To : Allied Commission - Rome.

The undersigned Eva Simon states as follows :

Mrs. Elena Venio , also called Ziller, used to cooperate with Gestapo and was a dangerous accuser of jews.

She was arrested on July 1945 in Milan after being denounced by Mr. Alfredo Heller, 28 Via Due Macelli, Rome, and Mr. Marco Weinberg, n.11 Via Tiraboschi, Milan.

I twice denounced by wire the above woman to the Political Squad of CC.RR., Via Moscova, Milan, and made a statement at the CC.RR. Station of Piazza S.Lorenzo in Lucina, Rome.

It appears now that Venio is no longer in jail in Milan, but is enjoying her freedom in the most expensive Sanatorium of Merano (Sanatorium Stefania).

I am one of the most damaged victims as Venio robbed me of over a million's worth of articles.

I have now to live almost poorly and, should be grateful if your Office could assist me in recovering my property.

Dear Ellis

Attached is a report by two of my Sergeants on an unpleasant incident which occurred while they were investigating the case of a man employed by Hq. A.C.

The report is, I think, self-explanatory. I wonder if you could be so kind as to take the matter up in the appropriate quarter in order that the person in question have his ideas straightened out a bit, as this kind of thing interferes seriously with our work ^{and} is most unco-operative.

Sorry to trouble you

Sir,

This morning I telephoned the office of Allied Commission, Industry Sub Commission, Chemicals Division, and spoke to a Mr. DORKOVICH an American civilian in charge of the division.

I requested from DORKOVICH that a certain WOLODIMEROFF Igor, known to me to be working at the office of DORKOVICH under the false name of VOLSTINI Igino, and suspected by Allied Intelligence of espionage activity, be sent to this office for interrogation.

DORKOVICH'S first question was "why"?

I replied I cannot tell you over the telephone.

DORKOVICH replied "I will call around to your office within the hour and see about him".

I waited for DORKOVICH to call. He arrived at this office about 11.20 hrs.

He said "what do you want to know about this man Sergeant?".

I replied "what do you know about him"?

He said "I know he is a White Russian, he is useless at his job and I have been employing him out of pity".

"He told me his true name some time after I had employed him".

I was then requested by DORKOVICH to lay my cards on the table.

I refused to give DORKOVICH any information and he left saying

"I will sack this man tomorrow and then you can get hold of him yourself".

During the above conversation Sgt. CHONCHOL was in the of 138

The following points arise

DORKOVICH has been employing a civilian knowing the said civilian to be under a false name.

Knowing the said civilian to be inefficient he has allowed him to continue to work and pay him a salary.

His firm resolve to sack the man, probably to cover up what he knows to be a blunder.

He is impeding the work of this particular branch of Intelligence, and does not seem to realize that he should cooperate with Allied Intelligence.

He states he is a sort of White Russian.

He is shortly to transfer to UNRRA.

12 January 1946

I have read and confirm the above.

FROM. 2113246 Sgt. Davis R.W.

Sir,

This morning I telephoned the office of Allied Commission, Industry Sub Commission, Chemicals Division, and spoke to a Mr. DORKOVICH an American civilian in charge of the division.

I requested from DORKOVICH that a certain WOLODIMEROFF Igor, known to me to be working at the office of DORKOVICH under the false name of VOISINI Igino, and suspected by Allied Intelligence of espionage activity, be sent to this office for interrogation.

DORKOVICH'S first question was "why"?

I replied "I cannot tell you over the telephone."

DORKOVICH replied "I will call around to your office within the hour and see about him".

I waited for DORKOVICH to call. He arrived at this office about 11.20 hrs.

He said "what do you want to know about this man Sergeant ?".

I replied "what do you know about him".?

He said "I know he is a White Russian, he is useless at his job and I have been employing him out of pity".

"He told me his true name some time after I had employed him".

I was then requested by DORKOVICH to lay my cards on the table.

I refused to give DORKOVICH any information and he left saying "I will sack this man tomorrow and then you can get hold of him yourself".

During the above conversation Sgt. CHONCHOL was present in the office.

The following points arise .

DORKOVICH has been employing a civilian knowing the said civilian to be under a false name.
Knowing the said civilian to be inefficient he has allowed him to continue to work and pay him a salary.

His firm resolve to back the Red, probably to cover up what he knows to be a blunder.

He is ignoring the work of a particular branch of Intelligence, and does not seem to realize that he should cooperate with Allied Intelligence.

He states he is a son of a White Russian.

He is shortly to transfer to USRA.

INTERVIEW WITH MR. DORKOVICH

SUBJECT: Investigation of Mr. Volsini.

The following facts were developed in my interview with Mr. Dorkovich:

1. The identity of the civilian employee was known to Mr. Dorkovich prior to the episode with the Security Division, to the degree that it was known that the civilian was working under an assumed name, and that his daughter was also working in the Allied Commission but under her correct name. In addition it had come to Mr. Dorkovich's attention that the man had allegedly served as interpreter with the Italian army group involved in the Russian campaign.
2. Mr. Dorkovich had intended to dismiss this man for some months previously on the grounds of "inefficiency" and "disobedience" but had neglected to do so. He also states that he had verbally informed the man that he was to be dismissed during that same week in which the interview with the Security people took place, and that this incident merely coincided with a decision already reached.
3. The British Sergeants in the Security Division had warned Mr. Dorkovich that if this man were dismissed, it would impede their investigation.
4. Mr. Dorkovich felt that the rude and disrespectful treatment which he states he received from the Sergeants in the Security Division did not obligate him to assist them in their work. There is attached a copy of the recommendation for dismissal issued by Mr. Dorkovich immediately after the interview with the Security people on Saturday 12 January 1946. I am informed by him that this action took effect that same day, although I have not checked the matter with G-1 Civilian Personnel Office.
5. The following biographical information is submitted by Mr. Dorkovich:
 - a. He is an American citizen, naturalized in 1936, born in England 1894, of Russian parentage.

b. He served with British Intelligence 1918-20 in Russia and prior to that had served in the Czarist Russian army, 1916-1917. Since that time Mr. Dorkovich has not visited Russia.

c. Further biographical information about Mr. Dorkovich is available in the files of the Administration & Personnel Branch Economic Section, as well as in the files of the U.S. State Dept.

