SUBJECT : KLING Catherine alias KLING FRIEDLANDER Caterina

TO : Regional Security Officer, Lombardia Region

1. With reference to your S/1182 dated 22nd August 1945, respecting the above named.

2. Subject was born at BONN on 25th April 1903. She has studied at Cambridge University and first came to Italy on 23rd October 1935 for health reasons. She was in possession of a German passport No. K 64 issued at FREIBURG BADEN on 22nd March 1934. In Rome she took up residence as a guest in the home of Admiral SCHLSC, at Viale Mazzini 9.

3. In February 1936 she left Rome and went with the same family to S. Remo. The following January she was jointly charged with Thomas SMITH an American citizen with the theft of a considerable amount of jewellery at BORDIGHERA. At the Tribunale of S. Remo on 15 March 1938 she was sentenced to 6 months imprisonment and a fine of L. 600. This sentence was quashed at the Court of Appeal of Genova on 27 July 1938, and SMITH was sentenced to two years imprisonment and fined L. 1400.

4. KLING returned to Rome in December 1939 from MILAN. She had a denouncement filed against her at PAVIA in August of that year for the theft of jewellery from a British subject, however the case was not proceeded with owing to insufficient evidence.

5. In September 1940 Subject went to live with Leone RAPPARELLI, a married man from Catania, at the Pensione CAMTSEY. The following month she ceased this association and went to live with the Japanese diplomat Tomoisy SIRAKATA.

6. Subject was again arrested in January 1942 with a man named Ali SIASSI and other persons for unlawful dealing in gold. The charge was not proceeded with owing to the lack of evidence and KLING's serious state of health.

7. In November 1942 the Minister of the Interior made an

5. In September 1940 Subject went to live with Leone RAFFAZZI, a married man from Catania, at the Pensione GASTONY. The following month she ceased this association and went to live with the Japanese diplomat Tomioy SIKAWATA.

6. Subject was again arrested in January 1942 with a man named Ali SIASSI and other persons for unlawful dealing in gold. The charge was not proceeded with owing to the lack of evidence and KLING's serious state of health.

7. In November 1942 the Minister of the Interior made an order requiring to go to the BRESCIA, prior to being deported, this was not carried into effect owing to the fact that SIKAWATA interested himself in the plight of his mistress, who was referred to in public as his "secretary".

8. During the time she lived in Rome it was never definitely discovered how she exactly obtained her money, her morals and politics, as seen from the above, are doubtful, she is without scruples and likes untold wealth, she is willing to do anything to gain personal profit.

9. She has worked with the Argentine Mission, Ministry of Popular Culture, the Italian Academy, and the International Institute of Agriculture.

10. From 19 September 1943 she worked for the German Command in Rome, first in the Real Estate Office at the Flora Hotel and later in Corso d'Italia as a secretary and translator. She speaks German, Italian, English, French, Spanish, also Scandinavian languages. She has been a close friend of the CITIADINI family, Conte CITIADINI having been connected with the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

11. Subject has been interrogated by G.I.C. but nothing was traced against her sufficient on which to take any action.

12. KLING's address is recorded as Via di Porta Pinciana 6, but at the moment she is actually residing at Piazza Annibaliano 4, Rome.

13. At the request of this Division she was "black listed" for employment with the Allies in July 1944.

TRANSLATIONR.QUESTURA OF GENOVA

Div: Gab.
Ref No: 05025

Genova, 21 July 1943

SUBJECT: Postal Censor - Friedlander Caterina div.
Kling - German.

TO : The Questura of Ravenna info to: The Questura of Rome.

With reference to the letter 017337 dated 30/6/43 of the R. Questura of Rome, we hereby re-write the following declaration made by Venturi Luigi:
" I had the occasion to know Mrs Emarginata on some affairs developed with Germany. This woman is an interpreter and accompanist of many commercial and military commissions. She is well known in all the german offices residing here in Rome and for the work she was doing for my firm, she was modestly retributed.

I retain that she is of good morality and it results to me that she is a widow and has two son, military in Germany.

During a meeting held in Rome at the Exlsior Hotel, with the presence of the following persons;

General Eichinger, Director of Baywa of Monaco.
Mr. Anselm Braun, procurator of the same Baywa.
Dr. Luber, president of the Reichsstelle.
Dr. Betz, director of the Reichsstelle.
Mr. Deiningher, president of the Agriculture of Baviara.
Mr. Andrea Casella from Genoa.
Mr. Berti Giuseppe from Genoa.
Fratelli De Gemini from Salorno (Trento) and other Germans of whom I do not remember the names, Mrs Kling lost a pair of ear-rings. The presence of the a/m women is inherent to her quality of interpreter and accompanist.
The writer, at that time, was making an exportation contract for Germany (Baywa) of concentrated Grape juice.

Arch

After loosing her ear-rings, Mrs Kling specified the damage and all of us who were present agreed to sustain the damage, in equal part.

Therefore, I sustained that I could only pay my part, while Casella, Gelmini and Berti have to pay them directly or either to me, after which I would have effectuated the balance.-

In addition, although I received the request from Germany to expedite such payment, I never did it being that I could not understand how they get in the possession of such money and from Germany.

Infact, Mrs Kling, wrote to me on the 29th of June stating that the Reichstella had provided for the payment directly to the person concerned.

Therefore, according to what Mrs. Kling writes, I should pay the Italian part.

Also at this request I cannot adhere, while I retain logical and honest to sustain my small part.

I am now writing to Mrs. Kling to know how much is my part and in the mean time I beg her to cash directly from Casella, De Gelmini, Berti and Others.

I affirm that the Italian part has never made any payment to me.

I haven't seen Mrs. Kling for about 8 months and therefore I have nothing else to say."

RAPPORTO M+G

OGGETTO: Kling Friedlander Caterina di Adolfo e di Hoffmann Ella, nata a Bonn il 25/4/1903, cittadina tedesca ebrea.=

La nominata in oggetto giunse in Italia per la prima volta il 23 ottobre 1935, con passaporto germanico K. 64 rilasciato a Freiburg Baden il 22 marzo 1934. Detto passaporto le venne rilasciato, a suo dire, per motivi di salute. Prese alloggio al ~~Via~~ Viale Mazzini n° 9 piano 2° = Roma, ospite dell'ammiraglio Scelso.

Nel febbraio del 1936 si trasferiva a S.Remo con la famiglia del prefato ammiraglio.

Nel gennaio del 1938 venne denunciata dall'Arma dei CC.RR. di Bordighera, unitamente al suddito Americano Smith Thomas, nato a Philadelphia il 10/5/1909, per furto di gioielli di rilevante valore. Dal Tribunale di S.Remo fu condannata, il 15 maggio stesso anno, a mesi 6 di reclusione e L. 600 di multa condizionale. Con sentenza della Corte di Appello di Genova, il 27 luglio 1938, venne assolta per non aver commesso il fatto, mentre lo Smith venne condannato a due anni di reclusione ed a L. 1400 di multa.

A Roma fece ritorno nel dicembre 1939, proveniente da Milano. Nell'agosto del 1939 fu denunciata dall'Arma dei CC.RR. di Pavia per sospetto furto di gioielli consumato in quella città il 28 luglio 1939 in danni di coniugi inglesi. Dagli atti nulla rilevasi dell'esito della denuncia.

Nel settembre 1940 conviveva maritalmente con tal Leone Raffaele, domiciliato a Catania in Via S.Euplio n° 1, il quale era coniugato con due figli. In detta epoca abitava in Corso d'Italia n° 6, pensione Gantsky. Successivamente si trasferiva in ~~Via~~ Ofanto n° 18 presso Onofri, precisamente nell'ottobre 1940, per convivere con il diplomatico giapponese Sirakata Tomoirosy di Maol, nato a Tokio il 30/7/1913.

Nel gennaio 1942 fu tratta in arresto insieme a tal Siassi Ali di Asadola ed altre persone per commercio clandestino di om. L'arresto non fu mantenuto perchè la Kling risultava affetta da grave malattia e bisognosa di cura in ambiente adatto. Comunque essa venne assolta, in sede di istruttoria, per insufficienza di &pro=ve.

Nel novembre 1942 la Kling, d'ordine del Ministero dell'Interno, venne munita di foglio di via obbligatorio per il Brennero per allontanamento dal Regno. Il provvedimento venne in seguito sospeso per interessamento del diplomatico giapponese Sirakata, di cui essa era l'amante e la sedicente segretaria. Durante la permanenza di essa in Roma non è mai risultato in modo certo o plausibile la provenienza dei mezzi di vita della predetta.

