C L A I M

for DOC. GASTONE MADORI detained at the Jail of Pisa, Italy, ⁶⁸
at disposal of Rome Allied Commission &
Allied Forces Supreme Headquarters Caserta.

(June 1945 - November 1946)

Pisa, (Italy), 20 Novemb. 1946

C L A I M

The undersigned lawyers, in name and for the interest of DOC. GASTONE MADORI, address to your courtesy and benevolence to claim as follows:

1. DOCTOR MADORI is a former Director of Districtual Offices of EIAR (Italian Broadcasting Corporation) and he is now detained at the Prisons of Pisa, Italy.

2. He was enrolled into the EIAR on May 1937 as Secretary of Florence Board.

3. After four year of bright and successful career he was appointed, on May 1941, as Manager of Lubiana Office (Yugoslavy), where he carried out only artistic and administrative duties, the political ones being committed to the Radio News Service Director and to the special Propaganda and Political Executive Officer charged with those jobs.

4. At the fall of Fascist Government, July 1943, MADORI was sent to Naple to head that Radio Office: later was appointed as Rome Board Deputy Chief on September 1943, ever with functional and not political competence. The policy of the Corporation was still regulated in each District by the Central Director of Boards, being MADORI everywhere a technical and administrative executor.

5. Some time afterwards was created Chief Personnel of the Society and subsequently Manager of Milano and Torino Offices (1944-45), where he stayed up to the Allied liberation of that town.

6. On 5th May 1945 he spontaneously turned him and his wife into the hands of the arriving American Troops not to surrender for their faults, but just to be protected from the bloody events of that time and to be covered from the jeopardizing prejudices raised by the Partisans over every conspicuous rank then vested.

7. On June 1945, interned with other civilians, in a Concentration Camp near Pisa, was questioned by the Italian Police Authorities on the basis of a general order issued by the Allies to check all the actions perpetrated by the important Officers of the said Radio Organization. On same month was transferred to the Jail of Pisa under the possible suspect of having collaborated with nazi-fascist authorities, but without any commitment he was held for public safety ascertainties and collection of most complete informations.

8. A long, careful and thoroughly documentation on all his political and administrative background caused the Anti-fascist Court of Pisa to issue a statement of immediate acquittal and release (October 1945) followed, on April 1946, by a similar order given by the equal Court of Torino.

9. All that had been his activity, his liabilities and his repeated and substantial helps in favour of people persecuted or wanted for political or racial motifs by German and fascist organizations was totally disclosed and brought to the attention of the Judiciary Authorities, so that they could freely and easily take the said favourable decision.

10. However at the end of 1945 MADORI knew, through a request filed by the Mediterranean Allied Authorities to the Headquarters Allied Commission in Rome and to the Italian Ministry of Interior that he had to stay in Jail at disposal of one, not yet disclosed, United Nation that could casually require him as a criminal of war !

11. Such request was later revealed as suggested by Yugoslave Authorities, possibly for a suspect on his job exploited for two years in Lubjiana, together with other seven thousand Italians who were equally hypothetically wanted.

12. Since that time he tried over and over again to clarify his situation with Pisa United States Counter Intelligence Center (C.I.C.), with the representatives of the Allied Commission, with the Italian Antifascist and Ordinary Court and State Attorneys and with the Italian Political Police Offices but he could not receive any exact and satisfactory information for the simple fact that none of these Bodies knew the true and the right way to be followed, nor the real competence or the necessary action to be undertaken. Such trouble caused a long delay in the handling of his already intricate case: with Rome Allied Commission leaving competence to the Italian Organs and the Italians turning back to the Allies for several times.

He was only indirectly and summarily answered that was at disposal of Rome Allied Commission, Legal and Public Safety Sub-Commission for the interest of the Supreme Allied Forces Headquarters of Mediterranean Theater then located at Caserta. The G-4 Office of these Headquarters was holding him as by request of the purported United Nations War Crimes Commission (UNWCC), referred sitting in London.