6. Mr. Dorkovich has not been given an opportunity to review any of the documents submitted to this office on the matter.

Subject: Mr. VOLSINI

1. The subject has been employed in the Chemicals Division, Industry S/c as business research assistant.
2. He was hired on the strong recommendation of Major MacNaughton-Wright (British) who at that time was Administrative Officer of the Industry S/C.
3. It has since come to my knowledge that this individual's real name is Volodimerov (?), that he has a daughter working under that name for Major Birch (British), who was in charge of the A.C. Car Service.
4. This employee has been tried in several functions to find what his abilities are and has been found to be incompetent.
5. In the light of the foregoing it is requested that Mr. "Volsini" be summarily dismissed and relieved of his duties as of close of today's business.

TRANSLATION

It results that Count GASTANI, Loffredo, son of late Goffredo and Rosa Maria Maddalena, born in Rome on the 22nd of April 1912 and living in via Giulia No. 4, has generally maintained a normal way of life.

He belongs to a noble Roman family and is well seen by his neighbours.

Called to arms, in the beginning of the recent war, with the rank of Lieutenant in the Royal Army, he was captured by the Allied troops and interned in India in a concentration camp, from whence he repatriated recently and is now living in Rome.

He was once the intimate friend of the late Fascist Minister Galeazzo Ciano, and the Ministry of Interior, with letter No. 300/76647 (A. G. P.) dated 25 October 1945, has asked the R. Questura of Rome to speed up information about him because it resulted that he was corresponding with Countess Edde Ciano Mussolini, interned at Lipari.

Count GASTANI Loffredo is single and is presently living with his sister Giovannella, born in Piedimonte D'Alife on 1st October 1909, married, and who was once employed at the ex-ministry of Popular Culture.

She is also an Italian Red Cross Nurse, and in that quality she participated at the Greek and Albanian campaigns.

She was also the intimate friend of the Ciano-Mussolini family, and of Generalle Vambare it is also said that due to this friendship, after Count Ciano's execution, she was interned in Florence by order of the Social Republic of Salò. This last cannot be controlled because there is nothing in the archives of the Local R. Questura which may justify such internment.

It results that the mother of Count GASTANI Loffredo, Rosa Maria Maddalena (nick-named "Maggie") daughter of the late Giorgio and Bergea Eloise, born in Alavania on the 2nd of May 1884, died in Rome on the 16th of May 1945.

She was of Argentine origin, and being Prince Goffredo GASTANI's widow, married, for the second time, the British Diplomat Keeling Edward on 14 April 1920 in Rome, who was born in London on 14 June 1882. The latter, at the beginning of the war, left the Capital for England but is presently in Rome and is living in via Giulia 4, together with his step-children Count Loffredo and Giovannella GASTANI.

From the acts of the R. Questura, it results that Count Loffredo GASTANI, in Feb. 1937, was responsible for an automobile accident, 103 lesions to one Brancadoro Antonio who was cured in 45 days. In that circumstances he stated that he would have come to terms with the victim.

Said Court has other records under file A.I. 1945 (information), which is presently out of place.

Rome, 2 Jan 46.

Il Conte GAETANI Lofiredo fu Lofiredo e fu Keen Maria Maddalena, nato a Roma il 22 aprile 1912, abitante in via Giulia n.4, risulta di regolare condotta in genere.

Appartiene a famiglia della nobiltà romana e nel vicinato riscuote buona estimazione.

Richiamato alle armi, all'inizio del recente conflitto, col grado di Tenente del R. Esercito, dopo qualche tempo venne fatto prigioniero dalle truppe Alleate ed internato in India in un campo di concentramento, da dove è stato rimpatriato recentemente e risiede a Roma.

È intimo amico del defunto ministro fascista Galeazzo Ciano, il Ministero dell'Interno, con nota R.500/76647 (A.G.R.) del 26 ottobre u/s°, ha sollecitato alla Questura di Roma le informazioni già chieste sul suo conto, perché risulta essere in corrispondenza epistolare con la contessa Edda Ciano Mussolini, internata a Lipari.

Il Conte GAETANI Lofiredo è celibe e vive attualmente con la sorella Giovannella, nata a Piedimonte d'Alife il 1 ottobre 1909, nubile, già impiegata presso il soppresso Ministero della Cultura Popolare.

Costei, è anche infermiera della Croce Rossa Italiana e come tale avrebbe partecipato alla campagna Greco-Albanese.

È stata anche intima amica dei coniugi Ciano-Mussolini e del Generale Sgarbi. Si dice anche che per tale amicizia, dopo la fucilazione del conte Ciano, sarebbe stata internata a Firenze per ordine della repubblica sociale di Salò. Tale notizia però, non è stata possibile controllarla, ^{anche} perché nulla risulta in merito negli atti della locale R. Questura.

La madre del Conte Gaetani Lofiredo, KEEN Maria Maddalena (detta Magda) fu Giorgio e fu Barges Elcisa, nata ad Alavania il 22 maggio

1884, risulta deceduta a Roma il 16 maggio dello scorso anno 1945.

Costei, di origine Argentina, già vedova del Principe Gaetani Goffredo, il 14 aprile 1926 sposò a Roma, in seconde nozze il diplomatico Inglese KERLING Edoardo, nato a Londra il 14 giugno 1882. Quest'ultimo, all'inizio del conflitto lasciò la Capitale diretto in patria, ma ora è nuovamente a Roma ed abita in via Giulia n.4 unitamente ai figliastri Conti Loffredo e Giovannella Gaetani.

