SUBJECT : Val di Neto Railway.

TO : Capt. B.W. Boddy c/o Capo Compartimento Reggio.

Reference is to your letter 5 July 45.

(a) Batteries :

Latest news is that batteries for Val di Neto Railway were to be delivered by road to Bologna railhead on 9 July. ISR Traction section have undertaken to forward to Crotone with an escort. A signal will be sent you as soon as freight car numbers are known.

(b) Increase in freight rates.

General Inspectorate report that a signal was received from Industrial Provincial Association of Catanzaro concerning an increase in rates on the Val di Neto Railway, and the local representative of the Inspectorate has been instructed to invite the Railway Direction to present a regular application direct to the Ministry. Said Railway Direction appear to be particularly dumb, and they must be informed that the period of Allied nursing over every item of this kind has past. Please inform them to get together with the local representative of the General Inspectorate on the matter.

(c) Boots, clothing, etc.

The Ministry are dealing with a request from the Val di Neto for shoes, cement and mecrapine. Positive action for 104 pairs of shoes is taking place, and for cement, but mecrapine tablets are obtainable in open market. Stores Officer has written you on this subject.

(d) Wagon for Acid to or from Portici.

It is noted you will be able to handle this matter locally.

By Command of Rear Admiral STONE:

Director
