Reference your O-1 B/16120/94/0 dated 17th December, 1944.

1. Captain DRUMMOND is only available for release on arrival of a suitable replacement. There is a particular shortage of qualified coastal officers here owing to the admission to hospital of Captain LADLOCK who is being evacuated to the U.S.

2. Captain DRUMMOND is prepared to serve with the Allied Commission in AUSTRIA but is not prepared to volunteer for service after he is due for release in the ordinary way under his own Group category. Possibly this will mean that his services will not be required under these conditions.

#93

I thank your Sub-Commission for their communication of your circular issued to the regional Commissioners.

I appreciated very much the persuasive clearness of the instructions issued in order to connect the peripheral Offices, Allied and Italian, for an effective collaboration, according to the usual character of the relations between your Sub-Commission and our Under-Secretary's Office.

I will issue in due course similar instructions to all the dependent or controlled "Enti".

OGGETTO: Circolare ai Commissari Regionali

Ringrazio codesta Sottocommissione per la cortese comunicazione della circolare emanata ai Sigg. Commissari Regionali.

Ho vivamente apprezzato la chiarezza persuasiva delle istruzioni per avviare i rapporti fra gli organi periferici Alleati e Italiani sulle stesse linee di fattiva collaborazione che hanno sempre caratterizzato quelle tra codesta Sottocommissione e questo Sottosegretariato.

Mi riservo di comunicare a giorni analoghe istruzioni a tutti gli Enti dipendenti o controfatti.