Dagli atti della R. Questura si rileva che il Conte Gaetani Loffredo, nel febbraio del 1937 si rese responsabile di investimento automobilistico, producendo lesioni guaribili in 45 giorni a certo Brancadoro Antonio. Della circostanza dichiarò di voler soddisfare il ferito di ogni cosa in via amichevole.

Il predetto conte, negli atti della Questura ha altro fascicolo in cat. A.I.-1945-(informazioni) momentaneamente fuori posto.

The lawyer FERRI Mario, son of Carmine, is living these last three years in Viale Parioli, N° 76, apartment N° 10, paying a 1300 lire monthly rent.

FERRI has no property and lives by practising his profession, and is well seen by the neighbourhood.

He never had political functions with the past regime and never had sympathy for it.

He was the owner of a yacht and an automobile which he sold three months ago.

His parents live at Cava dei Tirreni and are owners of a two floor villa.

As he spends a lot of money and lives in luxury, it is presumed that said lawyer doesn't earn enough in order to face his expenses, so that he is suspected of carrying on other activities besides his professional ones.

TRANSLATION

FERRI Mario, son of Carmine and of Rossi Carla born at Cava dei Tirreni on 31 March 1903, living in 76 Viale Parioli and having come from Potenza on 24 Aug. 42 he registered with this Comune and his conduct was normal, in general.

He is known as a professional lawyer, but it does not result that he is a members of the Lawyers' Association of the Local Court of Appeals.

He apparently is in good economic conditions, and is esteemed by his neighbours.

It does not result that he had worked for the fascists here, and further it isn't known if he was or not a member of the PNF.

He is married to Montesano Rosa, fu Luigi and Imperatrice Antonia, born in Potenza on 9 Feb. 1904, and has two children; Isabella, born in Potenza on 20 Aug. 1930 and Giancarlo Luigi, born in Potenza on 22 July 1932.

FERRI Mario has no unfavourable precedents in the local Questura archives. As he has been living in Rome for a short while, it would be opportune to ask information from the Questura of Potenza in order to ascertain if he is registered at that lawyers' association, and if he has political precedents.

M.G.

FERRI Mario di Carmine e di Rossi Carla, nato a Oava dei Tirreni il 31 marzo 1903, abitante al Viale Parioli n. 76, proveniente da Potenza il 24 agosto 1942 si iscrisse nei registri di questa popolazione e durante la sua permanenza nella Capitale, ha serbato regolare condotta in genere.

E' noto come Avvocato, libero professionista, ma non risulta iscritto all'albo degli Avvocati e Procuratori esercenti presso la locale Corte di Appello.

Vive apparentemente in buone condizioni economiche e nel vicinato riscuote estimazione.

Non consta che abbia mai ricoperto cariche fasciste e si ignora se sia stato o meno iscritto al disciolto partito nazionale fascista.

E' coniugato con Montasano Rosa fu Luigi e di Imperatrice Antonia, nata a Potenza il 9 febbraio 1904, casalinga, ed ha due figli, Isabella, nata a Potenza il 20 agosto 1930, studentessa, e Giancarlo Luigi, nato a Potenza il 2. luglio 1932, studente.

Il FERRI Mario, non ha precedenti sfavorevoli negli atti della locale Questura. Trattandosi però di persona che risiede a Roma da breve tempo sarebbe opportuno far chiedere informazioni alla Questura di Potenza anche per accertare se sia iscritto presso quell'albo degli Avvocati ed eventuali suoi precedenti politici.

Dec. 18th. 1945

Dear Mjr. Heath,

As agreed during the conversation I had with you yesterday morning, I'm enclosing a sort of general statement, giving an exact, but necessarily short account of the strange story I told you verbally.

In the first place I wish you to believe that every single word I've either spoken or written is absolutely true.

My journey to Rome, on foot, was certainly not a pleasure trip & I was decidedly not running away. I got dozens of people across the border into Switzerland and it would have been very easy for me to go the same way, and, at any time.

But I've acted all through prompted by a deep rooted sense of duty, honour & loyalty. I always considered myself an enlisted man on duty on enemy territory..

I took it for granted that on the other side of the line, my loyalty, my supreme confidence would be understood and never doubted, and so it was during the first short period. But when, after my accident, I found myself under guard and when later I was arrested, I found the strength to put up with it in the certitude that I had done my duty, only my duty, & perhaps more than my duty.

When I was told in Rome, after my astounding release that I was the victim of circumstances, I did not react, owing partly to a sense of loyalty & duty, feeling certain that sooner or later I would be told the actual facts to my full satisfaction.

Even now I am very reluctant to put myself forward. But it is necessary and for several reasons.

I am the father of three children, and I cannot allow my name to remain under a cloud, for their sake.

I've suffered a grievous wrong. God only knows what deep political reasons there were behind it all.

I am not now prepared to be a "victim of circumstances" any longer and I feel I have a right to a satisfactory explanation.

I have spoken only to one or two very intimate friends of this dreadful, unfortunate affair. I am well known in business circles, I've friends all over Italy, but something seem to have leaked out. Very vague things, but quite sufficient for me.

Whoever did the wrong, must do the right thing now. I must be openly and fully discharged.

I am not asking for anything special, just, pure and simple justice.

And I am sure, you, or any Englishman, will agree with me.

Yours sincerely,

December 18th. 1945

S T A T E M E N T

My family left London to settle in Milan in 1904. I did not return to the old country until 1920 where I stayed for some years with my Uncle, Mr. Charles Nutty of Heatherbank, Hitcham, where he still resides. In 1929 I came out to Italy, on behalf of a big English firm, ^{my} Syson Bros., but later I started an advertising business on my own. In 1937 I married an Italian and I became the father of three kids.

During this period I went several times to England in the interest of some of my most important Italian clients.

The outbreak of war, June 1940, found me still in Milan. Unfortunately I never believed that Italy would or could be so reckless as to wage war on the British Empire. So that I got trapped here with my family.

