AL COMANDO ALLEATO

R U M A

Si fa domanda a questo Comando che in Via Veresili N°5 Scala A interno 1, abitano due collaboratori dei tedeschi, che, sarebbero MISTANTONIO Domenico e la donna del suo cuore, non si fa il nome della donna perché si ignora il suo vero nome, però si ha un particolare importantissimo, affinché la polizia non si può sbagliare, è bionda chiara ossigenata, e convive con il MISTANTONIO, questi due brutti figure hanno fatto trucidare parecchi patrioti alle Fosse Ardeatine.

Perciò si raccomanda di levare dalla circolazione questi due brutti pezzi, che purtroppo hanno fatto tanto del male ai nostri cari patrioti.

Ora che non possono esercitare il loro spionaggio, si sono dati alla Borsa nera, smerciando in particolare molta merce appartenente alla truppa Alleata.

Perciò si prega questo Comando Alleato di voler prendere quei provvedimenti del caso, e di poter presto acciuffare questi due bravi personaggi.

Un particolare importante per la polizia che sarà incaricata di sequestrare questi due brutti figure, essi si recano di frequente presso la trattoria degli Aciaci sita sotto i Portici di Piazza Vittorio.

Headquarters Allied Commission - Rome

I permit myself to bring to your attention the following, hoping that you will forgive me for not signing my name because I am waiting for the opportunity to be able to speak to you personally.

In the houses of the "INCIS" especially in via Pannonia and Via Gallia there are still many fanatic fascists as well as hierarchs who keep contact with one another. For the moment I name these persons:

Procopio: squadrista, Col. of the republican army who has two sons up North and precisely in the army (M) living in via GALLIA No.22;

Bonco, squadrista, who has a son up North in the German SS.

Rossi Gianni, who up to 4 June 1944 belonged to the republican army as a paratroop.

Del Rosso Cesare and Palleschi Sebastiano (father and step-son) "porter of n.22" who act as liaison for the two above mentioned persons.

I will send you further information and particulars with other names asking you in the meantime to keep these persons under watch.

I also add:

Ernesto Norcia and his son -ex-prisoners and dangerous fascists as well as black marketeers also living in Via Gallia n.22

R O M E

The writer is sending the Allied Commission the names of the following persons who cooperated with the Germans when the village of Castelforte (Prov. of Littoria) was in their hands.

- 1) Angelucci Celeste of the late Domenico
 - 2) Patriarca Merlino of Francesco
 - 3) Ionda Alberto - attached to the CC.RR.
- the last two mentioned persons are sons-in-law of Angelucci Celeste and are living in her house. During the German occupation they gave hospitality and spied for them. For this service they were well recompensed.

Also the below mentioned gave hospitality to the Germans:

- 1) Forte Salvatore of the late Giuseppe
- 2) Di Tano Orazio of the late Luigi.

Others are:

- 1) Coviello Pasquale of Raimondo whose father (Coviello Raimondo of the late Pasquale) held the charge of Capo nucleo of the dissolved fascio.

- 2) Mantella Pasquale of Francesco
- the two above mentioned helped the Germans to capture the men who did not want to go and fight, they also helped them to break into other persons' houses and steal all that they could find.

The writer thinks that these men should be punished as they deserve.

ROME

We wish to inform your Allied Commission that strict measures for punishment have not been adopted to all the fascist elements as was disposed by the existing law.

Many of these elements are still carrying on as before holding important charges especially in the State Railways of Palermo.

We are pleased to inform you that one of these, gentlemen, is Engineer FIORINI who is covering the charge of Chief of the Capo Sezione P.V.P.S.S. of Palermo. This person is one of the many who should be considered a security danger being a fascist revolutionist and active in Rome, who during the fascist regime covered the charge of Consul of the Vilizia of Messina.

In 1943 before the Allies entered Sicily he tried to organize strong fascist groups to fight against the Allies and to preserve the fascist sentiment. In fact we have noticed that in all his conversations he still keeps the same fascist ideas and is living in the hope that the Once will return.

He still has his uniform carefully put away, hoping to be able to wear it one day.

In his apartment he has many photographs of himself dressed as Consul of the Vilizia with many other members.

Since he has been denounced to the High Authorities in Messina and Palermo, but he has always excused himself by saying that in the last period of fascism he had been ill-treated and transferred to Messina and Foggia and that was the reason that he had remained in hiding. Instead we know that the transfer to Messina and Foggia was brought about because during fascism he made illicit gains which brought him in millions as well as making him proprietor of many properties.

