C E R T I F I C A T E

During the period that we were bivouaced in Rome, I was in-quest of two civilian drivers for our civilian vehicles. One afternoon while obtaining parts for a civilian vehicle at the Alfa-Romeo Garage located Via Regina Elena in Rome, I was introduced to Petriangeli, Lullo and Nobili, Angelino, both of whom desired employment as drivers. I informed them both that I would let them know if I could use their services. I was given to understand at the time that they were both former employees of the Alfa-Romeo Garage.

In the interim, Petriangeli, Lullo assisted us in obtaining the necessary parts for the repair of our civilian vehicles and he placed at our disposal his own car, Alfa-Romeo - 2300.

We moved from Rome and shortly thereafter we temporarily hired Petriangeli, Lullo, before doing so however I stopped in at the C.I.C. and the English F.S.S. leaving them both information about the civilian and also explaining to them that I was thinking of hiring both Petriangeli, Lullo and Nobili, Angelino and that I was taking only Petriangeli, Lullo with me for the present.

I left our headquarters phone and APO number so that if they obtained any information of an undesirable nature they could notify us and we could immediately dismiss them.

Shortly after his arrival to our camp, an order concerning the requisitioning of civilian cars was received. Col. Mayne, Chief of Staff, 5th Army AMG thought it best to return the vehicle and its driver to Rome as the services were not suited for the condition of the roads in the frontal area.

As a result Petriangeli, Lullo left this organization and returned to Rome. A few weeks ago, I saw him at the same Garage in Rome and he again assisted me in obtaining an Engine Head for one of our civilian vehicles. At the time of his leaving he was in possession of a Form 228, Drivers License, with the words "Civilian Driver" written in Ink thereon. Besides this his vehicle had an ACC Temporary permit on it.

At present he is in no way connected with this organization or receiving any financial compensation and I would appreciate if the above mentioned permits were confiscated.

In reference to Nobili, Angelino he was never employed and is in possession of no permits.

1. Information has been received through 276 Field Security Section S.A.A.C. that above-mentioned Italians are employed, or are about to be employed, by 2nd Lieutenant GIUSTINIANI, 2675 Regt. A.C.C., now serving with A.M.G. 5th Army.

2. By reason of their former collaboration and employment with the Germans, both Italians are considered undesirable in any form of employment whatsoever, under the Allies, although their internment is not deemed warranted at this stage.

3. It is accordingly requested that, if already employed, they be dismissed immediately and that all Allied permits or other Allied documents be taken from them; further that steps be taken to prevent their future employment within your jurisdiction.

4. It would be appreciated if a brief report could be forwarded to Security Branch, giving the circumstances in which the two Italians came under notice of 2nd Lt. GIUSTINIANI, whose signature appears on a pass in the possession of PIETRANGELI.

1. The a/m at present living at the Albergo Primavera, came to ROME in 1934 and worked for Alfa Romeo. Deserting from the Army in Aug 43 he later joined NOBILI Angelo (see his case) in the car business.
2. In the att statement he admits:
 - a) having bought and sold to German Organisations about 15 cars up to Jun 44.
 - b) having had a curfew pass signed by the German HQ.
 - c) having been driven to CLAUSIUSZ (see his case)
 - d) having frequented the Albergo Bernini in the course of his work for Clausiusz.
3. As in the case presented against NOBILI Angelo (see para 5) it is not considered that PIETRANGELI's activities warrant security detention but it is definitely considered that he should be blacklisted from work with the Allied Forces. At present he is working for 2675 Regt. A.C.C. with a pass signed by 2nd Lt. GIUSTINIANI.

Io sottoscritto PIETRANGELI Lullo di Alberto, nato a Pescara il 23/9/1912, residente a Roma, albergo Primavera, via S. Basilio - espongo quanto segue:

Sono venuto a Roma nell'anno 1934 e sono stato impiegato presso la Società An. Alfa Romeo per tutto il tempo della mia residenza in Roma e cioè sino alla data del mio richiamo alle armi, dove sono rimasto sino al giorno 17 Agosto 43; ero in possesso di lire 50.000. Circa la mia attività dopo tale data faccio presente che mi furono regalate n. 5 gomme che io vendetti per la somma di Lire 60.000.

