he would have been forced to return to where he had come from.

However DIAMANT stated that he had further studying to do before he could become a practicing physician, and he made application to remain in Italy to finish said studies. It was decided to postpone his expulsion.

In November of 1939 it was ordered that his surveillance be intensified because his name was included in the list of foreigners to be interned in case of an emergency.

On the 16th of March 1940 he passed his state medical examination at Catania.

On the 7th of March he was told by the Royal Questure to renew, within 20 days, his passport.

On the 11th of March 1940 he informed this Foreigners Office that he had requested through the local American consulate transfer as a student to the United States. He further stated that he was awaiting a reply from the Comunita Israelitica di Bruxelles, to which office he had turned.

The 10th of June, in accordance with suggestions from C.S. which informed the ministry that DIAMANT was a military suspect and advised his internment in a determined locality.

On the 13th of April of 1940 his passport was renewed by the Polish Consulate in Rome. It was extended to the 12 October 1940.

On the 22nd of June 1940 the ministry ordered the strange detention of Diamant to a concentration camp in Campagna (Salerno). From where he was transferred to Ferramonti di Tarsia, and from there to Teramo. During the period of his internment DIAMANT solicited various times for his transfer to a commune in the province of Naples.

But the C.S. was always against it.....

DIAMANT Salina di Sda e di Alta Freilick nato Bolechow 12.4.1914-di nazionalità polacca e di religione ebraica, venne a Napoli il 2.2.1917 proveniente dall'Austria.

Il predetto, che prese domicilio in Vico S. Pellegrino e Paolo 15
int. 12, frequentò qui il 4° anno di medicina e chirurgia. Egli aveva frequentato il 2° ed il 3° anno di detta facoltà presso la R.Università di Pisa.

Durante la permanenza in questa città non diede luogo ad alcun rilievo con la sua condotta.

Il DIAMANT nel luglio del 1938 presentò domanda di iscrizione al Gruppo Universitario Fascista.

Laureato in medicina e chirurgia il 5.7.1939, fu diffidato a lasciare il Regno, con comminatoria che qualora non vi ottemperasse, sarebbe stato munito di foglio di via obbligatorio per la frontiera di provenienza.

Avendo il Diamant fatto presente che era suo diritto rimanere in Italia per sostenere gli esami di Stato per la abilitazione allo esercizio della professione di medico, si dispose di soprassedere alla diffida.

Nel Novembre del 1939 fu disposto che venisse intensificata la vigilanza sul suo conto essendo stato incluso nell'elenco degli stra-nieri da internarsi in caso di emergenza.

Il 16 marzo il Diamant sostenne gli esami di Stato a ⁵² Catania con esito positivo.

Il 7.3.1940 fu diffidato dalla R. Questura di Catania a rinnovare entro 20 giorni il proprio passaporto.

Il 13.5.1940 dichiarò a questo Ufficio Stranieri di avere in corso pratica presso il locale Consolato Americano per trasferirsi in Il 22 giugno 1940 il Ministero disponeva la traduzione straordinaria del Diamant al campo di concentramento di Campagna (Salerno) da dove fu trasferito a Ferramonti di Tarsia. Successivamente fu trasferito a Teramo.

Durante il periodo dell'internamento il Diamant sollecitò varie volte il suo trasferimento in un comune della Provincia di Napoli, ma il C.S. fu sempre di parere contrario.

3. As soon as the papers were received GALLIGO was interviewed by Capt. Harvey of this Branch, who enquired as to what substantiation GALLIGO had to offer for the article of No. 14 Edition, March 1944 and his claim that the Maresciallo was an active Fascist.

4. GALLIGO was quite unable to give any solid reason for his belief and, in fact, was not even aware of the name of the Maresciallo in question. He asked for and was given some time in which to confirm his suspicions, and the results are shown in the attached copy statements marked "A" to "H".

5. A study of these statements makes it plain that the incidents at Sparanise were very much a storm in a teacup and it should be noted that the date of the alleged incidents was immediately after the fall of Mussolini when, in a country village, far from higher direction, the local police officer would be striving hard to keep public order and took a very proper course in chastising those who seemed likely to upset such public order. No doubt the public reaction, especially of those with leftish ideas would be far from peaceable and the fact that such minor incidents are all that GALLIGO can produce after three weeks grace is in itself something of a bouquet for the Maresciallo.

6. An independent investigation of the Maresciallo made meantime shows clearly that he is not an ardent overbearing Fascist, but simply a person highly thought of by his superiors and that his main concern was to preserve the peace and obey the orders of those who were competent to give him orders.

a. 7th Feb 1944 : Avv. CORRADO Oragiado, leader of Communist Party at Sparanise, arrested by Maresciallo SCALA.

b. 22 Feb 1944 : CORR removed Communist and anti-monarchical slogans from wall of Sparanise church.

a. Was done at the order of Capt. Brooke, A.V.G. because Corrado had travelled to Naples (crossing the Volturno in the process) without an AMG pass. In consequence of this CORRADO was given a month in jail at Santa Maria C.V., which he spent no doubt in contemplation of the efficiency of Maresciallo SCALA.

b. Was the result of an order of the Town Mayor of Speranise who, in consequence of an outburst of artistry on the part of the citizens which took the form of slogans painted all over the town, ordered an investigation and, the investigation having no result, then ordered the CORR. to remove the slogans, which was done.