We therefore ask your Command to please have this person punished as he deserves, because he is a great danger to security. We also state that he is not worthy of the place he occupies.

SUMMARY OF MAIL AND CENSORSHIP REGULATIONS AFFECTING PRISONERS OF WARheld in ITALY and NORTH AFRICACE/3261/G1(Br)

12 Jan 45

(Nothing in this Summary affects any instructions issued in respect of Italian Co-operators)

1. METHOD OF CONDUCTING CORRESPONDENCE.SENDERS PARTICULARS.

A prisoner of war will write on the back of the envelope his official Prisoner of War number, rank, name, initials and arm of service as follows :-

GERMANS : Army 'H' - Navy 'M' - Air Force 'L'

ITALIANS : Army 'RE' - Navy 'RM' - Air Force 'RA'.

RETURN ADDRESS.

(a) The return address comprising the number of the Camp where the PW is lodged followed by the words NAPLES, ITALY, will be used by all PW whose permanent retention in ITALY is intended, e.g. Protected personnel, personnel who are to be retained in ITALY as permanent Camp Staff, etc.

TRANSLATION

Serg. Galles,

Finally this evening I have met a person who is of very great interest. Do you remember the 27 Feb, when I was stopped near the Ufficio Anagrafe of Rome.

This evening about 17.00 hrs, in Piazza Esedra I came across an officer of the Police coming from Britrea. He is precisely the famous Tenente FORGRINI who was attached to the Questura's political office in Asmara, who had escaped from the Prisoner's camp of Asmara and who was re-captured after a long search was carried out for him. Now he has re-appeared in Rome, considered a war invalid (he has never fought in the war) How is that?

Here in Rome, I am sure, he takes part in the Police, that is to say with the Scuola Tecnica di Polizia in Via GUIDICINI.

If you are in need of further explanations, I pray you to phone me at the Ministry for Occupied Italy. Telephone number 3207.

Yours sincerely,

VIZZINI

Case #642

3 May 1945

MEMORANDUM FOR THE OFFICIAL IN CHARGE:

SUBJECT: GILLES, Bernardino
Via Serchio #2,
Rome, Italy.

RE: Determination of contents of an anonymous letter concerning Subject.

1. Pursuant to a request from Lt. Col. Floyd C. Snowden, Chief CIC, Rome Area HQUSA, on 5 April 1945, this Agent conducted inquiries to determine the basis of fact for allegations against Subject as contained in an anonymous letter. Investigation was predicated upon the request of the Office of the AG of S, S-2, HQAC, in letter O/18/9/45, dated 5 April 1945, that inquiries be made to prove or disprove the allegations of the letter which was addressed to Lt. Della Chiesa, CO. AR, and which stated that Subject had arms and bombs hidden in his villa and that he paid 300, 000 lire to have "Il Gobbo" (Alcibi, Giuseppe) killed.

2. On 26 April 1945, this Agent interviewed Subject at his villa regarding the circumstances as alleged in the anonymous letter. Previous interviews with Subject's wife and secretary produced a related story as that told by Subject. Subject stated that on 16 January 1945, he awakened to find Italian police in plain clothes about his villa and was told by his wife that an unidentified person had come to the villa while he slept and demanded an interview with him. This unidentified person made the threat that he would return with a large group and force Subject to meet his demand of 300,000 lire for "Il Gobbo". That same afternoon, three men appeared and identified themselves as members of "Il Gobbo's Band" and stated that they carried a letter to Subject from their leader. These three men tried to force entry into the villa and were then taken under arrest by the Carabinieri on duty there. A search of the three men revealed that one was carrying a German gun up his sleeve and that another bore a letter from "Il Gobbo" asking for a 250,000 lire "contribution" to his cause and for Subject's continued protection. Subject remarked that all of this occurred on the same day that "Il Gobbo" was killed and his entire band arrested. Subject denied the possession of arms as alleged and willingly conducted this Agent throughout his entire villa. Subject denied too that he had connections with SALVAMILLA, head of the Unione Proletaria who is now under arrest by the Gestapo on the technical charge of black mail. As to the other contents of the letter, Subject stated there was no basis in fact.

