Dear Admiral,

The President of the Council mentioned to you in his letter dated 9 April No. 440 that an investigating Commission is ascertaining the responsibilities in which might have incurred the Italian commanders and their staffs and men in territories beyond the Italian border, occupied by the Italian Armed Forces, in order to punish the eventual "war criminals."

The President of this Commission, the ex-Minister of War, Senator Casati, informs you that, if the Allies consider the opportunity of sending an observer, he would not only have no objections to make, but would even be very pleased.

The Commission is composed as follows:

SUBJECT: Identification of WENDL Karl.-

R O M E

On 24 May 44 WENDL Karl, sergeant-major in the German SS, killed FORNI Luciano in Turin, with pistol shots for reasons of passion.

Our office intrusted this matter to the Allied Command in Turin in order that, through the G-2 Allied Command in Paris, subject might be identified.

On 10 April 1946 we got the following answer from the Allied Command in Turin:

" We cannot identify WENDL Karl through the G-2 office in Paris.....This is a matter for the Italian Government. You have to apply to the Allied Commission, through the Ministry of Grace and Justice for WENDL's identification.

In data 24.5.1944, l'individuo in oggetto, Maresciallo delle SS. tedesche, uccideva in Torino, a colpi di pistola, per motivi passionali, FORNI Luciano.-

A diversa riprese questo Ufficio interessò il Comando Alleato di Torino, perchè rintracciasse o, quanto meno, identificasse il tedesco assassino, servendosi anche a tal uopo di quel "Comando G 2" (Alleato) esistente a Parigi ed il cui compito è quello d'identificare tutti gli appartenenti alle SS. tedesche.-

Senonchè, con lettera 10.4.1946 il Comando Alleato di Torino, rispondeva a questo Ufficio:

"""Non sono in grado di comunicare direttamente con Parigi su questa questione..... Tutte le questioni devono d'ora in poi essere trattate tramite il Governo Italiano.... Ritengo che la domanda che il WENDL venga identificato sia sottoposta alla Commissione Alleata tramite il Ministero di Grazia e Giustizia""".-

Prego dunque codesto Onorevole Ministero di volersi interessare presso la Commissione Alleata per la identificazione del Wendl.-

ALLIED COMMISSION
R O M E

I, the undersigned Domenico CERAVOLO, Maresciallo Maggiore in the CC RR, living at Crotone(Catanzaro), make the following declaration:

In June 43, owing to the aerial bombing, I transferred my family from Crotone to S.Sepolcro(Arezzo) at my nephew's Vincenzo Macrì, Maresciallo attached to the Scuola Centrale di Fanteria.

At the time of the Armistice, my son Antonio, aged 18 and my daughter Wanda, aged 20, were blocked up in the North of Italy. They, in order to avoid the Nazi-Fascist recruiting, left S.Sepolcro and went up to the nearby mountains, where they hid themselves.

But in Aug. 44 my son Antonio was taken away by the Germans and attached to a group of Italian workers.

When my daughter Wanda was able to reach me, she informed me that my son had been killed by the Germans.

Deeply afflicted by this news, I made investigations helped by some friends of mine and at last I succeeded in learning that my son had been attached to a group of Italian workers in which Renato Mariani living at Florence, 9 via Leonardo da Vinci, was acting as interpreter.

I had a declaration from him , a copy of which is herewith attached. In this declaration is shown the reason of his death due to the infamous inhumanity of a German Sergeant.

Any comment on Mariani's declaration would be useless. This crime has to be punished and its perpetrator sentenced. As this is a war crime, I denounce Sergeant SS HEINZ Held, aged 34, living at Francoforte sul Meno, as the killer of my son Antonio CERAVOLO.

Will you please make investigations in order to find the murderer and establish a penal proceeding against him.

I state that I shall appear against the above named Sergeant in case a trial will be pending against him.