Altro lavoro fatto è stato il commercio di automobili in società con NOBILI Angelo, abitante in via Brescia 15; il numero delle macchine da me vendute è di circa 15 - in parte ad enti tedeschi ed in parte a civili italiani (Organizzazione TODT) ed altri enti tedeschi.

Io ho anche fatto l'autista al sig. GLAUSIUSZ Andrea che lavorava per la SAPTA e per tanto ho ottenuto un permesso per circolare a Roma anche dopo il coprifuoco, firmato dal Comando Tedesco. Io ho fatto l'autista a Glausiuz Andrea per la durata di mesi 4, da Marzo a Giugno dell'anno 1944; io sono andato parecchie volte all'albergo Bernini per questo mio lavoro insieme al Sig. NOBILI e mi incontravo con il sig. TARQUINIO Remo ed il pittore NICLOZ STROM.

Dichiaro di non aver mai conosciuto ufficiali tedeschi per tutta questa mia prestazione di operante ho mai percepito un soldo.

Durante le mie andate all'albergo Bernini dopo l'8 Settembre 43, ho visto il Conte PACE, Alberto FABBIANI e Romeo PULGA.

Subject: NOBILI Anselmo fu Luigi.

1. The a/m, Rome address via Brescia 15, is a care salesman by trade. He took up residence at the Albergo BERNINI in April 44 where he remained until the Allied entry. At the Bernini he was in close contact with CLAUDIUSZ (see his case) and the other Germans and Italians living there and working for various German Organizations.
 2. During this period NOBILI, in partnership with PIETRANGELI Imilo (see his case) bought cars from civilians and sold them to the Germans, principally the TODT, SATTA and the requisition Office at the Foro Mussolini.
 3. In his att statement NOBILI admits the above and also that he had for his car a German pass obtained through Clausiusz.
 4. A statement by CAMBELLIA Renato owner of a flower shop next door to the Bernini confirms the main points of the above although it contains much hearsay information.
 5. It is doubtful whether NOBILI and the other minor hangers-on at the Bernini who were there for what they could make out of the situation can be considered at present a great enough security danger to warrant internment, but it is strongly recommended that they should be blacklisted from work with the Allied Forces.
- NOBILI is at present trying to get employment with a Lt. GIUSTINIANI of 2675 Regt. A.C.C.

Io sottoscritto NOBILI Angelo fu Luigi e fu Formichetti Vittoria, nato a Rieti il 9/5/1906, abitante in Roma, via Brescia 15.

Sono venuto in Roma per la prima volta nell'anno 1923 e ritornando spesso nella mia residenza. Nell'anno 1928 mi recai ancora in Roma e qui trovai da lavorare, e sono rimasto fino a tutt'oggi, e ho cominciato il commercio delle automobili per mio conto dal 1935. Infine dal 1942 al 1943 ho fatto circa un anno di militare, e cioè 4 mesi a Bologna e la differenza alla censura militare di Roma?

All'8 Sett fino ad oggi ho fatto quanto segue/:

Mi trovavo in possesso di 6 automobili, delle quali la prima mi fu requisita dal Comando tedesco perchè erano in affluenza, e 2 auto da riparare. Della altre macchine, mossesi in società con il Sig. Pietrangeli Lullo che per circa 2 mesi abbiamo lavorato insieme, parte sono state vendute al Comando tedesco, e cioè ufficio requisizione (Foro Mussolini).

Per circa tre mesi ho abitato all'albergo Bernini, dal Marzo sino fino all'arrivo delle truppe Alleate, mese di Giugno giorno 3. Ho avuto il permesso di circolazione per una vettura 500 di mia proprietà, dal comando tedesco, attraverso il dott. CLAUSIUSZ ho avuto il permesso, che il dottore da me conosciuto al Garage Alfa Romeo, con il sig. PULGA Romeo ho comperato 2 macchine insieme, delle quali una venduta alla requisizione (Foro Mussolini) e l'altra è stata requisita -- delle vendute al Foro Mussolini e cioè ufficio requisizione tedesco, da me sono state vendute circa 8 o 10 automobili, cioè comperate da italiani e vendute al comando tedesco.