REMARKS:

Subject has been the target of the Italians and the Allies since the liberation of Rome, and countless investigations have been conducted to prove or disprove that he was politically minded and participated in the affairs of the Fascists as alleged. SIC Case #642 is one of these numerous investigations; and, like the others, has proved nothing other than Subject is a famous personage who has drawn undue attention. There is no actual proof that Subject has been guilty of aligning himself politically with the Fascists, and at present he has regained somewhat his popular standing with the people.

The anonymous letter is a crude Italian device to bring suspicion and doubt upon a person with whom the unknown writer has a grievance. The letter in this case is typical, for the information is vague, but incriminating. Without knowing the writer and being able to determine from him the actual facts, the letter is worthless in content. Too, the letter of this case carries the flavor of "Il Gobbo" and some of his ignorant and unreasoning followers.

This Agent believes that the basis of the anonymous letter is the incident of 16 January, as related by Subject. Complete details of the entire episode are part of the "Il Gobbo" file held by the Gruppo Interne, CO. 88, Rome. While a copy of the file was not asked for by this Agent, verification of the circumstances has been made with the Carabinieri Station, Via Sordani 411, which made the arrest of the three persons invading the privacy of Subject's home.

This Agent can put no credence in the contents of the letter.

RECOMMENDATION:

This Agent recommends case be closed.

Special Agent, CIO.

The "GOBBO" knew all about but Salvarezza has reduced him to silence for ever.

Languages:

Speaks Italian, Dutch, French, English, German, and African.

Occupation:

Student.

Military History:

On 22 February 1941, called into Army and placed in 1st Artillery Regt. at Piacenza. On 15 September 1941, he went to OSS and became a 2nd Lt. in Artillery on 22 March 1942. He was then sent to Coast Artillery in Trieste and remained there until November 1942. In January 1943, he was sent to France, with a Coast Artillery Battery. At the end of January 1943, he was sent to Tunisia to observe German military activity for SIM, because of his language ability. On 20 February 1943, he returned to Italy, as personal liaison officer to the Duke of Aosta, who was then commander of the Italian 7th Army, in Rome. In July 1943, Subject went back to France, to his old Coast Artillery Battery, near Voulon. A few days before the Armistice, 2 September 1943, Subject was sent to the town of Gillionville, between Marseilles and Toulon, as liaison officer for the 22nd Army Corps, between the Italians and Germans.

ACTIVITIES AFTER 2 SEPTEMBER 1943:

On armistice day, Subject was seized by the Germans, but he managed to escape from a 2nd floor window, which was not too far from the ground. He then went to Toulon, 5 miles away, in civilian clothing, given him by a Mrs. Abraham, Rue National 27, Gillionville, France. After a few hours, in Toulon, he was picked up by the German Field Police, at the station, along with other young Frenchmen, but in the confusion, Subject escaped. On 9 September 1943, he took a train for Lyons, France, but got off at Vienna, because he heard the Germans were rounding up all the youths at Lyons. At Vienna, Subject worked as gardener, farmer, pianist, teacher, etc., with French families, until March 1944. In March 1944, Subject went to the Beaupreux area, where he knew a General René Guéin, of the French Resistance Group, of Vienna, who was sabotaging the Germans and Subject was engaged in setting false wire posts, on roads to mislead the Germans into traps. On 2 September 1944, the Americans arrived, so Subject went to the 7th Repatriation Unit, at Marseilles. Here, a Captain Ryan sent him to the Labor Office of D.E.S., which sent him to work for Major James Todd, Jr., G-2, DES; Subject was put to work in the Public Relations Branch of G-2, contacting people and visitors until 15 November 1944. Then Capt. Ryan, an English officer, who was head of the 7th Repatriation Unit, told Subject to get ready to sail for Italy, on about 27 November 1944. On 2 December 1944, Subject arrived at Naples, and then to Rome, about 6 December 1944. On 26 December 1944, Subject went to work as Junior Administrative Assistant in Transportation Subcommittee of A.G., under Merril Taylor, American Chief of Transportation.

DOCUMENTS:

Identity card of Unione Nazionale Ufficiali in Congedo d'Italia #517503, issued 17 October 1943; ltr of recommendation from Maj. GDS, dated 29 November 1944, and signed by Major James Todd, G-2.

51

In conclusion, Subject stated that he assumed the alias of MICHEL, John, in France and used same on a false identity card, in order that he would be taken as a Frenchman, when detained for any reason, otherwise, as an Italian, he would have been arrested immediately. Subject said he used this alias from 8 September 1943, until the Allies arrived in Southern France.

