PROCURA MILITARE DEL REGNO ITALIANO IL
TRIBUNALE MILITARE TERRITORIALE DI GUERRA DI BARI
- Ufficio Istruzione -

URGENT - REGISTERED
Prot. No. 614/45 G.I.

Bari, 31 January 1946

TO : LIAISON OFFICE, Allied Commission, ROM Bari.

URGENT : Penal proceedings against LEONCINI FIDALDO son of Uliasse and of Nelli
Ida born in Florence on 19 Nov 1919 - Private, Air Force.

This Office is proceeding against subject who is presently interned at "R" Civilian internecamp at Terri for the crimes of :

a) HELPING THE ENEMY - art. 51 Military Penal Code in time of war, because said private, attached to the ELAF at Athens until the Armistice as technician and announcer, in a day unknown about the middle of September 1944 and until October 1944, the day on which he spontaneously presented himself to the Athens Radio station, found employment in that city in the quality of radio technician and that of radio operator in order to favour the operations of the enemy he associated himself with a group of Italian and German saboteurs who were to operate against the Allies immediately after their arrival in Greece.

ACTIONS

b) GIVING FALSE PARTICULARS ABOUT HIS PROXENSION - art. 496 Penal Code - because in the first half of the month of November 1944, being interrogated by the "Comando Centro Raccolta per militari della Regia Aeronautica" of Terlizzi, he falsely stated that he was hiding in Athens, from 8 Sep 43 to 9 Nov 44, in order to evade capture by the Germans.

As the "Tenenza del CC.RR." of Terri with letter No. 20/26 dated 18 Jan 46 has communicated that in order to effect the transfer of LEONCINI to the Judicial Jails of Bari, an Allied Command authorization is required obtainable from A.C. of A.C.-2-A.F.H.Q. of Caserta, this office is requested, in order to give justice its course, to request the aforesaid authorization and forward same to our office.

a)- AIUTO AL NEMICO - art. 51 C.P.M.G.- perchè avere di governo addetto fino alla data dell'armistizio all'EIAR di Atene, quale tecnico ed annunciatore, in un giorno imprecisato della metà del settembre 1944, e fino al 22 ottobre 1944 data in cui spontaneamente si ripresentava alla Stazione Radio di Atene, si associava in quella città in qualità di radio-tecnico e se necessario di radio-telegrafista, allo scopo di favorire le operazioni del nemico, ad un gruppo di sabotatori italiani e tedeschi destinati ad operare contro gli alleati subito dopo il loro arrivo in Grecia.

b)- FALSO GENERALITA' SU QUALITA' PERSONALI- art. 496 C.P.- perchè nella prima metà del novembre 1944, interrogato dal comando Centro Raccolta per militari della Regia Aeronautica in Terlizzi, dichiarava falsamente di essere stato, nel periodo 8 settembre 1943-9 novembre 1944, nascosto in Atene al fine di sfuggire ai tedeschi.--

Poichè la Tenenza del CC.RR. di Terni con foglio No.20/26 ³⁹⁷ 18 gennaio u.s. ha comunicato che per effettuare la traduzione del IECINCINI alle Carceri Giudiziarie di Bari è necessaria l'autorizzazione del Comando Alleato:

A.C. of S.G. -2 - A.F.H.Q. di Caserta, si prega codesto Ufficio ai fini di giustizia di volere richiedere l'autorizzazione in parola trasmettendola a questo Ufficio.

Reference list "Enemy Agents", file GBI-389.704/1, distributed by this Headquarters, 27 Nov 44, the following corrections are made: -

1. Lt. Cdr. BORGHESE is the well-known commander of the X-115 Flotilla which has been engaged in naval sabotage operations on the Italian side since early in the present war.

2. It is possible that "Lt. ESBERGER, one man boat pilot", is identical with Naval Lt. Rudolf ESBERGER, who was assistant to Korv. Kapt. REINER, (letter in Venice) throughout 1944 until October.

1 Dec 44.

SUBJECT : Penetration of Allied I.S. by SD.

TO : See Distribution.

1. A Sicherheitsdienst agent captured in the forward area early in November 1944, who had volunteered from the X Flotilla MAS and been trained as a saboteur at the SD schools at Campalto and S. Andrea, Venice, was briefed and despatched by a Major SCHMITT, S.S. HQ Verona, via Lt. KOLLER, S.S. HQ Bologna.

2. His mission was to go to Florence (his parents' home) to penetrate Allied Intelligence and to obtain the names of Allied agents sent into German occupied territory on espionage missions. He was to return to E.C.T. within the month, crossing the lines near Lucca, and reporting to SCHMITT at Verona or, failing that, at Bolzano.