13. Perfectly in peace with his conscience, he applied several times the President of Italian Republic, His Holiness Pope Pius XIIth, Rear Admiral STONE, Chief of the Rome Allied Commission: everybody on his part did everything possible to speed up the screening of his situation and of his alleged responsibilities, moving the opportune steps with Caserta Offices; but without any concrete result.

14. It was partially admitted at that time that no charge was pending on him and that his detention in Pisa had yet to last until the said UNWCC would have set up the ordinary rules of procedure; only on which ground the case might be scrutinized and decided.

15. It is to be pointed out too that during all this period (now it is running the 17th month of his imprisonment) he was never questioned nor wanted by any Allied Authority or Office, though he had so many times them to clarify and precisely define his position.

16. The only answer that the Director of Pisa Jail received was that MADORI had to wait for a generically said future request by the Allies.

17. In the meanwhile the conditions of his family were seriously aggravated. With no pay from the Company since the day of the apprehension and having sold everything of his belongings, his wife - the daughter of a Hungarian High Court Officer - was early at the hunger. Not much time ago she has delivered a poor baby, who is now dividing the wretched life of his mother in Pisa without any support.

18. The pinnacle of his despair is in the exact and absolute conscience of his innocence and honesty, as he could abundantly and satisfactorily prove through the statements rendered by the same Officers now in charge with the reconstituted Radio Services. Should any Yugoslave or Allied Authority attentively and scrupulously look in his past activities' record, KADORI feels sure that he would immediately be acquitted and released: that is why he ever tried to be submitted, as soon as possible, to a full judgment.

19. Last September he filed another application to the Allied Commission in Rome, bound with copies of discharging papers and statements and supports of Italian Authorities, in order to have the Mediterranean Headquarters interested for the granting of a temporary release, under which ever conditions were to be established to ensure the safety or the control upon him, which could let him provide in the same town to the physical life and to the assistance of his family. The request was substantiated by Italian Police and Jail Officers.

20. Hitherto summarily his long and dramatic story; The long time protracted detention, the absence of any precise information, the miscarriage of his defendant's rights, the excessive length of the announced issue of the United Nations Court procedure, the certainties of his not guiltiness, the poor situation of his family, the apparent and lasting state of abandon of all the case have finally induced his lawyers to send you this claim in order to be taken in favour of their customer the most benevolent, pitious and graceful action, and specifically:

a. to grant him a temporary release, with the enforcement of special public safety measures if necessary, pending the trial;

b. to make a quick examination of the case, by picking up all the possible informations by the Allied and Italian Authorities involved;

c. to take a prompt decision by the Allied Occupying Authorities to be confirmed subsequently by the interested special UNWCC.

21. Law like the "Habeas Corpus" provisions; the sacred respect of personal rights and of human freedom, as well as humanitarian and conscientious considerations on a living being cannot be disregarded or violated.

22. We are appealing to the sense of justice and of humanity and to the good heart of the World Supreme Human Authorities so that a word of peace, of liberty and of rightness be even here pronounced by you on the fate of this condemned and abandoned man, in whom - let us not forget - a portion, though little it may be, of mankind is notwithstanding reflected: in the order not yet reestablished and in the shackles not yet broken.

With respectful regards

Yours faithfully

DIREZIONE DELLE CARCERI GIUDIZIARIE DI PISA

No. 4520 - 3/1/M/

Pisa, 21 agosto 1946.

ALL'HEADQUARTERS ALLIED COMMISSION
APO 794
LEGAL SUB-COMMISSION

Con riferimento alla lettera AC/4023/23/L del 12 corrente mese, si comunicano le seguenti notizie relative alla posizione giuridica del nominato MADORI Gastone :

In data 12 giugno 1945, d'ordine della Questura di Pisa, il MADORI venne introdotto in queste Carceri per rimanere a disposizione dell'Ufficio politico della Questura predetta; egli era stato arrestato presso il Campo di concentramento di S. Rossore, allora in via di scioglimento.

Al momento del di lui arresto nessuna specifica imputazione venne contestata al MADORI e, pertanto, lo stesso risulta' fermato per misure di pubblica sicurezza.