COMMENT: Investigation disclosed nothing derogatory re Subject. From interrogation, Subject seemed to be an intelligent person and seemed very anxious to work with the Americans. This agent does not believe that Subject presents any threat to the security of the Allies, by working in the Transportation Subcommittee, A.C. However, this agent does not feel that Subject should be permitted to come in contact with highly classified documents therein.

RECOMMENDATIONS: This agent recommends that this case be closed and information be filed.

SUBJECT : Col. FORTE FERRI

TO : Director, Public Safety Sub Commission

1. With reference to the above named who was at one time Air Attache at the Italian Embassy in Madrid the following is submitted for information.

2. Subject's rapid promotion in the Italian Air Force at such an early age has been much discussed in the past in Air Force circles. It is said his advancement was due to the support of Gen. ILARI and Vittorio MUSSOLINI, the latter served under the command of FORTE FERRI during the Ethiopian campaign.

3. In 1936 Subject took part in the Spanish Civil War where he was promoted for merit on active service. His personal conduct was much commented upon at this time owing to his association with a Spanish woman.

4. Towards the end of 1942 FORTE FERRI was appointed Air Attache at the Embassy in Madrid, it was generally accepted that he secured this appointment through the influence of Vittorio MUSSOLINI. Rumour has it that the latter commissioned Subject to buy gold and Jewellery.

5. During the first years of the war his character was not questioned, but when events commenced to change he became involved in currency smuggling between Spain and Portugal. Besides using diplomatic couriers for these illicit transactions he financed the operation with the funds of S.I.A. (Societa' Italiana Aeronautica). This illegal exchange of currency continued until he was discovered by the Spanish civil police who produced sufficient evidence of his guilt but he was not sentenced to imprisonment owing to his diplomatic position and the influence he had with high Spanish Officials but was fined a large sum.

BERRUTI Adalberto. Appointed Prefect (under Fascist regime) over the heads of 70 colleagues who were senior to, or generally considered more satisfactory than, him. He enjoyed the trust and confidence of the then Undersecretary for the Interior, Buffarini Guidi, who was the Minister in all but name, as Mussolini allowed him the utmost latitude.

On his appointment as Prefect, Berruti was sent to Pisa, Buffarini's home-town and private preserve, and remained there for two years, during which time he zealously carried out the orders of his Fascist masters.

After Sept. 8 1943, the Fascist republican government re-shuffled the administration, and on Feb. 16 1944 retired all the "career" (i.e. not politically-appointed) Prefects, with the exception of 3 or 4 including Berruti. That is to say, had the latter gone North after the liberation of Rome, he would still have retained his post as a republican Prefect.

He was clever enough to stay on in Rome and make his services indispensable to the present Premier. He is now Capo di Gabinetto at the Min. of the Interior and as such has been able to help many of his former friends to slip through the meshes of "epuration", and give them important posts in Rome and in the provinces. Thus, for example, he managed to get rid of the Prefect of Catanzaro, against whom there appears to be no charge, and has replaced him with Federico Solimena, an "ante-marcia" fascist, senior officer of the Militia, strong supporter of the regime previous to July 25 1943, and "censured" by the Epuration Commission.

This appointment was welcomed by the fascist elements in Catanzaro province and bitterly disappointed the democratic ones.

Comm. GUGLIELMINETTI - Was Capo-censura of the German Section in Rome. His wife is German and was employed at the German Command, and his sons were employed there as interpreters.

After the liberation of Rome, Guglielminetti was made Chief Interpreter of the Allied Tribunal. Having been to America and knowing English, he was apparently able to make a good impression on Colonels Poletti and Pollock.

2. Her past is of such a character that the Ministry, in my opinion, very rightly ordered her compulsory residence in a village where she could not constitute a risk to security.
3. It is particularly unfortunate that the Public Relations Division should have seen fit to order the revocation of an order given by the Italian Government to an enemy alien living in Italian territory.
4. It would be appreciated if you would ascertain by whom and on whose authority the order to revoke the Ministry's direction was given.
5. The Ministry has always been extremely helpful and direct interference with its functions in a security matter is to be deplored.

Subject : Ducc Doris daughter of Carlo and of Rita Vitesott, born in Trento on the 8.8.1911, German subject, 1 living in Rome at via Boncompagni, 93.

With note n. 06648/13 dated 12 September last, the R. Questura of Rome has communicated the following.

