19 June 1945

Subject: Temporary Allocation of W Vehicle.

To : Establishment Section, H. Allied Commission.

1. With the dissolution of TUSCANA Region, Lt. Hartt the NFAA Officer of that Region, has been left in FIO office for a period of approximately 1 month in connection with the imminent return to TUSCANA of the looted works of art recovered in the north.

2. Since August of last year Lt. Hartt has had continuously allocated to him by TUSCANA Region the following vehicle, W Truck (Van No. 2001487. It is vital for this, the most important and responsible operation undertaken by NFAA Officers since the start of the Italian campaign, that Lt. Hartt retain this transport for the period specified in order that he may make the necessary conveyance arrangements and supervise the actual movement.

3. Urgently requested that this vehicle (or, if withdrawn, its equivalent) be made available to the NFAA Subcommission for the use of Lt. Hartt until the move in question is complete.

20220/37AA

Subject: Turn-in of V.D. Vehicle No. 20325870

To : Establishment Section, Hq. Allied Commission

1. Ref. your 400.37 of 5 June, subject as above (copy to this S/O). Captain Croft-Murray was recently transferred at short notice to Military Government Staff, USMA. Pending instructions his vehicle was left on temporary signature with Major R.L. Ball, Archives Officer of this S/O.

2. The Director of this S/O is at present at AMG 5 Army and on his instructions the vehicle has been allotted to Capt. William D. McCain (A), Archives Officer, ICSB-AMG Region, for work in this and other regions of 5 Army Area. Capt. McCain's signature on the transfer is awaited daily.

3. For your information, Capt. McCain, who has been assigned to ICSB-AMG Region for administrative reasons, has by agreement with the Regional Commissioners concerned charge of the modern Administrative Archives of the Italian Government throughout 5 Army Area. This important work is impossible without adequate transport.

4. If in view of these facts your instruction still stands, it would be appreciated if you would indicate what alternative transport is being allocated.

SUBJECT: Hand-over of Vehicle.
TO : Director, MFAA Subcommittee, Hq, Allied Commission.

1. Receipt is acknowledged of Allied Commission letter reference 20200/MFAA (second copy), dated 6 Jun 45, delivered to undersigned at 1325 hrs. today. First copy of above-mentioned letter is not yet to hand.
2. Arrangements have been made for truck 1/4 ton, 4 x 4, C and H, U.S.A. 20325870, to be handed over to Capt. McCain, Archives Officer, Lombardia Region, tomorrow, 10th June 1945.
3. In the absence of instructions to the contrary, it is assumed that the driver Cpl. Major Michele Cianciotta is to accompany the vehicle referred to. He is therefore being shown on Orders of this Headquarters as moving to Lombardia Region on a permanent change of station.
4. Undersigned is unable to accompany truck and driver to Milan tomorrow, but in view of the exceptional urgency of this matter, Pfc. Blecker has been detailed to proceed to Milan on temporary duty with truck and driver.
5. Pfc. Blecker will report to Capt. McCain on arrival. He will hand to him for signature a form of receipt in duplicate, with the request that one copy be despatched immediately by air-mail to Director, MFAA Subcommittee, Hq, Allied Commission. The second copy will be delivered by Pfc. Blecker to undersigned.
