MINUTES OF

ACTING PRESIDENT'S CONFERENCE

held on 8-9 March 1945.

The Executive Commissioner presided.

PART I

ACTION

1. Acting President's Opening Address.

The Right Hon. Mr. Harold Macmillan opened the meeting by welcoming all those present and expressed his regret at the absence of the Chief Commissioner owing to illness.

He said that the New Deal for Italy was not a new policy but merely a development of the policy which had been followed since the moment the Armistice was signed. Briefly this policy was to foster the development of Italian responsibility until the Italian Government was able fully to take over the government of the country itself. Recent developments were merely a logical conclusion to the policy adopted and followed since those early days.

Mr. Macmillan said that it was clear to him that there could be no possible distinction between the work of MI and MO. There were differences in their functions but their work must be treated as a whole in order to make for effective planning and in order to obtain continuity from the first impact of MI until the final taking over of the territory by the Italian Government. The functions of MI were three-fold. Firstly, to take from the military the burden of civil administration; secondly, to assist so far as possible in the rehabilitation of the country and the suffering of the civilian population; and thirdly, to prepare the ground for the transfer of that territory to the Italian Government and the teaching of the Italians to take over this work themselves. These were very heavy tasks and he had every sympathy with those in the Regions who had to undertake them.

The Acting President then expressed his appreciation to those who had been working for the past months in Italian Government Territory. Theirs had been a difficult and delicate task, herding over the government to the Italians and at the same time well knowing that they could do the job much better themselves.

He then referred to those officers who had had the rather tiresome task of waiting to go into the Northern Regions. They had been engaged either in planning or on attachment to Regions already in operation. This delay in going forward was regrettable but was entirely due to operations.

Mr. Macmillan went on to say that it was fashionable to believe that there was going to be a great deal of political trouble and even revolution in the North. However, he was of the opinion that there should find a great deal of invigorating and beneficial life of Italian life in that territory and that the people would be more active and more than any we had yet come across in Italy.

ACTION

1. Acting President's Opening Address.

The Right Hon. Mr. Harold Macmillan opened the meeting by welcoming all those present and expressed his regret at the absence of the Chief Commissioner owing to illness.

He said that the New Deal for Italy was not a new policy but merely a development of the policy which had been followed since the moment the Armistice was signed. Briefly this policy was to foster the development of Italian responsibility until the Italian Government was able fully to take over the government of the country itself. Recent developments were merely a logical conclusion to the policy adopted and followed since those early days.

Mr. Macmillan said that it was clear to him that there could be no possible distinction between the work of MIG and AG. There were differences in their functions but their work must be treated as a whole in order to make for effective planning and in order to obtain continuity from the first impact of MIG until the final taking over of the territory by the Italian Government. The functions of MIG were three-fold. Firstly, to take from the military the burden of civil administration; secondly, to assist so far as possible in the rehabilitation of the country and the suffering of the civilian population; and thirdly, to prepare the ground for the transfer of that territory to the Italian Government and the teaching of the Italians to take over this work themselves. These were very heavy tasks and he had every sympathy with those in the Regions who had to undertake them.

The Acting President then expressed his appreciation to those who had been working for the past months in Italian Government Territory. Theirs had been a difficult and delicate task, handing over the government to the Italians and at the same time well knowing that they could do the job much better themselves.

He then referred to those officers who had had the rather tiresome task of waiting to go into the Northern Regions. They had been engaged either in planning or on attachment to Regions already in operation. This delay in going forward was regrettable but was entirely due to operations.

Mr. Macmillan went on to say that it was fashionable to believe that there was going to be a great deal of political trouble and even revolution in the North. However, he was of the opinion that there should find a great deal of invigorating and beneficial life of Italian life in that territory and that the people would be more active and powerful than any we had yet come across in Italy.

He stressed the importance of the great need for coordination between Regions, between Regions and HQ, and between Sections and Sub-Commissions. He was confident that the questions we had been studying would be successfully overcome and we could have confidence in the knowledge that we have so many officers going into the Northern Regions with experience in dealing with similar problems. Moreover, it was more than likely that the conditions of a slow retreat would not necessarily come about and that the destruction of the Italian production potential would not be so serious as hitherto. He said that he thought that we should find better conditions than was at one time thought possible.

2. Withdrawal of officers from Italian Government Territory.

Brigadier M.S. Lush, Executive Commissioner, said that the Chief Commissioner had asked him to express his sincere regrets at being unable to attend the meeting and to extend to those present his gratitude for the abundant help and assistance given to him during the nine months he had been the Chief Commissioner. He also wished to extend a welcome to those who were present at a Regional Commissioners' Conference for the first time.