Until the 25th. July 1941 in accordance with my principles and patriotic feelings, I never lost a chance to do the little I could to carry out an active, pro-British propaganda amongst the industrial and commercial circles with whom I was in touch. Needless to say that I had to leave my business, and consequently I went through a very hard period indeed. But I managed somehow, with the help of my most faithful and trustworthy industrial friends (Dott. U. Bertelli, Dott. P. Puffini, Donno, Avam, etc.)

The Questura of Milan, I must admit, did not bother me much, I think that this was due to the fact that my family had been living in this city for over 40 years & that I had married an Italian. I was advised not to leave my residence & frequently I was summoned to be interrogated and I was continually threatened to be sent to a concentration camp. Once the whole family was definitively ordered to leave for the concentration concentration camp at Aveilino, but I managed to avoid this by bribing certain officials.

After the 8th. September I took a more active part in the fight for liberation helping in the formation of the first groups of partisans in the Lecchese district. I then particularly dedicated myself assisting ex Allied P.W.'s, some 30 of them managed to cross the frontier into Switzerland, through my organisation at Imbersago. Some others joined the partisans in the mountains (Pian dei Resinelli, Capanna Piana on the Resegone etc.) At the same time, my wife, acting upon the advice of a solicitor (Avv. Della Gatta a strong anti-fascist, who unfortunately is now dead) took to her maiden name, - Carla Bossi - and established herself with the children at Calolziocorte. At first I could only see my family occasionally, but later I could scarcely see them at all, as I began to be too well known in the district as the " Inglese, Bossi or Riccardo" eventually, in Jan 1944 the place became too hot for me. It was known that I was & had been smuggling arms, food, stuff, clothing etc. for the patriots. I changed my name again into that of " Architetto Montalbetti " and stuck to this name for some time and crossed the line with it.

In this period the Mafé raided my father's flat in Via Gaio 6, Milan hoping to find me hiding there, but they only found my sister who was arrested but later released. (she was arrested a second time for the same reason and so was my business partner, G. Casaleiro, - this happened in Feb. 1945).

From Jan to Nov. 1944 my partisan activity was even greater, my claim was to strengthen the apolitical groups and run them on military lines. This of course was not very agreeable to the G.L.N.A.I. who were, in my opinion, making a muddle of things, discussing politics and future jobs instead of getting down to the very business of fighting the Germans. I'm stress⁸⁰ this point as it might have a bearing and even help to explain the unbelievable events that followed later.

I'm not blaming anyone. God forbid! I met numberless splendid fellows. i.e. Gen. Fiore (Masini) and his staff: Marchese Maurizio Franceschi, Lionello Levi, Ioanno, Pino Marmi, Avv. Elmo (Capullo) Ing. S. Pensaroli and his brother Giovanni, Dott. Serri, & many, many others.

At the beginning of Sept. 1944 I had an exceptional guest at my hiding place in Milan - No 10 Via Palestina - Major Jack Prichard R.T.R. an escaped P.W. I kept him hiding in my flat for about two months. I introduced him to the leaders of the apolitical movement & tried every possible way to get him & myself into contact with some of the Allied officers who I knew were here on mission. But without any luck. The C.I.N. certainly did not help us in this in spite of the fact that I asked them to do it, and more so for Prichard, through Prof. La Colla who was my liason man with the C.I.N. at the Banca Comm. Italiana.

I also tried through Ing. Battorno, with whom I was in close collaboration and who was in touch with the O.S.S. (Gaetano & Leonardo) But no luck again. The reason may be fairly obvious, but I can only surmise them. Eventually I got Mjr. Prichard into Switzerland in Oct. 1944. We crossed the frontier together at Posto Fignera, as it was our intention to report together at the British Authorities in Berne. But, in spite of the preparation made by "Emilio" we were ^{to Milan} not allowed to continue our journey in Switzerland. So I returned the following morning leaving Jack there. He rejoined later the 3rd Army and he told me a short time ago that he took part in the last battles at Ferrara.

But I had set my mind on reporting to the Allied Command and therefore on the 3rd December 1944 after an eventful journey on foot across the Apennines tramping from one band of Partisans to the other in Liguria and Tuscany and with the help of a pre-established pass-word which had been wirelessly by Gaetano and Meber, to Captain Burgoin at Siena, I crossed the line near Carrara. I had with me special envoys belonging to the largest groups of apolitical Partisans i.e. Maurizio for the Pemmazioni Antonio Piemontesi, Lionello for the Piamme Verdi and Riccardo for the Lecchese Group.

I was considered the moral leader of the Group, or better the "Trait d'union" between them.

Our purpose was, as agreed with Major Prichard and General Fiore to obtain from the Allied Command and the Italian Government the official recognition of the Military Apolitical Movement, (which was boycotted by the C.I.F.) and get moral support, financial assistance and, more than anything, directives.

In Florence, unfortunately, I was separated from my friends. Being an Englishman I was claimed by the P.S.S. and my friends were forced to stay - as guests - with the C.S.S.

As soon as I got to Rome I contacted with Captain Cooper, 300 P.S.S. according to the instructions given me in Florence by the very kind Major Mac Intosh, who, if I remember correctly, was the head man of N.I. Special Force. I was interrogated several times and a special pass was given me with the assurance that my report and my desire to collaborate under orders and instructions would be conveyed to the proper Military Authorities.

I kept in touch with Captain Cooper and his office all the time I was in Rome begging him to speed up my return to Milan to my Partisan work and to my family. But I always got very vague replies.

During this period I also contacted with Acc. Casati (War Minister) who promised me his full support and expressed his high appreciation for the modest contribution I had given to the cause of freedom. I had also talks with the Duke of Genoa, with Col. Bertone, with Leo Medici Tornequinti, with the Fiat and Montecentini people and obtained from them the promise of financial support for our Partisan Bands. I kept Captain Cooper informed of every conversation I had asking him to give me instructions. Of course, all these talks were strictly private, I was acting as a mere civilian only stimulated by a deep sense of duty and a will to do anything and everything I could for the cause.