I miei amici che frequentavo all'albergo Bernini sono: PULGA Romeo, Lullo PIETRANGELI, sono conosciuto anche dal direttore dello stesso albergo Comm. DE LUCA. Conosco anche il Sig. TARMINIO Rezo il quale era amico del direttore Autoparco del Ministero Interni.

NOBILI Angelo

Dichiaro che io non ho mai conosciuto e frequentato tedeschi e non ho mai frequentato gente appartenente alle SS italiana. Appena entrate le truppe Alleate abbiamo conosciuto un ufficiale Americano perchè al mio amico Lullo gli è stata requisita un'auto Alfa Romeo e noi domandammo all'ufficiale stesso (dal nome Giustiniani) quale fosse la procedura per poter arruolarci e lavorare con loro e ci fu consigliato fare una domanda al Comando Alleato dove, ancora per me attendo risposta mentre il mio amico Lullo è stato ingaggiato avendo già una macchina.

In fede approvo quanto ho scritto.

Io sottoscritto Renato CARDALLA, con negozio sito in Via Regina Elena 1 R. Il mio negozio comunica con l'albergo Bernini; il mio negozio è rimasto aperto dal mese di Gennaio fino a tutto il mese di Giugno; in questo periodo di tempo ho potuto vedere tra i miei clienti il Sig. NOBILI e il Sig. GLAUSIUS, abitanti entrambi al Bernini, sempre, il quale in tutto questo tempo erano insieme a ufficiali tedeschi; ho inteso dire da persone che frequentavano il Bernini, che questi due signori hanno guadagnato diversi milioni fornendo automobili ed altro materiale alle Forze Germaniche; inoltre una volta venne nel mio negozio per acquistare dei fiori, accendendo da una macchina 500 Purgancino, targata Polinia; la macchina era pilotata dal NOBILI e vicino sedeva il sig. DE ROSA. IL sig. DE ROSA e il sig. NOBILI erano molto amici e stavano sempre insieme al sig. GLAUSIUS, il quale GLAUSIUS credo sia stata persona molto influente presso i tedeschi.

Non posso dire altro perchè non sono mai stato frequentatore del Bernini, perchè fuori dell'albergo correvano voci che era frequentato da gente locale e in maggioranza Tedeschi, e 33 Tedeschi e Italiani Organizzazione Todt e Saff.

Source 1 is a person of Russian origin, born in St. Petersburg, Russia, on 11-10-1890, living at the present time in the "East" European profession, in which he has received the rank of Colonel, 1st Class.

He is one of the officials who have had the longest record of postwar work. His last jobs were in Sofia, Bulgaria.

In 1932 he was Director of the foreign press service of the "Union of Writers".

During the Soviet Government he was a member of the "Union of Writers".

Intelligent, of perhaps excessive vanity, he speaks of "literature" as of something and everything. He is a "non-artist" and a "non-artist" in the sense of the word. He is a "non-artist" in the sense of the word. He is a "non-artist" in the sense of the word.

He is, however, very critical of Stalin, even after his accession.

He is the editor of "Soviet Union", and is now working for the second time, to a new office rather in Berlin and other cities. He is the editor of the second time. This is a new office, now located.

SIGNORINA BLOODGOOD

The woman FLEITMAN Lida di William and di HEINZLE Lida, born at Brooklyn, N.Y. on April, married to BLOODGOOD John (no further particulars about him) - arrived in Rome from NEW YORK on 8 May 1940 together with her daughter BLOODGOOD Lida Lacey; born in NEW YORK on 1 Feb. 23.

The woman FLEITMAN Lida, of the German origin, has many relatives at Bremen Munich and Annheim. During the Nazi domination she showed pro-German feelings. In and frequented parties and places of intertainment. In addition her house was frequented by a German Air Force Captain who was introduced as a relative and appeared to be the "fiancee" of the young BLOODGOOD Lida Lacey. After the liberation of Rome, FLEITMAN, making use of her UNITED STATES citizenship, has showed a liking for the liberators, giving dances for American and English Officers.