Di equivoca condotta morale e politica; donna senza scrupoli e avida di danaro, ha precedenti per commercio clandestino di valuta ed incline a prestare la sua opera per solo tornaconto personale. = Risulta inoltre che lavorava presso la Missione Argentina; poi presso il Ministero della Cultura Popolare; presso lo Stato Maggiore Italiano; presso l'Accademia d'Italia e presso l'Istituto Internazionale di Agricoltura. Dal 19 settembre 1943 lavora^{va} presso il comando militare germanico ed abita^{va} all'Albergo Flora, ove aveva sede il comando germanico.

Nel suo fascicolo personale esistente presso la questura di Roma ufficio stranieri, trovansi diversi documenti che &provano i suoi contatti con i comandi tedeschi e la sua oscura attività. Inoltre contiene una lettera in data 6/1/1943 dell'Ambasciata Germanica in Roma diretta alla Questura di Roma, con la quale si chiede un lascia passare in favore della Kling per l'Italia Settentrionale e precisamente per Bolzano, Salorno per affari inerenti all'approvigionamento della Casa di riposo per i militari germanici.

Si allega una copia di una lettera proveniente dalla Questura di Genova che dimostra anche che la signora Kling fino a che punto era entrata in ambienti tedeschi.=

L'indirizzo stabile della Kling è in Via Porta Pinciana n°68 interno 10; sembra, però, che attualmente sia fuori Roma.=

During the Nazi occupation she has always worked in a German Command at Corso d'Italia.

She always refused help for some particular case.
She is strongly anti-allied.

Now she is trying to get a job in an Allied Command or office for which it seems she has good hope

It is much advisable to investigate and keep under strict control this dangerous subject, possibly sending her in an internee camp.

- (2) GAZZANO is a Doctor of Agricultural Science having graduated at the University of PISA and during the last war served with the Italian Forces on the northern Italian front with the rank of Captain and was taken prisoner-of-war.
- (3) After demobilisation he became interested in fascism and has admitted under interrogation that after joining the P. N. F. on 21st July 1921 he has devoted his life to the furtherance of the doctrines of the Party. The following is his fascist background :-
- (a) Squadrista
 - (b) Marcia su Roma
 - (c) Sciarpa Littorio
 - (d) 1924 - Sepr 1925 - appointed member of Communal Administration, SESTRI LEVANTE.
 - (e) 1925 - 1926 - Commissario Prefettizio, SESTRI LEVANTE.
 - (f) 1926 - 1930 - Podesta, SESTRI LEVANTE.
 - (g) 1925 - 1929 - Provincial Secretary of Technical Agricultural Association for Province of GENOA - a fascist appointment.
 - (h) 1930 - 1932 - Sindaco, MOCCOLESE, Province of GENOA.
 - (i) 1932 - 1934 - Podesta and Commissario Prefettizio, BORZONASCA, Province of GENOA.
 - (j) 1934 - 1935 - Federal Inspector, Province of GENOA.
 - (k) 1935 - 1940 - Federal Secretary, SALERNO.
 - (l) 1940 - July 1941 - Federal Secretary, POTENZA.
 - (m) 1941 - May 1943 - Federal Secretary, PISA.
 - (n) May 1943 - 25/7/43 - Federal Secretary, IMPERIA.
 - (o) Member of the Fascist National Council.
 - (p) In 1938 appointed Knight of San Maurizio and Lazzaro for services to the State.
 - (q) In 1941 appointed Grand Officer of Italian Crown for services to the State.

(4)

On 27th July 1943 GAZZANO was re-called to the colours at GENOA, commissioned as a Major and ordered to report to an infantry unit at REGGIO CALABRIA. He never arrived there, but instead reported to the 31st Italian Army Corps and eventually found himself at LAINO BRUZIO, a small village in COSENZA Province. There he lived with a private family and was observed to be associating with certain local residents who held office in the P. N. F. - enquiries as to the activities of these particular people are now in hand from this Office.

(5)

At the beginning of March 1944, GAZZANO came to CATANZARO and reported to the H.Q. 31st Italian Army Corps. He was given no particular task or duty, but like so many Italian Army Officers here was left in the district to his own devices.

(6)

Information has been received from reliable sources that subject was well informed of conditions in German occupied Italy and for a period was missing from CATANZARO when making an unsuccessful attempt to cross the 'lines' to ROME. It is also alleged that whilst taking meals at the Italian Officers' Mess in CATANZARO he spread fascist propaganda during conversation with brother Officers but, so it is said, was saved from exposure as the result of protection afforded by certain high ranking Italian Officers. As was to be expected, GAZZANO denied these allegations when interrogated.

(7)

On 26th June 1944, subject was discharged from the Italian Army as his services were no longer required by that authority. It should be explained that this dismissal was in accordance with normal procedure and in no way connected with his fascist background or alleged activities.

(8)

As stated in the first portion of this report, I apprehended GAZZANO on 8th July and carried out an interrogation as to his activities, contacts, etc. The following are extracts from the examination and these, I submit, indicate his true sympathies:-

- (1) Question - "What are your political feelings"
Reply - "I have no political feelings"

- (ii) Question - "Are you still a fascist and do you still believe in the doctrines of the Party"
- Reply - "It is very difficult to explain; from one day to another a man cannot be changed".
- (iii) Question - "Does that mean that you are still a fascist".
- Reply - Subject declined to answer.
- (iv) Question - "Did you and do you agree with the Italian - Allied Armistice of September last".
- Reply - Subject declined to answer.
- (v) Question - "To whom do you owe allegiance, the outlawed Government of Mussolini or the Italian Government of New Italy".
- Reply - Subject declined to answer.

Mr. DI MATTIA Giovanni (Videi Gracchi - tel. 364045) proprietor of an estate at M. Mellone (2Km at the north of Monte Porzio Catone) reports that in the grottes of the woods between Monte Porzio, Cajone and Monte Compatri, are hidden numerous German soldiers, who, it seems meet at night in one of the tunnels of the rail way at west of Monte Compatri.

It seems, that the ex politic secretary of Monte Porzio Catone assists some Germans with the help of some country women of the place.

i quali si riunirebbero la notte in uno dei sottopassaggi della ferrovia ad ovest di Monte Compatri.

Sembra che l'ex segretario politico di Monte Porzio Catone agevoli tali tedeschi valendosi dell'aiuto di alcune contadine

From trusted sources we have that Paganelli Giovanni, proprietor of an establishment at Isola Farnese, has helped the Germans.

He was the cause of the arrest of some patriots (two were shot) of the place, who had hidden arms in a wood near the place.

Taking advantage of Nazi-fascist protection, Paganelli excelled in the black market, accumulating in this way several hundreds of thou-

TRANSLATION.

Mr Rudolfo MONTAGNO, Ugo's brother.

Age : 38

Residing with his father No 1 Via Rabirio.

Follows his brother and although less intelligent, has performed many hurtful actions on behalf of Fascism and of the Gestapo giving information about persons.

If the information we have is not wrong, the Montagno brothers were the informers of the German S.S. They were able to denounce anonymously and verbally, or with little notes, type-written in order not to compromise themselves. So honest workmen think about them. Now ~~it~~ it is too late, but a search would succeed in finding something of interest.

However, the Montagno brothers are very able dissimulators. They were members of a criminal group with Bruno Vittorio Mussolini and the three Borgia brothers (Alfredo, Renato, and Fausto) Piperno al Corso and the famous Colonel Eiseo.

We soon will be more exact in our information.

MEMORANDUM

Il fratello del Sign. Ugo Montagna, per il quale è stato riferito a parte, a nome Rodolfo di anni 28 abitante in via Rabirio n°1 unitamente al padre, seguendo l'insegnamento del fratello, seppur meno intelligente, ha esercitato un'attività deleteria a favore del fascismo e della Chastapò, fornendo segnalazioni su persone, uffici, ambienti ed atmosfera. ^{di} ~~Le~~ informazioni avute non sono errate, è convincimento di quanti hanno avuto modo di seguire i movimenti dei fratelli Montagna che i predetti ponessero la polizia tedesca (S.S.) in condizioni di privilegio a danno dei connazionali italiani.

I medesimi sono ritenuti capacissimi di fare segnalazioni anonime o rimettere notizie verbali o con semplici appunti scritti a macchina in modo da non compromettere le loro persone.

In tal senso l'opinione di onesti lavoratori si esprime a loro riguardo.

E' ormai tardi, ma un'accurata e minuziosa perquisizione avrebbe potuto far rinvenire qualcosa di utile, sebbene i fratelli Montagna siano molto abili nel saper simulare.

