Dear

I have passed your enclosure to Prof. Becatti, Oliviero was not pleased at our query about the books and I think I must leave it for Ward Perkins to sort out on his return here.

Ward Perkins' address is Mill House, Thaxted Essex; but he expects to be back here soon after the end of this month.

A very happy New Year to you . I hope all goes well

Yours ever,

HEB.

Dear Bill,

A hasty scrawl to ask you whether you would be very kind and send in the enclosed to Prof Becatti?
It contains three archaeological photos in which he has asked.

Do you know how I can write to John Ward Perkins?
One of the incidental disadvantages of that hasty farewell was that I couldn't inquire of him his address and movements as I had meant to do.

Lastly, but by no means leastly, a very happy
Christmas and 1946 to you.

Yours ever

Daisy Keynes.

Mr. Bonajuto

Perhaps you can ask Oliverio. His address is in the file, I think.

My Dear Ben,

Many thanks for your letter 20904/3/T/MFAA of 10 Nov and the list of books from Cyrene held by Oliverio.
I will find out if there is any immediate need for them, but I think not. Meanwhile could Oliverio be asked to let us know when he has done with them?

I, too, was disappointed not to see you again before leaving Rome, but it is a pleasure to look forward to when I get home in the Summer. LIAP for which I was already eligible on Italian soil, is not granted to provincials in the M.E. until a three years' sentence has been served,

Yours ever

Dwight Haynes.

FROM: Major H. E. BELL, AEC, Archives Officer.

Dear

I am very sorry to have missed you on your last day here. May I send my belated, but best, wishes for a pleasant time in N. Africa. Enclosed you will find some papers left here for you by Ward Perkins (who by now, I suppose, is amongst his family and household gods.) The story about the longish list of books seems to be that they are the property of CYRENE MUSEUM, and have been on official loan to Prof. OLIVERIO since 1938 to enable him to complete his work of publishing the inscriptions of Cyrene. They are available for transport to Cyrene if required, but Ward Perkins promised to ask if Oliverio might continue to have their use for a little longer if humanly possible to complete his work.

You will guess that I am copying most of this impressive data from a note left by W.P. But I might add an interpretation of my own that the 'if humanly possible' refers to the retention of the books, and not to the completion of the work!

You'll be glad to hear that Stevenson seems well settled in. He doesn't go on LIAP for at least three weeks, so we are looking forward to real continuity across the road!

These books are property of Cyrene Museum, which were an official loan <sup>since 1936</sup> to Professor Thieris to enable him to complete his work of publishing the inscriptions of Cyrene.

They are available for transport to would ask if Thieris might continue to have their use for a bit if humanely possible to complete his work. Bianchi-B.

Caro Prof. Oliverio:

La Soprintendenza alle Antichità della Tripolitania ci comunica che Ella ha in deposito un certo numero di libri appartenenti a quella Soprintendenza, da Lei presi in prestito prima della guerra o all'inizio di essa e che Ella, a causa delle vicende belliche, non ha ancora potuto restituire.

Poiché il nostro ufficio ha la possibilità di comunicare facilmente con la Tripolitania, saremo ben lieti di poter servire da tramite per la spedizione di detti libri. Le saremo perciò grati se Ella vorrà farci avere i libri oppure mandarcene l'elenco, facendoci sapere dove e quando potremo venire a ritirarli.

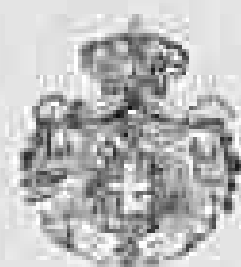

Ringraziando anticipatamente inviamo i più distinti ossequi.

1. It is believed that when Prof. Gaspare GILBERTO gave up his post as Superintendent of Antiquities in Cyrenaica in 1937 and became head of the Faculty of Letters at the University of Rome, he took with him, from the official library at Cyrene, all the books and publications dealing specifically with the archaeology of Cyrenaica.

2. These publications are very necessary for the present work now being done and to complete the library. The library is now at Leptis Magna, where it was evacuated by the Italians in 1941.

3. It would be much appreciated if you could trace any of these volumes, which will be marked with the stamp of the " Soprintendenza, Monumenti e Beni, Cirene", and have them returned to this administration.

4. Missing from the Archaeological Library of Tripolitania are the following volumes of "ARCHAICA ITALICA", Rivista di Storia e d'Arte a Cura del Ministero delle Colonie:

| Africa Italiana Vol. | No. 2 | 1929 |
|----------------------|-------|------|
| "                    | No. 6 | 1935 |

| "                    | No. 9 | "    |

and any volumes subsequent to No. 9

5. Could you please try and obtain these missing copies for us and if possible a complete set for the Cyrenaica library, from which they are missing. The official in charge of this publication was Comm. ROBERTO MICAGGI.
