OGGETTO

Crimini di guerra.

In relazione alla nota n. 266/OI/IIIS.D. del 6 corrente, relativa a quanto in oggetto, si informa:

1°) L'ex sottotenente ausiliario di P.S. Cavallaro Severino venne assunto in servizio presso la Questura di Rovigo durante l'occupazione nazifascista con provvedimento che questo Ministero non ebbe mai a convalidare. Il predetto Cavallaro dopo la liberazione venne eliminato dal servizio. Risulta che a suo carico fu iniziato procedimento penale presso la Corte d'Appello di Venezia per reato di collaborazione col tedesco invasore. Detta Corte peraltro con sentenza in data 8-6-1946 dichiarò non doversi procedere contro medesimo perchè i fatti ascrittiagli non costituivano reato. Nessun rapporto di servizio ha ulteriormente mantenuto il Cavallaro con l'Amministrazione della P.S. Dagli atti in possesso di questo Ministero risulta comunque che egli attualmente risiede a Sant'Apollinare (Rovigo). Data la brevità del termine indicato da ~~questo~~ codesta Commissione, comunque è stata telegraficamente interessata la Questura di Rovigo al fine che rintracci il Cavallaro e faccia conoscere se egli sarà disponibile per essere fatto presentare il 20 p.v. nella località che sarà indicata da codesta Commissione.

2°) Circa i brigadieri di P.S. Griggio Ugo e Ponturo Carmelo sono state telegraficamente interessate le Questure competenti ai fini che facciano, con lo stesso mezzo, conoscere se essi sono disponibili.

3°) Si fa pertanto riserva di ulteriori comunicazioni al riguardo al più presto possibile.

Corbola, 27 November 1946

To: The Allied Force Headquarters - Caserta

I, the undersigned, Elvira Mirella, widow of the late Rattracchini, residing at Corbola (Province of Rovigo), am applying to your Honorable Command in the hope that you will take into benevolent consideration my request:

My son, Vittorio Rattracchini, son of the late Nicola, 45 years old, has been held in the jails of Possidoreale (Naples) for the past two months. He has acted as a witness in a trial against ex-Fascists, which took place in Naples, before the Allied Court, from 26 August till the first days of September. He has been acquitted in the preliminary proceeding, though some people were going to involve him into the trial.

He was arrested on July 17th, 1946 at Padua and transferred to the Concentration-camp in Afragola, where he was held in custody until the opening of the trial. I want to point out that my son has already been tried before the Court of Assizes of Rovigo, on the grounds of having been the Mayor of his home-town, and that he was acquitted for "not having committed the fact".

The Tribunal and the Police Headquarters of Rovigo, after having gathered the most accurate information, stated that my son cannot be charged with any crime. I have sent some persons down to Naples (being of advanced age and sick I can't endure the trip to and from Naples) to supply my son with some linen and assure him of my deep attachment, but they were not allowed to talk with him.

Therefore, I am applying to you in the hope that you will grant me the joy to see my son once again. After six long months of anxiety and painful uneasiness, I hope to see him and to give him my moral and material assistance.

Being affected with sciatica, he needs linen and personal clothing, which cannot be sent by mail, because of the Army prohibitions. I am an 80 years old mother who beseeches you to take into benevolent consideration her own son's position. Being of advanced age and affected with an heart-disease, I need the presence of my son who is the only beloved person left to me.

In consideration of my very sad situation, I have taken the liberty to lay my case before you, in the hope that you will take it into benevolent consideration.

I hope that my situation may find an echo in your heart, in the heart of the person on whom depends my son's fate. If you will accede the request of an old mother, God will bless you and all your family.

S.Vincenzo (Livorno), 10 September 1946

To: The Judge Advocate - G.H.Q. C.M.F. - Caserta

I, the undersigned, Niccolina Bracci, married to Natale Giannellini, held at the 209th Concentration-camp located at Afragola, am applying to your Command in order to obtain the release of my husband, who has been living far away from his family for 18 months.

I want to point out to your Command that my only son was seized by the Germans and that we did not hear from him since. Being ill I am unable to run any longer my shop and therefore I urgently need my husband's presence.

Encouraged by your fine feelings of humanity I am sure that you will grace my husband, who is the only support of my family.

In the hope that you will take into benevolent consideration my application, I thank you wholeheartedly.

s/ Niccolina Bracci

1. Sara TUROLIA is at present on trial in connection with a War Crimes trial, the "Banks Case", has petitioned to be allowed to write to a certain Tullio AGUIARO, to who she is understood to be engaged, and to be visited by him.

2. Potential War Criminals held in British Military custody are allowed to send and receive mail; similarly convicted War Criminals serving sentences in British Military Prisons are permitted, with certain reservations and subject to censorship, to send and receive mail. War Criminals are at no time allowed visitors, other than their defending advocates who must at all times be accompanied by a British officer.

3. Under these conditions GIC has no objection to TUROLIA sending or receiving letters from AGUIARO. However since she is already serving a sentence of imprisonment imposed by an Italian Court, also she is held at British disposition in an Italian civil gaol and since it appears from your prison regulations that the sending and receiving of letters by prisoners is not permitted I am instructed to ask the opinion of your Ministry on this matter. It is not proposed to permit AGUIARO to visit TUROLIA in prison.

TO : Ministry of Interior,
General Direction of Public Safety.

1. Further reference to our letter of even number dated 22 August 1946.

2. The necessary passes have now been forwarded to Legion HQ Carabinieri, NAPLES, to enable the escort to enter 209 PW Camp, ANFRAGOLA for the purpose of taking delivery of the above named and transferring them to POGGIO REALE, NAPLES.

3. These two men are of no further interest to GHR and are no longer required to be held at British disposition.

4. Since, however PAVANNINI is serving a sentence of 30 years imprisonment imposed by an Italian Court and since it is understood that PATRACCHINI is wanted by the Questura of VENICE it is assumed that your Ministry will give the necessary disposal instructions.

TO : Ministry of Interior,
General Direction of Public Safety.

1. Reference our basis communication of even number dated 22 May 1946 and subsequent correspondence regarding this War Crimes trial.

2. Counsel for the defence of two of the prisoners charged have made applications to the President of the British Military Court for certain documents to be made available and the Court has recommended that these requests be granted.

3. This HQ has therefore been instructed to request your Ministry to give all possible assistance to secure these documents, forwarding same through this HQ by fastest possible means, for submission to the Court.

4. The first application has been made by the Counsel appearing for MACCAPANEI Dino and he requests the following:-

- a) a copy of the order for the arrest of MACCAPANEI which took place on 4 July 1945 to be obtained from the Central Questura of MILAN.
- b) a copy of the "denuncia" made by Signor Antonio MANTORANI which caused the arrest.

5. Counsel for Anna Maria CASTANI has asked that the file concerning Eolo ROBERTO, charged with a number of murders, now in the possession of the Special Court of Assize of ROVIGO be made available or failing that information of its contents together with particulars contained in the charge sheet.

6. As mentioned above it will be appreciated if these documents can be obtained and despatched for this HQ by the fastest possible means.