8. It will be seen from CALLICO's letter (marked) that he intends to "forward to you more material as soon as this will be possible". I certainly do not consider, however, that unless his material improves vastly he will be able to justify the offensive nature of the article he published and the point of the matter is that, at the time of publication, CALLICO had no evidence on which to justify his action.

9. My conclusion therefore is that the terms of warning in which CALLICO was addressed in the A.P.B. letter of 4 April 1944 were exactly the terms which should be used and that perhaps a further interview of the gentleman by A.P.B. now that we know just how unreliable he is might have a sobering effect for the future.

Report on the comportment of the Maresciallo of the Carabinieri at Sparanise.

The Maresciallo of the RR.CC. of the Sparanise station, SCALA Clemente, has been during his many years of permanency in that locality, the foremost exponent of Fascism. Bringing all of the factious acridity and grudge into the fight against the elements of opposition to the dictatorial fascist regime.

He is an intimate friend of all hierarchs and struch "Squadristi" and he never neglects the opportunity to demonstrate his belief and his attitude, which are inspired by the most advanced fascist ideas. He always and everywhere praised Mussolini.

He had very close and intimate ties with the next to the last political secretary of the Fascio, BENEDETTO, Francesco and also with the fascist TESTA Crescenzo who has become a multi-millionaire because he was uncontrolled amasser and distributor of the corn. Even when the people had nothing to eat, the TESTA home was having great feasts, which the Maresciallo of the CC.RR. attended, like a recognized "big shot" among the local fascists.

Benedetto was succeeded as political secretary by one of the Ragozzini brothers, and the intimacy became all the more strict.

But the Fascistic attitude of the Maresciallo SCALA continued, even after the 25th of July 1943. The cry of exultation which emitted from the people of Sparanise was quickly extinguished by the attitude of the said Maresciallo, who, among other things, did not want to take down the emblems and symbols of the fallen fascist regime. In this way he caused indignation and disorder among the people.

In fact, as time went on and the fascist symbols and inscriptions remained on the "Casa del Fascio", a certain GALASSO, Pasquale invited some local citizens to remove it. The Maresciallo was quickly informed, who called upon GALASSO and warned him against repeating similar gestures.

After the fall of the Fascist regime, a certain LOMBARDI Giuseppe who was born in Sparanise but lived in Sessa Aurunca, in passing the railroad station (at Sparanise) used to stop and spend some time with some antifascists of Sparanise. The Maresciallo, thinking that LOMBARDI was supplying himself with anti-fascist and especially anti-Nazi newspapers and leaflets (which by the way, was a correct supposition), called the antifascist LOMBARDI Antonio and intimidated him to cease relations with Lombardi. Lombardi himself was denounced, by whom, it is unknown, captured by the fascists and murdered by the Germans in the town of San Lorenzo

The Maresciallo of the CC.FF. of the Sparanise station, SCALA Clemente, has been during his many years of permanency in that locality, the foremost exponent of Fascism. Bringing all of the factions acridity and grade into the fight against the elements of opposition to the dictatorial fascist regime.

He is an intimate friend of all hierarchs and staunch "Squadristi" and he never neglects the opportunity to demonstrate his belief and his attitude, which are inspired by the most advanced fascist ideas. He always and everywhere praised Mussolini.

He had very close and intimate ties with the next to the last political secretary of the Fascio, BENEDETTI, Francesco and also with the fascist TESSA Crescenzo who has become a multi-millionaire because he was uncontrolled amasser and distributor of the comune. Ever when the people had nothing to eat, the TESSA home was having great feasts, which the maresciallo of the CC.FF. attended, like a recognized "big shot" among the local fascists.

Benedicenti was succeeded as political secretary by one of the Regozzini brothers, and the intimacy became all the more strict.

But the Fascistic attitude of the maresciallo SCALA continued, even after the 25th of July 1943. The cry of exultation which emitted from the people of Sparanise was quickly extinguished by the attitude of the said maresciallo, who, among other things, did not want to take down the emblems and symbols of the fallen fascist regime. In this way he caused indignation and disorder among the people.

In fact, as time went on and the fascist symbols and inscriptions remained on the "Cassa del Fascio", a certain GALASSO, Pasquale invited some local citizens to remove it. The maresciallo was quickly informed, who called upon GALASSO and warned him against repeating similar gestures.