3. To accomplish his mission he was to surrender to the first Allied outpost and ask to be taken to a C.I. Command. After telling his cover-story he was to ask for employment with an Allied Intelligence Agency in Florence and thus accumulate the desired information.

4. The cover-story in which he was rehearsed (a novel feature in SD cases) and which, in fact, he told when first interrogated on arrest behind the Allied lines was as follows: -

"Since Nov 43 Subject was in the service of the X Flotilla MAS as a volunteer. He remained with this branch in various places until about the end of Aug 44. About 1 Jun 44 he went to Ivrea (Piedmont) to pursue a course of study. While there Subject made the acquaintance of a certain Franz GOEBBEL, corporal in the German Army, stationed at Ivrea. When Subject indicated to GOEBBEL that he would like to return to Florence to see his parents, GOEBBEL stated that he might be able to help Subject. Later while Subject was taking an evening walk, a car approached him and stopped beside him. The car had 3 passengers: GOEBBEL; a certain SCHMITT; and a young Italian girl of about 22 who acted as interpreter for SCHMITT. Subject entered the vehicle and as the car drove on SCHMITT, through the interpreter, informed Subject that he could return to Florence if he would perform a mission for them. Subject agreed and SCHMITT advised him to supply both pictures and

X. Plotilla MAS and been trained as a saboteur at the schools at Campalto and S. Andrea, Venice, was briefed and despatched by a Major SCHMITT, S.S. HQ Verona, via Lt. MEHLER, S.S. HQ Bologna.

2. His mission was to go to Florence (his parents' home) to penetrate Allied Intelligence and to obtain the names of Allied agents sent into German occupied territory on espionage missions. He was to return to M.O.F. within the month, crossing the lines near Lucca, and reporting to SCHMITT at Verona or, failing that, at Bolzano.

4. The cover-story in which he was rehearsed (a novel feature in SD cases) and which, in fact, he told when first interrogated on arrest behind the Allied lines was as follows: -

About 1 Jun 44 he went to Ivrea (Piedmont) to pursue a course of study. While there Subject made the acquaintance of a certain Franz GOERBEL, corporal in the German Army, stationed at Ivrea. When Subject indicated to GOERBEL that he would like to return to Florence to see his parents, GOERBEL stated that he might be able to help Subject. Later while Subject was taking an evening walk, a car approached him and stopped beside him. The car had 3 passengers: GOERBEL; a certain SCHMITT; and a young Italian girl of about 22 who acted as interpreter for SCHMITT. Subject entered the vehicle and as the car drove on SCHMITT, through the interpreter, informed Subject that he could return to Florence if he would perform a mission for them. Subject agreed and SCHMITT advised him to supply both pictures and a personal history statement. The interpreter then took a finger-print of Subject. A short time later Subject consigned the requested material to Franz GOERBEL at a certain restaurant named 'Commercio' GOERBEL supplied in return a travel pass to Verona where Subject was to present himself to Quartermaster at Palazzo Assicurazione, Corso Vittorio Emanuele. On 2 Sep 44 Subject presented himself at this HQ. He was assigned to Albino Aurora, there to await the above-mentioned SCHMITT. Shortly, SCHMITT arrived and gave Subject 8,000 Lire to buy clothing and to cover expenses. Subject remained in Verona until about 23 Oct., receiving at intervals SCHIATTI who spoke about the mission, but in rather vague terms. On 25 Oct SCHIATTI returned again, gave Subject 30,000 Lire and advised him to go to Bologna and present himself to a certain Lt. MOLLAR at S.S. HQ, Via S. Chiara No. 6. MOLLAR was to supply a means of transporting Subject towards the front and to assist him on his mission. Subject left Verona for Bologna on 31 Oct 44. Subject presented himself to MOLLAR, who in turn supplied Subject with transportation to the forward areas. There Subject passed from hand to hand down to the patrol which escorted him to the American lines. His mission was to ascertain unit identifications, supply depots, auto parks and depots, etc., troop movement and other tactical information. Subject was to obtain this information, write it down, conceal it as he saw fit, and return before the end of November through the German lines at Lucca.