Crotone, 25 April 1946

DECLARATION

As an eye-witness of the facts which happened, I state as follows:

On 17 Aug. 44, in the morning, at Montefortino(Arezzo) at the farm of Ferri-Marini, Amantini, where the Italian workers, who had been recruited by the Germans in the area of Perugia, Arezzo and Pesaro were living, I was informed that during the night, with the help of the fog, six workers, attached to the group Sangiustino-Sansepolcro had escaped. It was the third time that this happened and the workers who escaped were 17 in all.

When we got there we were warned by the Germans that for every Italian worker who escaped three others would be killed. It was 5,30 a.m.

At 6a.m., as usual, there was the general assembly before beginning work. Before the roll-call I informed the Sergeant that six men had escaped. Contrary to the previous times, he kept quiet.

At 6 a.m. he went to the roll-call with all the soldiers armed. I called the workers six of them were missing. The Sergeant made a short speech in German, ordering his soldiers to open fire against the worker he was going to select. One among the soldiers asked him to be clement. But the Sergeant after reproaching him, looked at all the workers and at last, indicating Antonio CERAVOLO, said:" You, you." Antonio CERAVOLO went out of the group. The workers thought he would have been only beaten. Antonio CERAVOLO cried: "Renato, Renato, no, no, tell him....." But immediately the Sergeant shot and Antonio CERAVOLO fell down.

Three times the Sergeant shot. The dying man said his last word. I heard"foolish" others "stop".

After the killing the Sergeant ordered work to start. The dead body was left on the spot and ~~end~~ after half an hour was covered with a military blanket. After two hours I was called by the Sergeant to authenticate his death as I was representing the Italian workers.

Meanwhile, the dead body was put into a coffin shorter than the deceased. I told the Sergeant that it was necessary to wait some hours before the burial, but it was useless. Also my request to take from the dead body two rings and the pocket-book, was useless.

The report of death was signed by me (as Italian worker, interpreter and graduate) by the Sergeant and other German soldiers.

This report was sent to the German Command together with a letter of the Sergeant in which it was said:" On 17 Aug. 44 night, six Italian workers escaped. This happened three times and the Italian workers who have escaped are 17. According to the order received, I killed the Italian worker Antonio CERAVOLO whose identification card is herewith attached."

Some workers and I dug the grave near the farm of Ferri-Marini. The Sergeant ordered all the workers to be present at the burial.

After saying that, on the order received, he would have to kill 51 Italian workers, he went away. On the grave was put neither a cross, nor the name.

All the workers were thinking that the Sergeant would have been transferred to another place, but he remained.

His name is HEINZ Held.
He was appointed to the German SS. Aged 34. He lives at Franco-forte sul Meno.

His address in Italy when he was with us, was: F.P. 43851 A.

Sir,

I beg to enclose two memoranda concerning my brother Italo D'ALESSANDRO, who is held in jail as a political prisonner.

I feel it to be my duty to approach you on behalf of my brother to draw your kind attention to his sad case and to request, if possible, his transfer from "Regina Coeli" jail to TERNI concentration camp where he should be cross-examined and, as I feel confident, returned to his family who live under very poor moral and financial conditions.

I beg you, dear Sir, to take into consideration the case of this man who is sixty years old, suffering from heart disease, and rheumatisms and languishes in jail since two years.

His innocence is proved by the sentence issued by the High Commissioner Spagnolo, Attorney General of the Realm, according to which my brother has been acquitted.

This document has been handed over to Captain ELLIS Public Safety Sub-Commission A.C.-

To H.E. the British Embassador - ROME

I beg to approach directly your Excellency, because I do not know whom I could approach to obtain an urgent action in a case of justice and of extreme need.

My husband, late Colonel of the Milizia and Judge of the disbanded special Tribunal was arrested on the 25th of July 1944 by the British Police in Bari and transferred to Padula concentration camp.

His case was later on taken up by the Italian legal authorities and on the 18 of February 1945 he was placed at the disposal of said authorities . In the meantime the H.Q. of A/M authorities informed the Italian authorities concerned that, on completion of the trial, my husband should have been placed again at the disposal of the authorities of said camp before his final release.

On the 9th of March 1946 my husband was acquitted by the Italian tribunal and the order of release has been duly forwarded and is held at present at Regina Coeli Jail.

