SUBJECT: EM/ORs at Truck Pools in Italian Government Territory.

TO : Economic Section.

1. There has been approved and left remaining on temporary duty in Italian Government Territory certain Transportation Officers to supervise the operations of the Truck Pools and the maintenance of the vehicles, which are the property of the United States and British Governments, until such time as they vehicles are turned over to the Italian Government.

2. No provisions have been made for the retention of any EM/ORs to assist in the maintenance of the vehicles at these pools, which is a responsibility of the Allied Commission, and the EM/ORs who have been on duty there are being withdrawn.

3. Employed by the Weicker Transfer and Storage Co., Denver Colo.

This is the largest warehouse and transportation company in Colorado, operating two commercial and household goods warehouses in Denver and one warehouse in Pueblo, Colorado.

Operated in 1940 approx 350 trucks -from 1 1/2 ton Pick Up to the ton units handling power shovels, boilers, ect. Operated scheduled common carrier truck line covering the entire State. The bulk of the trucks and trailers were stationed in Denver and Pueblo.

Employed in 1929 in Pueblo, Colorado in the general office. Later transferred in the Rate Traffic Department and remained there for 6 years. In that time received a thorough in Inter and Intra State Rate and Traffic work. Transferred from the Rate Department to the Dispatchers Office in Denver. This office handled movements of city trucks and road trucks? The road trucks operated on scheduled runs. The city trucks - approx 200 in Denver -Handled local drayage, pick up and delivery for the company-owned freight lines, freight distribution for two of the major carloading companies, Acme and National, ordinary distribution for commercial accounts from warehouse stocks and carload distribution, local and transcontinental house hold moves.

The dispatch office also handled estimates-bids for movements of contractors and highway maintenance equipment and various transport jobs classified as "heavy work" This dispatch office also worked in conjunction with the company garage in handling truck coast and was responsible for proper transmittal to the Accounting Department.

Resigned from Weicker in 1940 to accept a better position in the Traffic Department of the Phelps Dodge Corp. who had just started operations in a large open-pit copper mine in Morenci Arizona.

My work was entirely of rate and traffic nature.

Enlisted in Army 1942 and was assigned to Ordnance. Arrived overseas and was assigned to Ordnance Section. Headquarters MBS.

Have thorough knowledge of Ordnance procedure of requisitioning and storage and am familiar and have worked with Ordnance S.N.I's.

To: Merritt H. Taylor:

Sims is a good man; joined us only recently but has proved his worth many times. He is in line for promotion to Sgt. when vacancy occurs. If you can use him to advantage, I will be willing to let him go. He has requested the transfer to permit him to return to the work with which he is most familiar.