I fratelli Montagna facevano parte di una specie di associazione a delinquere in unione a Bruno e Vittorio Mussolini, i tre fratelli Porrigia (Alfredo, Renato e Fausto), Fiverno al Corso ed il famoso Colonnello Biseo.

Si fa riserva di essere più precisi fra non molto.

REPORT N° 1

15 July 1944

Edith Tonini, Via Paolo Frisio 40, Roma

German born, married to Marcello Tonini owner of a baker-shop in Rome (Via Veneto). During german occupation went several times to Germany and back (to be noted that it was almost impossible for german civilians to do so unless for political or military reasons). Was often seen with high german officers, was also an "habituée" of the German Embassy in Rome. Spended large sums in jewels, clothing etc. in the last 2 years. Gossips say she is a friend of Goering. Went touring on the Italian Riviera for a couple of weeks (military zone forbidden to civilian) with german officers and on another occasion went in Toscana also with german officers.

Marcello Tonini enjoyed full protection from german authorities; the day before the Allies came into Rome he brought his last presents to his german friends at the Hotel Boston in Rome: two days later he wore a patriot's band around his arm. When the Allies liberated Rome Tonini's home was raided by italian communists who must have been aware about the couple, but a man called Giovanni Mazzitelli took up Tonini's defence and succeeded in sending the communists away.

REPORT N° 2

15 July 1944

Olga Mencacci, Via Sistina 125, Roma

Austrian (or Polish) born, first came to Italy about 15 years ago as a chorus girl in the Schwartz revue from Vienna and got married to a man much older than she was, owner of a firm of electrical equipment. During german occupation of Rome kept as guest in her home for several days an officer of the Gestapo; this officer left for Germany and again stopped for a few days at the Mencacci's home on his return to Rome. Had also many other intimate relations with german officers who frequently came to visit her. The husband did not care because his business, mostly in black market dealings, flourished under german protection. Mr. Mencacci owned also the night-club "Florida" where one night a german lieutenant shot a young Italian accused by a woman to be the author of the destruction of the german truck which was set on fire a few days before in the vicinity of the "Florida". One source says that this officer was one of Edith's friends. Mr. Mencacci's brother who lives with him held an official position in the Fascio of Palestrina. When the Allies marched into Rome the Mencaccis left Rome for unknown destination, but returned after a few days.

Baron Ziluca

Lived at Hotel Bernini where he had an apartment together with his niece, during german occupation of Rome: left the Hotel when the same was taken over by the American Red Cross and went to a villa in the Viale Gianicolense in front of Anita Garibaldi monument.

Often ~~intra~~ entertained german officers in his apartment: his so called niece was quite useful to her uncle in establishing friendly relations with these officers. Bernini's personnel is quite aware of the people's way of living during the Nazi period. Has an american passport.

The American subject [REDACTED] [REDACTED] at Geneva and at [REDACTED] Hotel, born in Paris on 21 Aug 1894, resided for many years in Rome (Rome, Italy) as correspondent of the newspapers "Washington Post" and "Weekly News".

He enjoyed a certain protection from the Ministry of the Interior (France), after the entry into the war of the U.S.A., he was not troubled and had relations, (considered of a benevolent nature) with Dr. [REDACTED], president of the Association of the Foreign Press.

In November 1943 he left the [REDACTED] Hotel without letting them know where he was going. It is not known where he is to be found at the present moment or if he has taken refuge in the Vatican.

He does not appear to have collaborated with the Germans and he has never been the object of political enquiries.

SUBJECT : Proposal of assignment to P.W. Camp of BATTAGLINI Alfredo

TO : Major BATTAGLINI Vice Chief of the Allied Police
Major SNOWDEN C.I.
Major HARVEY A.C.C.

BATTAGLINI Alfredo son of Augusto and of Tortorelli Gioconda, born in Rome on the 25th January 1881, living in piazza Verano n. 22, stairs G, apartment n. 10, is at the service of the Italian Red cross from the beginning of the war. He has the grade of lieutenant and works in the administration.

After the events of the 8th September 1943 he continued to serve the Republican Government, and had many friends amongst the Germans who were often invited to his house for dinner parties or for dances. He received a lot of food from the Germans and it seems that he sold them at black purse prices.

The public opinion accuses him of collaboration with the Germans.

Actually he still serves the Italian Red Cross and is suspected of having taken medicines belonging to the military administration.

Independently from the investigations and decisions of your Office, we consider it necessary to send Battaglini to a concentration camp.

N. 42442

BATTAGLINI Cesare - or Carlo - son of Alfredo and of Mona Luigia, born in Rome on the 17 March 1923, living in piazza Verano n. 22 stairs G apartment n. 10, was before the war employed by the Ministry of Finances, when war began he worked for the Italian Red Cross.

After the 8th September 1943 he continued to work for the Republican Government and was friendly with German SS who came to his house almost every evening and brought him many victuals.

He is known as a collaborator of the Germans.

He was proud of his friendship with the Germans.

He is a person who could be dangerous.

He recognised immediately the Fascist Republican Government and has publicly despised the Allied and exalted the German power.

Independently from the investigations and decisions of your Office, we consider it necessary to send Battaglini Cesare to a concentration camp.

Dopo gli eventi dell'8 settembre 1943 continuò a prestare servizio col governo repubblicano. Ha avuto frequenti contatti con militari tedeschi della SS. che ospitava in casa quasi tutte le sere e dai quali riceveva abbondanti viveri.

E' indotto dal pubblico quale collaboratore dei tedeschi.

Delle sue relazioni se ne faceva vanto.

E' elemento che potrebbe essere pericoloso.

Adorò subito al governo repubblicano fascista e varie volte ha pubblicamente disprezzato l'opera degli alleati, magnificando la potenza militare tedesca.

Indipendentemente dalle indagini e dalle decisioni che codesto competente ufficio riterrà più opportune, si propone per in tanto l'assegnazione del BATTAGLINI ad un campo di concentramento.

OGGETTO Giorgi Giorgio fu Carlo, internato.

Per le determinazioni di competenza, si trasmette l'unità istanza di Giorgi Ines da Roma, intesa ad ottenere la liberazione del figlio Giorgio dal campo di concentramento di Padula.

La locale R. Questura ha trasmesso le seguenti informazioni, esprimendo parere favorevole:

Il soprascritto Giorgi Giorgio fu Carlo, unitamente alla moglie Blinde Elly, cittadina straniera e italiana per matrimonio - abitano da circa sei anni in Via Flaminia N. 362 serbando regolare condotta in genere ed in questi atti non hanno precedenti penali e politici.

La moglie del Giorgi, di nazionalità tedesca, durante il periodo nazi-fascista riceveva continuamente nella sua abitazione ufficiali e soldati tedeschi, nonostante che tale fatto non fosse tollerato dal marito il quale, si dice, che fosse contrario al comportamento della moglie nei riguardi dei tedeschi.

Detti coniugi, nell'agosto 1944, vennero fermati dalla polizia alleata ed in seguito internati nel campo di concentramento di Padula, volendosi appunto per la frequente presenza dei nazisti nella loro abitazione.

Il soprascritto Giorgi fu Carlo, unitamente alla moglie Blinde Elly, cittadina straniera e italiana per matrimonio - abitano da circa sei anni in Via Flaminia N. 362 serbando regolare condotta in genere ed in questi atti non hanno precedenti penali e politici.

Giorgi Giorgio fu Carlo, internato nel campo di concentramento a Padula. Contro il provvedimento non è stato possibile alcun reclamo non conoscendone, le ragioni specifiche. Non è stato interrogato, non sono state mosse accuse nessuna discolpa quindi è stata possibile. La madre, colpita nei suoi più intimi affetti prima con la morte del marito e successivamente da una serie interminabile di sventure che mentre da un lato l'hanno condotta alla solitudine, dall'altra, a disagiate condizioni economico-finanziarie.

La esponente fa istanza, perchè venga restituito al suo focolare deserto, il figlio Giorgio tanto più che lo sa cagionevole di salute e per il quale invano e già rivolto istanze e pre ghieri. Giorgi Giorgio fu Carlo, interned in the concentration camp of Padula.

Against the measures taken on the a/m subjects' account it has not been possible to claim being that the specific reasons are not known. He has not been interrogated, no accuses have been notified therefore it has not been possible to disculpate him.

The mother, in sorrow first with the death of her husband and successively for a succession of mishaps which while on one side have conducted her to the loneliness, and on the other, have troubled her economic and financial conditions.

Threrefore the undersigned begs you to please return her son home also because he lives in bad health condition for which I have already made an appeal invain.

TO : Allied Commission, Public Safety Sub-Comm. Rome.