After the fall of the fascist regime, a certain LOMBARDI Giuseppe who was born in Sparanise but lived in Sessa Aurunca, in passing the railroad station (at Sparanise) used to stop and spend some time with some antifascists of Sparanise. The maresciallo, thinking that LOMBARDI was supplying himself with anti-fascist and especially anti-nazist newspapers and leaflets (which by the way, was a correct supposition), called the antifascist BARBATO Antonio and intimidated him to cease relations with Lombardi. Lombardi himself was denounced, by whom, it is unknown, captured by the fascists and murdered by the Germans in the town of San Lorenzo di Castelforte.

Between July and September the local Fascists, under the leadership of the Regozzino brothers, reconstructed the "Fascio" distinguishing themselves by wearing even the fascist badge in the button-holes. All of this was under the protection of the maresciallo.

These things were well known to the retired maresciallo of the Carabinieri, STOLFO Giovanni, and other local citizens. Also, some time after the fall of Fascism, the president of the Hunters Club, COLAPIERNO, Benedetto took down from the walls of the Club the picture of Mussolini with the intention of throwing it out. There was present at the time a railroad man named GRELLA Luigi (who after the arrival of the Allies, completed delicate and risky missions in the interest of the common cause). He grabbed the picture, smashed it and then threw in out of the window into the street. There was present at this occurrence the paid fascist propagandist Prof. Gustavo MONFREDÀ, who immediately reported said occurrence to the maresciallo.

COLAPIETRO and GRELLA were immediately called to headquarters and were threatened and reproached by the maresciallo. GRELLA was suspended from the club for two months, as penalty for his misdeed. The punishment was imposed by the maresciallo.

On the 22 of August, 30 Antifascists who were holding a meeting concerning requesting an immediate armistice with the Allies, were surprised by the "Hitlerian" police (political force). Maresciallo SCALA called the antifascists BARBARO, Antonio; TUSCO, Giovanni; and others in order to learn the particulars what had happened. Upon learning all of the details the maresciallo scorned the antifascists and accused them of being in contact with the Allies.

When the three RAGOZZINI brothers (Squadristi, and fervent fascists all component members of the Republican Fascio of which Fascio one of the brothers was secretary) returned to Sparanise, the maresciallo was the only one to greet them, embracing them and congratulating them in the city square.

The "Fronte Nazionale di Liberazione" of Sparanise of which the six parties of the Giunta Esecutiva (Executive Council) are members, irritated by the partisan attitude of the maresciallo, decided to send a report on maresciallo SCALA to the office of the O.S.S. which was in Sparanise at that time, Captain CAGGIARI, Alessandro of the British Army was in charge.

We do not know the results of the investigation which began at that time.

TESTIMONIES

The undersigned BENEDETTO COLAPIETRO reports that two days after the fall of fascism ~~removed~~ he removed the portrait of the Duce from the "Sazine Cacciatori" ⁱⁿ the presence of his partner Mr. Grella Luigi, who took it and tore it.

The local Maresciallo of the R. Carabinieri was informed of this act by the fascist propaganda maker Gustavo Manfreda from Sparanise, and at the "caserma" he rebuked me for the ~~monstrous~~ act committed.

Testimonies

To the Committee of the Front of National Liberation of

Sparanise

I, the undersigned GRELLA LUIGI, railway employee, from Sparanise, declare as follows :

On the morning of July 26, 1943 I entered the place called "Hunters' Club" and together with the citizen COLAPIETRO BENEDETTO, I took down a portrait of the "thief of predappio" and after tearing it into pieces I threw it on a pile of garbage in front of the club.

This gesture was noticed by Prof. Gustavo MONFREDA; a paid propaganda maker of the fascist party who immediately ran to the RR. CC. barracks and reported the fact. The Maresciallo sent for me and when I arrived he sharply rebuked me saying that he would ~~have~~ written my name in the black book and in case of new incidents he would arrest me.

On the same day the said Maresciallo ordered the President of the Club, of which I was a member, to suspend me for two months, which was done. This declaration is made for the sake of truth.

To the Central Committee of the Front of National Liberation

Naples

I, the undersigned CALASSO PASQUALE, dealer from Sparanise, report the following :

of the fact

Some days after July 25, 1943, in spite that instructions had been issued to remove all fascist insignias, in the center of Sparanise there was written on the appropriate house "Casa Littoria" and on the balcony there was the metal emblem of the "fascio Littorio". Because the local authorities did not act to remove these external signs of the past regime, in the public square I ^{shouted} cried that it was necessary to eliminate such a shame and invited the ~~by-standers~~ ^{by-standers} to act accordingly. Some of my acquaintances stopped me and persuaded me to wait ^{until} the local authorities ~~had~~ decided to take the measure spontaneously.

Because of my act I was rebuked by the local Maresciallo of the Carabinieri and invited to refrain from repeating similar gestures.

Only after this incident the emblem of the "fascio" was removed.
So much for the truth.

REPORT ON THE ARBITRARY ARREST OF TWO CITIZENS OF SPARANISE.

