ANALYSIS OF PROPOSED

GRAIN MOVEMENTS

419/2

Cross Shipment	Explanation
1. Ancona to Bari, Brindisi, Lecce and Macerata to ACC North	1. ACC North grain is being stock piled as a reserve for the North. Storehouse space of Macerata must be employed. Likewise, movement may never occur as grain may not be required in North.
2. Pesaro to Rome and Ancona to ACC North	2. There is some grain spoiling in Pesaro and to save it we are shipping it to Rome. It can not be used in the north at present.
3. Campobasso to Chieti and Ancona, Macerata, Ascoli To Apulia.	3. The movement Campobasso to Chieti is going on now before Ortona-Ancona line is open and before shipments south can commence. 427
4. Foggia to Rome and ANCona, Perugia, Terni shipments to Frosinone and Littoria	4. Shipments south to Frosinone and Littoria are wheat whereas shipments Foggia to Rome are pasta flour. Rome has insufficient milling capacity and must use some of Foggia's capacity.
5. Siena to Lucca and Leghorn (imported wheat) to Firenze	5. It is contemplated that Siena to Lucca move will be by lorry.
6. Naples to Benevento and Foggia to Naples	6. A real cross shipment but the move Foggia to Naples is already complete (allocation used up)
6. Matera to Reggio and Crotone (imported grain) to Cosenza	7. Reggio is a ticklish Prov. to feed and because arrival of ships is not regular some wheat has been made available in Matera, the nearest exporting province.

Storehouse space of Macerata must be employed. Likewise, movement may never occur as grain may not be required in North.

2. There is some grain spoiling in Pesaro and to save it we are shipping it to Rome. It can not be used in the north at present.

3. The movement Campobasso to Chieti is going on now before Crtona-Ancona line is open and before shipments south can commence.

427

4. Shipments south to Frosinone and Littoria are wheat whereas shipments Foggia to Rome are pasta flour. Rome has insufficient milling capacity and must use some of Foggia's capacity.

5. It is contemplated that Siena to Lucca move will be by lorry.

6. A real cross shipment but the move Foggia to Naples is already complete (allocation used up)

7. Reggio is a ticklish Prov. to feed and because arrival of ships is not regular some wheat has been made available in Matera, the nearest exporting province.