For the actions you deem necessary we transmit a petition made by Giorgi Ines from Rome, who is hoping to obtain her son's liberation from the concentration camp of Padula.

The local R. Questura has forward the following informations, expressing a favourable opinion:

" The a/m Giorgi Giorgio fu Carlo, together with his wife Blinde Elly, stranger and Italian citizen for marriage, live in via Flaminia N.362 since 6 years, have a regular conduct in general and they have no penal or political records in this office's files.

Giorgi's wife, of German nationality, was continually receiving in her house German soldiers and Officers during their occupation, although such fact were not tolerated by the husband, who, it is said, was contrary to the behaviour of his wife in regard of the Germans.

The a/m conjoints, in August 1944, were arrested by the Allied Police and afterwards interned in the concentration camp of Padula, on account of the frequent presence of the Germans in their house.

From ascertainments made it does not result that Giorgi Giorgio has collaborated with the Nazi-fascists, nor have any such denounces been received.

Considering the a/m this office would have nothing to the contrary in case of the eventual release of Giorgi from the concentration camp also because an eventual clemency act on his behalf would leave the public's opinion indifferent.

Confermo quanto ha già deposto mia moglie circa la nostra permanenza all'Albergo Excelsior insieme ai nostri amici MANFREDI Ferdinando e Signora. Non ho potuto impedire che mia moglie di nazionalità tedesca, abbia avuto relazioni di amicizia con ufficiali tedeschi, alcuni dei quali mi erano anche utili per garantire la mia azienda. Infatti, dopo qualche requisizione subita nei primi giorni, non ho più avuto fastidi.

Per quanto riguarda la mia azienda ero solito rivolgermi agli ufficiali REYER ed HEMPEL, addeetti al Comando Tennesco sito al Corso d'Italia. Ho conosciuto anche Roberto KROZ, Hens OTTO, DALQUINN, Hens PRATER, ed altri ufficiali delle SS di Hitler, che ho ricevuto spesso nel salotto mio. Costoro erano però combattenti e non della Polizia.

A d. r. Ho conosciuto il Capitano MAIER, che aveva anche l'ufficio al Corso d'Italia, un anno fa nella villa del mio amico Manfredi Ferdinando Angelo e poi l'ho rivisto a Roma, se non erro nell'Aprile c.a.

Chiesi a costui chi potesse rilasciarmi un porto d'armi ed egli mi promise di rilasciarmelo direttamente e così fece. Mi rilasciò poi un permesso per circolare dopo il coprifuoco per la mia signora, che mi concesse. Io ero già in possesso di detto permesso che mi aveva rilasciato Rempen. In detto permesso era anche scritto che le "Autorità Italiane in caso di necessità dovevano prestarmi aiuto e assistenza".

Non nego di essere stato tre volte all'albergo Bernini. Colà mi recai per far visita a certo FERRAGUTI Gigi, il quale vi era alloggiato con la famiglia e che mi era stato presentato da Manfredi Ferdinando. Detto Ferraguti, l'ultima volta mi propose di partecipare del denaro ad uno svizzero, certo CARTIER, il quale doveva rimpatriare e che poi, mi avrebbe accreditato le somme su di una Banca, ma io non volli accettare la proposta. Ho poi saputo che il Ferraguti anticipò lui le somme e fu truffato.

Translation

ROME, 4th July 1944, at the offices of British Security

GIORGI Giorgio fu Carlo e di Ines Nanno, born at Rome 8 Jan 1911, now residing in Via Montevideo 2, makes the following statement at his interrogation.

I confirm what my wife has testified regarding our stay at the Albergo Excelsior together with our friends MANFREDI Ferdinando and wife. I could not prevent my wife or German nationality having contact with German officers, some of whom were also useful to me for the protection of my property. In fact after some quick requisitioning in the early days, I had no further trouble.

As regards my property I was accustomed to directing myself to the officers REFFLER and REMPEN, attached to the German HQ in Corso d'Italia. I also knew Roberto KROZ, Hens OTTO, DALQUINN, Hens PFETTER and other SS officers whom I often received in my room. They were, however combat officers and not of the police.

To the question made to me my reply is:- I knew Captain MAIER, who also had the office in Corso d'Italia, a year ago at the villa of my friend Manfredi Ferdinando at Anzio and then I saw him again at Rome, in April if I am not mistaken.

I asked him to let me have a permit to carry arms and he promised to let me have it at once, and he did. He afterwards let me have a permit to circulate after curfew for my wife. I was already in possession of this permit which had been given to me by Rempen. In this permit it was also mentioned that "the Italian authorities in case of necessity had to render me help and assistance";

I do not deny having been on three occasions to the Hotel Bernini. I went there to visit a certain FERRAGUTI Gigi, who was staying there with his family and who had been presented to me by Manfredi Ferdinando. This Ferraguti on the last occasion proposed to me to advance money to a Swiss subject, a certain CARTIER, who had to be repatriated and who would later credit me with the amount from his Bank, but I was unwilling to entertain the idea. I afterwards learned that Ferraguti himself advanced the money and was swindled.

My answer to the question is that I do not know a certain man MAX nor MACRO Franco or MORANTI.

My answer to the question is that I do not deny that I have done favours to friends through Germans known to me and my wife.

1. The a/n, a Hungarian Jew, was arrested on 14 July 44 on security grounds in view of his self-admitted contact with SS circles at the Albergo Excelsior.
2. Att is a statement in which he outlines his activities since his arrival in Italy on 2 Apr 40. He was practically penniless and lived as a commercial artist at MILAN for some time. He arrived in ROME in Dec 43 with a large amount of money and some paintings which he proposed to sell. He later took a room at the Excelsior and there he made the acquaintance of ELIUD Aurelia in Giorgi, a woman of German origin married to an Italian (see this Sec's arrest report on this woman 14 Jul 44). At the Excelsior he got into the swim of the various Italian hangers-on of the SS (Marsovich Glanvick, Conte Pace etc. - see this Sec's routine reports on these suspects. He admits his contact with these people, principally, according to him, as an art expert, but says that he did it to save his neck as a Jew.
3. As can be seen from the att statement in which he admits his contact with this suspect milien, he gives certain information which has been and is being acted on by this Sec.
4. However, in view of (a) his Hungarian nationality, and (b) of his contacts with the a/m suspects and German collaborators, it is considered that there is a strong case for his internment. Att are his docs and a sum of money - (1000 Belgian francs, 10 French francs, 1 Italian lira, Hungarian note for 50).

STROMMILLOS Nicola, di Ernani e di Schwarz Teresa, nato a Satoralvjhely il 28 novembre 1908, qui domiciliato presso l'Albergo Bellavista, in via di Porta Pinciana, il quale interrogato risponde:

Sono arrivato in Italia il 2 Aprile 1940, due giorni dopo l'occupazione della Dalmazia, dove mi trovavo da circa otto mesi, da parte dei Tedeschi. Fermatemi a Milano mi sono presentato a quella Questura ove ho ritirato il permesso di soggiorno. Colà ho alloggiato all'Albergo Menzini e poi, all'Albergo Bonforte per parecchio tempo. Successivamente ho affittato un appartamento in via della Passarella 14, restandovi finché, in seguito a bombardamento la casa fu sinistrata. Da Milano sono passato a Vicenza ed ho alloggiato all'Albergo Cavalletto il 14 luglio 1943. In seguito mi sono trasferito a Montecatini, restandovi per circa due mesi e, poi, sono venuto a Roma, verso la metà di settembre 1943.

Aid.r.: Quando sono venuto in Italia ho portato con me 150 lire italiane ed ho vissuto disegnando modelli per case di mode, quali a Milano la casa Gabrielle Lepore, Tuma e Medaglia, Felicioni, Ventura, La Rinascente, alle quali mi presentavo come Ungarese, ma facendo capire che venivo dalla Francia. Alle stesse Ditte ero solito dare il nome di Nicola.

Aid. r.: A Roma sono venuto con circa 40.000 lire e tre grosse casse con 60 o 70 quadri da me dipinti che ho prima depositato alla stazione e poi portato all'Albergo Savoia quando mi fu concesso di fare un'esposizione.

A Roma sono sceso all'Albergo Excelsior, ove sono rimasto per una settimana. Trovandomi in detto albergo, pregai il portiere di farmi conoscere qualche signorina ed egli mi presentò fuori dello stesso albergo, la signorina Silvana, che, dove, ho saputo, di cognome BRUNO. Con costei però non ho avuto alcuna relazione intima, non essendomi stato possibile affittare una stanza.