One day in the month of February last, there appeared on the walls of Sparanise a few sentences to this effect: "Justice, Justice - What about Teheran? - Long live Stalin - Death to the fascists. It seems that the very Governor of the place gave order to delete the sentences, but the Staff Sergeant of RR.CC. started immediately ^{upon} ~~on~~ his own initiative investigations to find out the perpetrator of this crime. He went to Barbato Antonio's and accused him of having committed the offense, claiming that he should publicly delete said sentences. At last, as he had no evidence against the accused, he gave up his intention, and as he could find ~~no~~one willing to accomplish the cancellation, he charged his own subordinate, Carabinieri Masiello. In fact, he went about the job, but when he was on the point of cancelling the sentence: "Death to the fascists" a young man said: "But why do you not leave it as it is?" thus giving rise to a general feeling of indignation among all by-standers because it was evident that the cancellation of this sentence was what the fascist Staff Sergeant most cared for. The Carabinieri slapped the youngster, by ~~the~~ name of Bucciarlia and as among the by-standers there was also the airman Giovanni Ranucci, a brave aviator recently discharged, he took the matter up, in favor of the boy. Both were taken to the barracks and shut in the detention room. Ranucci is ^{the} son of Sig. Giulio Ranucci, a representative of the Democracy of Labor in the National Front of Liberation and singled out for his antifascist feelings, as well as for his honesty and popular favor he enjoys, by the Staff Sergeant himself as Assessor of the Comune. He is a nephew of Avv. Leopoldo Ranucci, former Mayor of Sparanise before fascists came to power, a former Vice-Mayor of Naples and member of the National Council of the Socialist Party.

Then in the barracks Bucciarlia gave his name and the Staff Sergeant replied to him: "Then you are the son of such and such, the well-known antifascist, or worse, Communist; For shame! a fine thing" and addressing Ranucci and on hearing whose son he was, added him "You are of similar stuff". He first stated that the sentence "death to the fascists" had to be deleted and that the Carabinieri had done well in slapping Bucciarlia; then had both "delinquents" shut in the detention room. Bucciarlia was summoned and he was induced to sign a statement, it is not known how and by what means, to the effect that the boy stated that he had been "caressed" (!) by the Carabinieri and not beaten. On the strength of this statement, the Staff Sergeant, to give vent to his hatred against the antifascist Ranucci, planned setting up a ~~process~~ ^{trial} against him for ~~xxx~~ calumny, alleging that he had stated that the Carabinieri had slapped the boy.

When this was known in the ~~xx~~ town, Ranucci's father, who had been left homeless because the Germans had mined his home, ran to the barracks and supplicated the Staff Sergeant not to commit this foul deed and it was only after repeated insistence that the Staff Sergeant agreed to release Ranucci, after having made him sign a statement to the effect that Buccigaglia had not been beaten. Now it is very clear that the Governor could not have given the order to delete the sentences in question but not the one "Death to the fascists" because it corresponded to the unanimous desire of the representative of the ~~government~~ Allied Military Government and of the whole people (of course with the exception of the Staff Sergeant and of the fascists) on the contrary, the Staff Sergeant, on the strength of the general order received, arranged for the cancellation of all the sentences, even of those which ~~xxx~~ should appear on all the walls.

It is obvious, moreover, that Buccigaglia and Ranucci were taken to the barracks for an "accident" which had taken place and which could not be the "cause" to the boy, otherwise there would have been no reason for Ranucci to intervene. The words of the Staff Sergeant addressed to these two arrested people, are a convincing proof of his ventility and of his constant action against the antifascists. His pretention to have the well known antifascist Barbato delete the sentence "death to the fascists" publicly and in the presence of his fascist fellows, goes to prove that he misses no opportunity of casting disrepute and ridicule on the victims of fascism; Barbato was dismissed by the State Railway, warned, and persecuted by the fascists and by the Staff Sergeant himself.

The Staff Sergeant said at first that the Carabinieri had done well in beating Buccigaglia; therefore he admitted and acknowledged the fact. It was only afterwards, thinking of the consequences, that he induced (we do not know how) Buccigaglia to sign the well known statement, shaping in his mind the grave trial for calumny against Ranucci. one can be ^{sure} that if Buccigaglia will be made to feel that he will have nothing to fear, he will say the truth. The town of Sparanico still lives on the nightmare of the fascist terror.

The company; Partenopea di Assicurazioni and of Riassicurazioni has its office at Via De Pretis No. 62 and has been in existence for more than twenty years. Formerly the company was known as "Lloyd Nazionale Italiana--Societa Anonima di Assicurazione; but this name was changed to take away the English name "Lloyd". This was done by the fascist hierarchs.

It had a nominal capital of Lire 800,000 which was increased to Lire 1,000,000.

It has been ascertained that it has no foreign capital.