She is considered a woman of doubtful sentiments, who might be recommended to the police authorities for house supervision, her present attitude and position of American citizenship being such as might deceive Allied Officers.

An intimate friend of hers is SANTINI Pietro di Pio e di Rogers Virginia, born in Rome on 18 April 1881; who has lived in the U.S.A.

He returned to Rome from NEW YORK on 15 Dec. 37, and is still living in the Borghese Palace (Piazzale Fontanella Borghese) in the house of the Marchioness PRESBITERI Caterina, of English origin.

He is single and is a free-lance writer. He is known as a personage of strong fascist faith and of pro-German sentiments. During the Nazi domination he wrote anti-Allied propaganda articles and is now participating at BLOODGOOD's house in parties offered in honour of Anglo-American Officers.

Dott. ALBERTO RIPANDELLI. Son of Francesco R., retired Inspector General of P.S. Latter has continued to maintain an interest in P.S. Affairs, especially in connection with issue of licences for public places, brothels, etc.

Alberto R. has been a close friend of Giovanni Armenise, ever since they went to school together. They now both live in latter's Villa at 15 Via Cola di Rienzo.

Ripandelli was appointed chief of the Rome Squadra del Buon Costume (Good behaviour Squad) about 10 years ago.

He has maintained close connections with Gr.Uff. Michele Iantaffi, Inspector General of P.S.

LATTER (Iantaffi), known as "Fascism's Guardian Angel" was Chief Commissario at Rome Station at the time of Matteotti murder. He arrested Dumini, Agostini, Malagrida, and others, and seized the hand-bag which contained proofs of the murder.

De Bono (one of the Fascist Quadrumvirs), who was then P.S. Director General, ~~and~~ requested Iantaffi to hand over the bag. ~~It~~ (Note that this post does not carry with it the functions of "Judiciary Officer"; therefore Iantaffi should not have handed over the bag to De Bono, as he did, but to the Judiciary authorities).

When the trial was held before the High Court of Justice (the Senate), the only witness was Iantaffi. The Pubblico Ministero (Prosecutor), H.E. Santoro, told the latter that he had not done his duty, and that he (Santoro) would ask for Iantaffi's expulsion from P.S.

Iantaffi was subsequently made "Commendatore" by Mussolini, who also promoted him (over the heads of 1200 Commissari) to the post of Vice-Questore.

Both Iantaffi and Ripandelli have enjoyed the constant protection of De Bono, Balbo, and Buffarini-Guidi.

Thirty years ago, Iantaffi often resorted to the Monte di Pietà (pawn and pledge organisation). He now ~~has~~ owns a building in Via Madonna dei Monti (about 30 apartments), another in Via Goito, another in Piazza Dante; is also said to some millions in cash.

Buffarini-Guidi (Rome Undersec. when Mussolini was Home Secretary) used often to say that he had "the fullest confidence in Iantaffi and Ripandelli).

Subject: SANSONI Adolfo.

