2. In our signal 4449 of 6 October we requested that you load not over half of amount we thought available of each item as follows:

Commodity	Amount Thought Available	Amount To Be Loaded
Meat & M & V	400	200
Dry Veg.	550	275
Soup	700	350 825

3. In our signal 4691 of 11 October we requested that you only load the items and quantities requested in our signal 4449 because the supplies must be reloaded Naples to Rome.

4. Your letter of 9 October indicates changes in tonnage available which we have noted. It will be satisfactory to us if you ship either 700 tons or 825 tons on the Bradonfield. However, we prefer not to receive cheese on this ship as we would rather it was shipped directly to Civita-vecchia.
