Cher Sir

As you kindly gave me your address at our meeting at Sèvres last September, I take this opportunity of reminding you how very glad our Association would be if you could find it possible to attend our annual meeting next December 24th, at the Institut des Langues Modernes, (of the Sorbonne), 5 rue de l'Ecole de Médecine. There will be a very informal lunch in a lycée near by between the two sittings - and if you could give us a short address, for instance on the subject of modern languages in progressive education, we should greatly appreciate it.

Would you be so kind as to let me know (if possible at my personal address) whether you think you may come, and whether you know of ~~any~~ possible accommodation.
For if you have none in mind, we shall have to try and find something,
and you may guess it will take us
some time, as Paris is just now overcrowded.

Our Committee hopes to see and hear you in a month, and sends
you their most hearty greetings,

Marg. L. Rochez
(vice-president)

P.S. As soon as I hear from you, I shall have a copy of our bulletin, "La Langue Moderne" sent to you - Just now, I do not know exactly whether you are still in Europe.

SUBJECT : Transmittal of Educational Books.TO : Military Attache', American Embassy, Paris.

1. I was recently in Paris on invitation of the French Minister of National Education to advise on the contemplated reform of French education.

2. During the course of my visit the educational books sent herewith were requested.

3. The publishers having found it impracticable at present to send these by civilian mail, I have requested that they be sent to you through military or diplomatic channels.

4. Will you be so kind as to telephoner Mr. Grandjouan of the French Ministry of National Education, Odeon 6871, and ask him to call for his copy, and Prof. Roger Cousinet of the Sorbonne (residence 29 Bd. de Menilmontani, Paris XIs - I don't know his telephone number) to call for his?

5. Thank you very much.

CARLETON W. WASHBURNE
Lt. Col. A.U.S.
