Private palaces

N.B. The number of palaces and important old houses (Ca, Venetian dialect for casa) is amazing; only relatively few can be listed. Besides the incomparable series on the Canal Grande, important examples are still preserved along the smaller canals, narrow streets (calle) and in the few squares (campi). Predominant are the Gothic, Renaissance, and Baroque styles. Some famous palaces, long in possession of the same family, are called by its name; others have changed both owners and names; some are used today be public institutions, banks, hotels, etc.

On the Grand Canal:

*Palazzo Balbi

Palazzo Barbarigo (della Terrazza)

Palazzo Barbaro (three palaces, one with frescoed facade)

Palazzo Battaglia

*Palazzo Bembo (birthplace of Pietro Bembo, the humanist)

*Palazzo Bernardo

3RD CENTURY B.C. - 4TH CENTURY A.D.

Period of Roman domination, established 3rd-2nd century B.C. in Emilia and Western Venice; 2nd-1st century B.C. in Lombardy, Piedmont and rest of Venice. In 4th century, rapid spread of Christianity.

5TH - 8TH CENTURY A.D.

Barbarian invasions, beginning with Visigoths.

5th - 6th

5th - 6th centuries - Ostrogothic Kingdom extending over whole area.

6th century - reassertion of Byzantine (Imperial) supremacy in Eastern part, except over Piedmont, with Ravenna as center.

6th - 8th century - Lombardic Kingdom, capital Pavia.

8TH - 13TH CENTURY

Part of Frankish Empire, whose power declines. Larger part of Venice remains under Eastern Empire.

9th - 12th century - Rise of Venice as city state and sea power

11th - 15th - struggle between Guelphs and Ghibellines in Lombardy and Emilia

11th century - dynasty of Savoy founded in Piedmont

12th - 13th century - Rise of Genoa, and defeat of Venice

13th century - Milan head of a Lombard Federation

14TH - 16TH CENTURY

Emergence of great families; House of Savoy in Piedmont; Visconti and Sforza in Milan; Visconti in Parma; Este in Ferrara and Modena.

Consolidation and extension of powers of Venetian Republic.

16TH - 18TH CENTURY

Extension of French power over Piedmont and Liguria.

Spanish and Austrian control over Lombardy.

Struggle between France and Austria.

Extension of Papal power over Emilia.

Growth of Piedmont under House of Savoy and incorporation in Kingdom of Sardinia.

1797 - 1814

Cisalpine Republic of Lombardy and Emilia, under French control;
Napoleonic Kingdom of Italy.

1814 - 1870

Re-establishment of Austrian power.

Struggle for independence, and the Risorgimento.

Creation of Kingdom of Italy under House of Savoy.
