These tonnagees should be kept in mind.
You can, however, allocate them against particular ports but note should be taken for each month etc

SUBJECT : Liaison with CIR.

Ref. complaint from CIR, contained in COM 304 of 23 Nov. that they are not being kept informed of advance shipping information on YT programme. Actually, this Sub-Commission is also in the dark on this matter, since little or no advance information has been received by us. All information that has been received is passed on to I.C.E. who can be instructed to keep CIR in the picture.

CIR, however, are not so much interested in the ships arriving, as in particular items of the cargo, all the details of which are now centralised with Document Section, Requisition Branch, that branch already has a representative of I.C.E. working with them to watch I.C.E.'s interests. It is suggested that CIR might be invited to attach a representative there also, to watch for items in which they are interested.

SUBJECT :- Bidding procedure for IT requisitions.

TO :- Economic Sec. (Supply Group.)

1. As you are aware, there is in existence an Import Programming and Port Reception Committee, to whom all bids are made in advance for tonnage allocation in Italian ports.

2. Sub-Commissions indicate their forward requirements for all ports. Reference GOS 294 (copy attached) which advises the expected monthly deliveries from December to April of 1 million cement bags. Could this Sub-Commission please be advised which Sub-Commission or organization will bid for tonnage for cargoes programmed under IT requisitions?

3. It is important that tonnages for raw and other materials should be included for consideration with other cargoes from various sources. Failing this, delays to shipping may occur if ports are congested due to prior information about future shipments not being advised.