I also contacted with the P.W.B. (Major Robertson and Mr. Ticher) so as to give them precise information on our clandestine sheets, pamphlets etc. and with the intention of improving Partisan propaganda both in the papers and through the Radio. It was for this reason that the P.W.B. thought it would be useful if I went to Siena so as to agree to a general plan with my friends, who had crossed the line with me, and who were there with Captain Burgoin of the O.S.S.

I therefore left Rome for Siena on the 6th January ¹⁹⁴⁵ with a P.W.B. car, driven by their own driver and in the company of an American Colonel. We met with a very serious accident and I was taken unconscious to the 73rd Hospital in Rome. When I came to, several days later, I found out, to my utter astonishment, that I was under close guard!.....I did not worry at the time, I thought there was some mistake, and besides I was suffering considerably. I nearly lost an eye, I broke my right arm, crushed my wrist and suffered with concussion of the brain. As soon as I could I asked for an explanation but none was given, all I got to know was that on the 1st February I was transferred to S. Michele prison. Broken and in a sling and extremely weak. And it was not until the 7th March that I was interrogated for the first time! My moral and physical sufferings during this preposterously long period cannot be described.

Captain Holland (who was my interrogating Officer) was very nice and up to a point helpful but I could not even get a hint at the real reason of my detention. Not the slightest accusation was ever made. I was interrogated four times. They were not real interrogations but mere conversations, even interesting ones if they had taken place in other circumstances. The last one took place on the 15th March but nothing further happened until the 16th April when suddenly I was informed that I was free. I was advised to report to 59 Via Sicilia. I went there to get my papers and with the hope of seeing Captain Cooper but I was told that he had left for the North. I spoke with a Mr. Feste who directed me to Captain Bruno, an American Officer of the J.I.C.A. a section of the O.S.S. Apparently he knew something of my case but I could get nothing out of him except kind words and hints as to my being a victim of circumstances. He further told me that he could do nothing for me until I reached Milan when and if I managed to get there.

A few days later I saw Captain Holland once more and asked him to help me to get back to Milan as, in spite of all that had happened to me, I still wished and knew that I could be of use in the last stages of liberation, and besides this I was very anxious about my family. He was very sympathetic but told me that it was impossible for me to go North as a big attack was in full swing. I had to remain in Rome without any means, (all the time during the whole war, the assistance given by me to P.W.s, to Major Prichard, both clothing and money, my trip to Rome, my stay there, all this was done with my own means and I have never asked nor wish to ask for any compensation).

All my funds were exhausted, and this I mentioned to Captain Holland who gave me a letter introducing me to Major Simcock of the Displaced Persons Office but here again I got a shock, the last one, he suggested that I should go to the concentration camp at Cine Citta to be transferred later to another one in the neighbourhood of Bari! I asked if it was an order or just a suggestion, but here again I got no definite answer. There had been a lot of "attrition" I was told, with whom?, where?, when?, mystery! Because in all this story, this very sad story there is only one victim, and that is myself, only one "friction" against me!

There is one question and I have often since then put that question before me :

Can a British subject who has voluntarily risked his life and everything that he possesses, who has endangered his family, who has worked for the Partisan and Allied cause as I have done, again can a British subject be treated as I have been treated?

Captain Bruno asked me to forget, not to make a fuss. I thought again and again that it was perhaps my duty to obey and lie low. We were still at war at the time. As for myself I desperately wanted to forget but now I feel that justice must be done towards me. There are two possibilities :

1. The Officers and the departments that I have mentioned above either think and know that I am innocent, as I really am, but in this case the treatment that has been inflicted on me is grossly unfair, wicked I should say. or :
2. They believe I am guilty of something unknown to me, but then, why was I never openly accused? Why was I released in April? And in this second case I have a right to pretend to be accused regularly, tried, so that I, innocent as I know I am, can defend myself and prove my innocence.

Your Highness,

1. I'm encouraged to forward this plea as I know that your R. Highness will hear me etc
2. I'm an ex-Yugoslavian student born in Fiume (11 March 1915) and was unjustly persecuted all my life, and if I didn't resist evil I would have been a suicide etc
3. The right to live could undoubtedly justify violence etc
4. I've exposed my case to an Allied Military Commission in 1944 at Sassari, with no results as 3 of my ⁴⁵ accomplices would not or could not testify in my behalf for one died, another is not yet in liberated territory and the third was shot for having attempted at ^{in 1944} Mussolini's life

5. I was proposed for political confinement in 1935 by the Fascist authorities, who finally condemned me to 30 years imprisonment through the Court of Appeal of Rome, on 15 Oct 35.
6. I have been imprisoned for 10 years. My grandmother has left me some land so that I may live honestly etc.
7. This is the first and last time I have fallen etc.
8. Your R. Highness, one of your most beautiful prerogatives is clemency, especially for a ^{religious} Yugoslav subject to arbitrary fascist laws.
9. Your Highness, being illumined, can substitute a buried man to life, even if he cannot be wholly pardonned.
10. I therefore make this plea for conditional pardon as I have been imprisoned for 10 years without a single reduction of my condemnation.

TRANSLATION OF THE DENUNCIATION MADE BY:

OLARINI Beniamino, from Avezzano

Avezzano, 5 June 1945

TO: The A.M.G.

I, the undersigned OLARINI Beniamino, who am a partisan who gave his collaboration to the Allied Command, state the following:

I DENOUNCE PICCININI Oliviero, Procuratore
Capo of the Tax Office of Avezzano.

Through the initiative of a local Committee, a stone was uncovered on June 4 1945, with the names of eighteen citizens from Avezzano who were barbarously killed by the Germans on 4 June 1943. - The War Secretary, Mr. Palermo, made a commemorative speech, and all the Offices of the town sent their representatives to the solemn ceremony, so much the more because the Avezzano citizens suffered very much under the German occupation. But PICCININI Oliviero did not feel the duty to send his employees to the ceremony, although it took place at 6 p.m. and the Office hours of his Office finished at 6.36 p.m.; and although the Municipal hall (where the ceremony took place) was very near. He did not even send an Official representative.

