On Thursday 15th February 1945, a telephone message was received at this Section Office from the R.T.O. ANCONA Station, to the effect that Railway Wagon n° D.R. 17626, consigned to A.C.C. ANCONA, ex NAPLES, had been pilfered.

Upon receipt of this information, I immediately went to the Railway Station, and there saw the wagon in question. A hole had been made in the roof sufficiently large enough to allow the free passage of a human body. There was also a smaller hole, which had been made some considerable time previously, and undoubtedly was already there when this wagon was loaded. Through the smaller hole, the person responsible had been able to ascertain the contents of the wagon, obviously to this was the fact the corner of a packet, directly beneath the hole had been torn open and a shirt pulled out. Strewn about the wagon were boy-shirts, and womens night-gowns. Each bore a small tag, reading, "AMERICAN RED CROSS", in red letters.

It has been ascertained that the extent of the loss is 45 boy-shirts, and 30 womens night-gowns.

Five wagons in all were consigned to A.C.C., and two Carabinieri, GIULI Sente and PAOLINETTI Luigi, of the COMPAGNIE TRIBUNALE, NAPLES, had escorted the wagons throughout the journey. Upon arrival at ANCONA, the pilfered wagon was next to the one in which the escort was travelling, but it had not been in that position all the time.

On Thursday 15th February 1945, a telephone message was received at this Section Office from the R.T.O. ANCONA Station, to the effect that Railway Wagon no D.R. 17626, consigned to A.O.C. ANCONA, ex NAPLES, had been pilfered.

Upon receipt of this information, I immediately went to the Railway Station, and there saw the wagon in question. A hole had been made in the roof sufficiently large enough to allow the free passage of a human body. There was also a smaller hole, which had been made some considerable time previously, and undoubtedly was already there when this wagon was loaded. Through the smaller hole, the person responsible had been able to ascertain the contents of the wagon, obvious proof to this was the fact the corner of a packet, directly beneath the hole had been torn open and a shirt pulled out. Still about the wagon were boy-shirts, and womens night-gowns. Each bore a small tag, reading, "AMERICAN RED CROSS", in red letters.

It has been ascertained that the extent of the loss is 45 boy-shirts, and 30 womens night-gowns.

Five wagons in all were consigned to A.O.C., and two Carabinieri, GIULI Sante and PAOLETTI Luigi, of the COMPAGNIE TRIBUNALE, NAPLES, had escorted the wagons throughout the journey. Upon arrival at ANCONA, the pilfered wagon was next to the one in which the escort was travelling, but it had not been in that position all the time.

When questioned by me, the Carabinieri stated that from NAPLES to ROME, three wagons were in the centre of the train and the other two including the pilfered wagon, were at the end. When asked why they had not separated in order to guard these waggon, they stated they could not get into either of them as they were wired. It was also revealed that this train was two days at ROME.

Obviously this theft occurred when the train was stationary, and it can also be assumed during the hours of darkness. Therefore, had the escort performed their duties, appropriately, and in relationship with these waggons, separated accordingly, it is doubtless that the pilferage would not have occurred.

From the attached correspondence, it will be seen, that the escorts thought the pilferage to have occurred between NALLES and ROME. In view of this may copies of this report be forwarded to the appropriate S.I.B. Sections for the necessary action.

Sub : Shortage on rail shipments

To : P. & W. Division (Attn. Major Klein)

Ref : TW/23/I

Railcar no 92780 which arrived here 21 February 45 had the following shortages : -

39 prs ladies tennis socks
156 " mens socks
9 " childrens shoes
2 Boys flannel shirts

The railcar was sealed on arrival. Unloaded under military supervision, it appears that this was not a case of pilferage but shortage on issue from Naples.

In one instance a sack was marked as mens socks but upon investigation proved to contain mostly womens socks.
I request that the system of issuing of this clothing at Naples be looked into.