This order has not been carried out because my husband appears to be still at the disposal, of the Allies .

I therefore, urgently beg that my husband be released by the authorities concerned as soon as possible.

I beg moreover, to inform you that Padula concentration camp has been disbanded and that since two years my family lives under extremely poor conditions.

Awaiting your answer I thank you and beg you to accept my kindest regards.

I, the undersigned, D'ALESSANDRO Italo, son of Quirino, late Colonel of the Militia, was arrested in Bari by the British Police on 25 July 1944 and transferred to Padula concentration Camp, further to a cross-examination in Bari jail.

Later on, since in my capacity of Militia consul I had been called sometimes to act as judge to the Special Tribunal for the Defence of the State, I was transferred to Rome jail, on request of the High Commissariat for the Punishment of Fascist Crimes, and held there pending the decision of the Legal Authorities who replaced s/m Commissariat on its disbandment.

I have now been acquitted, because said authorities sentenced that I was not guilty. Anyhow I have not been released on 9th inst. (as six other persons coimputed with me have), because before my transfer from the concentration Camp to Rome jail, the Staff of said Camp requested me to sign a statement according to which I should have remained at the disposal of the Allies even if I had been released.

I beg you therefore to take into kind consideration my case and possibly to speed my release, so that I may return to my family who suffer morally and economically since twenty months.

Subject: ENGEL Siegfried

With reference to your letter n.266.01-99 of May 29 we inform you that the a/m subject (not Diegfried) was the Commander of the SS.German Department with residence in Genoa in the well-known "Casa dello Studente" (Student's house). He is charged with grave war crimes, among which numerous shootings of italian civilians who were interned as hostages and killed for retaliation, as for instance the slaughter of"Turchino" where 59 hostages were massacred; the slaughter of "Portofino" with 21 victims; the slaughter of "Crevasco" with 20 victims and that of "Benedicta" with about 100 killings.

The a/m subject moreover, as Commissioner of the "Student's House",is responsible for the numerous ill-treatments: eletric shocks, blood-strokes, extirpation of nails and many other cruelties which, sometime, caused the death of the prisoner.

In order to easy the identification of the so-called dr. Fredrich Nagel, his descriptions are forwarded:

ENGEL Siegfried, 40 years old, tall 1,85, jutting chin, straight chestnut hair, clear eyes of mongol cut.

It is requested that the a/m subject be sentenced by the competent Authorities as a war criminal.

OGGETTO ENGEL Siegfried.

In riscontro alla nota controdistinta, si comunica che il Ten.Col. ENGEL Siegfried (e non Biegfried) era il comandante del reparto SS. tedesco, avente sede in Genova nella nota "Casa dello studente". Egli si è colà reso responsabile di gravi crimini di guerra, tra cui numerose fucilazioni di cittadini italiani, detenuti quali ostaggi e uccisi per rappresaglia, come l'eccidio del Turchino, ove vennero massacrati 59 ostaggi, l'eccidio di Portofino con 21 vittime, l'eccidio di Crevasco con 20 vittime e quello della Benedicta con circa un centinaio di uccisioni.

L'Engel inoltre, quale comandante della "Casa dello Studente" deve essere ritenuto responsabile delle innumerevoli sevizie alle quali venivano sottoposti colà gli arrestati, cui si fecero subire scosse elettriche, percosse a sangue, estirpazione di unghie ed altre efferatezze, che, in alcuni casi, provocarono la morte dell'interrogato.

Per agevolare la identificazione del sedicente dott. Fredrich Nagel, di cui alla lettera di codesto Comando, con l'Engel in oggetto, si trascrivono qui di seguito i connotati dell'Engel, significando che se la Questura di Genova riceverà una fotografia del suddetto Nagel potrà controllarne la identificazione.

- ENGEL Siegfried - età anni 40 circa, altezza 1,85 circa, mento sporgente, capelli castani lisci, occhi chiari di taglio mongolico.

Si ritiene opportuno che l'Engel venga giudicato da un organo competente quale criminale di guerra.
