I do not think this officer has sufficient training experience to be responsible for policy without direction from HQ. While therefore the Ed. SC is abolished, the question may arise as to the continuation of work in this area.

ALLIED [REDACTED] COMMISSION
INTER-OFFICE MEMORANDUM

SUBJECT: Capt. Scott - Admin, Bologna

FILE No.

TO : D. C. White, (SO)

4 Oct

1945

I agree as to Scott's inexperience. But if he is given direction up to the close of the Ed 2/C, he should, from his familiarity with the local situation be able to continue the execution of policy already established. Certainly he is better than no one - & there is no other officer with whom he can be replaced. A man is needed there. No other officer is available. And Scott will do an intelligent piece of work.