1. The following information on the a/n has been collected from several different sources and is considered reliable.
2. Is at present living at Via Cassia 292 Km 3 (Villa Eries), married to a German woman GLITZ Eries in Erioh, who went to North Italy with the Germans before the Allied occupation of ROME. SANSONI, a native of ROMAGNA, being born near the birthplace of Mussolini, took part in BOLOGNA in the Squadra d'Azione of ALPINATI and NANNINI. He is reliably reported to have boasted of having killed, as a squadrista, eight persons with his own hand.
3. When he came to Rome he acted for a time as driver to Mussolini and later became head of the car service of the Ministry of the Interior. He also had a photographic studio known as "la serenissima" in via Due Macelli 66, which was later taken over by his brother Guglielmo. He also acted at this time as official photographer to Mussolini, and it is said that in his photographic studio at this address part of the arrangements for the murder of MATTEOTTI were completed. SANSONI is also said to have provided cars from the Ministry of the Interior for persons involved in the MATTEOTTI affair. The monopoly of Mussolini's photograph was later taken away from him as he sold them with false autographed dedications.
4. In Dec 32 he was made Director of the Istituto Nazionale Luce, a State cinematograph undertaking, but was dismissed a year later as a result of a financial scandal. He later set up the Europa Film Co. which was subsequently sold to the "A.C.I.", a film co. owned by Vittorio Mussolini.
5. Out of these and other similar deals SANSONI made considerable financial and political profit. He was also made Console in the MVSN by Mussolini (Legione Com).
6. His scandalous life in the cinema world is public knowledge in ROME. On one occasion he was arrested in a cocaine scandal, and while in prison wrote a pamphlet entitled "In Carcere per una presa di Coca".
7. After the fall of Fascism on 25 Jul 43 he was arrested by the Badoglio Government (at FROSINONE) on 22 Aug 43 while preparing with MUTI a coup d'etat for the restoration of Fascism. He was liberated from prison immediately after the German occupation of ROME, and having put his sumptuous villa in the Via Cassia at the disposal of the German Command, was constantly seen ³⁰ in company with senior German officers whom he assisted considerably in requisitioning villas. Through his connections with the Germans he was also able to engage in black market activities and trafficking of various kinds and worked off old scores on his former enemies. He is also reported to have informed the Germans of the presence of Italian tanks in the Rome area immediately after the German occupation, and to have been responsible for the capture and arrest of the tps concerned. He had as a guest in his house General MAELTZER and other senior German officers. He also used this connection to get Jews and others released from prison on payment, denouncing in exchange to the Germans patriots and saboteurs. (See statement re his venality in this matter.

8. He was also a personal friend of the Questore CARUSO and of the squadrista Umberto PINI, an art dealer of via Piemonte 55, whose studio was much frequented by Gen. MAELTZER, Maj. SCHULTZ and other German officers.
9. It is reported that shortly before the German retreat from ROME, he made arrangements to escape with a group of them who were living in his villa but at the last minute his car was stolen by a German officer and he was obliged to remain behind.
10. On the arrival of the Allies he said to have put his villa at the disposal. It has not been possible to verify the truth of this. However at the entrance to the property at via Cassia 292 there is a requisition notice which reads: "Villa Sansoni, Maj. Gen. Johnson..... Off Limits to All Troops - Real Estate Section EAC". This notice has apparently given rise to the rumour now current in ROME that Gen. Johnson has had this villa put at his disposal.
11. Enquiries on the spot reveal that at present only the domestic staff is occupying the villa, while repairs are being carried out by the notorious Firm TUDINI & TALENTI.
12. As can be seen from the attached sketch, SANSONI is living in a smaller house behind the main villa but on the same property. He was seen there directing repair operations during the morning of 24 Jul 44. This fact also that SANSONI is living on the same property as that apparently occupied or about to be occupied by members of the Allied Forces has also caused widespread comment in ROME, as has the fact that such a notorious rogue is still at large, with tp at his disposal. It is considered that in the interests of Allied prestige, this man should be removed from circulation.

Report on

Sansoni - ex Consul of the Fascist Milizia.

I got to know Mr. SANSONI through Comm. Raffaele RICCOTI, viale Mazzini 48, after the arrest of Ten. MAIORA P.A.I.

I offered to Mr. Sansoni a great sum of money if he was able to intervene for Ten. MAIORA's liberation. In the beginning he said no and then said that he would do what was possible. After a few days he said that it was impossible because Col. BOLMANI could not stand the P.A.I. and that he would not release Ten. MAIORA for any sum.

After Col. TOCCINO's arrest I offered again to Mr. Sansoni a great sum of money to save Col. TOCCINO's life; again he promised that he would intervene, but after a few days he told me that it was impossible because of the great accusations against Toscano and because Bolmanini did not wish to lose this chance. He advised me to go to the Principe RUSTORI, who (he said), had great ascendancy over Bolmanini and was able (if he wished) to do anything.

I knew from Col. Toscano, when he bargained me with Ten. MAIORA's case, that Sansoni had obtained the liberation of a Capt., after Bolmanini was given a great sum of money, and that he was recompensed with a gold cigarette-holder valued 100,000 lire; and then I knew from Com. Raffaele RICCOTI that SANSONI promised liberation for some prisoners of Via Rasco and pocketed some money, but nobody was liberated.