Questa Silvana, nel cercare la stanza mi ha accompagnato anche all'Albergo Savoia, ove non ci fu data. Avendo però io notato il lusso dell'albergo e la presenza di molte belle donne e saputo, inoltre, che i pressati erano più convenienti dell'Excelsior, fissai una stanza ed il giorno successivo vi presi alloggio.

Con restato all'Albergo Savoia, finché è stato requisito dai tedeschi ed ho dovuto allontanarmi.

Pur alloggiando in detto albergo, frequentavo ugualmente l'Excelsior già requisito dai tedeschi per vendere quadri.

Un quadro vendetti per 8.000 lire a certa signora GIORGIO di nazionalità tedesca, il cui marito era italiano. Ambefus alloggiavano nell'albergo ed erano intimi dei tedeschi. Ho visto il signor Giorgio, un giorno dopo l'occupazione di Roma da parte degli Alleati all'Albergo Boston, nel bar con un'altra signora e con un ufficiale Alleato. Detto Giorgio che aveva un bellissimo appartamento all'Excelsior, come ho detto, mi pregò di fare il ritratto alla signora, che io cominciassi a dipingere. Quando l'ebbi finito, lo lasciai per qualche giorno in cortineria per farlo vedere agli alloggiati e farmi della recame. Un giorno, il generale Melzer che passava col suo aiutante si fermò a guardarlo poi disse: "Questo è il ritratto della signora Giorgio" e poi chiese: "chi lo ha fatto?" Il portiere rispose che era stato io ed egli allora pregò il suo aiutante di invitarmi ad andare nel suo ufficio al Corso d'Italia per eseguire quello suo. Io accettai l'invito e mi recai. Il giorno successivo nel suo ufficio, ove il generale Melzer mi consegnò una sua fotografia, non avendo tempo per posare. Seguito il ritratto lo portai all'Excelsior e lo consegnai all'aiutante generale Melzer, il quale non si corresse alcun compenso e mi invitò a ritornare per questo. Di fatto non ho mai però avuto un soldo.

A Roma, verso la metà di Settembre, 1943.

A.d.r.: Quando sono venuto in Italia ho portato con me 150 lire italiane ed ho vissuto disegnando modelli per case di nozze, quali a Milano la casa Gabrielle Exporta, Tump e Metalia, Felicioni, Ventura, La Rinascenza, alle quali mi presentavo come Ungherese, ma facendo capire che venivo dalla Francia. Alle stesse Ditte ero solito dare il nome di Nicols.

A.d.r.: A Roma sono venute con circa 40.000 lire e tre grosse casse con 60 o 70 quadri da me dipinti che ho prima depositato alla stazione e poi portato all'Albergo Savoia quando mi fu concesso di fare un'esposizione.

Detto GIORGIO che aveva un bellissimo appartamento all'Excelsior, come ho detto, mi regalò di fare il ritratto alla signora, che io cominciavo a dipingere. Quando l'ebbi finito, lo lasciai per qualche giorno in cartoleria per farlo vedere agli alleati e farmi della reclame. Un giorno, il generale Melner che passava col suo aiutante si fermò a guardarlo poi disse: "questo è il ritratto della signora Giorgi" e poi chiese: "chi lo ha fatto?" Il portiere rispose che era stato io ed egli allora pregò il suo aiutante di invitarmi ad andare nel suo ufficio al Corso d'Italia per eseguire quello suo. Io accettai l'invito e mi recai, il giorno successivo nel suo ufficio, ove il Sangiulio Melner mi consegnò una sua fotografia, non avendo tempo per posare. Seguito il ritratto lo portai all'Excelsior e lo consegnai all'aiutante generale Melner, il quale non mi corrispose alcun compenso e mi invitò a ritornare per questo. Di fatto non ho mai però avuto un soldo.

Un intimo amico del GIORGIO il Cav. MANFREDI, napoletano, di età dai 35 ai 40 anni, molto ricco e che aveva conseguito le sue ricchezze lavorando coi tedeschi. Il Cav. Manfredi, per quanto mi consta, doveva essere amico del Generale Melner perché si recava da lui anche nel pomeriggio, nel le ore in cui il Generale non era solito ricevere che i suoi intimi amici.

A.d.r.: Poiché lei mi domanda quali persone, oltre le suddette fossero in relazione col GIORGIO, preciso che un certo giorno incontrai una signorina di facili costumi, di nome IOLANDA, conosciuta in precedenza, all'albergo Boston, la quale mi disse che aveva visto ed ammirato il quadro che avevo fatto per la signora GIORGIO. Io le ho chiesto, allora, se con essa conosceva la signora Giorgi ed essa mi rispose che essa aveva una relazione amorosa con un ufficiale tedesco delle SS e che insieme ad esso era andata a ballare dalla signora Giorgi, ove aveva visto il mio quadro. Ora penso che i rapporti tra questi individui, non fossero così semplici ma che fossero stretti da legami di spionaggio.

In questo periodo di tempo, io del Savoia mi ero trasferito al

Boston, ove la signorina Iolanda alloggiava perciò mi era facile vederla ogni giorno.

Venni così a conoscenza che la Iolanda era fidanzata con certo LUPI, trafficante in buona fama, che nel passato avevo già incontrato a Firenze ed a Bologna. Per quanto riguarda costui posso dire di averlo visto una sera all'Albergo Bernini, ad un tavolo da gioco, insieme ad UN INDIVIDUO DI 27-28 ANNI, bruno, capelli neri, che mi fu detto essere un informatore delle SS. Dopo l'occupazione di Roma da parte degli Alleati, ho visto il LUPI e l'INDI VIDUO precisato, qui a Roma, al bar dell'Albergo Boston.

Aggiungo ancora che ho visto la immensa fetta spia delle SS giocare all'Albergo Bernini nella stanza di un certo PABIANI, individuo che disponeva di molto denaro.

Ritornando alla Iolanda, ricordo che un giorno mi recai nella sua camera per trattenermi con lei ed essa mi disse che alle 17 sarebbe partita per Venezia con certa MUGGIONI, segretaria all'Ambasciata giapponese. Io ci credei, ma dopo due giorni l'incontrai per strada con un signore sui 40 anni, bruno, capelli neri, baffi neri, con monocolo, che, in precedenza mi era stato presentato da un certo Mario MORANTI, alloggiato all'Albergo Boston e solito frequentare l'Axelsior, per i suoi papaveri con i tedeschi di cui ritengo fosse un informatore. Il MORANTI, si trova ancora a Roma e l'ho visto ieri nel pomeriggio all'Albergo Boston. Mi ha detto che abita nell'appartamento di un suo amico che è partito per il nord. Ha aggiunto che spera di lavorare con gli alleati e mi ha fatto vedere un pezzo di carta, su cui erano scritti tre indirizzi di ufficii alleati. Ha dichiarato inoltre che gli hanno offerto 5.000 lire al mese ma che egli, invece, intende lavorare a provvigione.

Per quanto riguarda il signore col monocolo, incontrato con la Iolanda, debbo aggiungere che qualche giorno dopo l'incontrai per via Veneto verso l'Albergo Ambasciatori, mentre guidava un'automobile della polizia Tedesca.

E' chiaro quindi che era una spia dell'SS.

A d.r. Non so se detto individuo si trovi oggi a Roma. Si potrebbe chiedere al Moranti, il quale, come sopra ho detto lo conosce. L'individuo in parola parla spagnolo, italiano, francese, inglese.

A d.r.: La signorina MUGGIONI, innanzi menzionata, ha un appartamento al Corso Trieste, non ricordo il numero. Ricordo però la località e posso indicarla.

Siccome costei faceva parte del gruppo, posso pensare che sia stata un'informatrice delle SS.

Ho visto parlare anche con GIORGI, certo MAX, frequentatore del bar Bernini, e conosciuto del personale del bar stesso. Ha 40 anni, capelli grigi alle tempie, robusto, molto elegante, distinto. Si accompagnava spesso con una signora che aveva un grosso cane nero. Una volta l'ho visto anche con un ufficiale tedesco col quale parlava in lingua tedesca.

Penso sia altro informatore dello SS facente capo al GIORGIO.

Ho visto anche insieme al GIORGIO un signore di cui non conosco il nome che aveva un grande appartamento all'Albergo Bernini, che lavorava coi tedeschi.

Aveva circa 40 anni, capelli castani, distinto. Vestiva di solito di marrone. Costui aveva per moglie una signora molto bella, capelli neri, qui 26-27 anni, elegantissima, che GIORGI fu ho visto parlare con un ufficiale inglese all'Albergo Boston.