Il 16 ottobre 1945, la Questura di Pisa, con sua nota N. 04953, Div. Gab. comunico' che il MADORI doveva intendersi passato a disposizione della Compagnia Interna dei Carabinieri di Pisa, la quale, d'ordine del Ministero dell'Interno, doveva provvedere alla di lui traduzione alle Carceri di Torino, per rimanere a disposizione della Questura di questa ultima citta'.

Nel frattempo, il 23 ottobre 1945, la Corte di Assise straordinaria di Pisa, ordinava che il MADORI venisse scarcerato qualora non dovesse essere consegnato ad altre Autorita' ed egli fu trattenuto in carcere in forza degli ordini sopracitati ed a seguito di comunicazione 24/10/1945 della Questura di Pisa, la quale confermava la disposizione di tradurlo a Torino.

Intanto, in data 25/10/1945 la Stazione dei Carabinieri di ⁶² Principale disponeva la scarcerazione del predetto poiche' la traduzione a Torino del MADORI era stata sospesa con foglio N. 3/45 R Reg. del 24 ottobre 1945, del Pubblico Ministero della Corte Straordinaria di Assise di Pisa.

Sempre in data 25 ottobre 1945 la Questura di Pisa con nota

N. 04955 Uff. Politico, mentre confermava la sospensione della traduzione a Torino, dava ordine che il MADORI erastasse in carcere a sua disposizione ed il 13/11/945 con nota pari numero lo poneva a disposizione della Commissione Alleata di Controllo - Sottocommissione per la P. S.

L'8 gennaio del corrente anno, il Pubblico Ministero presso le Corti d'Assise di Torino ordinò che il MADORI venisse tradotto, a sua disposizione a quelle Carceri Giudiziarie. Poiché il detenuto risultava qui ristretto alle dipendenze della Commissione Alleata di Controllo, questa Direzione di premuro di chiedere il nulla osta per eseguire la ordinata traduzione, ma la Commissione predetta, con suo foglio S.D./266 cl. 43 del 2° Gennaio 1946, dispose che il detenuto in questione -risultante a disposizione degli Alleati-non doveva essere trasferito senza successive istruzioni dariceversi da quello Ufficio.

Il MADORI, pertanto, venne qui trattenuto mentre si comunicavano i motivi della mancata traduzione al Pubblico Ministero delle Corti d'Assise Straordinaria di Torino il quale, con successiva comunicazione telegrafica del 14 gennaio 1946 ordinava la di lui scarcerazione da effettuarsi non appena fosse stato concesso tale assentimento da parte della Commissione Alleata.

Dal carteggio a lui relativo, che qui si conserva, non risulta a suo carico alcuna specifica imputazione, né mai è fatto cenno ad alcun reato da lui commesso; egli è rimasto in carcere a disposizione delle varie Autorità anzitutto senza che nei di lui confronti venisse mai fatta precisa accusa.

Al momento attuale la detenzione del MADORI è mantenuta esclusivamente per conto di codesto Comando in quanto che, per parte delle Autorità Giudiziarie Italiane, che già si sono pronunciate per la di lui scarcerazione, nulla permane a di lui carico che giustifichi il perdurare del suo arresto.

Col massimo ossequio.

IL DIRETTORE

(Gennaro PALOMBA).

TRANSLATION

(Summary)

With reference to your AC/4083/23/L of the 12th inst/ herewith the following information in regard to MADORI Gastone.

On 13 June 1945, the Questura of Pisa ordered that MADORI be escorted to this prison to be kept at the disposal of the Political Section of the above mentioned Questura. He had been arrested while a captive at the S. Rossore Concentration Camp at that time in process of being dissolved.

No specific charges were being brought against him upon his arrest and therefore he was held in custody as a measure of public security. On 16 October 1945, the Questura of Pisa informed this office by letter 04953 Div. Gab. that MADORI should be kept at the disposal of the "Compagnia Interna dei Carabinieri di Pisa". Said "Compagnia" was to escort him to Turin Prison and MADORI once there was to be put at the disposal of the "Questura" of that City.