The Executive Commissioner then turned to the problem of the withdrawal of AC officers from Italian Government territory which was in implementation of the directive recently received from the Combined Chiefs of Staff. He said that there were two points which the Chief Commissioner wished to emphasize. One was that if we were to carry out the policy of the directive, it should be implemented to the maximum, and particularly the withdrawal of officers. Orders had therefore been issued that, subject to the approval of AFHQ, the withdrawal of officers would be carried out by 1 April to the maximum possible number. Unfortunately a cable had just been received from AFHQ saying that no withdrawal was to take place until the Staff Sections at AFHQ had considered the effect of the withdrawal on the military services.

The Executive Commissioner then went on to refer to a directive on the subject issued that day by HQ A.C. The Chief Commissioner wished it to be stressed that the total withdrawal of officers from Italian Government territory was a policy which he intended to fulfill so far as AFHQ would allow.

Executive Commissioner next referred to that part of the directive which related to the consultation by AC officers with Italian authorities. He said that such consultation would be restricted to discussions at a high level and Heads of Sections and Sub-Commissions should strictly adhere to this policy. Contact with the Italian Government should be preserved but only at the highest level.

Referring to the question of the distribution of AC officers, the Executive Commissioner said that he would only deal with this matter briefly as VP Establishment Section would go into it in detail later. He said that the distribution of officers had been studied at great length, that emphasis had been given to the number required for Northern Regions not yet occupied, second priority being given to the Regions now under AF. It was necessary also to find over 200 officers for AUSTRIA.

He stated that the policy for the North would be for a close follow-up of the Army spearheads by Provincial teams. It had been accepted by everyone concerned that the principle of a close and rapid follow-up of the Army AFs by provincial teams was the most efficient form of effecting the initial act of military government. A great deal of planning had been done for NW and NE Italy and, as had already been tude for the abundant help and assistance. He also wished to months he had been the Chief Commissioner. He also wished to a welcome to those who were present at a Regional Commissioners Conference for the first time.

The Executive Commissioner then turned to the problem of the withdrawal of AC officers from Italian Government territory which was in implementation of the directive recently received from the Combined Chiefs of Staff. He said that there were two points which the Chief Commissioner wished to emphasize. One was that if we were to carry out the policy of the directive, it should be implemented to the maximum, and particularly the withdrawal of officers. Orders had therefore been issued that, subject to the approval of AFHQ, the maximum possible number of officers would be carried out by 1 April to the maximum possible number. Unfortunately a cable had just been received from AFHQ saying that no withdrawal was to take place until the Staff Sections at AFHQ had considered the effect of the withdrawal on the military services.

The Executive Commissioner then went on to refer to a directive on the subject issued that day by HQ U.C. The Chief Commissioner wished it to be stressed that the total withdrawal of officers from Italian Government territory was a policy which he intended to fulfill so far as HQ would allow.

Executive Commissioner next referred to that part of the directive which related to the consultation by IC officers with Italian authorities. He said that such consultation would be restricted to discussions at a high level and Heads of Sections and Sub-Commissions should strictly adhere to this policy. Contact with the Italian Government should be preserved but only at the highest level.

Referring to the question of the distribution of AO officers, the Executive Commissioner said that he would only deal with this matter briefly as VP Establishment Section would go into it in detail. He said that the distribution of officers had been studied at great length, that emphasis had been given to the number required for Northern Regions not yet occupied, second priority being given to the Regions now under ATF. It was necessary also to find over 200 officers for AUSTRALIA.

He stated that the policy for the North would be for a close follow-up of the Army spearheads by Provincial teams. It had been accepted by everyone concerned that the principle of a close and rapid follow-up of the Army AFs by provincial teams was the most efficient form of effecting the initial act of military government. A great deal of planning had been done for NW and NE Italy and, as had already been pointed out by the Acting President, it was probable that we should find circumstances very different from those we had envisaged, which brought out the necessity for elasticity in our planning.

He said that a forward static HQ of Allied Commission was not contemplated. He stressed the importance of coordination between Northern Regions themselves and between the Regions and HQ A.C. who must be kept fully informed. All Sub-Commission officers going to Regions would come under Regional control and Heads of Sub-Commissions should remember this when sending officers forward.

Finally, the Executive Commissioner said that the policy of AFHQ in NW Italy where the military problem might not be so important, was to give priority to the civil needs. In NW Italy, if military operations had to be undertaken, the civil requirements would of necessity have to take second priority.