Per quanto mi ha detto un portiere dell'Albergo Axelsior, uomo indiano che il GIORGIO sarebbe oggi nascosto in un appartamento a Roma. Ciò è camera per trattare con lei su cosa mi aveva detto. Io ci per Venezia con certa PUGLIONI, segretaria all'Ambasciata giapponese. Io ci credetti, ma dopo due giorni l'incontrai per strada con un signore sui 40 anni, bruno, capelli neri, baffi neri, con moustache, che, in precedenza mi era stato presentato da un certo Mario MONARDI, alloggiato all'Albergo Roston e solito frequentare l'Excelsior. Per i suoi rapporti con i tedeschi di qui ritengo fosse un informatore. Il MONARDI, si trova ancora a Roma e l'ho visto ieri nel pomeriggio all'Albergo Roston. Mi ha detto che abita nell' appartamento di un suo amico che è partito per il nord. Ha aggiunto che spe-ra di lavorare con gli alleati e mi ha fatto vedere un pezzo di carta, su cui erano scritti tre indirizzi di uffici alleati. Se dichiarato inoltre che gli hanno offerto 8.000 lire al mese ma che egli, invece, intende lavorare a provvigione.

Per quanto riguarda il signore col moustache, incontrato con la Iolanda, debbo aggiungere che qualcuno giorno dopo l'incontrai per via Veneto verso l'Albergo Ambasciatori, mentre guidava un automobile della polizia Tedesca.

È chiaro quindi che era una spia dell'SS.

A d.p. Non so se detto individuo si trovi oggi a Roma. Si potrebbe chiedere al Mornati, il quale, come sopra ho detto lo conosce. L'individuo in parola parla spagnolo, italiano, francese, inglese.

A d.p. La signorina PUGLIONI, innanzi menzionata, ha un appartamento al Corso Trieste, non ricordo il numero. Ricordo però la località e posso indicarla.

Siccome costei faceva parte del gruppo, posso pensare che sia stata un'informatrice delle SS.

Ho visto parlare anche con GIORGI, certo MAX, frequentatore del bar Bernini, e conosciuto dal personale del bar stesso. Ha 40 anni, capelli gri-gi alle tempie, robusto, molto elegante, distinto. Si accompagnava spesso con una signora che aveva un grosso cane nero. Una volta l'ho visto anche con un ufficiale tedesco col quale parlava in lingua tedesca.

Penso sia altro informatore delle SS facente capo al GIORGIO.

Ho visto anche insieme al GIORGIO un signore di cui non conosco il nome che aveva un grande appartamento all'Albergo Bernini, che lavorava del tedesco.

Aveva circa 40 anni, capelli castani, distinto. Vestiva di solito di marrone. Costui aveva per moglie una signora molto bella, capelli ²neri, sui 26-27 anni, elegantissima, che GIORGI fa ho visto parlare con un ufficiale inglese all'Albergo Roston.

Per quanto mi ha detto un portiere dell'Albergo Excelsior, posso indie-care che il GIORGIO sarebbe oggi nascosto in un appartamento a Roma. Ciò è confermato dal fatto che io l'ho visto qui dopo l'occupazione, come ho già detto. Sono certo che con la sua signora fa anche ora la spia per i tedeschi.
Ritornando alle mie visite all'Albergo Excelsior, per vendere i miei quadri, preciso che, qualche tempo dopo la mia venuta a Roma, fui avvicinato nell'Albergo da un signore tedesco, il quale mi invitò ad andare nella sua camera per studiare dei quadri. Insieme a costui era un secondo tedesco che venne anche nella stanza. Quando scesi il portiere dell'Albergo, il quale a-veva pensato che io fossi stato trattato in arresto, mi disse che erano costui IMC e MAIER, funzionari alle dipendenze del Maggiore SCHULTZ A HOI, il quale, aveva alle sue dipendenze una vera banda e si occupava del sequestro di beni degli antinazisti ed ebrei per mandarli in Germania.

In seguito, a mezzo di costoro ho conosciuto altri componenti della banda, quali MARCUVIZ, certo Andrea GEMINARO, italiano e spia dell'SS, che si diceva tenente ed andava sempre armato di rivoltella.

Costoro mi hanno avvicinato per utilizzarmi nella stima di quadri ru-bati come sopra ho detto agli antinazisti e agli ebrei.

L'ANDREA, sul quale non so dare migliori indicazioni, che aveva sem-pre uze o due rivolte nella borsa, è un giovane sui 24-25 anni, bruno, capelli neri, viso bruno, si ha condotto una volta in via Regina Elena 140 per stimare dei quadri di proprietà di certi signori suoi conoscenti. Costoro possono dare l'indirizzo di Andrea.

Altra volta, mi sono recato insieme ad altro affiliato della banda di SCHULTZ certo ZAKEMER, alloggiato al Regina, per stimare circa 50 quadri, ma certamente rubati.

Per le stime eseguite mi regalavano di solito delle sigarette.

Mi risulta infine che lavoravano con lo SS, certo Conte PACI, alloggiato all'Albergo Berniniano certo Franco MACRI, che ho visto dopo l'occupazione di Roma da parte degli Alleati. Costui, un giorno mi fece vedere un documento scritto in tedesco con cui veniva autorizzato a portare la pistole e veniva accreditato presso le autorità italiane per ogni possibile sin-to.

Dichiaro inoltre che un Ungherese, certo CLODIUS, il quale abitava all'Albergo Bernini, pagando 10.000 lire al mese, mentre prima pagava 150 lire al mese in camera ammobiliata, il quale era segretario del Dr. Gelskoff, alloggiato all'Albergo Ambasciatori, con la moglie, intima amica della signora col cane già indicata, che ha rovinato mezza Roma, sequestrando automezzi ed altro per i tedeschi. Il CLODIUS è oggi rifugiato con la moglie in una Clinica di via Toscana.

Ho visto infine, Giordani fa, entrare nell'Albergo Excelsior insieme ad un ufficiale Americano, un altro individuo, che già alloggiava all'Albergo Bernini ed era in rapporti coi tedeschi. Elegantissimo, sui 48 anni, vestito di grigio a righe Capelli castani.

Altro gruppo che lavorava alle dipendenze di Gelskoff era costituito da certi TARQUINIO REMO, LULLO e ANGELINI. Il Tarquinio conduceva una mac-china del Ministero della Interno. Ho visto il LULLO e l'Angelini a Roma e penso che anche il Tarquinio vi si trovi attualmente.

Il gruppo era capeggiato da FABIANI, già indicato.

L'anno 1944 il 4 Luglio, in Roma, negli Uffici della Sicurezza Inglese:

BLINDE Aurelia Anna in GIORGI, fu Corrado e di Tobel Marg HJ's Henriette, nata a Boissier (Svizzera Francese) il 3 Ott 1911, qui residente in via Montevideo 2a, la quale interrogata risponde:

Verso la metà di Febbraio del c.s., essendosi licenziata la mia domestica e mancando in casa il riscaldamento, io e mio marito ci trasferimmo all'albergo Excelsior, nelle stanze 316, 317, 318, insieme ai nostri amici MANFREDI Ferdinando ed alla signora di costui KRETSCHMAR Marianna, berlinese. In detto albergo siamo restati sino al 9 o 10 di Maggio, mentre i nostri amici Manfredi si sono allontanati circa tre settimane prima.

Nel periodo di permanenza all'Excelsior, ho ricevuto spesso sia il Maggiore TRIX dell'Organizzazione Todt, sia gli ufficiali REFFLER, SAIFART ed HEMPER, funzionari del Comando Tedesco sito al Corso Italia, già in precedenza da me conosciuti, per questioni relative ad affari di mio marito che ha una concerta in Tivoli. Il Reffler mi è stato presentato da certo KISSLER Erberto amico di Fernando Manfredi e che attualmente trovasi a Roma e pur stando coi tedeschi ha lavorato per gli Alleati.

A d.r. : E' vero che ho invitato i predetti ufficiali e piccoli trattenimenti nel mio salotto ed a balli.

A d.r. : E' vero che, una sera sono stata invitata e mi sono recata nella stanza del Generale HELLER, col quale siamo stati, insieme ad altre persone a bere e chiacchierare.

Ho conosciuto anche altri ufficiali tedeschi.

Ricordo che nel mese di Marzo o Aprile, il signor Goffredo MANFREDI fratello di Fernando, mi invitò a cena insieme a Luigi FREDDI, Assia NORIS ed un'altra persona che non ricordo. Finita la cena, il Manfredi e gli altri furono da me invitati nel mio salotto per bere qualcosa. Il Freddi nell'occasione mi chiese se poteva far venire anche un suo vecchio amico tedesco già conosciuto alla Biennale di Venezia. Fu così che conobbi Hans WIDEMANN delle Waffen SS ed in seguito, attraverso costui Roberto KROTZ, il Capo DALLQUIN, Hans PFETTER, Henz OTTO, che in seguito ho altre volte ricevuti.