Comm. Raffaele RICCOTI was well-known as a dubious figure; I knew him when he was a poor man; he seems a man grown rich because of the Toscani and his wife, a German woman, is said to be Hitler's cousin.

Prince Di Bitetto GPC Filomenino Carlo Du Luigi and Di Alice della Torre Lombardini, born 13 Dec 1891 at Naples, graduate in law, lives in Rome at 53 Piazza S. S. Apollinare with his wife Emily Stuart Taylor, born 5 May 1898 at New York, whom he married in Rome on 15 April 1925.

His father was a Squadron Admiral of the Royal Italian Navy, General Field Marshal to the King, and a Senator of the Kingdom. He had extensive properties and has always manifested intense patriotic and monarchist sentiments.

He emigrated to Paris in 1922 and set up his residence there investing his capital in financial affairs. He returned to Italy from time to time for the administration of his immovable property.

He did not take an active part in the advent of fascism, and did not join the Paris "Fascio" until 12 Apr. 24.

He published there a book with the title "L'interroge au Louvre". In this publication the author set out the general requirements of Italy, basing his argument on the geographical position of the country.

Until the declaration of war against France he lived, except for brief stays in Italy, at Paris and Antwerp.

After the fall of France and the subsequent German occupation he returned to the French capital to safeguard his interests.

Prince GPC Filomenino took part in the war of 1915 - 1918 as a war substantive representative of the Engineers. He was not called up for service on the outbreak of the present conflict.

As far as is known he has not occupied political positions in the circles of the late Fascist Party.

ROBERTO DEL MONTE, alias.

ROBERTO DEL MONTE, alias, Prince of San PIERRE di Carlo and di Giovanni Capelli, born 27 Dec. 1904 at Rome, living since 10 Oct. 40 at via dei Tre Orologi, 6, Int. 2, is at the present time practicing in profession.

Three years ago he married an American citizen in New York, whom he divorced, and in 1959 married again, this time to MARIA BONOMO, daughter of the well-known general of the VSM (Fascist Militia), divorced wife of the US citizen JACK VALE, who, from whom she had a daughter called EMILY, born in New York on 5 Jan. 1927.

He has lived for many years in New York, where he also worked in the interests of ex-Senator ALBERTI, joint proprietor of the "NEW YORK WORLD" with his brother-in-law.

Before the beginning of the present war he returned to Italy and lived for a time in a villa he possessed at S. Margherita Ligure. Then he came to Rome and, notwithstanding his descent from an old and noble family of aristocrats and his having always preserved monarchist sentiments, in 1942 he got into contact with exponents of fascism, and, under the direction of the now dissolved Ministry of Popular Culture, began a series of broadcast lectures in English in anti-English-American propaganda. He carried out this activity without any remuneration until 25 July 43, after which he retired into private life. He handed over the salary allotted to him to the benefit of assistance funds of the late fascist regime.

During the period of the anti-fascist liberation of Rome his house was searched by Capt. BERNI of the SM, a friend of his brother-in-law and particularly of his wife. The latter has been suspected of informative activity and anti-fascist propaganda, and today still it would appear that she maintains pro-fascist sentiments.

It is noted that after the liberation of Rome some Allied officers (American and French) were greatly interested in him and he was held in custody for a short time. He was then released and he has since been a guest of Prince GUSTAVO DUELLI.

He has never done military service, nor has he occupied political posts under fascism.

PROTESTANT, Eric.

Prof. Doctor AGOSTINI Eric Filadelfo and his brother Elise, born at Palermo Sicily on 5 Aug. 1897 and living at via Savona 22, Rome, is a medical surgeon at the Regina Elena Hospital. He has military service at the Galie Hospital as a medical captain until 2 Sept. 43.

He is married to the English subject Ivonne WHITE, born in 1909 on 6 Aug. 1902 and has two boys.

AGOSTINI, always a member of the PPI (Social Section), has never occupied executive posts in the party nor carried out any activity for it. He often also absented himself from meetings called by the regional group, giving professional activities as an excuse.