In the meantime, on 23 October 1945, the Extraordinary Court of Assize of Pisa ordered that MADORI be released if not being held for any other lawful cause.

However, in view of the previous orders and a letter from the Questura of Pisa dated 24 October 1945, confirming the transfer of MADORI to Turin, the latter was not released.

On 25 October 1945, the Carabinieri's Head Office Station of Pisa, issued an order for the release of the above mentioned prisoner, inasmuch as his transfer to Turin had been suspended by the "Pubblico Ministero" of the Extraordinary Court of Assize of Pisa by letter No. 3/45 R Reg. of 24 October 1945.

On the same date, 25 October 1945, the Political Office of Questura of Pisa by letter No. 04955 confirmed that the MADORI's transfer to Turin be suspended and that he be held in custody at the disposal of the office. On 13 November 1945 by order of the same office MADORI was put at the disposal of the Allied Commission, Public Safety S/C.

On 8 January 1946, the "Pubblico Ministero" at the Court of Assize of Turin ordered the transfer of MADORI to the Judicial Prisons of that City. However, as the prisoner was being held at the disposal of the AC, this office duly requested an authorization from the latter in order to carry out the proposed transfer, but the aforesaid Commission replied on 29 January 1946 with letter S. D/266 cl. 43 that the Prisoner was in no case to be transferred without their consent.

Due to the above, this office promptly advised the "Pubblico Ministero" of the Extraordinary Court of Assize of Turin on the matter who on 14 January 1946 instructed this office to release the prisoner as soon as the AC had given its approval.

Since that date the above mentioned is being held here at your disposal.

No specific charges pending against him, the prisoner is being held here only in view of an AC order, inasmuch as the Italian Authorities have no objection to his release.

Attention: Director, Public Safety Sub-Commission.

1. The Italian Ministry of the Interior, by letter dated 13 April 1946, requested this office to communicate our decisions re subject prisoner.

2. Madori was acquitted in the pre-trial investigation and ordered released by the Italian Judicial Authorities. Since that time he is being confined solely and completely at the disposition of your Sub-Commission.

3. In order to put an end to this unhappy situation of the prisoner (confined since 13 June 1945 at the disposition of the Allied Authorities) and following the suggestion made by Col. Chapman during his visit here on 25 April 1946, it is respectfully requested to inform this office whether Madori is included in the list of war criminals, or, in any event, which his position is.

La sottoscritta CLARA THURY Madori, moglie del detenuto politico Gastone Madori, si permette far presente quanto segue:

Il 27 Aprile c.a., insieme ad una colonna di militari e civili, partimmo da Torino per consegnarci spontaneamente prigionieri degli Alleati. Ciò per evitare le rappresaglie già in corso contro tutti i fascisti.

Il 5 Maggio, insieme a mio marito, fummo presi in consegna dalle truppe americane ad Ivrea e di lì inviati a Parabiago. Il 10 Maggio mio marito, insieme ad altri civili fu inviato a Piacenza, mentre io insieme ad altre donne e bambini, fui inviata a Torino ove, in una caserma di partigiani, mi furono tolti tutti i denari che possedevo e che rappresentavano il frutto di oltre 10 anni di lavoro di mio marito (circa 200,000 lire). I portarono via i miei pochi gioielli e l'intero guardaroba mio e di mio marito.

Mio marito fu quindi trasferito a Modena e di lì a Coltano.

Il 13 Giugno, mio marito fu fra i primi a presentarsi ai Funzionari della Questura di Pisa, che andavano in questo Campo per chiedere se vi fossero dei civili. Così fu tradotto a le Carceri di Pisa in qualità di "fermato".

Dopo oltre quattro mesi, giunte le informazioni dalle varie Questure al Pubblico Ministero della Corte Straordinaria di Assise di Pisa dott. Sorbi dopo l'interrogatorio lo prosciolsse in istruttoria, emettendo regolare mandato di scarcerazione.