3. Statement on Political Situation.

Mr. H. Hopkinson said that the British Prime Minister in his speech of 18 January 1945 foreshadowed an unhappy state of affairs when - probably at a time when the Northern Regions would be stripped bare of food by the retreating Germans - these elements would be thrown upon the "fragile structure of the Italian Government in Rome with consequences which could not be accurately foreseen and certainly not measured".

The experience of COMCEC showed that the existence of organized groups of politically conscious patriots was a factor with which to reckon seriously. He suggested that during the last year forces had been coordinated in the North of Italy which after liberation would present a problem different from any which the Allied Commission had handled in the past in connection with patriots.

Intelligence reports from the North show that the various Committees of National Liberation and the military commands operating under the orders of the Committees had learnt a good deal about the art of government in the year-long struggle against the Fascist and the Germans. In many districts "shadow" Governments had been set up and the various portfolios had been distributed amongst the leaders of the different parties. In most cases the Committees represent the six parties which, up till last December, were represented in the Government in Rome. In some of the Committees however the action party was not represented and in others the Republican party formed part of the Committee. On the whole it seemed that for the time being there was a remarkable degree of unity of purpose in the Committees and party differences had been sunk in the common desire to chase the Germans from Italy and punish their Fascist collaborators. These Committees were assisted in their operations by the Allied authorities and the giving of such assistance had necessarily implied recognition of the value of those operations. Arrangements had been made between the Supreme Allied Commander and the CLNAI defining the extent to which the Allied military authorities were prepared to recognise the Committees.

Under these arrangements when the enemy withdrew from territory occupied by them the CLNAI would endeavour to maintain law and order and to continue the safeguarding of the economic resources of the country until such time as Allied Military Government was established. Immediately upon the establishment of Allied Military Government and would hand over CLNAI would recognise Allied Military Government and would hand over to that Government all authority and powers of local government and administration previously assumed. As the enemy withdrew all components of the General Command of the Volunteers of Liberty in liberated territory would come under the direct command of the Supreme Allied Commander Army Group, acting under the authority of the Supreme Allied Commander and would obey any order issued by him or by Allied Military Government issued on his behalf, including orders to disarm and surrender their arms when required to do so.

speech or to do so at a time when the Northern Regions would be when - probably at a time when the retreating Germans - these elements would be bare of food by the retreating Germans - these elements would be thrown upon the "fragile structure of the Italian Government in Rome with consequences which could not be accurately foreseen and certainly not measured".

The experience of CEECH showed that the existence of organized groups of politically conscious patriots was a factor with which to reckon seriously. Immediately upon the establishment of Allied Military Government, the CLNAI would recognize Allied Military Government and would hand over to that Government all authority and powers of local Government and administration previously assumed. As the enemy withdrew all components of the General Command of the Volunteers of Liberty in liberated territory would come under the direct command of the Supreme Allied Commander Army Group, acting under the authority of the Supreme Allied Commander and would obey any order issued by him or by Allied Military Government issued on his behalf, including orders to disarm and surrender their arms when required to do so.

The attitude of the Allied military authorities was ~~quite~~ ^{more} made quite clear. But there were other considerations which should be borne in mind when we came to implement the policy indicated in the above arrangements. It was in the interest of the Allies that there should be stable Government in Italy and it was our policy to strengthen the legitimate Italian Government in every way possible and to prevent developments which would result in political disturbances throughout the country. The Italian Government in Rome, which it was our policy to support, must not have the entire confidence of the Committees of Liberation in the North, or at any rate their influence there was subject to fluctuation. To begin with, the traditional scorn of the North Italian for the Southerner. There was the feeling that the population in the North had contributed more generously to the defeat of the Germans than the South had been able to do and had suffered far more heavily at their hands. There was criticism of the slow progress made by the Bonomi Government in the reconstruction of the country, in the solution of the pressing economic problems of food supply and inflation and above all in the punishment of former Fascists. The Italian Government was well aware of this antipathy and in an agreement signed at the time the arrangements previously mentioned were made, they go much further than the Supreme Allied Commander in recognizing the CLNAI as their representatives in the struggle in the North. They have succeeded by this agreement in exacting a certain measure of recognition of their own legality by the Committees in the North but the possibility cannot be overlooked that the Committees of Liberation or the component political parties would not abide by this agreement if circumstances seemed favourable for a political upheaval, which would either bring the Committees out as the Government of Italy or would wrest from the Government in Rome a measure of autonomy which might be in effect complete independence from Rome. The Italian Government was therefore anxious to establish as much contact as possible with the Committees in the North in order to be able to explain to them what was being accomplished in liberated Italy and what the Government proposed to do in the North when the Germans have been driven out. The Allied Governments were generally in favour of the establishment of such contacts and hoped that after liberation the Rome Government would be able to absorb representatives from the North and thereby become representative and therefore stronger.

