SUBJECT : Ministerial Directive.

TO : Regional Commissioner
Naples Zone
(Att: Education Officer).

1. Herewith enclosed please find copies of Ministerial Directive abolishing, for 1944-45, the divisions in "bienni" and "trienni" for University courses.

2. This will greatly facilitate students who have been unable to take all their examinations during the first two years of their University studies.

3. It is recommended that such provision be also applied in A.M.G. Territory and the directive transmitted to the University in your Region.

16 December 1944

SUBJECT : Enrolment of University students.

TO : Regional Commissioner,
Naples Zone
(Att: Education Officer).

1. The Ministry of Public Instruction in view of the fact that many students have been unable, in the last two years, either because under military service, or owing to racial laws, to take advantage of all examination sessions, is instructing the Rectors of his Universities to grant the benefit of a year enrolment to all such cases.

2. The students will have to secure a certificate from the head of the Secondary School in which they studied stating their position.

3. It is recommended that this directive be applied to AMG Territory and copies of it transmitted to the Universities in your Region.

CHARLOTTE W. VANDERBILT
Major, AUS
A/Director of Education.