"The following information was sent by the Central Direction of the "Partito d'Azione":

Doris Ducc living at via di Villa Patrizi, 14, born in Bolzano has chosen the German citizenship. She was employed at the German Embassy for two years, and has also been private secretary of Hans Joachim Boettcher editor of the Nazi newspaper "Schwarze Korps", agent of the Gestapo, expelled from Italy in 1942 for espionage. Doris Ducc was a liaison employee between the German Embassy and the agents of the Gestapo.

The above facts have been referred to Mr. Giulio Fogaro (?), living at via Nizza II, Tel. 868118 by Dr. Umberto Ultschiner, living at via Caroncini 52, at present employed at P.W.
B. as interpreter"

From the enquiries it results that subject has been identified as the German citizen Ducc Doris of Carlo and of Rita Vedesott, born in Trento on the 8th of August 1911, living in Rome since some years, and living at present at via Boncompagni, 93.

The above named was an Italian citizen, and became German in 1940 according to her own will. It results also that she made propaganda among the "alti Atonini" in order to induce them to take the German nationality, and that she has been private secretary of the German journalist Hans Boettcher already mentioned in some of our previous letters, who was sent away from Italy on the 27th of February 1942.

by a ministerial order n. 500/55II dated 25 February 1942.

Besides, she has been employed for over two years in the Press and Propaganda office of the ex German Embassy in Rome.

Because of her precedents, we believe that she might develop an activity against our Country and against the Allies, and propose therefore that she should be interned in a concentration camp or at least confined to a certain area."

According to such information, the Ministry ordered her confinement to Cave.

However, on the 22 February last the Headquarters of the Allied Forces - Public Relations Division - Section A. APO 512 communicated the following :

"With note n. 22 dated 31 February 1945 Miss Duca Dorati has been informed by the Administration of the Public Safety that she must leave Rome for Cave.

Miss Duca has been for 8 months secretary of the Roman office of the newspaper "New York Herald Tribune" and her presence is indispensable in Rome. The above said order must therefore be revoked in order to allow her to remain in Rome and continue her present activity"

We beg you to communicate us your opinion regarding this matter.

R O M E

I, the undersigned MIGLIARDI Giovanni of Michele of Limbadi Prov. Catanzaro, political internee, confined since 1938. I have never been freed from the fascists, but have gained freedom for a time through the Allied troops. The Allied Political Police of Limbadi gave orders that a remuneration should be given to me and my family, which was given to me for a little time.

The fascist Podesta' PANTILEONE BRAGO', is at the moment Syndicate of Limbadi, he has persecuted me since 1940, right up to the 20th February when he sent me a letter, which I enclose herewith, stating that I must leave Limbadi. At this injustice the citizens of Limbadi, issued a public petition in my favour which stated that during my confinement I had never given any disturbance to the population, not even after the occupation of the Allied troops. This petition I sent to the Prefettura of Catanzaro. The Head of the Cabinet promised to have the disposition revoked. After ten days I went to stay in the contrade of Nicotera at the border of Limbadi. The Maresciallo came and I was arrested, he stated that I was not allowed to cross the territory of Limbadi. At the moment I am imprisoned in the jail of Nicotera to be judged as in 1938. In the name of the liberty that you brought to us in this country, I ask to be set free because I have suffered 20 years fighting against the fascists. I do not want to be reduced to stealing at my age, which is 50. The mentioned Podesta' BRAGO PANTILEONE was also Fascist Inspector of the Zone, Prov. of Catanzaro. In case this petition does not reach your commission, I will come personally to see you when I leave prison.

Rome, 20 July 1945.SUBJECT: RAVAGLIA Guido di Alvaro - internee -

TO : Allied Commission P.S. Sub-Dom. Hq. Rome.

For actions you deem necessary we transmit the attached petition made by RAVAGLIA Aida in Cattamorra residing here in Viale Medaglia d'Oro n. 195, hoping to obtain her nephew Guido RAVAGLIA's liberation from the concentration camp of Algeri.

The R. Prefecture of Forlì has furnished us with the following informations:

"The a/w young boy, rendered for the first time military service in November 1943 as a volunteer in the 8th Bersaglieri Regt. Hq. at Verona and was assigned at a detached department at Santa Lucia dell'Isonzo. But after about 20 days of service he deserted under arms returning to his family at Casena. But knowing that he was searched by the CC.NN. after about a month of absence he reported to the Military District at Forlì who provided to send him back at Santa Lucia d'Isonzo, to his own department.