The president and largest shareholder of the said company is Longobardi Pietro; delegated administrator and shareholder is Longobardi Giovanni; trustees and shareholders are: Romano Vincenzo and Cascone Francesco, and shareholders are: Romano Raffaele, D'Esposito Aristide, Mariello Guglielmo, Archer Umberto, Landiero Pasquale, Landiero Vincenzo, Landiero Alberto, Placolla Mario and others.

Below is given all the information which was possible to gather concerning the aforesaid persons:

1. Longobardi Pietro of Andrea and Romano Brannella, born at Meta di Sorrento on August 25, 1891; married and has children; at present an evacuee to his native town.

In addition to being president and largest shareholder of the company, Partenopea di Assicurazioni and of Riassicurazioni he is also administrator of the Societa Ri-orientatori Napoletani.

He has been inscribed ⁱⁿ the dissolved fascist party, but assumed no office therein nor has he engaged in political activity.

He is a maritime ex-captain of the Merchant M. In 1931 he was president of the Soc. An. M.A.R.E. In that year, he was held responsible, together with another individual, of the crime covered in art. 180 of the commercial code.

He has no political precedents, conducts himself well and finds himself in excellent economic condition.

2. Longobardi Giovanni of Giosue (deceased) and Asterita Emilia, born at Meta di Sorrento on July 25, 1895, married and has children, of late living at Via Tasso, 215, and at present an evacuee, with his family, ⁱⁿ Meta di Sorrento, owing to the fact that his house at Via Tasso, owned by him, was requisitioned by an Allied Command. He is delegated administrator and shareholder of the company and at present is an administrator of Federazione Meridionale degli Armatori. He is a maritime ex captain of the Merchant marine and in fairly well off.

He has been inscribed to the dissolved fascist party, but it does not appear that he assumed any office therein, nor has he engaged in political activity.

He conducts himself well and he has no political nor judicial precedents.

3. Placella Mario of Francesco (deceased) and Marcucci Errolinda, born in Naples on October 14, 1890, married and has children, living at Via dei Mille, 50.

He is a shareholder of the Company and independent accountant. For over 4 years he ^{has been} manager of Società Conserve Alimentari "Cirio" ex trustee and administrator of many importing and exporting firms. He is also a shareholder of the Alambra Cinema. Did military service in World War I and he enlisted as volunteer before his age group was called up to arms.

In 1920 he enlisted in the Royal Navy and was discharged in 1928 with the rank of sergeant.

It does not appear that he owns real estate, but he is making a fairly good living.

He has been inscribed to the dissolved fascist party, but he assumed no office there in nor has he engaged in political activity. Conducts himself well and he has no political or judicial precedents.

5. D'Esposito Aristide of Agostino and Ceppiello Maria, born at Piano di Sorrento on December 26th, 1883, living here at Via G. Scherillo, 6.

He is married and has children. He is shareholder of the Company, is ship-owner for his own account as well as owner of the motor-sailer "Nuova Italia"

He is a maritime ex captain of the Merchant marine, owns real estate at Meta di Sorrento and finds himself in good economic condition.

He has been inscribed to the dissolved fascist party, but it does not appear that he assumed any office therein, nor has he engaged in political activity.

He conducts himself well and he has no legal or political precedents.

6. Romano, Vincenzo, married and has children, living at Piano di Sorrento.

He is a small stockholder in the Company and is a director of the Società dei Rimorchiatori Napoletani.

He is a long time ex-sea captain, owns real estate at Sorrento and lives in good economic circumstances. He has been a member of the dissolved fascist party, but it does not appear that he held any positions or carried on any political activities.

His conduct in general is good and he has no political or legal past.

7. MAIELLO G. glielmo, born at Naples on 6.2.1882, ex-employee, widower with one daughter, living at Via Via Filangieri No. 72 and at present has been evacuated to Pollena Trocchia, where he owns real estate.

He is a small stockholder in the Company and a pensioner of the Banco di Napoli. It appears that Maiello has never been a member of the fascist party.

He lives in fair economic circumstances, his conduct in general is good and he has no political or legal past.

8. ANCHER Umberto, born at Reggio Calabria 8.9.1889, living here in Corso V. Emanuele No. 63.

He is married and has offspring. He is a shareholder in the Company and exercises the profession of accountant with the Court of Naples.

He is an ex-officer of the RI Army and lives in modest economic circumstances.

He has been a member in the dissolved fascist party, but it does not appear that he held any positions or carried on any political activities. His conduct in general is good and he has no political or legal past.

9,10,11. The brothers LAUDIERO Vincenzo, Alberto and Pasquale, are stockholders in the Company.

They are furthermore the major exponents of the Società Partenopea Anonima Navigazione (S.P.A.N.) located in Via del Mille 16, property of their father, established in 1925.

In the same office in Via del Mille the aforementioned have a Company for building construction which has carried out important undertakings in the towns of Luzzatti and Soudillo on the Circumvesuvian Railroad, tract between Castellammare and Sorrento and elsewhere.