A d.r. : Verso la fine di Febbraio, attraverso i Manfredi, ho conosciuto il capitano MAYER, il quale, poi, qualche tempo dopo, rilasciò a mio marito il porto di pistola con fotografia ed il permesso di colpo di fuoco, per lo stesso mio marito ed anche per me.

Intendo dichiarare che ho avuto relazioni d'amicizia con detti tedeschi solo per divertirmi e per ottenere qualche favore, quando ne avevo bisogno. Quando abbiamo potuto anzi, io e mio marito ²⁹ abbiamo fatto del bene.

Infatti mio marito si è adoperato per salvare gli ebrei COEN Samario e la moglie Carla Colombo i quali hanno alloggiato in casa mia col nome di coniugi Colli. Il Colli anzi figurava impiegato di mio domestica e andando in casa il riscaldamento, io e mio marito ci trasferimmo all'albergo Excelsior, nelle stanze 316, 317, 318, insieme ai nostri amici MANFREDI Ferdinando ed alla signora di costui KUERSHAR Mariana, berlinese. In detto albergo siamo restati sino al 9 o 10 di Maggio, mentre i nostri amici Manfredi si sono allontanati circa tre settimane prima.

Nel periodo di permanenza all'Excelsior, ho ricevuto spesso sia il Maggiore FRIZ dell'Organizzazione Todt, sia gli ufficiali HEUTLER, SAUFERT ed HAMPEN, funzionari del Comando Tedesco sito al Corso Italia, già in precedenza da me conosciuti, per questioni relative ad affari di mio marito che ha una concessione in Tivoli. Il Reffler mi è stato presentato da certo KISSLER Erberto amico di Fernando Manfredi e che attualmente trovavasi a Roma e pur stando coi tedeschi ha lavorato per gli Alleati.

A d.r. : E' vero che ho invitato i predetti ufficiali a piccoli trattenimenti nel mio salotto ed a balli.

A d.r. : E' vero che, una sera sono stata invitata e mi sono recata nella stanza del Generale KUSSLER, col quale siamo stati, insieme ad altre persone a bere e chiacchierare.

Ho conosciuto anche altri ufficiali tedeschi.

Ricordo che nel mese di Marzo o Aprile, il signor Goffredo MANFREDI fratello di Fernando, mi invitò a cena insieme a Luigi FREDDI, Assia NORIS ed un'altra persona che non ricordo. Vinita la cena, il Manfredi e gli altri furono da me invitati nel mio salotto per bere qualcosa. Il Freddi nell'occasione mi chiese se potevo far venire anche un suo vecchio amico tedesco già conosciuto alla Biennale di Venezia. Fu così che conobbi Hans WIDEMANN delle Waffen SS ed in seguito, attraverso costui Roberto KROTZ, il Capo DALLQUIN, Hans PREIFER, Hans OTTO, che in seguito ho altre volte ricevuti.

A d.r. : Verso la fine di Febbraio, attraverso i Manfredi, ho conosciuto il capitano WAYER, il quale, poi, qualche tempo dopo, rilasciò a mio marito il porto di pistola con fotografia ed il permesso di circolazione, per lo stesso mio marito ed anche per me.

Intendo dichiarare che ho avuto relazioni d'amicizia con detti tedeschi solo per divertirmi e per ottenere qualche favore, quando ne avevo bisogno. Quando abbiamo potuto anzi, io e mio marito 29 abbiamo fatto del bene.

Infatti mio marito si è adoperato per salvare gli ebrei COEN Samario e la moglie Carla Colombo i quali hanno alloggiato in casa mia col nome di coniugi Colli. Il Colli anzi figurava impiegato di mio marito nella concessione di Tivoli. Ciò possono testimoniare gli stessi Coen che ora abitano in via Aldovrandi 6. Poichè ad un certo momento, sono stata accusata di aver denunziato detti Coen, ho già presentato una memoria al C.A. in via Sicilia.

Debbo dichiarare infine, che il Comm. Manfredi Goffredo, il quale frequentava poco l'Excelsior, mi ha spesso pregata di invitare dei te-deschi per affari suoi relativi costruzioni ed io l'ho messo in con-tatto con ufficiali tedeschi che gli potevano essere utili.

BLUNDE Aurelia Anna in GIORGI, in Corrado e di MARI Marg HJA Henriette, born at ROISSIER (Switzerland) 3 Oct 1911, and resident in Rome at Via Montevideo 12, states as follows during interrogation:

About the middle of February of this year, my maid having left and there being no heating in the house, my husband and myself moved to the Hotel Excelsior, rooms 316, 317, and 318, together with our friends MARELLI Ferdinando and his wife KRISTINA Marianna, of BERLIN. We remained in the said hotel until the 9th or 10th of May, our friends the MARELLI having moved out some three weeks previously.

During the stay at the Excelsior, I often entertained Major TRIE of the TODT organization, or else the officers RUTLER, SAITARE, and HUNTER, serving at the German HQ in Corso d'Italia, and already known to me previously in connection with my husband's tannery business in TIVOLI. RUTLER was introduced to me by a certain EUGENIO ARBATO, a friend of Ferdinando MARELLI who is at present in Rome and whilst working with the Germans was working at the same time for the Allies.

It is true that I invited the aforementioned officers to small entertainments in my drawing-room and to dances.

It is true that one evening I was invited and went to the room of General MARELLI, with whom we stayed in company with others drinking and chatting.

I also knew other German officers.

I remember that in the month of March or April, Signor Gottredo MARELLI, brother of Ferdinando, invited me to supper together with Luigi FREDDI, Assia MORIS and another person whom I cannot recall. After supper MARELLI and the others were invited by me into my drawing room for a drink. FREDDI then asked me whether an old German acquaintance if his could also come whom he used to know at the VENTURE exhibition. It was thus that I got to know Hans WIDMANN of the SS Arm and through him Robert KROZ, the Chief DALLAQUA, Head PHILIPPER, Hans OTTO, whom I subsequently entertained.

Towards the end of February, through MARELLI, I got to know Capt. MAYER, who, a short time later, granted my husband permission to keep his pistol and a permit to be out after curfew for both my husband and myself.

I wish to state that I had friendly relations with the said Germans only to amuse myself and to obtain a few favours when I should need them. When we could I and my husband did good as well.

BLUNDE Aurelie Anna in GIORGI, fu Corrado e di TOBI Marg Hjs Henriette, born at KILSNER (Switzerland) 5 Oct 1911, and resident in Rome at Via Montevideo 1a, states as follows during interrogation:

About the middle of February of this year, my maid having left and there being no heating in the house, my husband and myself moved to the Hotel Excelsior, rooms 316, 317, and 318, together with our friends MANFREDI Ferdinando and his wife IRMINAR Marianna, of BOLOGNA. We remained in the said hotel until the 24th or 10th of May, our friends the MANFREDIs having moved out some three weeks previously.

During the stay at the Excelsior, I often entertained Major BRIG of the 70th Organisation, or also the officers SEPPEN, CARPENT, and HUNTER, serving at the German HQ in Corso d'Italia, and already known to me previously in connection with my husband's tannery business in TIVOLI. SEPPEN was introduced to me by a certain KISSLER Roberto, a friend of Ferdinando MANFREDI who is at present in Rome and whilst working with the Germans was working at the same time for the Allies.

It is true that I invited the aforementioned officers to small entertainments in my drawing-room and to dances.

It is true that one evening I was invited and went to the room of General MANLIER, with whom we stayed in company with others drinking and chatting.

I also knew other German officers.

I remember that in the month of March or April, Signor Sofredo MANFREDI, brother of Ferdinando, invited me to supper together with Luigi TROTTI, Ascia MORIS and another person whom I cannot recall. After supper MANFREDI and the others were invited by me into my drawing room for a drink. MANFREDI then asked me whether an old German acquaintance if he could also come whom he used to know at the VATIC Exhibition. It was thus that I got to know Hans WIGMANN of the SS Arm and through him Robert KROTT, the Chief PALAQUIN, Hans REUTHER, Hans OTTO, whom I subsequently entertained.

Towards the end of February, through MANFREDI, I got to know Capt. MAYER, who, a short time later, granted my husband permission to keep his pistol and a permit to be out after curfew for both my husband and myself.

