1. Enclosed is copy of our signal informing you that Ancona warehouse complains that cars have been coming in without prior signal advice of their departure and without packing list showing who shipped the supplies and what was originally loaded.

2. Signals are to be sent off advising the consignee or AC of the receiving province of the numbers and contents of cars dispatched. A packing list is also to be mailed in each car showing shipper, consignee and details of cars contents.

3. We are listing below the numbers of cars Ancona reports having received without packing lists showing contents. They do not know the station from which the cars were shipped although they believe they came from Calabria. Please advise AC Warehouse Ancona, Att. Capt. Kelly of the station of origin and the original contents of the cars.