45

Mentre attendevo il ritorno di mio marito sono venuta a sapere che egli si trova a disposizione della Commissione Alleata; Sotto Commissione per la P.B. - Oltre al fatto di trovarmi senza alcuna risorsa economica avendo tutto perduto, e trovandomi in istato interessante "di oltre sei mesi" rende ancora più penosa la mia situazione, mentre l'assenza di miei cari genitori si trovano in Ungheria e quelli di mio marito (morti) non mi consente altro appoggio all'infuori di mio marito.

67765

Certa che egli non può assolutamente essere assibile d'alcun procedimento a suo carico, prega vivamente codesto Comando di voler cortesemente interessarsi presso la suddetta Commissione affinché egli possa essere restituito alla sua famiglia.

Con vivi ringraziamenti e distinti saluti

SUBJECT: Castone MADORI of unknown.

The attached application, forwarded to your Command by Mrs Clara Thury Madori, wife of subject detained at your disposition, is herewith enclosed.

The Prefettura of Pisa, inquired on the matter, answered, with letter dated 27 Feb 46, as follows:

"Ref is made to the letter n. 500/709350 Sez 4 dated 12 Feb 46. We inform your office that on 13 June 45, the Allied Authorities handed over Castone MADORI, interned at Colzano Camp, to the Questura of Pisa. Further he was conveyed to Pisa Prisons for, as his statement, having been Director of ELAR during Republican Fascist period.

Our Ministry informed of this arrest, notified the Questura of Pisa with letter n. 500305608 dated 7 July 45, that being subject included in a list of persons at Allied dispositions, in case of acquittance of every charge by Italian authorities, he had to be kept at the Allied dispositions.

Meanwhile informations were requested to Torino, Milano, Napoli and Rome, in which cities he lived.

The answer was that MADORI was an ardent fascist and an intimate friend of prominent fascist personalities, but not with serious charges.

The Questura of Turin informed that subject was squadrista, marcia su Roma, sciarpa littorio, enrolled to partito fascista repubblicano and attached to Brigata nera "Cappelli". He never took part in "rastrellamenti". With Prefect Grazioli left Turin with a stolen car.

The Corte Straordinaria of Turin, interested on the matter, passed over the proceeding to Public Prosecutor of Corte Straordinaria di Assise of Pisa, who ordered the release of subject. He has kept here, at Allied P.S. disposition.

Madori's wife, Clara Thury, once hungarian citizen, came to live here. She is really in bad financial conditions and nearly on the point of giving birth to a child. She has just left for Florence where she hopes to be helped by some friends of hers living there. She has no relations in Italy.

The attached application, forwarded to your Command by Mrs Clara Thury Madori, wife of subject detained at your disposition, is herewith enclosed.

The Prefettura of Pisa, inquired on the matter, answered, with letter dated 27 Feb 46, as follows :

TRANSLATION S/D.

Pisa 30 March 1946

THE ARCHBISHOP OF PISA

TO ALLIED COMMISSION
PUBLIC SAFETY S/C
R O M E

I was informed that the political prisoner Gastone MADORI (Carceri Giudiziarie di Pisa) has been waiting since several months for the decisions of the Allied Commission.

It seems that he was transferred from the Concentration Camp of Coltano to said Prison. In October, after the Local Questura had taken the necessary information, the Public Prosecutor of the Provisional Assizes Court of Pisa, acquitted Madori ordering him to be sent free. So not only any denunciation was made against Madori, but the a/m Magistrate acquitting him of course acknowledged his innocence also in past time.

Now I am aware that it was not possible to set him free because the local Questura found that the convict in question was also at the disposal of the Allies.

Since then (October 1945) Madori's wife, although shortly expecting child and in very narrow circumstances, took continual and pressing steps with the local representative of the Allied Command and also went personally to Rome. And yet she did not obtain the implored "no objection" for the liberation of her husband although no specific charges were made against him.

I was also informed that the said representative, Lieut. Erik FELDMAN, being asked last January by your Commission, proposed, after having carefully examined the case, to let Madori out of prison.

