A copy of this letter has been sent for the knowledge to Ing. Bracci, I.S.R. Stores Dept.

2. It is understood that, according to your instructions, the a/m Chief Commissioner issued on 9 August 1945 the delivery order covering a stock of 30 tons of nails, flat head, to be furnished by Soc. IIVA, Torre Annunziata.

3. The work could have only be started when the milling plates spares were received from Milan by the a/m plant; but, when the nails had to be delivered, the British Control Officer (80 LBN) at the factory refused to give authority for the collection as the production was frozen to meet requirements of Allied Forces.

4. Also the new British HQ 8 R.S (P) F.R.N. 2476 C.M.T. at Castellammare di Stabia, succeeded to the a/m 80 L.B.N. in the supervision of IIVA plant at Torre Annunziata, refused to give authority for the delivery of these nails, as they did not recognize the ^{validity} validity of the delivery order issued by the Chief Commissioner of Naples Municipality.