From this, one can see that he is still a fascist. He has been a fascist since 1932, and the Aquila head office has a record of his past activity. He was sorry when, on 25 July 1943, fascism - which was cause of so many tears and ruins to our poor country - fell. During the German occupation, he enforced the strictest discipline on the Office employees and not only did he not sabotage the tax collection, but enforced it even by coercion. And still, he knew that this money was spent to make weapons which were used against our brethren.

And this is not all. Mr. PICCININI gave to the Germans the list of the owners of radio sets, so that the Germans could either requisition or destroy many radio sets. But he was cunning enough to have his own radio set (N.614 - Avezzano) sent to his native village (Barisciano - Tax Office of S. Demetrio ne' Vestini), so that he could save it. All this can be easily seen in the file of the local Tax Office.

He suffered so much when the fascism fell on 25 July 1945, that he decided to keep in safety in his Office safe, the portrait of that human-brute that was called Benito Mussolini. This is known in all the town (You can enquire from Dott. GATTI Cesare, Miss DI RENZI Lina, etc.)

I DEMONUCE PICCININI Oliviero, Procuratore
Capo of the Tax Office of Avezzano.

He did not even send an Official representative.

From this, one can see that he is still a fascist. He has been a fascist since 1922, and the Aquila head office has a record of his past activity. He was sorry when, on 25 July 1943, fascism - which was cause of so many tears and ruins to our poor country - fell. During the German occupation, he enforced the strictest discipline on the Office employees and not only did he not sabotage the tax collection, but enforced it even by coercion. One cannot allow that in the tax Offices - which are the most important of the Nation - there be still heads who act according to the fascist mentality and sabotage every activity. In such offices it is necessary to have men who can be trusted by the citizens for their fairness and sincerity.

It is necessary to put in such places men who are anti* fascists, who can understand the ideal of the democracy and who can revuilit the nation's prosperity, and prepare the new heads of the Italian burocracy.

Onorevole Comando Alleato:

Io sottoscritto Olarini Beniamino Partigiano Collaboratore del Comando Alleato. Con urgenza riferisco quanto segue. Denuncia di Piccinini Oliviero Procuratore Capo dell'Ufficio Registro di Avezzano.
All'iniziativa di un Comitato locale il giorno 4/6/45, alle ore 18 diciotto esatte scoperta nell'atrio del palazzo comunale di Avezzano dei diciotto eroici avezzanesi barbaramente trucidati dalle forze teutoniche in fuga in una fossa del vicino Comune di Capistrello il giorno 6/6/45. Per l'occasione intervenne il sotto Segretario della guerra S.E. Palermo, facendo la commemorazione ufficiale, mi consta che i vari Uffici pubblici della città inviarono il personale per rappresentanza; perchè attale gloriosa e mesta cerimonia fosse presente ~~assente~~ tutto il popolo avezzanese; che tanto soffersse in quel periodo di selvaggia e brutale occupazione tedesca! Al contrario il Capo dell'Ufficio Registro Piccinini Oliviero benchè l'orario del stesso Ufficio, terminava alle ore diciotto e trenta e i locali stessi non erano più di 100 metri di distanza dall'luogo della cerimonia, non senti il dovere della propria coscienza di lasciare libero il personale onde partecipasse all'attento patriottico. Quanto meno ~~non~~ avesse in vista una rappresentanza. Da quanto sopra si evince chiaramente la sua ancora mentalità faziosa e fascista proveniente questo Signore dal Nazionalismo fin dal 1922 e il Capo luogo dell'Aquila conosce bene il suo passato. Giachè siamo in argomento faccio presente quando cadde il tanto glorioso fascismo che tante lagrime e lutti a fatto il 25/7/45. spargere le nostre povere nazioni. Mi risulta che durante la dominazione tedesca lui fu sempre attached all'Ufficio, non tenendo conto dell'esigenze eccezionali e di sacrifici, che il personale tutto doveva fare per la sua intrasigente disciplina e scaricarsi giornalmente all'Ufficio, non riconoscendo giustificazioni al riguardo, anzichè fare opera sabotatrice, e cioè non riscuotendo l'entrate, il cui denaro serviva a fabbricare armi per trucidare i nostri fratelli.

Angariava maggiormente i contribuenti invitandoli di continuo, anche con energici atti di coazione, ad eseguire i pagamenti presso il suo Ufficio.

Ma questo non è tutto !!

Mi consta che il prefato sig. Piccinini, anzichè esimersi dall'ordine impartito dal locale Comando Tedesco, gli consegnò personalmente l'elenco degli utenti radio di questo distretto; conseguenza questa che portò alla requisizione e distruzione di numerosi apparecchi radio, ma la sua furbizia arrivò a tale strattagemma: Per escludere dall'elenco il suo nominativo (utente radio n. 614 di Avezzano), eseguì di proprio pugno il rinvio della partita al suo paese natale di Barisciano, Ufficio Registro di S. Donotrio nè Vestini; e tutto ciò risulta chiaramente nel citato ruolo, e conservato presso il locale Ufficio Registro.

Fu tanto il suo dolore per la caduta dell'odioso governo fascista, che alla notizia - 25 luglio 1945 - volle custodire gelosamente il quadro di quella belva umana che nominavasi Benito Mussolini, nella cassaforte dello stesso Ufficio !! Tale fatto è notorio alla cittadinanza di Avezzano (Dott. Cesare Gatti, attuale Ufficiale Sanitario del Comune di Avezzano, l'impiegata signorina Di Renzi Lina ecc.)

Negli Uffici finanziari, che sono la linfa dello Stato, e dove i dirigenti debbono riscuotere la fiducia del popolo contribuente, applicando con serenità e giustizia le disposizioni di legge, non è ammesso che vi sia ancora un elemento di vecchia mentalità fascista, operando ostruzionisticamente

Occorrono elementi di intrusigente fermezza, di convinta fede antifascista, di completa dedizione agli ideali di ricostruzione democratica che debbono formare il patrimonio principale di tutti i nuovi dirigenti della burocrazia italiana.