In May 1944 he deserted again returning at Casena where he hid until the Allied Armies entered the city (20 Oct. 44). The same was arrested on the 15th of Feb. 45 by the F.S.S. of Casena and successively sent to the P.O.W. camp n. 211 matriculation n. 20761 where he still is at the present moment.

This office is not in the position to precise the reasons for which Ravaglia was arrested by the F.S.S.

It is presumed that the Allied Police considered him as a Prisoner of War.

Ravaglia has always maintained a good conduct and he does not appear to have been inscribed to the p.f.r.

His liberation would not produce a favourable impression among the people.

AIDA RAVAGLIA in GATTAMORTA, living in Viale Medaglia

tion the case of her nephew GUIDO RAVAGLIA di Alvaro e di Maria Masacci, born in Cesena (Forli) in 1921 and there residing. He was arrested by the Allies on the 17th of Feb. 45 and interned in a concentration camp which the family does not know.

This boy was adjourned for 3 times and fit only for sedentary services. He was sent for a short time at Gorizia from where he escaped, he was searched by the Germans but he was in a District office at Forli, then the Command sent him back to Gorizia from where he escaped for the second time searched by the G.S. and as soon as the city was liberated he returned to his family. And now as I have stated above he has been interned as a POW by the Allies.

In the place of his parents who are at Romagna, being the aunt, I beg you to discriminate him and if you do not wish to send him to Romagna you could send him here in Rome to his aunt and uncle who will guarantee their nephew.

DIOCESE OF THE CITTA DELLA PIEVEParish of SS. Concezione and S. Luigi Gonzaga
Tavernelle (Perugia)

I, the undersigned Person of Tavernelle di Panicale (Perugia) declares that Luigi Pulignani, of unknown father, has a shy character and is unable to cause any harm.

He is a good, honest and active boy but is not clever enough to realise the consequences that can arise over certain things.

His arrest has been a surprise to all who knew him, a no fault can be found against him.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Don Giuseppe Mandini,

I certify Rev. Don. Giuseppe Mondini's signature as being true and genuine.

TAVERNELLE 13 January 1945

I have been informed through the CC.RR. of Tavernelle, about the decision taken by the Spuration Commission, regarding my son Guido Luigi PULIGNANI, who was interned with others on the 5 December 1944.

It is the duty of a mother to appeal for her son because she thinks that it is unjust that he should have to bear the same accuses as those others, who may have done worse than he.

My son has never been a squadrista, nor was he a member of the Fascist party and he has never carried out any charges in the a/m party.

During the reconstruction of the Republican Fascio, as he has always been a free liver, he remained amongst his friends without any political intentions.

Hoping that you will forgive me for taking the liberty of sending this,

MEMORANDUM FOR THE OFFICER IN CHARGE:

SUBJECT: BOCCINI-PADIGLIONE, Mrs. nee IGENG.

RE: Investigation of Subject.

1. At the request of Lt. Col. Floyd C. Snowden, Chief, CIC, Rome Area WFOOSA, this agent undertook the investigation of the Subject. Request was predicated upon a Summary of Information, submitted to this office by Paul H. Ragon, Agent, CIC.

2. The Subject is living at 491 Via Flaminia, Rome. She is employed as private secretary to Lt. Col. J. A. Campbell (British), who is head of the War Materials Disposal and Italian Prisoner of War Sub-Commission, Allied Commission, Rome.

3. Personal details concerning the Subject are as follows: She was born in Gross Flotbeck (Hamburg), on 23 May 1908, of the late Emil IGENG and Vera Arns. She is about five feet, three inches tall and weighs about one-hundred and twenty pounds; she is shapely; she dresses well; and she has blond curly hair. She speaks Italian, English, Dutch and German. She is married to Count Edoardo BOCCINI-PADIGLIONE, nephew of Arturo BOCCINI, former Italian chief of police and OVRA head.

4. A check of the files of police and intelligence agencies in the Rome area, revealed no derogatory information regarding the Subject.