The problem facing the Allied Commission therefore was as follows: we must endeavour on the liberation of the North to reconcile the needs of Military Government with the aspirations of the political leaders of the Committees of Liberation to self-government. At the same time, we must bolster the authority of the Italian Government in Rome in order that it may be able to administer the Northern territories once Allied Military Government was withdrawn. The solution of this problem might well be found to lie in the absorption at a very early date of members of the local Committees of National Liberation into the civil administration operating under Allied Military Government. If Regional Commissioners arrived in the North and bluntly informed the Committees of National Liberation that their task was accomplished and that they might now disperse and if, after that, Prefects, Sindaci and other administrative officers were imported from the South or even from other localities in the North, the disappointment, the antagonism even, of the Committees of Liberation would be great. The danger of setting up local administrations composed of Italians who would not be acceptable to the patriot organisations who had been struggling against the Germans for so long could not be over emphasized. It was not implied that every local Committee of National Liberation should automatically be confirmed as the local administration, but it was urged that Regional Commissioners should, wherever possible, decide to make appointments in favour of the members of the Committees rather than in favour of strangers from other parts of Italy. If the local Committees of Liberation were installed at once as the local administration, many of the problems of

If the local Committees of Liberation were installed at once as the local administration, many of the problems of maintaining law and order would never arise. It would be easier to collect arms from the patriots and to disband them. It would be easier to exploit the local resources of the country in the work of reconstruction and the work of feeding the population. It would be easier to bring together the former patriot organisations and the Italian Government and it would be easier to prepare the ground against the time when the Government in Rome could take over the administration of the North.

Mr. Hopkinson realised that the lack of precise information about personalities in the North due to the clandestine nature of their activities in recent months would make it difficult for Regional Commissioners to assess the relative claims of members of the Committees of Liberation to participate in local government. But in order in some measure to offset this disability, he hoped to be able to compile in the next few weeks a sort of "who's who" which might prove useful to Regional Commissioners in the task of selection.

In a discussion which followed Brigadier Upjohn, VP Civil Affairs Section, said a letter had been received from the Prime Minister which suggested an opposite view to the account given by Mr. Hopkinson. The letter suggested that certain named Prefects be put forward for appointment in the North. He thought this was a dangerous policy.

Col. Poletti, R.C. LAZIO-UMBRIA Region, considered that men coming up to fill appointments in the North would cause resentment and trouble in the local administrations. AMG must be absolutely free to decide appointments on the spot. Brig. Dunlop, R.C. SOUTHERN Region, said Bonomi wanted to appoint career men as Prefects. The CLN should be asked for names.

The Executive Commissioner said that in making the initial appointments in AMG territory AMG officers should be bound by the policy enunciated by Mr. Hopkinson: the decision of the Italian Government to send to the North men of administrative experience and known to the Government, was natural and we could and probably would fall back on some of the men so selected. But we could not accept the principle of naming the Prefects before liberation. He also emphasized the necessity of Army AMGs consulting Provincial and Regional Commissioners when making appointments in local government.

Personnel.

The Deputy Executive Commissioner, Col. Fiske, referred to memorandum, 7002/98/EC of 7 March, which was issued to the meeting. We now had approximately 900 British and 700 American officers which included 200 British officers for AUSTRIA. It was recently decided that Allied Commission would furnish 168 American officers for the same purpose. As a result American officers had been reduced to 532. Taking the foregoing figures as a basis, an allocation of officers in Regions had been drawn up. We should have the services of the officers earmarked for AUSTRIA until such time as they were needed. We would get approximately 60 additional American officers from combat and military formations and these officers were being trained and made available for military government. A training school would commence at a time and on completion of their

We now had approximately 900 British and 700 American officers which included 200 British officers for AUSTRIA. It was recently decided that Allied Commission would furnish 168 American officers for the same purpose. As a result American officers had been reduced to 532. Taking the foregoing figures as a basis, an allocation of officers in Regions had been drawn up. We should have the services of the officers earmarked for AUSTRIA until such time as they were needed. We would get approximately 60 additional American officers from combat and military formations and these officers were being trained and made available for military government. A training school would commence at a time and on completion of their

The Deputy Executive Commissioner stated that our W.D. transport was below establishment. Our G/O had been increased by 750 but this meant increasing the number of requisitioned vehicles and we were endeavouring to obtain restoration of authority for hiring which would be a satisfactory solution to the problem. Vehicles from the South were being serviced and re-allocated to Northern Regions according to their needs.