Tanto dovevo riferire a codesto On.le Comando per la verità e la giustizia.

Avezzano li 5 giugno 1945

Luigi NARDI, General Consul of Italy, formerly in Colonia (Germany), actually at the disposal of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

(b) The a/n is correct and according to our reserved informations, she seems to be engaged with a captain of the Royal Italian Army, cavalry, formerly P.O.W. of the Allied troops and released after the intervention of H.E. Pietro Badoglio, Marshal of Italy.

Subject in the past was delighted with painting, but during the war, she was engaged in the "Consorzio Esplosivi e Munizioni" whose office was in Piazza SS. Apostoli, N° 61, while she worked in an office in Via Sardegna, N° 14, where she was till the armistice.

Actually she is working with the Allies.

Subject was never interested with political questions and in the documents of the local Royal Questura nothing appears against her.

From 1926 to 1943 she was in possession of a pass for the foreign countries and each year she went in Switzerland where is her brother Giovanni, engineer, or also in Germany and Norway where are other relations.

In August 1943 she had the permit to go in Germany, in Colonia, and came back with her sister, her mother and her brother in law ~~the~~ General Consul Luigi NARDI. Her mother lives in ^{the} neighbourhood of Prima Porta, suburb of Rome.

She is of the Lutheran religion.

She is Italian and has good knowledges of English, German and French.

ROME, 3/12/1943.

STOLTENBERG-LERCHE Margherita fu Giovanni e di Bergmann Elsa, nata a Roma il 12 dicembre 1903, nubile, pittrice, dall'ottobre del 1943 abita in via Giuseppe Mercalli n.19-int.5-, presso il cognato Comm. Dr. Luigi Nardi, R. Console Generale d'Italia, già in funzione a Colonia (Germania), ora a disposizione del Ministero degli Affari Esteri. La predetta risulta di buona condotta in genere e, a quanto riservatamente si è potuto sapere, sarebbe fidanzata ad un Capitano del Regio Esercito dell'Arma di Cavalleria, già prigioniero delle Armate Alleate, liberato per intercessione di S.E. il Maresciallo d'Italia Pietro Badoglio.

La Stoltenberg-Lerche per il passato si diletta di pittura, ma durante la guerra si impiegò presso il Consorzio Esplosivi e Munizioni che ha sede in Piazza SS. Apostoli 81, mentre essa esplicava la sua opera in un ufficio distaccato in via Sardegna 14, dove rimase fino all'armistizio. Al presente è occupata presso gli Alleati.

La medesima non si è mai occupata di questioni politiche e negli atti della locale R. Questura non ha precedenti sfavorevoli.

Dal 1926 al 1943 è stata in possesso del passaporto per l'Estero, e annualmente si recava in Svizzera, dove risiedeva il fratello ingegnere Giovanni, come pure in Germania e in Norvegia a visitare altri parenti.

Nell'agosto del 1943 ottenne il permesso di espatricio per la Germania, e recatasi a Colonia, ritornò a Roma con la sorella, la madre e il cognato, il Console Generale Luigi Nardi. La di lei madre abiterebbe nelle vicinanze di Prima Porta, sobborgo di Roma.

Professa la religione evangelica-luterana.

E' cittadina italiana ed ha buona conoscenza delle lingue inglese, tedesca e francese.

OGGETTO: ROMANO Ferdinando alias MAGGIAR Reginaldo.

Per il Sig. Maggiore DEATH
Security - Intelligence Officer

MILANO

ROMANO Ferdinando fu Maurizio e fu Castro Clotilde, nato ad Alessandria d'Egitto il 21 ottobre 1894, cittadino italiano, avvocato, giunse a Milano, proveniente da Rodi, il 21 gennaio 1940. Era munito del passaporto N. 4761288 R. 47261 rilasciato a Rodi (Egeo) il 9 febbraio 1939 e vistato dal R. Consolo italiano a Londra in data 3 settembre 1939.

Prese dimora in questa via Crivelli n. 10 e si occupò presso la S.A. Sna Viscosa - ufficio stampa - in qualità di collaboratore e traduttore.

Il 24 febbraio 1941 contrasse matrimonio con PAGNUZZI Giuditta di Giuseppe e di Sala Giuditta, nata a Cremona il 12 dicembre 1895, casalinga.

Il predetto, che in effetti si chiama MAGGIAR Reginald Felix di Victor, nato ad Alessandria d'Egitto il 17 febbraio 1893, suddito inglese, giunse in Italia sotto la copertura di Romano Ferdinando, per conto dell'I.S., al fine di svolgere attività informativa favorito dai dirigenti della Sna Viscosa.

Il 3 maggio 1944 il MAGGIAR alias ROMANO venne dalle SS germaniche tratto in arresto unitamente al senatore Marinotti e al prof. LATTI Libero, incolpati tutti di aver favorito lo sciopero degli operai della predetta società.

Dopo breve permanenza nelle locali carceri S. Vittore il MAGGIAR venne deportato in campo di concentramento in Germania da dove venne liberato dagli Alleati nel maggio u/s/ e andò a stabilirsi in via Favarelli n. 6 presso la signora BRANDOLINI Dalia, ved. CALZU Egipto, nata a Pistoia il 4 luglio 1901, casalinga. Questa volta si identificò col vero nome di MAGGIAR Reginaldo.

Secondo quanto è stato possibile appurare, il predetto avrebbe in corso presso il locale consolato britannico pratica di matrimonio con la BRANDOLINI.

Così ignora che il MAGGIAR contrasse matrimonio con la PAGNUZZI sotto il falso nome di ROMANO.

Il NAGGIAR, dal suo ritorno a Milano, è stato notato qualche volta a far visita alla PAGNUZZI, abitante in Via Crivelli n. 10, la quale è a conoscenza dell'attività svolta dal marito in Italia. Ignora però che il ROMANO-NAGGIAR sia ora intenzionato di sposare la BRANDOLONI.