They are sharp, reserved, shrewd elements and well acquainted. They were members of the dissolved fascist party without however holding, as far as known, political responsibilities. Toward the fascist regime they showed sentiments of attachment and devotion.

Laudiero Pasquale, who appears to have taken part in the march on Rome is reported to be a prisoner of the Germans. This factor, in spite of the fact that it appears that he is not in Naples, is not to be relied upon, however.

They own much property.

legal

They have no political precedents nor ~~criminal~~ history with the exception of Pasquale, who in 1939 was ~~charged~~ charged with inflicting serious wounds in a motor accident. In general, their conduct is good.

12. Castellano, Luigi, small shareholder of the company. He has been dead for several years.

13. Cacace, Francesco of Francesco and Califano Giulia (both parents deceased), born at Meta di Sorrento on April 15, 1904, married and living in his native town.

He is a small shareholder and trustee of the company.

He was in the military service in the capacity of officer of field artillery.

He was inscribed in the dissolved fascist party, but it does not appear that he has held any offices therein or engaged in political activity.

He owns real estate at Meta di Sorrento and is ~~a~~ "well-off" financially.

His conduct in general is good and he has no criminal or political precedents.

All the persons ~~are~~ mentioned, with the exception of Laudiero, ~~xxxxxx~~ are considered in good standing in professional circles and enjoy a good reputation from the public.

The Laudiero's, instead, are not held in good esteem, because it is known that their rapid economic climb is due to the fact that they were intimate friends of Farinacci, Marinelli, Teochio, etc., and they were strongly protected ^{by} these, recommended for and given contracts (State contracts as well) of certain importance.

Alberto states that he was somewhat close with his father could not say how much money he made.

1. It would appear from the particulars in the attached undated letter from PACIFICIO Neri, fu Bernardino, of Via Garibaldi is 10. N.37, Messina, that the Subject is a Professor of the University at Messina.

2. If this is the man referred to, I would suggest that enquiries be made of the Educational Sub-Commission, Region No.1, where there is a file on this man.

3. Whilst on detached duty in Region No.1, assisting the Educational Sub-Commission to rid the Universities of the Fascist elements, I had cause to interview Professor PUGLIATTI.

4. Similar allegations were made as are contained in the attached letter, none of which could be substantiated by investigation.

5. All the books and copies of newspapers referred to were produced, and when the alleged offending statements were read with the whole, they had an entirely different meaning.

6. Further, I discovered in my enquiries in Region No.1 that no reliance can be placed on newspaper reports of speeches made during the Fascist Regime, as they were so altered before going to press to suit the policy at the time, as to be entirely different in words and meaning from the original.

7. To bear out this point, I know of a case, that of Professor PETHONCHILLI, now Rector of Catania University, who was ~~never~~ scheduled to make a speech. He was taken ill on the day in question and did not even attend the meeting. Despite this, the following day the Fascist newspapers reported the Professor as having made the speech and gave a full report of what they alleged he had said.

8. It will be seen from this that no reliability can be placed on newspaper reports of speeches alleged to have been made during that period.

9. If the Subject is the Professor I have referred to 12 reported him as fit to be allowed to retain his position as a

2. If this is the man referred to, I would suggest that enquiries be made of the Educational Sub-Commission, Region No. I, where there is a file on this man.
3. Whilst on detached duty in Region No. I, assisting the Educational Sub-Commission to rid the Universities of the Fascist elements, I had cause to interview Professor PUGLIATTI.
4. Similar allegations were made as are contained in the attached letter, none of which could be substantiated by investigation.
5. All the books and copies of newspapers referred to were produced, and when the alleged offending statements were read with the whole, they had an entirely different meaning.
6. Further, I discovered in my enquiries in Region No. I that no reliance can be placed on newspaper reports of speeches made during the Fascist Regime, as they are so altered before going to press to suit the policy at the time, as to be entirely different in words and meaning from the original.
7. To bear out this point, I know of a case, that of Professor PETHONCELLI, now Rector of Catania University, who was ~~XXXX~~ scheduled to make a speech. He was taken ill on the day in question and did not even attend the meeting. Despite this, the following day the Fascist newspapers reported the Professor as having made the speech and gave a full report of what they alleged he had said.
It will be seen from this that no reliability can be placed on newspaper reports of speeches alleged to have been made during that period.
8. If the Subject is the Professor I have referred to ¹² reported him as fit to be allowed to retain his position as a Professor at the University. I may be the Allied Officer in Palermo, whom it is alleged is protecting PUGLIATTI.
9. Under all the circumstances, I suggest these papers be referred to the Educational Sub-Commission, Region No. I, and that steps be taken to interview the writer of the letter, who in my opinion is one of the trouble makers, whose activities should be curtailed, as such persons make the administration of the Region more difficult than is necessary.

CASE NO. 887-720 SV

12 June 1944

MEMORANDUM FOR THE OFFICIAL IN CHARGE:

SUBJECT: Unione Nazionale Italiani Rifugiati.
Corner of Galleria Umberto I and Via Roma, Naples, C.