5. Captain Roger B. Derby, of the War Materials Disposal and the Italian POW Sub-Commission was interviewed and gave the following information. Subject has worked as private secretary to Lt. Col. Campbell, head of the Sub-Commission since the early part of July. In her position, she has access to documents of every security classification, dealing with policy, the repatriation of Italian prisoners of war, the movement of ships (which must transport the prisoners), military operations in which the taking of prisoners is expected, plans for the reorganization of the Italian Army, etc. This he believed to be dangerous, because of the relationship between Mrs. BOCCINI and the late police and OVRA Chief. He stated that there is a feeling of mistrust among Italian employees of the office, and of surprise among visiting Italians, who see her occupying the position of confidence that she holds. Captain Derby further stated that on or about October 25, 1944, the Subject applied to him for a file. He told her to go into another room where a Mr. Monte Forti was issuing the file. A few minutes later, he found her rummaging through a desk in the room where Mr. Forti was working. When asked by Captain Derby why she had not gone to Forti, after being specifically told, she feigned an ignorance of Forti's identity even though he had been working in the office for several weeks. Captain Derby considered this incident definitely suspicious.

5. An interview with Captain Ben. S. Alger of the same Sub-Commission added information supporting Captain Derby's statements. In addition, he stated that the Subject is habitually shifty-eyed and evasive. He stated that he knows of no specific incident in addition to what Captain Derby has reported, but explained that his office is more remote than Captain Derby's and his observations of Subject were not so extensive as Captain Derby's.

7. Lt. Michael Tor, of the same Sub-Commission added that the Subject is disliked by almost all Italian employees of the office. This may be because of her family connections, he said, or because she is in the Colonel's confidence. According to Lt. Tor, she has been influential in the repatriation of some of her friends. Three names he remembered are a Lt. Colonel MAHO, a DRONCHI and one, TOMASI.

8. This agent interviewed Prince Virgilio Gruni and his wife at their apartment in Viale dei Parioli 420. They resided at 431 Via Flaminia during the German occupation of Rome. Both stated that they had heard the Subject make violently anti-American statements. They said Subject entertained German officers and gave many parties. Concerning the BOCCCHINI family relationship, they informed that before and during the war, Fascists and anti-Fascists alike exercised caution in their speech and deportment whenever any member of the BOCCCHINI family was near. They consider the employment of Subject, at her present post, a mistake on the part of the Allies.

9. Batt. Giuseppe BOSI, former Chief Police Commissioner of Rome, and now employed at this office, is conversant with police activities among the Fascists. He stated that all of the BOCCCHINI family acted as informants for the OVRA. He does not consider the Subject a security threat because of her family connection.

10. This agent also interviewed Luigi BORGIO, a lawyer in Rome, living at Via dei Monti Parioli 411, who has collaborated, previously, with the Allies and has been of service in this respect. He is acquainted with the BOCCCHINI family by reputation and has acquaintances of the Subject among his clientele. He gave the following information. Arturo BOCCCHINI had a fund, which was administered solely by himself, which was to defray the expenses of the OVRA. BOCCCHINI's nephew had access to the fund for their personal use. They moved in high society and where they could, they informed. Their names are not listed as paid informants of the OVRA, although they acted as such. Concerning Subject's husband, he said he does not consider Lt. Col. BOCCCHINI intelligent enough to be a threat to the Allies. He merely concerns himself with horseback-riding, at which he is proficient and the "social life". He was in hiding during the German occupation of Rome, because he did not wish to serve Mussolini's Republican Government. After the liberation of Rome, he did not re-enter the service, because he was at the disposal of the epuration committee. Concerning the Subject, he stated that she comes from one of the oldest and richest families of Holland. Her father and brother are allegedly interned by the Germans in Germany. She is anti-American, anti-German and pro-British.

COMMENT: This investigation has disclosed no evidence for classifying the Subject as a security threat because of her present activities, however, her family ties and her activities previous to the occupation of Rome by the Allies, make her potentially dangerous. It is significant that Italians who work with her still regard her with suspicion.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is, therefore, recommended that the Subject be employed in a position which does not require the handling of classified documents. It is further recommended that a copy of this report be forwarded to the Director of the Security Division, Allied Commission.

HERBERT W. SMITH, JR.,
Special Agent, CIC.

Barone MALFATTI of Mitretto Franco of Giuseppe and of Mevichluf Felicita, born in Vienna 13 January 1908, who lived in Via Veneto No.108, at the moment in London whose family originates from Istria.

He has lived and studied in Vienna and Paris. He has completed his studies in the French Capital at the Sorbona, taking his degree, it is not known accurately whether in political science or in economic and commercial science.

He knows very well german and french and the English language pretty well.

He speaks italian with a foreign accent.

He was an officer in the artillery.

He was recalled to arms during the actual war, and after a brief period, the exact military department is not known he was assigned to a branch of our delegation at the C.I.A.F. in Turin, where he remained until its dissolution.

