MEMORANDUM TO BRIGADIER CARR
-----SUBJECT: Archives in Sardinia

1. The Royal Archives of the State located at 81 Via Sidney Somnino, Cagliari, was mostly destroyed during the Allied bombing of February 1943. A portion of the records have been saved and are now at said address. The Director, Dr. Francesco Loddo-Canepa, now resides at Dolianova, Province of Cagliari.
2. There are Communal Archives in Cagliari, Sassari, Nuoro, Oristano and Iglesias. All are in good condition excepting the one in Cagliari which was located in the Palazzo Municipale. This building was practically destroyed by bombing in February 1943.

Some volumes and records, particularly historical ones, have been salvaged. Of these part are now located at the Palazzino delle Belle Arte, Giardino Pubblico Cagliari, under the supervision of Signorina Maria Rosaria Cosseddu. The other part are located in an undamaged section of the Palazzo Municipale, Cagliari, under the supervision of Effisio Mannai.

Dr. Aldo Perisi, former Director of the Archivio Storico Comunale of Cagliari, has been dead for more than one year. No-one has been appointed in his place.

3. Archivi Arcivescovili are located at Cagliari, Sassari, Nuoro, Oristano, Iglesias, Alghero, Lanusei, Boso, Ozieri, Tempio and Alis. All are in good condition and under the supervision of the Bishop of each Diocese.

4. In the Cathedral of Cagliari there is also located the Archivio del Capitolo Metropolitano.

Cagliari also has an Archivio at the University and an Archivio Notarile located on Via Sicilia.