Brig. Graftey-Smith, Chief Financial Adviser, said there was no financial obstacle to the Commission hiring vehicles.

R.C. EMILIA Region, raised the question of the implementation of Italian Government decrees in AMG territory. Executive Commissioner stated that Heads of Sections advised the Chief Commissioner as to whether decrees should apply to AMG territory or not; this was a policy decision made by HQ.

VP Civil Affairs Section pointed out there was nothing automatic about implementation of this policy with respect to any particular decree. It was not feasible to have a decree implemented in one Region and not in another. If there was doubt about any decree, it need not be implemented until after consultation. (1) 300 gram ration and price of bread and pasta.

Col. Legg, Food Sub-Commission, reported that an Administrative Memorandum had been prepared setting out the basic formula on which the economic price of bread had been established. The 300 gram ration became effective throughout all Italian Government territory on 1 March and in AMG territory on 12 March. It comprised 200 grams bread and 80 grams pasta per diem issued weekly or bi-monthly. All cereals to be milled for human consumption would be controlled by the Consorzio Agrario through the medium of the local Consorzio. All expenses relative to the milling, transportation etc. of the grain would be borne by the Consorzio. The price for milling had been established at between 60-70 lire per quintal. The price of flour ex-mill 1396.50 lire per quintal. In AMG territory the Provincial Commissioner would approve the price of bread as submitted to him by the Consorzio. The Administrative Memorandum referred to would be sent out that day.

It was stated that the price would vary with local economic conditions, in LEGGE the economic price found its level at 15.5 lire per kilo, BARI 16.5, NAPLES 17.00. There would be price fixing committees in Provinces which would arrive at the cost of transport etc.

Chief Financial Adviser asked Regional Commissioners if the Government bonus of about 95 lire was sufficient to fix the cost at 16 lire per kilo. He thought the price would go up to 18.00. Brig. Dunlop said it would take some little time before they could work out the costs.

Col. Legg said that the 'impact' ration in Northern Provinces would depend on the transportation available to move forward the stockpiles. It was hoped to establish an 'impact' ration of 100 grams from imported supplies plus whatever supplies were found on the ground, and to establish a 200 gram ration in LIGURIA. Also to strike a medium between the lowest and highest price of bread not higher than 18. Regional Commissioners should establish a price for bread immediately on entering the North and for their guidance further study would be given to the subject.

Arising out of this there was discussion on the activities of PWB. It was felt that Regional Commissioners should know what policy and propaganda was being put out in their Regions.

PR Branch

The Acting President, summarising, said that when the Armies were moving forward PWB was paramount in its own sphere but in the event of a surrender or collapse in the North it should cease its activities or they should be transferred to AC guidance. He directed that the PRO should work out a standing arrangement with PWB which could be referred to AMHQ.

7. Monthly Reports.

Executive Commissioner said that abridged monthly reports of Regions and Sub-Commissions were not of a very high standard. It was required to give a concise general picture of the work and achievements of AC over a period of one month for LONDON and WASHINGTON.

Full length reports should not be more than ten pages in length.

"Attachment of AMG Officers.

Colonel Fiske, VP Establishment Section, stated that the Commanding General PBS had suggested that AMG officers stationed at the Headquarters of Base Sections, Districts and Areas might profitably be attached to the staffs of these formations as G-5 Sections. AMHQ forwarded the suggestion with the comments of G-4 Section. After consideration the Commission replied to the effect that attachment did not appear practicable but that the closest possible cooperation with respective military formations was enjoined upon all AMG personnel."

appreciation of the good work carried out by the Regional Commissioners and their Staffs with special reference to Southern Region, Sicily and Sardinia who were about to close.

Executive Commissioner stressed the news value, from the Commission's point of view, of those areas which had been liberated for some time where the results of rehabilitation work could be observed.

REF. 165.4.09

6th March, 1945

SUBJECT: A/President's Conference, 6th March, 1945.

TO: Executive Commissioner

Reference your 216/51/EC dated 1st March, 1945.

1. The only point that this Sub-Commission has to raise is: "Implementation given to permission to open civil communication services".
2. The point is that frequently, in fact generally, there is some local objection to the opening of civil communications services in new areas, by Fifth or Eighth Armies or by Regional or Provincial Commissioners. I should like to make it clear that clearance is always obtained by this office from either A.F.H.Q. or 15th Army Group military security offices before services are opened and that there should be no other obstacle to opening of these services.
3. The point is not of great importance and can be omitted if time is short.