Subject: RONCAGGI Giuseppe in Francesco - caught cutting military lines

1. The m/a was brought to this office at 2000 hrs on 22 Jul 44 by 4821861 Sjt FLOWER G.I. of 71 Coy Exp FC. He had been caught by W/87429 W.S.S. McILLINAY, 124 P.P.C., RASC (whose original statement brought to us by Sjt FLOWER is attached) cutting cable near to the 48 Km stone Route 6 (near Civita Castellina). On interrogation by this Sec, RONCAGGI admitted having cut the wire, and his statement to this effect is attached. It is not considered that he was engaging in wilful sabotage, but rather that he was removing cable for later resale. None the less it is understood that there has lately been some inconvenience caused to the RASC unit mentioned above through cables being cut.

2. Two other people were arrested at the same time on suspicion of having been implicated. They were DE CAVE Nicola (di Quirino), born 29.3.1906 at CAVE and now resident at CORI (near Littoria) at Villa Cavallera, this man is an AMG policeman working for Capt. COLLIER Governor of the Province of Littoria, and as his papers to this effect were in order, and as on interrogation it was revealed that though he was present in the same car as that in which RONCAGGI obtained a lift, he did not witness the wire-cutting, and indeed guarded the prisoner until the M.P. arrived. He was therefore released by this Sec immediately. The other man arrested was GIGLI Romualdo born at MORLUPO 7.10.1908 and now resident at Pza Vitt. Emanuele 3, MORLUPO. He is a mechanic, and this Sec was satisfied after interrogation of him that he had merely given a lift to RONCAGGI, and had no part in the cable-cutting. He, too, was released.

3. Particulars of RONCAGGI are as follows:-

SECRET AND CONFIDENTIAL.

Some time during the Spring of last year a certain attractive female by name Vika, was brought, uninvited, to my house in Via Bruxelles, 8, Rome, on an evening when I was entertaining a few friends there.

Her escort was Dr. Leli Crespi, whom I had invited and to whom a pretty face was, at that time, a far more important thing in life than political opinions. It would appear that Crespi has changed since those days, for I learn that he was most active in the cause of Italy during the German occupation of Rome and he has recently been appointed personal secretary to the new Minister of Interior.

During the course of the evening which I have mentioned, the inevitable political discussion took place between some of the guests, and Vika, who, I was warned, had a German mother, was loud in her praises of the Germans and spoke of her conviction that they would win this war. I consider that to have voiced such views in the house of an Englishwoman proves just how bitter this woman's feelings against the Allies were at that time.

My indignation was great, and I went to my husband, Colonel Brenta, of the Italian Air Force, who is at present working in collaboration with the Air Forces Sub Commission, A.C.C., and asked him if I was compelled to tolerate such conduct in my own house. Later, Crespi took me aside and apologised for the lady, saying that she was a harmless individual.

After that evening I saw Vika several times in the streets of Rome, but she always avoided saluting me.

It was with considerable surprise that I came upon her at the A.C.C. Rome, last Saturday - and in no less a position than the important one of screening potential A.C.C. employees. Quite obviously her situation enables her to have access to information which could be used in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the A.C.C., and even though, in the best of all possible worlds, she may be as harmless as Crespi said, and this is merely another instance - how innumerable they are - of an individual changing political views with the wind, I do feel that a person of German ancestry and holding the political views that she held should not be filling a confidential post in the A.C.C.

Since last Saturday I have spoken to three persons who were at my house when Vika was present:

a) Marisa Cappa, wife of General Cappa (at present C of C in the Italian Air Ministry). She says that she remembers very little of the party except that she had an enjoyable evening. (Marisa very rarely takes part in serious discussions at parties). She does, however, remember Vika's presence.

b) Matilda Anjos, Crespi's sister, who remembers the evening and tells me that although Vika's mother is German her father is American. (It would be interesting to know with what passport she remained in Italy when this country was at war with America).

c) Emilio Angos, Matilda's husband, who remembers the political discussion and also the fact that some of the guests - half jokingly, half seriously, told Vika that she must be a German spy.

General Marziale Ceruti, I.A.F., (no longer in Rome) was of the party and he heartily disagreed with our fair pro-German's sentiments, for whilst he worked in collaboration with the Germans during the war and was on intimate terms with Kesselring, he told her that she was entirely wrong in her opinion as to the outcome of the war.