5. The account of service in the X Plotilla MAS, the C.I.S. names and addresses, the amounts paid to him, the account of his final movements, the duration of the mission and the instructions for return to E.O.T. are all more or less accurate.
6. The information suppressed was the process of recruitment, the length of contact with the SD, his training as a sabotage agent, and the nature of the mission. The motive for acceptance as given in the cover story is not thought to be true in spite of the fact that the agent's family live in Florence.
7. The agent's cover-story was broken when it was observed that there were certain discrepancies between the versions he gave at his first and second interrogation. He then told what is believed to be the true story as summarized above.
8. The case is of interest for three main reasons: -
 - a. it is a good example of "the story within a story", i.e. the confession of part-guilt to deflect the attention of the interrogator from the true story.
 - b. it emphasises the importance of noting all discrepancies between statements made by an agent at different interrogations.
 - c. it is the first tangible evidence of the SD's attempt to penetrate Allied I.S. in Italy.

means of transporting Subject towards the front and to assist him on his mission. Subject left Verona for Bologna on 31 Oct 44. Subject presented himself to MOLLIER, who in turn supplied Subject with transportation to the forward areas. There Subject passed from hand to hand down to the patrol which escorted him to the American lines. His mission was to ascertain unit identifications, supply depots, auto parks and depots, etc., troop movement and other tactical information. Subject was to obtain this information, write it down, conceal it as he saw fit, and return before the end of November through the German lines at Lucca.

5. The account of service in the X Flotilla MAS, the G.I.S. names and addresses, the amounts paid to him, the account of his final movements, the duration of the mission and the instructions for return to E.O.T. are all more or less accurate.
6. The information suppressed was the process of recruitment, the length of contact with the SD, his training as a sabotage agent, and the nature of the mission. The motive for acceptance as given in the cover story is not thought to be true in spite of the fact that the agent's family live in Florence.
7. The agent's cover-story was broken when it was observed that there were certain discrepancies between the versions he gave at his first and second interrogation. He then told what is believed to be the true story as summarized above.

 - c. it is the first tangible evidence of the SD's attempt to penetrate Allied I.S. in Italy.
9. The peculiarities of the case are: -
 - a. that a trained sabotage agent was selected for such a mission. (Note: the admission of service with the X Flotilla MAS may have been intended as a bait for Allied sabotage organisations).
 - b. that the agent in question is one of the first SD agents to have crossed the lines on an "independent" mission. (Note: the majority of SD agents are sent to contact an enemy espionage ring or to prepare the ground for further agents).

- e. that this agent is the first to have been briefed and despatched (according to AFM records) by Major SCHLITZ. (Note: this name and the description given may still be only a cover identity).

10. The belief that the SD are undertaking a campaign to penetrate Allied I.S. is substantiated by certain peculiarities in the story of two SD agents who were recently despatched into A.O.I. together. What is believed to be the cover-story of these two men has not yet been broken. The peculiarities are: -

- a. their background is such as to recommend them as recruits for Allied I.S.
- b. their recruitment by the SD was as casual as that contained in the cover-story quoted in para 4 above.
- c. the officer, Lt. PHILBERT, who briefed and despatched them from Verona made his first appearance in their story.
- d. they claim that they were to collect detailed political, social and military information in Rome and, if possible, in Florence.
- e. their mission was to last three weeks.
- f. they were given the password "Lucea" for their return through the enemy lines.

11. A further possible indication of SD interest in penetrating Allied I.S. is that the brief of a recently captured agent from Parma included instructions for the collection of information on the location of Allied intelligence units and billets and their close surveillance.

12. It is therefore felt necessary to re-emphasise the ever-present danger of attempted penetration of Allied I.S. by the enemy. The following classes of agents should be regarded with particular suspicion: -

- a. all "independent" SD agents.
- b. SD agents despatched from Verona.
- c. SD agents briefed and despatched by SCHLITZ (description below) or PHILBERT (no description available).
- d. SD agents briefed and despatched by officials making their first appearances in their stories.

- c. the officer, Lt. PALLORE, who briefed and despatched them from Verona made his first appearance in their story.
- d. they claim that they were to collect detailed political, social and military information in Rome and, if possible, in Florence.

12. It is therefore felt necessary to re-emphasise the over-present danger of attempted penetration of Allied I.S. by the enemy. The following classes of agents should be regarded with particular suspicion: -

- a. all "independent" SD agents.
- b. SD agents despatched from Verona.
- c. SD agents briefed and despatched by SCHMITT (description below) or PALLORE (no description available).
- d. SD agents briefed and despatched by officials making their first appearance in their stories.
- e. SD agents telling stories similar to the cover quoted in para 4 above.
- f. SD agents volunteering to work for Allied I.S.

13. Major SCHMITT is described as: - age 50 - 1m90 - tall - 80 kilos - robust build - ruddy complexion - long face - eyeglasses - lame in one leg.