I. Investigation of subject organization was requested 5 May 1944 by Major James E. Arnold, Deputy I. C. of 3., 3-2, Peninsular Base Section. On 30 April 1944, Major A. E. Heath, Regional Security Officer of Region III, Allied Control Commission, reported that Paolo Roberto GREGGI approached the Allied Control Commission seeking official recognition for the U.N.I.R., an organization of refugees from German-occupied Italy. The purpose of the investigation was to determine the nature of subject organization, and whether or not it presents a problem from the standpoint of military security.

II. (1) GREGGI himself is known to G.I.C. and A.S.W. as a conscientious and courageous anti-fascist (Type A). The purposes of the organization as reported by GREGGI to Major Heath are to collaborate with the Allied authorities in securing aid for the refugees, and to interrogate the refugees and pass on to Allied intelligence authorities any information of military value which the refugees may possess. According to Major Heath, GREGGI considers himself an experienced interrogator, and believes that he can secure information which Allied interrogators have not been able to obtain. (Evaluation: 4-2).

(2) This Agent assigned confidential informants and undercover agents of A.I.M. and of the Guardia di Finanza to investigate subject organization. No evidence was found to indicate any subversive tendencies on the part of the organization or its members. However, GREGGI has been glib and indiscreet in his manner of enrolling refugees, and he has started an organization which he cannot control. When a person presents himself to GREGGI to request membership in the organization, GREGGI merely takes down the person's name, without even examining his identity card. Some of the members of the organization are not legitimate refugees, but are known to be residents of Naples who have not been in German-occupied Italy. Some of the members have solicited contributions of food from private individuals and in this manner have been able to avoid working for a living. At Palazzo Maddaloni #23, where the organization formerly had its headquarters, members damaged the property, stealing doorknobs, books and other small articles that could be sold. (Evaluation: 3-2)

(3) On 11 June 1944 this agent interviewed 1st Lt. Henri P. Hancock, Mess Officer, Santa Priscila Barracks (A.C.C.) with regard to the U.S.I.R. Lt. Hancock stated that at GUCCHI's request he had found jobs for several of the members of the U.S.I.R., but that in no case had they been able to hold their jobs for more than a month at a time. Lt. Hancock expressed the opinion that GUCCHI is being exploited by persons who do not want to work for their living. (Evaluation: A-1)

(4) On 10 June 1944 at 1700 the U.S.I.R. held a meeting at 19 Via Mariano Perola. At this meeting GUCCHI admitted that he had failed to receive from Allied authorities official recognition and assistance for the organization, and requested the organization to accept his resignation from the position of president. The resignation was not accepted, and GUCCHI was asked to remain in office pending further arrangements to continue the U.S.I.R. (Source: Quastara, Evaluation: A-2)

III. (1) Conclusions:

- a. Since there are regularly authorized Allied offices for the interrogation, feeding, and employing of refugees, the U.S.I.R. serves no useful purpose.
- b. From the standpoint of military security, it is undesirable to allow an unauthorized civilian organization to interrogate refugees.
- c. The U.S.I.R. enables its members to exploit public sympathy for refugees, and thereby creates in refugee centers a tendency to avoid seeking jobs and working for a living.

(2) Recommendations:

- a. It is recommended that the U.S.I.R. be denied any recognition or assistance from the Allies, and be denied permission to hold meetings.
- b. Since the U.S.I.R. is an unauthorized interrogation point for refugees, it is recommended that subject organization be ordered to disband.

CASE NO. RWS-720 IV

12 June 1944

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIVISION IN CHARGE:

SUBJECT: CROCHI, Carlo Roberto
Via Marconi 13, Naples.

I. Subject is president of the Unione Nazionale Italiani Rifugiati, whose activities are discussed in the main body of this report.

II. 1. The Prefecture of Naples has no record of CROCHI.

2. This Agent assigned a confidential informant and undercover agents of U.I.R. and of the Guardia di Finanza to surveil Subject and report on his activities. Subject's contacts are confined to the Santa Brigida team (A.C.S.), where he is employed as a purchaser of cooking utensils and tableware, and to the U.I.R. There is no evidence of subversive activities on the part of CROCHI. (Evaluation: S-2)

3. According to the records of U.C.I., Subject has been employed by that unit for confidential missions, and is anti-Fascist and anti-German. In March, 1944, CROCHI was dismissed by U.C.I. because venereal disease had incapacitated him for work. (Evaluation: S-1)

4. On 11 June 1944 this Agent interviewed Lt. Lt. Henri P. Hancock, Head Officer, Santa Brigida team (A.C.S.) where Subject has been employed since his dismissal by U.C.I. Lt. Hancock stated that in November, 1943, when he (Lt. Hancock) was Civil Affairs Officer at Casapenna, CROCHI was in command of the municipal police. Lt. Hancock was unable to recall the exact dates of Subject's employment. Lt. Hancock termed CROCHI very effective at police work, and added that Subject is sincere and trustworthy. Lt. Hancock said that he used Subject to locate and purchase for the team utensils and tableware that are difficult to find, and that on one occasion CROCHI located some tile to repair the floor. Lt. Hancock declared that CROCHI has nothing to do with the handling of food. Lt. Hancock expressed the opinion that Subject's sincerity and honesty are not shared by other members of the U.I.R., who do not want to work for a living, and are unable to hold the jobs which Subject obtains for them. (Evaluation: S-1)

III. 1.(a) CROCHI is an anti-Fascist who has cooperated well with the Allies, and he is of no danger to military security.