INTERVIEWER'S IMPRESSIONS:

As regards the London Passport-as per information supplied by Security Div. of Public Safety Commission of A.C. - Subject made no mention of it until asked directly. He then admitted that he had bought an EXCHANGING PASSPORT at HAMBURG in 1923. He stated that he was unable to remember its number or any other particulars regarding it. It seems that the selling of passports was quite a flourishing trade in Hamburg at that time. He was then asked why he wanted an Exchanging passport, since according to his original statement his U.S. passport was not confiscated until 1927-in Cairo. Subject admitted that the last statement was completely untrue. The true story, so he says, is that the U.S. passport that he had obtained in San Paolo, Brazil in 1919 was not acceptable to the U.S. Consul General in Hamburg, who stated that subject, being of foreign birth, would have to make a proper application to the State Dept. in Washington. Subject, not being in a position to do this, went out and bought one.

Subject denied absolutely that he had indulged in any form of political activity while in Shanghai or other parts of China. He was a sheaf of references from the various hotels & other establishments where he was employed. He also contributed articles on air-travel to the local press. As the interviewer had only the bare facts that he had been associated with the Shanghai Soviet & had engaged in White Slave traffic it was not possible to break subject down on these two questions. His activities and movements while in Shanghai were followed closely but he was not directly charged with either of the a/m. activities. It is presumed that the source which supplied the information is in possession of evidence once subject has been satisfactorily identified.

Subject appears to be a cunning type and has quite probably withheld important information on giving his life story. He is London. Granted permit to stay for an indefinite period, Nov. 29 to Torquay. Dec. to Liverpool, wishing to return to Hongkong. Feb. Exit visa granted-went to GUBA, as he could not get a visa for Hongkong.

1940- July-to Hungary via Spain in a Spanish ship. It COMBMAN (on Swiss front-lier) was arrested by Germans as a British spy. Travelled by train under escort to Hungary, which he reached on 21 Nov 40. Here his passport was confiscated and he was treated as an alien-reporting regularly to police etc. He remained in Hungary, under constant police supervision, until Feb 1944. He holds references stating that he worked for LILASURUS (H. Hungary) from 30/11/40 to 30/11/44, with his wife.

1943, Feb. escaped from Hungary to Austria. When U.S. troops arrived, he was screened and then given a job at AMG Officers, HILDEHEIM, for 2 mths. The French then took over the area and he continued with them for a further two months, until Sept. 45. He then came down to ITALY.

INTERROGATOR'S IMPRESSIONS: As regards the Ecuador Passport-as per information supplied by Security Div. of Public Safety Commission of A.C.- Subject made no mention of it until asked directly. He then admitted that he had bought an Ecuadorian passport at HAMBURG in 1923. He stated that he was unable to remember its number or any other particulars regarding it. It seems that the selling of passports was quite a flourishing trade in Hamburg at that time.

He was then asked why he wanted an Ecuadorian passport, since according to his original statement his U.S. passport was not confiscated until 1927-in Cairo. Subject admitted that the last statement was completely untrue. The true story, so he says, is that the U.S. passport that he had obtained in San Paolo, Brazil in 1919 was not acceptable to the U.S. Consul General in Hamburg, who stated that subject, being of foreign birth, would have to make a proper application to the State Dept. in Washington. Subject, not being in a position to do this, went out and bought one.

Subject denied absolutely that he has indulged in any form of political activity while in Shanghai or other parts of China. He has a cheer of references from the various hotels & other establishments where he was employed. He also contributed articles on air-travel to the local press. As the interrogator had only the bare facts that he had been 24000-ated with the Shanghai Soviet & had engaged in White Slave traffic it was not possible to break subject down on these two questions. His activities and movements while in Shanghai were followed closely but he was not directly charged with either of the a/m activities. It is presumed that the source which supplied the information is in possession of evidence upon which subject has been satisfactorily identified.

Subject appears to be a cunning type and has quite probably withheld important information on giving his life story. He did not give an impression of frankness or integrity. At present he is anxious to return to Hongkong where he says he is well known and will be able to earn a decent living.

PUBLIC SAFETY SUB COMMISSION
SECURITY DIVISION

REF : SD/140NN-1-1

17 June 1946

SUBJECT : ZSCHAR Gones - Hungarian

TO : G-5 AFHQ

1. Reference your G-5: 934.22 dated 10 June 46.
2. This case first came to notice of this Division when G-2 (CI) AFHQ in their letter GBI. 389.614 P. dated 8 December 1945 was received. In consequence of the request contained therein this HQ asked the Ministry of Interior to hold subject until a decision was made.
3. Your letter G-5: 383.7.42 dated 15 April 46 advised this HQ of Subject's position and this information was passed on to the Ministry of Interior in our letter dated 23 April 46. It appears, therefore that, ZSCHAR's case is solely a matter for the Italian Government and one in which the Allies ceased to be interested after despatch of the above letter.
4. Please advise this HQ if you wish the enclosures forwarded with your letter sent to the appropriate Italian Ministry or returned to your HQ.

SUBJECT : ZSCHAR Jones - Hungarian

TO : Ministry of Interior,
General Direction of Public Safety.

1. Further to our letter of even reference dated 22 March 1945, your 44/34996 of 16 February refers.

2. It is now generally agreed that persons who enter ITALY without proper authorization of recognised Displaced Persons organisations cannot be regarded as genuine displaced persons or treated as such without Allied authority.

3. The question of control of aliens in ITALY is as you know under consideration and in this case, as there is no evidence to show that ZSCHAR is a political refugee, it is recommended that your Ministry dispose of his case as they see fit. He is of no security interest and as far as the Allies are concerned presumably could be released.

4. It is believed that the Italian Authorities have a Displaced Persons Camp in LEGNANO and no doubt ZSCHAR could be admitted there if destitute.
