1. This serves to introduce Mr. Domenico Fucile whom I am leaving in my office as my assistant.
2. He will carry on my work of exchange and purchase of Italian publications for the Library of Congress.
3. During my temporary absence from this headquarters Mr. Fucile will be in charge of my office. He has received instructions and will make daily reports to me.
4. It is also requested that my office, 2 nd. Floor, Room 1 bis, be maintained and that my employees, Miss Tiscioni and Miss Bonatelli continue working for me. I have enough work to keep them all busy during my temporary absence.
5. The Library of Congress has been informed of the set up here in Rome.
6. It will be greatly appreciated if the Education Subcommittee extends any assistance to Mr. Fucile in carrying out the work of this office.

Dear Mr. McBride:

This will serve to introduce Mr. Domenico Fu-cile whom I am leaving in charge of my office to carry on the work of exchange and purchase of publications for the Library of Congress.

Mr. Fucile has been assisting me in the past eight months and knows exactly what is to be done.

It would be greatly appreciated if your office will assist Mr. Fucile during my temporary absence.

Sincerely yours

To : Major Washburn, Ed. s/c.

1. In accordance with our conversation I have requested the transfer of my two Italian civilian clerical assistants.

2. Attached please find a copy of the request.

3. Miss Tiscione and Miss Bonatelli, the clerical assistants, are intelligent, efficient, and willing to work; it is, therefore, respectfully requested that both of them be permitted to continue their present work in my office.

To : Information Division

1. I have been informed that the Representative of the Library of Congress is to be detached from the Information Division, A.C.C. HQ and attached to the Education Subcommittee, A.C.C. HQ.

2. May I respectfully request that all my Italian civilian personnel with one exception be transferred accordingly.

3. The exception mentioned above is Miss Maria Teria. The reason for the exception is that the work which Miss Teria was doing, that of preparing the exchange service schedule, has been completed. I have no further need for Miss Teria's services. The work that remains can be done by my other two clerical assistants Missa Tiscione and Missa Benatelli.

4. The Italian Civilians on A.C.C. payroll who are to be transferred are:

- 1) Miss Gianna Tiscione, clerical assistant
 - 2) Miss Laura Benatelli, clerical assistant
- each one receives the pay at 135 Lira per day.

5. It would be greatly appreciated if you inform A.C.C. HQ Personnel Division.