(b) CROCHI, however, has shown himself unable to judge persons claiming to be needy refugees.

For Information of Colonel WARDEN,
Officer Commanding, 312, T.A.S., for information.
Commanding Officer, C.I.C., P.B.S.

HEADQUARTERS
- 2 MAY 1944
A. C. C.

The following for your information and any action you may wish to take:-

1. Messrs. Carlo Umberto CECCHI and Romolo POLIDORI requested an interview with the Regional Commissioner for the purpose of securing his approval and patronage for a so-called U.S.I.R. They were, however, interviewed by this Security Officer at 1130 hours today.

2. Carlo Umberto CECCHI was born in Bologna on the 24 March 1907. He was formerly in Tirana (Albania) and at present gives his address as, c/o A.C.C., Santa Brigida mess. According to his own statement, he has been a correspondent, a photographer and journalist - the combination is interesting! He claims not to have been a member of the Fascist Party but to have belonged to, though not an inscribed member of the Partito d'Azione and the Patriots in Albania. He claims to have been in touch with various intelligence organizations both locally and in Brindisi and Bari. He states that he has already received training as a parachutist and that he has already carried out one or more missions. He is a good talker but illogical and unconvincing.

He is oddly dressed; he was wearing an American khaki shirt and tie, a dullish brown woollen wind breaker and American boots. He was noticeably in a nervous condition and his hands were very unsteady.

3. Romolo POLIDORI admits having made the acquaintance of CECCHI within the last four or five days. He carried a letter dated 5 April 1944, and signed by an American Officer. A copy of this letter is attached hereto. (Exhibit No. 1) According to the letter, he has apparently been engaged in special missions during the last 7 months.

He states that he was born in Pesaro on 13 March 1897; that his present address is Maddaloni; that his permanent residence is in Milano where he claims to have been "an employee" (?). In the letter he is stated to have worked as a journalist. Dressed in GI clothes, he gives the impression of being a shrewd, foxy, sly individual who has probably traveled around in Europe, going from one job to another. This would apparently account for his language qualifications which, contrary to what is said in the letter, does not, however, include Polish. He speaks French with a southern accent. He states that he was a "guardia di Brera" for several weeks (period unspecified).

Contrary to the suggestion that he "seems well-educated", (see letter) both his handwriting and general appearance would suggest a man of relatively little education. He is of the "commis voyageur" type. Incidentally, there would appear to be a very obvious breach of security in:-

- a. The issuance of such a letter to him,
- b. The fact that he is allowed to wear American GI uniform,
- c. That the letter should indicate a geographical location and unit number, the purpose of his mission and the period of his employment.

The undesirability of being in possession of such a document is only too obvious.

4. Carlo Umberto GECCHI appeared to know a certain number of Allied Officers of various intelligence units by name; he also claimed to have worked for an Italian R.F. organization and according to his own statement, cooperated with the U.S.S. in the Campobasso area during recent months.

5. GECCHI would appear to be anxious to have the U.S.I.R. officially recognized, the main purpose of which would appear to be competition with other organizations in the field of public assistance to refugees from the North and, claiming the friendship and support of CIAMCA, would suggest a political "left motif". Attached hereto is a copy of the so-called "statute" of the U.S.I.R. (Exhibit No. 3).

6. Briefly, this Security Officer was not impressed by either of the above mentioned and is inclined to doubt the sincerity of either. If, however, the facts of the case are - as claimed by GECCHI and POLIDORI, already known to G.I.C., A.C.C., and S.I.M., presumably these authorities will establish the real character of GECCHI's proposition.

7. In any event, however, this Security Officer considers that it is desirable that both GECCHI and POLIDORI's activities be carefully checked to obviate any unpleasant repercussions arising out of their past associations with intelligence units and abuse of any information they may have obtained as a result of such collaboration.

1. The case at the S/A has been reviewed.
2. The following recommendation was made and is given below for information, together with Commandant's remarks:

This man has been questioned by Lieut. Allen and myself. He has been a very active and influential member of the Fascist Party in a town of 30,000 people. He was a contributor, Secretary, Editor, Federal Director, Federal Inspector and Political Secretary. He was arrested in 1943. He was not interrogated by his relatives to question. In our opinion he is still a potential danger to security in the present stage of operations. We recommend his continued detention.
