SUBJECT: Dino Gentili

TO : Vice President, Economic Section

1. The above named Dino Gentili has been the subject of previous correspondence (copy attached) and recently has had no contact with this Sub-Commission. He has however been seen in and about this building frequently and it is thought that his business cannot always have been of a nature in which this Sub-Commission has no interest.

2. Gentili is regarded as an untrustworthy person and so long as this Sub-Commission continues to be responsible for Labour Relations in Italy it is urged that all contacts with him be routed through us. Divided control in such matters can only weaken the organization.

3. It is known, for example, that he wants to go to Florence, a goal he can reach only through A.C.C. In no circumstances should he be permitted to travel on an A.C.C. "ticket", an appearance of official blessing and status which he has already exploited.

To : Col. A.S. Young, Director, Security Branch.

1. Ref Labour Sub Commission letter LAB 091.4111 dated 15 June 1944.

2. GENTILI is an Italian Jew living at VIA CALABRITTO 7, Naples. He has lived in America and England. A brother is connected with a publishing business in London.

3. No confirmation can be obtained here that he left the United States at request of F.B.I.

4. GENTILI on first arrival in Italy used the name of GASPARELLI. His family remained in Northern Italy and during the latter part of 1943 he learned of their escape to Switzerland. As the result of this he resumed his own name.

5. GENTILI arrived in Italy at the time of the Allied landings as a contact with underground organizations for British and American authorities. He was employed by P.M.B. (Intelligence Section) where he was regarded as being very useful owing to his contacts with labour, very persuasive, stubborn, honest and a man with very enemies. Owing to his gradually growing activities in the labour movement his employment with P.M.B. was terminated and he personally expressed the opinion that he could do more for Italy in organizing labour than continuing his work with P.M.B.

6. From the information I have been able to obtain it seems that he came to Italy under Allied auspices but it is thought that MAJOR HANLEY of P.M.B. now in Rome can give more information on this point.

7. His stay in Italy is permitted as an Italian national.

8. The source of his backing cannot be established, however, it is not in any way substantial as he has recently been endeavouring to obtain consent to visit the United States or England with a view to raising funds through the labour organizations of these two countries. It is not anticipated that these facilities will be forthcoming.

9. Records at Public Safety, Naples, have been thoroughly searched and an application or issue of a pass to enable him to visit Italy in May last cannot be traced.

10. After leaving P.M.B. he became the organizer and driving force

9. Records at Public Safety, Naples, have been thoroughly searched and an application or issue of a pass to enable him to visit Italy in May last cannot be traced.

10. After leaving P.S.I. he became the organizer and driving force behind the General Federation of Labour (Confederazione Generale del Lavoro) of which Enrico Berlinguer is the head. This organization represents the Action Party, Communist and Socialist elements of labour. It has the largest membership of any labour party in Naples. The Federation, has official approval to publish a weekly paper "LAVORO E DIRITTI", which has a circulation of 12,000 to 15,000 copies. The organizers of this movement claim that it is non-political but in fact it represents all those political factions outside of the Christian Democratic Party which is interested in the Union of Italian Workers (Unione dei Lavoratori). GENTILI is still the power behind the General Federation of Labour.

11. Up to the present he must be considered as representing organized labour but I understand he is greatly concerned at not being invited to become a member of the recently formed Rome Labour Confederation.

Unconfirmed rumour has it that he is now in Rome. An application has not, however, been made to this office for permission to visit Rome, neither has a pass been issued.

12. Regarding the report of dissemination amongst members of GENTILI's organization, at the moment it is considered that this refers to a very small minority and the membership is cited as a factor substantiating this. It is possible that the Rome Confederation may now considerably alter the status of GENTILI, all sources report that it is too early to form any concrete ideas on this.

13. It is thought in some circles that GENTILI has done some good work on behalf of the labour movement and his persistence in pressing his demands and asking for quick action appeals to quite a number.

SUBJECT: Dino Gentili
TO : Chief Commissioner (Thru: Economic Section)

1. The Labor Sub-Commission wishes to protest vigorously against the procedure which has made it possible for a recent visit made by Dino Gentili to Sicily.
2. Mr. Gentili came to our office early last month seeking clearance and assent for a proposed visit to Sicily. He was informed that authority for such a trip was not within our province but that if it were, we were definitely and determinately opposed to such a trip. Subsequently, it appears that he did secure permission, and according to a recent report from our Labor Officer in Sicily, did visit and conduct activities in Palermo.
3. Our protest is based on a series of actions undertaken by Mr. Gentili ever since his arrival in Naples in connection with his labor activities. He has constantly taken a leading hand in initiating labor unrest, in misrepresenting both the condition of the workers and the views and statements of the A.C.C. He has constantly and most adroitly maneuvered A.C.C. and the Labor Sub-Commission into an unfavorable light with the workers, has played one official against the other in ACC/ABS, has exerted undue pressure to force certain issues, and has utilized the Confederation of Labor Paper "Battaglia Sindacali" to present half-truths regarding the entire labor situation.
4. It is understood that Mr. Gentili was at one time away from the United States at the request of the F.B.I.; it is also reported that he has operated in Italy under the alias of Gasparini. We are further informed that the membership of his own Confederation of Labor have become resentive of his methods and of his obvious attempts to utilize the Labor Movement as a stepping-stone to his own political ambitions.
5. The knowledge which the Labor Sub-Commission has of Mr. Gentili is certainly not complete. This Sub-Commission wants to know who he really is. Why did he leave England? Under what authority did he come to Italy? What was his mission in Italy? Why is he permitted to stay? Who is