Officers for whom he worked under during the time he rendered service with the CIAF, judge him as being, intelligent correct and well mannered.

After the event of the 25 July 1945, MALFATTI has carried out in Turin many noted activities in favour of the Allies in collaboration with members of the Italian socialist party whom he had known on French territory, amongst whom was the journalist SARAGAT, already Minister without portfolio in the first cabinet BONOMI.

Following SARAGAT and following also the P.S.I. Malfatti during the period of the German domination, collaborated even in Rome with the clandestine front of resistance.

He was arrested by the Germans and imprisoned in the noted prisons in Via Tasso, he was it is thought released through the intervention of the Vatican or the S.M.O.M.

When the socialists accepted to take part in the coalition of the parties of the first cabinet BONOMI, Malfatti was appointed private-secretary of the Sottosegretario of the State of the Interior. H.E. CANEVARI, a charge which he left to assume the one of "osservatore sociale" with our diplomatic representative in London, led by the Ambassador, Conte CARANDINI.

The appointment of Malfatti to this last charge was not well seen by the Ministero degli Esteri, where officers of career are against the new diplomats who for political reasons are now chosen to represent us abroad.

There are no unfavourable precedences on Malfatti in the records at the local Questura.

Ufficiali che lo hanno avuto alla dipendenza e lo hanno conosciuto durante la sua permanenza presso la C.I.A.A. lo definiscono intelligente, preparato, corretto e distinto.

Dopo gli avvenimenti del 25 luglio 1943, MALINATTI avrebbe svolto, a Torino, notevole attività a favore degli alleati in collaborazione con elementi del partito socialista italiano da lui conosciuti in territorio francese, tra i quali il giornalista JAVIER, già ministro senza portafoglio nel primo gabinetto BONNET.

Allorché i socialisti accettarono di entrare a far parte della coalizione di partiti del primo gabinetto MONTE, MALVATTI fu nominato Segretario particolare del Sottosegretario di Stato all'Interno, S.E. CANEVARI, carica che lasciò successivamente per assumere quella di "osservatore sociale" presso la nostra rappresentanza diplomatica a Londra capeggiata dall'ambasciatore conte GRANDEMI.

La designazione del MALVATTI a quest'ultima carica non fu bene accolta negli ambienti del Ministero degli Esteri, dove i funzionari di carriera vedono mal volentieri gli improvvisati diplomatici che per ragioni politiche vengono ora prescelti a far parte od a capeggiare le nostre rappresentanze all'estero.

REPORT on Barone Franco MALFATTI, at present attached to the Italian Embassy in London.

The above named is 25 years of age and is a member of a Trentino family well known for their Austrian sympathies.

On the collapse of Rome Dott. Franco MALFATTI, who speaks French, German and English, was serving as a Lieutenant in the Italian Army and was then attached to the Italian Military Mission in Paris.

In Paris he made the acquaintance of many Italian exiles who were members of the Italian Socialist Party and is said to have hidden some of these persons and given assistance in other ways. On the other hand it is said that he was trusted by the German military and political authorities in Paris with whom he was in close contact and enjoyed their full confidence. This seems to be supported by the fact that after his return to Italy and during the German occupation of Rome he was permitted unlimited travel facilities.

During the German occupation of Rome Dott. Franco MALFATTI lived in his uncle's house at Via S. Teodoro. Barone MALFATTI's home was frequented by German officers and officials who spent most of their evenings enjoying his hospitality.

In the very early days of the liberation of Rome Dott. MALFATTI appeared as a very active member of the Italian Socialist Party and with a number of young men requisitioned, without authority, many private motor cars. It is reliably reported that on such occasions MALFATTI and his companions were always armed. A certain Count GIOVANNI BOHARTINI, from whom MALFATTI took three cars is now taking legal proceedings against him.

On the constitution of the first Bonomi Government, MALFATTI was appointed a secretary to the Under Secretary of the Ministry of the Interior, Sig. CANEVARI. He immediately adopted the title of "Capo Gabinetto dell' Ministro dell' Interno", and went so far as to have his stationery printed to this effect, in actual fact he held no responsible position within the Ministry.

With the assistance of Pietro NENNI, the leader of the Socialist Party and an old acquaintance of past days in Paris he was successful in obtaining a post in the Italian Embassy in London. It is now said that the present Italian Ambassador in London, H.E. CARANDINI, has asked for the immediate withdrawal of Dott. MALFATTI.