As the innocence of Madori proves to be so evident in every way, and considering the difficult moral and financial conditions of his wife and baby, please accept with their prayers, my hearty recommendation in order that your Commission may take into consideration the opportunity of taking a favourable decision, shortly sending to the Direction of the Prison of Pisa the "no objection" for the man's liberation.

... Italian original forwarded 6/4/46

The bad news I am receiving from my wife who lives in a serious hardship both moral and economic, made worst by the presence of a newly born child, make me apply, more than to the local representative of the Allied Command as such, to his heart as a man, to call for justice. It is of no use to write down my story, which you well know through what my wife and Doct. Giovanni Sorbi, the representative of the Commission for the sanctions against fascism, and Public Prosecutor of the Extraordinary Court of Assizes, have told you.

You know that, on the part of the Italian Authorities, no charges have been framed against me, so that, in this respect, I could have been a free citizen since now many months. But, as to the fact that I am being held at the disposition of the Allied Authorities, that can only be a misunderstanding. You also know that I patiently and serenely waited for weeks and months that the Allied Commission in Rome decided to release me. But now let me say, in all frankness, that the measure is full. Human endurance has some limits, which cannot be overstepped without provoking the inevitable reactions of the persecuted person. My conscience, clear as those of very few persons, to whichever race they may belong, may be, starts rising up against the unqualifiable procedure I have been treated with so far? By virtue of what law may a man be detained for months and months, without being even given the reason for detention? Certainly not the American Law, well known as being so cautious in penal procedure, nor the Italian Law, which has nothing to do with my particular case, nor the International Law, for which my unimportant person will be of no significance. Nor this state of emergency, a consequence of the armistice terms still in force for Italy, may justify such an action on the part of the representatives of the American people, so democratic and endowed with so noble feelings. So I must admit that only a succession of unfortunate circumstances has determined the unaccountable slowness of the procedure in my case.

Being so convinced, and pressed by a desperate familiar situation, I apply to you, Lt. Feldman, for the purpose of asking strong and quick action by the competent authorities to set me at liberty. In this way, I will be given the chance of saving my family from the ruin.. Last October, when I was in jail since four months, you did not want to urge a quick decision, but now, when other five months have elapsed, I believe your request for a prompt finding in my case, to be a dutiful more than justified. And, unless it is desired that the best Italians be driven by such inhuman treatment towards rebellion and delinquency, I am sure that justice will be done to me within a few days. I therefore trust, Lt. Feldman, that you, a man and a soldier, will be so generous to firmly support a case which God will help by enlightening the hearts of those who are going to examine it.

COPIA

Pisa 20 Dicembre 1945

ALLA QUESTURA DI PISA
Ufficio Politico

La sottoscritta Clara Madori, Tury, moglie di Gastone Madori, attualmente detenuto nelle carceri giudiziarie di Pisa, attualmente a disposizione della Commissione Alleata si permette di far presente quanto segue:

"Mio marito dopo aver passato qualche settimana al Campo Concentramento di Coltano perchè si consegnò "spontaneamente" agli alleati fu passato alla disposizione di codesta Questura. Dopo quattro mesi e mezzo di carcere assolto da qualunque accusa è stato scarcerato dalla Corte Straordinaria di Pisa. La scarcerazione non è avvenuta perchè mi è stato detto che in data 25 ottobre, mio marito fu passato alla disposizione della Commissione Alleata di Controllo, Sottocommissione per la P.S. (Roma).

Trascorsi due mesi, mio marito si trova sempre in carcere, senza essere stato interrogato dagli alleati. Dopo essersi informata presso suddetta Commissione di Roma, ogni ricerca è stata invana, dove risulti che mio marito dipendesse da loro o che dovesse rispondere di qualcosa a loro.

Mi permetto dunque rivolgermi a codesto Ufficio affinché possa intervenire per un disbrigo d'illecito della pratica di mio marito che richiederebbe una certa urgenza dato che mi trovo completamente sola, in stato interessante di oltre 7 mesi e in precarie condizioni economiche.

Con ringraziamenti ed ossequi.