I wish to state that I had friendly relations with the said Germans only to amuse myself and to obtain a few favours when I should need them. When we could I and my husband did good as well.

In point of fact my husband managed to save the Jews GORN Severin and his wife Carla COLOMBO who stayed at my house under the name of COLLI. "COLLI" was also down as an employee of my husband at the tannery at TIVOLI. This fact will be witnessed by the said GORN who now live at Via Aldovrandi 6. Even so I was once accused of having denounced the said GOM and have already made a statement to Allied HQ at Via Sicilia.

I must finally state that Comm. MAURIZIO Goffredo, who did not often visit the Excelsior, often asked me to invite German officers for business reasons in the construction line and that I put him in contact with German officers who might be useful to him.

Read, confirmed and signed.

Date: 14 July 64.

SECRET

1. Further to my letter of 6 July and 17/7/64, I have to report the following:-

2. The spy is almost at a level of denunciation passed by Col. Rodlock to us of persons who collaborated with the Germans. About 2000 there are in possession of information at present on orders.

3. I enclosed a full report of the spy's account of the spy, as will be observed, far superior from what would be the importance of many other people who could be said to be the spies of the Allies; immediately following our landing at Aachen in June of this year. The spy in the Aachen area in 1944 where it is understood very little agents also had their dwelling, and it appears on the surface of the evidence that the spy would have returned to the area 4 days before the spy was occupied by us.

4. My letter to me you passed me a note which in blue pencil stating "I have to have varied activity with the spy". I do not know from when this information entered, and in view of the delicate nature of the matter (which being the daughter of a British spy, I would be glad to know whether those allegations are based on some definite information or whether, as stated by the spy, they are merely evidence circulating here.

5. In the absence of a specific "spy" regarding the spy's story appears quite certain. The spy has stated considerable responsibility when it comes for an interview with his daughter, and the spy's presence in the spy's flighting would appear to be clear.

6. For the sake of clarity, I have enclosed the spy's story in a separate enclosure with her explanation, and she has promised that in the future she will let us know. In the meantime, she has promised to let us know. In the meantime, she has promised to let us know.

CONFIDENTIAL

1. Further to my letter of 3 July of 57/77, I have to report the following:-

2. The s/a is shown on a list of demonstrators sent by Col. Tolson to me at present is collaborated with the Germans. Facts show this there are no security objections at present at present.

3. I received a full report of Miss Hilditch's account of her visit. As will be observed, her departure from M/I coincided with the departure of my other people who did not return. She made no contact with the Hilditch family, immediately following our landing at 1230 in June of this year. She stayed in the Hilditch house in MICHIGAN where it is understood any further events also had their dwelling, and the reports on the subject of her visit are still being received. She should have returned to M/I only a day before the city was occupied by us.

4. The report letter to me was passed me in note written in blue pencil stating "allied to have worked actively with the Hilditch". I do not know from whom this information was obtained, and in view of the Hilditch name of the subject (subject being stepdaughter of H. Hilditch of the British Embassy here), I would be glad to know whether those allegations are based on some definite information or whether, as stated by Miss Hilditch, they are merely rumors circulating here.

5. In the absence of a reliable "lead" regarding Miss Hilditch her story appears quite probable. H. Hilditch has evaded considerable newspapermen who approached for an interview with his step-daughter, and the very fact of her being in a fighting mood against her stepfather.

6. For the sake of disclosure, I have assured Miss Hilditch that I would be perfectly satisfied with her explanation, and she has promised me that if she is troubled again regarding these allegations, she will let me know. Perhaps in this way I may be able to contact someone who has precise evidence.

arrived at the hotel with instructions to assist her. She climbed over the garden wall, and the first person she saw was the British soldier who was there the night until the arrival of the alien.

Subject states she has to her own knowledge never been in contact with anyone of the OW or any other espionage organization. However, while she was living at the Alberg Hotel under guard, the latter living in the same hotel were arrested and taken to the San Francisco Prison. They were the American woman, Mrs. J. M. [redacted] and the English born woman, the American woman, Mrs. J. M. [redacted]. The American woman, Mrs. J. M. [redacted] was released and informed subject that while in prison she had been told that the subject was a spy of the OW and had been receiving $5,000 per month for every information. Subject states she visited the prison at San Francisco, a certain Mrs. [redacted], and protested against this situation of her character.

Regarding her arrest and removal to the prison in Jan., subject could give no explanation whatsoever but advanced as a possible theory that she had been taken into custody as "a woman who was other people's woman" because only a few days before, the lady-in-waiting of the Queen of Italy had escaped from the San Francisco prison.

Mrs. Maria Luisa BENASSI - Piazza Annibaliano 18 - Rome.

During the nazi-fascist domination she was the mistress of the former Italian Minister of Finance, Mr. Pellegrini.

Her husband had no occupation and nobody knew his living sources. One day the Minister of Finance gave him a very important job as Inspector to the Ammona (Ammona is the organisation for the distribution of foods to the population).

Because of his position he easily filled his house with great quantities of foods as flour, sugar, soap, oil, etc., consequently Mrs. Benassi made openly black market, making good profits.

On the 5th of June, first day of liberation, Mrs. Benassi threw flowers from her window to the Allied troops with the great surprise to the neighbours, and since that day she began to receive American Officers to whom she offered her favours, just to get the protection of Allied Authorities.

She says to be friend of Col. Pollock too and to wait for his visit.

She behave herself in this way to cancel the bad reputation she got when she was Pellegrini's mistress.

Actually she goes in her car, a small two seat red Fiat (Balilla) for which it seems to have a circulating permit, issued I don't know by whom.

It would be advisable to keep that person under control because of her former fascist relations.

Mr. Roberto MAINETTI - Piazza Annibaliano 18 - Rome.

Former private secretary of Gen. Cavallero. His wife is a german and has a brother Major of the Wehrmacht. During the nazi-fascist domination she used to receive her brother with other officers. She has been always ostensibly pro-german.

After the death of Gen. Cavallero, Mr. Roberto Mainetti was sent to Florence, it seems as Colonel of the Republican Guard, but one month later he came back to Rome, and since then he carried on mysterious activities.

When everybody was almost starving, military trucks stopped in front of his house discharging great quantities of foods.

Mrs. Mainetti is making in the neighbourhood a campaign of propaganda openly demonstrating her sentiments against anglo-americans.

Mr. Mainetti is free and goes everywhere without any control by police Authorities.

I suggest to control both Mr. and Mrs. Mainetti's activity. I dare say that if the occasion would come she would give informations to the german Fifth column.

Which are their living sources?

Mr. Di Bari, not better identified, for the moment.

He has worked with Germans making very good business. Because of German protection he bought at good conditions the residuals of Ciampino airport.

His fortune is worth from 25 to 30 millions liras. Now he has made a trust, where his name does not appear, for works on roads and railroads, but he finances the group. Recently they signed a contract with Allied Authorities for the re-building of a certain railroad lineage.

It would be advisable not to give work to a person who has worked with Germans making great profits.

Mr. D'ELIA with a factory on the Casilina Road.

Has worked with Germans for a good deal. He furnished german troops with 80,000 pieces of soap making a profit of 4 millions liras. I know some particulars about this business.

Now he is trying to have contracts with the Allied and it seems to be at good point.

Be careful.

His Excellency

General Sir Basil L. Smith, G.C.B., G.C.M.G.

Rangoon

Excellency,

I take the liberty of addressing you, Excellency, as follows:

I am the widow of the deceased Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Michael Triggs, deceased the 23rd of January, 1944, and the arrest of Sir Michael was effected by the anti-Fascist the 15th of March in the name of Sir Michael, after unprovoked capture.

Michael was the son of Sir Michael, who did not hesitate to fight for your cause in the summer of 1940, and he was killed in the name of Sir Michael, which proved actively and bravely for his life.

For all this, Excellency, my husband was never given his freedom going away and although I am proud of his sacrifice for the cause of a free world, I should feel that I would have with me in the name of Sir Michael, who was a Brigadier, who is actually a Commander-in-Chief of the 1st Air Corps in the name of Sir Michael's intervention, after the liberation of the name, who would have served on immediately to his as a hero.

I beg you to consider, Excellency, that the name of Sir Michael has been only but a real living hero, who has always bravely until the end of the war, 1945.

Therefore, I have the confidence, that His Excellency will see me of a clearest justice towards Sir Michael, the most loyal brother-friend of my husband and whose eventual faults are fully redeemed by the heroism of his brother.

Waiting for a kind reception of my prayer and waiting for a soon return to home of my brother in law, I beg you, Excellency, to accept my deepest thankfulness.

Rangoon, 25th of June 1944
 Via London 114.
